and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief;

18 (Who hitherto waited in [p] the king's gate eastward:) they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, (of the house of his father,) the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their [q] fathers, being over the host of the LORD, were keepers of the entry.

20 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the [r] ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was [s] with him.

21 And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these, which were chosen to be porters in the gates, were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages; whom [t] David and [u] Samuel the seer † did ordain in their set office.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, namely, the house of the [x] tabernacle, by wards.

24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them.

26 For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their set office, and were over the [y] chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

27 And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every † morning pertained to them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the [z] ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.

30 And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the first-born of Shallum the Korahite, had the set office over the things that were made in the [a] pans.

32 And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites were over the [b] shew-bread, to prepare it every † sabbath.

33 And these are the singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the [c] chambers were free; for they † were employed in that work day and night.

34 These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations: these dwelt at Jerusalem.

35 ¶ And in [d] Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whose ‖ wife's name was Maachah:

36 And his first-born son Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and [e] Ner, and Nadab, 37 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren.

39 And Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat Saul; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal.

40 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal: and Merib-baal begat Micah.

41 And the sons of Micah were, Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and [f] Ahaz.

42 And Ahaz begat ‖ Jarah: and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza;

43 And Moza begat Binea; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

44 And Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and ‖ Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

CHAPTER X.

2 Saul's overthrow....8 The Philistines triumph over Saul.

NOW the [a] Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew [b] Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul.

3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the [c] archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and [d] abuse me. But his armour-bearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his [e] three sons, and [f] all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the [g] valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And when they had [h] stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their [i] idols, and to the people.

10 And they put his armour in the house of their [k] gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

11 ¶ And when all [l] Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul,

12 They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 ¶ So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, even against [m] the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for [n] asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to inquire of it;

14 And [o] inquired not of the LORD: therefore he [p] slew him, and [q] turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse.

CHAPTER XI.

David by a general consent is made king at Hebron.

THEN [a] all Israel [b] gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 And, moreover, in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt ‖ feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel.

Before CHRIST 1048.

3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they [c] anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

4 And [d] David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt [e] not come hither. Nevertheless David took the [f] castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

6 And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. So Joab the [g] son of Zeruiah went [h] first up, and was chief.

7 And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called [i] it The city of David.

8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

9 So David waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was [k] with him.

10 ¶ These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, [l] according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam a Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against [m] three hundred, slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the [n] Ahohite, who was one of the [o] three mighties:

13 He was with David at [p] Pas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people [q] fled from before the Philistines.

14 And they [r] set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD [s] saved them by a great deliverance.

15 Now three of the thirty captains [t] went down to the rock of David, into the cave of [u] Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' [x] garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed, and said, || Oh, that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!

18 And the three [y] brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD,

19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy? for † with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest.

20 And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of [z] the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and || had a name among the three.

21 Of the three, he was more honourable than the two, for he was their captain; howbeit he attained not to [a] the first three.

22 [b] Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of [c] Kabzeel, † who had done many acts; he slew [d] two lion-like men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day.

Before CHRIST 1047.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, [e] five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with [f] his own spear.

24 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three [g] mighties.

25 Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

26 Also the valiant men of the armies were, [h] Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,

27 Shammoth the [i] Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

28 Ira the son of Ikkesh the [k] Tekoite, Abiezer the Antothite,

29 Sibbecai the [l] Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite,

31 Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah, that pertained to the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the [m] Pirathonite,

32 Hurai of the brooks of [n] Gaash, Abiel the [o] Arbathite,

33 Azmaveth the [p] Baharumite, Eliahba the [q] Shaalbonite,

34 The sons of Hashem the Gizonite, [r] Jonathan the son of Shage the Hararite,

35 Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of || Ur,

36 Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai,

38 [s] Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Haggeri,

39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the [t] Berothite, the armour-bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah,

40 Ira the [u] Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

41 Uriah the [x] Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai,

42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,

43 Hanan the son of [y] Maachah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,

44 [z] Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jehiel the sons of Hothan the [a] Aroerite,

45 [b] Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite,

46 [c] Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, 47 Eliel, and [d] Obed, and Jasiel the Mesobaite.

6 Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites,

7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of [i] Jeroham of Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David, into the [k] hold to the wilderness, men of might, and men of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose [l] faces were like the faces of lions, and were as † swift as the roes upon the mountains;

9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliah the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh.

14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: one ‖ of the least was over a hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15 These are they that went over Jordan in the [m] first month, when it had overflown [n] all his banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east and toward the west.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come † peaceably unto me to help me, [o] my heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong [p] in my hands, the God of our fathers look [q] thereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then the spirit † came upon Amasai, who was chief [r] of the captains, and he said, Thine [s] are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to [t] thy helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them [u] captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle; but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines, upon advisement, sent him away, saying, He will fall [x] to his master Saul, to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to [y] Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David [z] against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty [a] men of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time, day by day, there came to David to help him, until it was a [b] great host, like the host of God.

23 And these are the numbers of the bands, that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn [c] the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.

24 The children of Judah, that bare shield and spear were six [d] thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war.

25 Of the children of [e] Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of [f] Levi, four thousand and six hundred.

27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred;

28 And [g] Zadok, a younger man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains.

Before CHRIST 1048.

29 And of the children of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the † greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the children of Ephraim, twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, † famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had [h] understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred, and all their brethren were at their commandment.

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could keep rank: they were not of † double heart.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them, with shield and spear, thirty and seven thousand.

35 And of the Danites, expert in war, twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, forty thousand.

37 And on the [i] other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, a hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three days, [k] eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover, they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar, and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen; and ‖ meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was [l] joy in Israel.

CHAPTER XIII.

David fetcheth the ark from Kirjath-jearim.

AND David [a] consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it [b] seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are [c] left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we [d] inquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David [e] gathered all Israel together, from [f] Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from [g] Kirjath-jearim.

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to [h] Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that [i] dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

7 And they † carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drave the cart.

Before CHRIST 1045.

8 And David and all Israel played [k] before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 And when they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza [l] put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.

10 And the [m] anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, [n] because he put his hand to the ark: and there he [o] died before God.

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

13 So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom [p] in his house three months. And the LORD [q] blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Hiram's kindness to David....2 His felicity.

NOW [a] Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters to build him a house.

2 And David perceived that [b] the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel; for his kingdom was [c] lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.

3 ¶ And David took [d] more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters.

4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; [e] Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 And Ibhar, and [f] Elishua, and [g] Elpalet,

6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 And Elishama, and [h] Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

8 ¶ And when the Philistines heard that [i] David was anointed king over all Israel, [k] all the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the [l] valley of Rephaim.

10 And David [m] inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thy hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by my hand, like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place || Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their [n] gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burnt with fire.

13 And the Philistines [o] yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David inquired again of God: and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and [p] come upon them over against the mulberry-trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear [q] a sound of going in the [r] tops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the [s] fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the [t] fear of him upon all nations.

CHAPTER XV.

1 David ordereth the priests and Levites to bring the ark from Obed-edom...25 He performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy....29 Michal despiseth him.

AND David made him houses in the [a] city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a [b] tent.

2 Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the [c] Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David [d] gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the [e] children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of [f] Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren, a hundred and twenty.

6 Of the sons of [g] Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren, two hundred and twenty.

7 Of the sons of [h] Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren, a hundred and thirty.

8 Of the sons of [i] Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren, two hundred.

9 Of the sons of [k] Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren, fourscore.

10 Of the sons of [l] Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren, a hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for [m] Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab,

12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: [n] sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye [o] did it not at the first, the LORD our God made [p] a breach upon us, for that we sought him not [q] after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites [r] sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the [s] Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders, with the staves thereon, [t] as Moses commanded, according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the [u] singers with instruments of music, psalteries, and harps, and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed [x] Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, [y] Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, [z] Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah; and Obed-edom and Jeiel the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on || Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the [a] Sheminith to excel.

25 ¶ So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom [c] with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped [d] the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered [e] seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers ; David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with [f] sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal, the daughter of Saul, looking out at a window, saw king David dancing and playing : and she [g] despised him in her heart.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 David's festival sacrifice....7 His psalm of thanksgiving.

SO they [a] brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it : and they offered [b] burnt-sacrifices and peace-offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt-offerings and the peace-offerings, he [c] blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he [d] dealt to every one of Israel, both man and [e] woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to [f] record, and to thank and praise the [g] LORD God of Israel :

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithia, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom ; and Jeiel with psalteries and with harps ; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals ;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priest with trumpets [h] continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 ¶ Then on that day [i] David delivered [k] first this psalm, to thank the LORD, into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 Give [l] thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, [m] make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk [n] ye of his wondrous works.

10 Glory ye in his holy name : let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

11 Seek the LORD and [o] his strength, seek his [p] face continually.

12 Remember [q] his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the [r] judgments of his mouth ;

13 O ye seed of [s] Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob his [t] chosen ones.

14 He is the LORD our God ; his judgments are in all the [u] earth.

15 Be ye [x] mindful always of his covenant, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations ;

16 Even of the [y] covenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Isaac ;

17 And hath [z] confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance ;

19 When ye were but few, even a few, and [a] strangers in it.

20 And when they went from [b] nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people ;

21 He suffered [c] no man to do them wrong ; yea, he [d] reproved kings for their sakes,

22 Saying, Touch not mine [e] anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

23 Sing unto the LORD all the earth ; shew forth from day to day his salvation.

24 Declare his glory among the heathen ; his marvellous works among all nations.

25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised : he also is to be feared [f] above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people are idols : but the LORD [g] made the heavens.

27 Glory [h] and honour are in his presence ; strength and gladness are in his place.

28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD [i] glory and strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name : bring an offering, and come before him ; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth : the world also shall be [k] stable, that it be not moved.

31 Let the [l] heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice : and let men say among the nations, The LORD [m] reigneth.

32 Let the sea † roar, and the fulness thereof ; let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 O give [n] thanks unto the LORD ; for he is good : for his mercy endureth for ever.

35 And [o] say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and [p] gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

36 Blessed [q] be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, [r] Amen, and praised the LORD.

37 ¶ So he left there, before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as † every day's work required :

38 And Obed-edom, with their brethren, threescore and eight ; Obed-edom also, the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, to be porters :

39 And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD in the [s] high place that was at Gibeon,

40 To offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt-offering † continually, morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel :

41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name,

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Nathan promiseth David a blessing....16 David's prayer.

NOW it came to pass, as David sat in his [a] house, that David said to Nathan [b] the prophet, Lo, [c] I dwell in a house of cedars, but the [d] ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do [e] all that is in thy heart; for [f] God is with thee.

3 And it [g] came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou [h] shalt not build me a house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but have gone [i] from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the [k] judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me a house of cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the [l] LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even from [m] following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel;

8 And [n] I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have [o] cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them [p] any more, [q] as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover, I will [r] subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee, that the [s] LORD will build thee a house.

11 And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired, that thou must [t] go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed [u] after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will stablish [x] his kingdom.

12 He [y] shall build me a house, and I will stablish his throne [z] for ever.

13 I will be his [a] father, and he shall be my son; and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:

14 But I will settle him in [b] my house and in my kingdom for ever; and his throne shall be established for [c] evermore.

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, [d] Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast [e] regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for [f] thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for thy [g] servant's sake, and [h] according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

20 O LORD, there is [i] none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have [k] heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth [l] is like thy people Israel, whom God [m] went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make [n] thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, [o] let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

25 For thou, [p] O my God, † hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him a house; therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast [q] promised this goodness unto thy servant;

27 Now, therefore, let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed [r] for ever.

CHAPTER XVIII.

David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites.

NOW after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took [a] Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines. 1040.

2 And he smote Moab: and the Moabites became [b] David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 And David smote [c] Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to stablish his dominion by the river [d] Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand [e] chariots, and [f] seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot-horses, but [g] reserved of them a hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David [h] slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in [i] Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD [k] preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the [l] shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to [m] Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith [n] Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 ¶ Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah,

10 He sent Hadoram his son to king David, † to inquire of his welfare, and † to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer had war with Tou;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

11 Them also king David [o] dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that [p] he brought from all these nations; from Edom and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from [q] Amalek.

12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites, in the [r] valley of Salt, eighteen thousand.

13 And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 So David reigned over all Israel, and [s] executed judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And [t] Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and [u] Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the [x] priests; and Shavsha was scribe;

17 And Benaiah the son of Jehoidah was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

CHAPTER XIX.

David sendeth messengers to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash.

NOW [a] it came to pass after this, that [b] Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his [c] son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, [d] because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, [e] to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, † Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and [f] to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and [g] shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst, hard by their [h] buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them; (for the men were greatly ashamed.) And the king said, Tarry at [i] Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves † odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired [k] thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people, who came and pitched before [l] Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent [m] Joab, and all the host of the [n] mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the [o] city; and [p] the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that the † battle was set against him before and behind, and chose out of all the choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of [q] Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt † help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 [r] Be of good courage, and [s] let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God; and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab, and the people that were with him, drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise [t] fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 And when the Syrians saw that they were † put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river; and [u] Shophach, the captain of the host of Hadarezer, went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and [x] passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men which fought in chariots, and [y] forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host.

19 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his [z] servants; neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon [a] any more.

CHAPTER XX.

Rabbah is besieged by Joab, and spoiled by David.

AND it came to pass, that † after the year was expired, at the time that [a] kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah; (but David [b] tarried at Jerusalem.) And Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 And David took the [c] crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with [d] saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes: even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 ¶ And it came to pass [e] after this, that there arose war at [f] Gezer with the Philistines, at which time Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Sippai, that was of the children of the giant: and they were [g] subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of [h] Jair slew Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear's staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And yet again [i] there was war at Gath, where was † a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of the giant.

7 But when he [k] defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they [l] fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER XXI.

David, tempted by Satan, forceth Joab to number the people.

AND [a] Satan stood up against Israel, and [b] provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go number Israel, from [c] Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, the LORD † make his people a hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 [d] Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab: wherefore Joab departed, and went [e] throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were [f] a thousand thousand and a hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them; for the king's word was [g] abominable to Joab.

7 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he [h] smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have [i] sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's [k] seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, [l] Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things: [m] choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad [n] came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Choose thee

12 Either three years' [o] famine; or three months to [p] be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now, therefore, advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for ‖ very great are his mercies: but let me [q] not fall into the hand of man.

14 So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel [r] seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he [s] repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having [t] a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem: then David and the elders of Israel, who were [u] clothed in sackcloth, [x] fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed: but as for these [y] sheep, what have they done? Let thy hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 Then the [z] angel of the LORD commanded [a] Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And David went up at [b] the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

20 And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him [c] hid themselves. Now Ornan was [d] threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked, and [e] saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor, and [f] bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, † Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD; thou shalt grant it me for the full price, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt-offerings, and the [g] threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat-offering: I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily [h] buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt-offerings without cost.

25 So David gave to Ornan for the place [i] six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven [k] by fire upon the altar of burnt-offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he [l] put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed [m] there.

29 For the [n] tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the [o] altar of the burnt-offering, were at that season in the high place at [p] Gibeon:

30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God: for he was [q] afraid, because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXII.

David instructeth Solomon in God's promises, and his duty in building the temple.

THEN David said, [a] This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt-offering for Israel.

2 And David commanded to gather together the [b] strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance [e] without weight;

4 Also cedar-trees in abundance: for the [d] Zidonians and they [e] of Tyre brought much cedar-wood to David.

5 And David said, [f] Solomon my son is [g] young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnifical, of fame and of glory [h] throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build [i] a house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in [k] my mind to build a house unto the name of the LORD [l] my God.

8 But the [m] word of the LORD came to me, saying, [n] Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made [o] great wars: thou shalt not build a house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

10 [p] He shall build a house for my name, and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will [q] establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, [r] the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD give thee [s] wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

13 [t] Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now, behold, in my [u] trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD ‖ a hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover, there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and the LORD be with thee.

17 David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

18 Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.

19 Now [x] set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God: arise, therefore, and ‖ build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, [y] to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the [z] name of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXIII.

David in his old age maketh Solomon king.

SO when David was [a] old and full of days, he [b] made Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 And he [c] gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of [d] thirty years and upward; and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were [e] officers and judges.

5 Moreover, four thousand were porters: and four thousand [f] praised the LORD with the instruments which I made (said David) to praise therewith.

6 And David [g] divided them into † courses among the sons of Levi, namely, [h] Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 ¶ Of the [i] Gershonites were ‖ Laadan and Shimei.

8 The [k] sons of Laadan; the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were, Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah † had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

12 ¶ The sons of [l] Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

13 The sons of [m] Amram; Aaron and Moses; and [n] Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify † the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto him, and [o] to bless in his name for ever.

14 Now concerning Moses the [p] man of God, [q] his sons were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer.

16 Of the [r] sons of Gershom, Shebuel was the chief.

17 And the sons of [s] Eliezer were, Rehabiah the chief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah † were very many.

18 Of the sons of [t] Izhar; [u] Shelomith the chief.

19 Of the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

20 Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah the first, and Jesiah the second.

21 ¶ [x] The sons of Merari; Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli; Eleazar and Kish.

22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but [y] daughters; and their brethren the sons of Kish [z] took them.

23 The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth, three.

24 ¶ These were the sons of [a] Levi, after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the [b] work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of [c] twenty years and upward.

25 For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given [d] rest unto his people, that they may dwell [e] in Jerusalem for ever:

26 And also unto the Levites; they shall [f] no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof.

27 For by the last words of David, the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above.

28 Because † their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron, for the [g] service of the house of the LORD, in the [h] courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God;

29 Both for the [i] shew-bread, and for the [k] fine flour for meat-offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size;

30 And to stand every [l] morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise [m] at even;

31 And to offer all [n] burnt-sacrifices unto the LORD,

CHAPTER XXIV.

The division of the sons of Aaron by lot into four and twenty orders.

NOW these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. [a] The sons of Aaron; Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

2 But [b] Nadab and Abihu died [c] before their father, and had [d] no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.

3 And David distributed them, both [e] Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and [f] Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their [g] offices in their service.

4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided: among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar, according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided [h] by lot, one sort with another: for the governors of the [i] sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the [k] scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the [l] son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one † principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

7 Now the first lot came forth to [m] Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

8 The third to [n] Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to [o] Abijah,

11 The ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,

12 The eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphses,

16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel,

17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul,

18 The three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah.

19 These were the [p] orderings of them in their service, to come into the house of the LORD, [q] according to their manner, under Aaron their father, [r] as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

20 ¶ And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: Of the sons of Amram; [s] Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah.

21 Concerning [t] Rehabiah; of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.

22 Of the Izharites; Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath.

23 And the sons of [u] Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah; of the sons of Michah; Shamir.

25 The brother of Michah was Isshiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah.

26 ¶ The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; [x] Beno.

27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri.

28 Of [y] Mahli came Eleazar, who had no [z] sons.

29 Concerning Kish; the son of Kish was Jerahmeel.

30 The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites, after the house of their fathers.

31 These likewise [a] cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron, in the presence of David the king, and Zadok and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, † even the principal fathers, over against their younger brethren.

CHAPTER XXV.

The number and offices of the singers.

MOREOVER, [a] David, and the [b] captains of the host, separated to the service of the sons of [c] Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should [d] prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals; and the number of the † workmen, according to their service, was;

2 Of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and || Asarelah, the sons of Asaph, under the hands of Asaph, which [e] prophesied † according to the order of the king.

3 Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the LORD.

4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth:

5 All these were the sons of Heman [f] the king's seer in the [g] words of God, to [h] lift up the horn. And [i] God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the hands of their father [k] for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God, according to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman.

7 So the number of them with their brethren, that were instructed in the [l] songs of the LORD, even all that were cunning, was [m] two hundred fourscore and eight.

8 And they cast lots, ward against [n] ward, † as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar.

9 Now, the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph; the second to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve:

10 The third to Zaccur he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

11 The fourth to Izri, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

12 The fifth to Nethaniah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

13 The sixth to Bukkiah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

14 The seventh to Jesharelah, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve:

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 The divisions of the porters....13 The gates assigned by lot.

CONCERNING the [a] divisions of the [b] porters : Of the Korhites was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.
2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the [c] first-born, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,
3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.
4 Moreover, the sons of [d] Obed-edom were Shemaiah the first-born, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth.
5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth ; for God [e] blessed ‖ him.
6 Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father : for they were [f] mighty men of valour.
7 The sons of Shemaiah ; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, [g] Elzabad, whose brethren were [h] strong men ; Elihu, and Semachiah.
8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom ; they, and their sons, and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom.
9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen.
10 Also [i] Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons ; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the first-born, yet [k] his father made him the chief,)
11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth : all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

12 Among these were the [l] divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards [m] one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.
13 And they cast lots, as well the [n] small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.
14 And the lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son (a wise counsellor) they cast lots, and his lot came out northward.
15 To Obed-edom southward ; and to his sons the house of Asuppim.
16 To [o] Shuppim and Hosah [p] the lot came forth westward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causeway of the [q] going up, ward against [r] ward.
17 [s] Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuppim two and two.
18 At ‖ Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar.
19 These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.
20 ¶ And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the [t] treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the [u] dedicated things.
21 As concerning the sons of Laadan : the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, even of Laadan the Gershonite, were Jehieli.
22 The sons of Jehieli ; Zetham, and Joel his brother, which were over the treasures of the house of the LORD.
23 Of the [x] Amramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites :
24 And [y] Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures.
25 And his brethren by Eliezer : Rehabiah his son and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.
26 Which Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which [z] David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated.
27 Out of the [a] spoils won in battles did they dedicate to maintain the house of the LORD.
28 And all that [b] Samuel the seer, and [c] Saul the son of Kish, and [d] Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated ; and whosoever had dedicated any thing, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren.
29 Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the [e] outward business over Israel, for [f] officers and [g] judges.
30 And of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward, [h] in all business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.
31 Among the Hebronites was Jerijah the chief, even among the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the [i] fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour at [k] Jazer of Gilead.
32 And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the [l] Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter [m] pertaining to God, and affairs of the king.

CHAPTER XXVII.

The twelve captains for every several month.

Before CHRIST cir. 1015.

NOW the children of Israel after their number, to wit, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers that [a] served the king in any matter of the courses, which came in and went out month by month, throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and four thousand.

2 Over the first course, for the first month, was [b] Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

3 Of the [c] children of Perez was the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month.

4 And over the course of the second month was || Dodai an Ahohite, and of his course was Mikloth also the ruler: in his course likewise were twenty and four thousand.

5 The third captain of the host, for the third month, was [d] Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a || chief priest: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

6 This is that Benaiah who was mighty among the [e] thirty, and above the thirty: and in his course was [f] Ammizabad his son.

7 The fourth captain, for the fourth month, was [g] Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

8 The fifth captain, for the fifth month, was [h] Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

9 The sixth captain, for the sixth month, was [i] Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

10 The seventh captain, for the seventh month, was Helez the || Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

11 The eighth captain, for the eighth month, was [k] Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the [l] Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

12 The ninth captain, for the ninth month, was [m] Abiezer the Anetothite, of the Benjamites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

13 The tenth captain, for the tenth month, was [n] Maharai the Netophathite, of the [o] Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

14 The eleventh captain, for the eleventh month, was [p] Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

15 The twelfth captain, for the twelfth month, was || Heldai the Netophathite, of [q] Othniel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

16 Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel; the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah:

17 Of the Levites, [r] Hashabiah the son of Kemuel: † of the Aaronites, [s] Zadok:

18 Of Judah, || Elihu, one of the brethren of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael.

19 Of Zebulun, [t] Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: of [u] Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel:

20 Of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah: of the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah:

21 Of the half tribe of Manasseh in [x] Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of [y] Abner:

22 Of Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 But David took not the number of them from [z] twenty years old and under: because the LORD had said he would increase Israel like to the [a] stars of the heavens.

24 [b] Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he [c] finished not, because there [d] fell wrath for it against Israel; neither was the number put in the account of the Chronicles of king David.

25 And over the [e] king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the store-houses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziah:

26 And over them that did the work of the field, for tillage of the ground, was Ezri the son of Chelub:

27 And † over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over the increase of the vineyards for the wine-cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite:

28 And over the olive-trees, and the [f] sycamore-trees that were in the low plains, was Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash:

29 And over the herds that fed in [g] Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai:

30 Over the [h] camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the [i] asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite:

31 And over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagarite. All these were the rulers of the [k] substance which was king David's.

32 Also Jonathan, David's [l] uncle, was a counsellor, a wise man, and a scribe: and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons.

33 And [m] Ahithophel was the king's counsellor: and Hushai the Archite was the king's [n] companion:

34 And [o] after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and [p] Abiathar: and the [q] general of the king's army was Joab.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

David encourageth Solomon to build the temple.

AND David [a] assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the [b] stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his [c] sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king [d] stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, [e] my brethren, and my people: As for me, I had in [f] my heart to build a house of [g] rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the [h] footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build a house for my name; because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed † blood.

4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me [i] before all the house of my father to be king over Israel [k] for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of [l] Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me, to make me king over all Israel:

5 And [m] of all my sons (for the LORD hath given me many sons) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, [n] Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my [o] courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover, I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my [f] commandments and my judgments as at this day.

8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God, that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 And thou, Solomon my son, [q] know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with [r] a perfect heart, and with a willing mind: for the LORD [s] searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build a house for the [t] sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 ¶ Then David gave to Solomon his son the [u] pattern of the porch, and of the [x] houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the [y] mercy seat,

12 And the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the [z] treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the [a] dedicated things.

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD.

14 He gave of [b] gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; [c] silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service:

15 Even the weight for the [d] candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof; and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of [e] shew-bread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver:

17 Also pure gold for the [f] flesh-hooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the [g] golden basons he gave gold by weight for every bason; and likewise silver by weight for every bason of silver:

18 And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the [h] chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 All this, said David, the LORD made me understand [i] in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong, and of good courage, and do it; fear not, nor be dismayed; for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not [k] fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

21 And, behold, the ‖ courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee, for all manner of workmanship, every willing skilful man, for any manner of service; also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

CHAPTER XXIX.

10 David's thanksgiving and prayer....26 His reign and death.

FURTHERMORE, David the king said unto [a] all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet [b] young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not [c] for man, but [d] for the LORD God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood: [e] onyx-stones, and stones to be set, [f] glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of [g] precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have [h] set my affection to the house of my God, I have, of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4 Even ‖ three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of [i] Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal:

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is [k] willing to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

6 ¶ Then the [l] chief of the fathers, and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the king's work, offered willingly,

7 And gave, for the service of the house of God, of gold, ‖ five thousand talents and ten thousand drams; and of silver, ten thousand talents; and of brass, eighteen thousand talents; and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered [m] willingly, because with [n] perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our Father, for ever and ever.

11 [o] Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine: thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honour come [p] of thee, and thou [q] reignest over all; and in thy hand is power and might, and in thy hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But [r] who am I, and what is my people, that we should be [s] able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and [t] of thine own have we given thee.

15 For we are [u] strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as [x] a shadow, and there is none abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared, to build thee a house for thy holy name, cometh of thy hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou [y] triest the heart

CHAPTER I.

Solomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God.

AND Solomon the son of David [a] was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was [b] with him, [c] and magnified him exceedingly.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the [e] high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the [f] tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses, the servant of the LORD, had made in the wilderness.

AND Solomon determined to build a house for the [a] name of the LORD, and a house [b] for his kingdom.

Before CHRIST 1015.

3 And Solomon sent to [f] Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him a house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I build a house to the [g] name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the [h] continual shew-bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God [i] above all gods.

6 But [k] who is able to build him a house, seeing the heaven and [l] heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him a house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now, therefore, [m] a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill [n] to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did [o] provide.

8 Send me also [p] cedar-trees, fir-trees, and [q] algum-trees, out of Lebanon; (for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon;) and, behold, [r] my servants shall be with thy servants,

9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be † wonderful great.

10 And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand † measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand [s] baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 Then Huram the king of Tyre † answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath [t] loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

12 Huram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, that [u] made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, † endued with prudence and understanding, that might build a house for the LORD, and a house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of [x] Huram my father's.

14 The [y] son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, † as much as thou shalt need; and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to [z] Joppa, and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 ¶ And Solomon numbered all the [a] strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them: and they were found a hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18 And he set threescore and ten thousand of them to be [b] bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work.

CHAPTER III.

The place and time of building the temple.

THEN Solomon [a] began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount [b] Moriah, where the LORD [c] appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of [d] Ornan the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build in the [e] second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 ¶ Now these are the things wherein Solomon was † instructed for the building of the house of God. The [f] length by cubits, after the [g] first measure, was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the [h] porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was a hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And the [i] greater house he ceiled with [k] fir-tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon [l] palm-trees and chains.

6 And he garnished the house with [m] precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of [n] Parvaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved [o] cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made † the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the [p] upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the most holy place he made two [q] cherubims of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 And the [r] wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were ‖ inward.

14 And he made the [s] vail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon.

15 Also he made before the house two [t] pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made a hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he [u] reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands [f] fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I [g] chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:

6 But I have chosen [h] Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be [i] over my people Israel.

7 Now it was [k] in the heart of David my father to build a house for the [l] name of the LORD God of Israel.

8 But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thy heart to build a house for my name, thou didst [m] well in that it was in thy heart:

9 Notwithstanding, thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy [n] loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on [o] the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel:

11 And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the [p] covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 ¶ And he stood before the altar of the LORD, in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread [q] forth his hands,

13 (For Solomon had made [r] a brazen scaffold of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the [s] court; and upon it he [t] stood, and [u] kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands towards heaven,)

14 And said, O LORD God of Israel, there is [x] no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants that [y] walk before thee with all their hearts:

15 Thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thy hand, as it is this day.

16 Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, † There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to [z] their way to walk in [a] my law, as thou hast walked before me.

17 Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18 (But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, [b] heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!)

19 Have respect, therefore, to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth † before thee:

20 That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth towards this place.

21 Hearken, therefore, unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make towards this place: hear thou from thy dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

22 If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house;

23 Then [c] hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him [d] according to his righteousness.

24 And if thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, [e] because they have sinned against thee, and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee in this house;

25 Then hear thou from the heavens, and [f] forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

26 When the heaven is [g] shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray towards this place, and confess thy name, and [h] turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them;

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast [i] taught them the good way wherein they should walk; and send rain upon the land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 If there be [k] dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies besiege them † in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness there be;

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this house;

30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only [l] knowest the hearts of the children of men;)

31 That they may [m] fear thee, to walk in thy ways so long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32 Moreover, concerning the stranger, which [n] is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched-out arm; if they come and pray in this house;

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel; and may know that † this house which I have built is called by thy name.

34 If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they [o] pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name;

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their ‖ cause.

36 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man which [p] sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they 42 O LORD God, [a] turn not away the face of thine anointed; remember the mercies of David thy servant.

CHAPTER VII.

God giveth to Solomon promises upon condition.

NOW when Solomon [a] had made an end of praying, the [b] fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; and the [c] glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 And the priests could [d] not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house.

3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they [e] bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered [f] a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priests [g] waited on their offices; the Levites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the [h] priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel [i] stood.

7 Moreover, Solomon [k] hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat.

8 Also, at the same time, Solomon kept [l] the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of [m] Hamath unto the [n] river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made a † solemn assembly: for they kept the [o] dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And on the [p] three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart, for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 Thus Solomon [q] finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he [r] prosperously effected.

12 And the LORD [s] appeared to Solomon [t] by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have [u] chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice.

13 If I [x] shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I [y] command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall [z] humble themselves, and [a] pray, and [b] seek my face, and [c] turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15 Now [d] mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent unto the prayer that is made in this place:

16 For now have I [e] chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.

17 And as for thee, if thou wilt [f] walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have [g] commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments;

18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

19 [h] But if ye [i] turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods and worship them;

20 Then will I [k] pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them: and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a by-word among all nations.

21 And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, [l] Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house?

22 And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: [m] therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Solomon's buildings....17 He fetcheth gold from Ophir.

AND it came to pass [a] at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house,

2 That the [b] cities which Huram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to [c] Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 And he built [d] Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the [e] store-cities which he built in [f] Hamath.

5 Also he built [g] Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars;

6 And [h] Baalath, and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and all the [i] chariot-cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and † all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, even [m] two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.

11 And Solomon [n] brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are † holy whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

12 ¶ Then Solomon offered burnt-offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built [o] before the porch, 17 ¶ Then went Solomon to [z] Ezion-geber, and to [a] Eloth, at the sea side in the land of Edom.

18 And [b] Huram sent him, by the hands of his servants, ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence [c] four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

CHAPTER IX.

The queen of Sheba admireth the wisdom of Solomon.

AND when the [a] queen of Sheba heard of the [b] fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he [c] told her not.

3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the [d] wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meat of his table, and the [e] sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his cup-bearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true [f] report which I heard in mine own land of thine acts, and of thy wisdom;

6 Howbeit, I believed not their words until I came, and mine eyes had seen it; and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou † exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 [g] Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom.

8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his [h] throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice.

9 And she gave the king [i] a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was [k] there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the [l] servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought algum-trees and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the algum-trees [m] terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, [n] besides that which she had brought unto the king: so she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

13 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold;

14 Besides that which chapmen and merchants brought. And [o] all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: [p] six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold; three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest [q] of Lebanon.

17 Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with [r] pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on † each side of the sitting-place, and two lions standing by the stays:

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 And all the drinking-vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram: every three years ‖ once came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22 And king Solomon [s] passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 And all the kings of the earth sought the [t] presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, (who was in Egypt, whither he [c] had fled from the presence of Solomon the king,) heard it, that Jeroboam [d] returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came, and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke [e] grievous; now, therefore, ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, [f] Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me, to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be † kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the [g] young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye, that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, [h] My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly: and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men,

14 And answered them after the [i] advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people; for the † cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent [k] Hadoram, that was over the [l] tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones that he died: but king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel [m] rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAPTER XI.

Rehoboam, preparing to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemaiah.

AND when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the [a] house of Judah and Benjamin a hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were [b] warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the [c] man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel [d] in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, ye shall not go up nor fight against [e] your brethren: return every man to his house; for this [f] thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and [g] built cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even [h] Bethlehem, and [i] Etam, and [k] Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 [l] And Gath, and [m] Mareshah, and [n] Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and [o] Lachish, and [p] Azekah,

10 And [q] Zorah, and [r] Ajalon, and [s] Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 (For the Levites left their suburbs, and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for [t] Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from [u] executing the priest's office unto the LORD:

15 And he ordained him [x] priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made.)

16 And [y] after them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as [z] set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for [a] three years they [b] walked in the way of David and [c] Solomon.

18 And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;

19 Which bare him children; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.

20 And after her he took [d] Maachah the daughter of Absalom, which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his [e] concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler [f] among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt † wisely, and [g] dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city; and he gave them victual in abundance. And he desired many wives.

CHAPTER XII.

Rehoboam, forsaking the Lord, is punished by Shishak.

AND it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had [a] strengthened himself, he [b] forsook the law of the LORD, and [c] all Israel with him.

2 And it came to pass, that, in the fifth year of Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, [d] because they had transgressed against the LORD,

3 With twelve hundred [e] chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the [f] Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the [g] fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have [h] forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king [i] humbled themselves; and they said, [k] The LORD is righteous.

7 And when the LORD [l] saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves, therefore I will [m] not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance; and my wrath [n] shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know [o] my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 So [p] Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had [q] made.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of [r] the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: † and also in Judah things went well.

13 So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his [s] name there. And his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because [t] he prepared not his heart to [u] seek the LORD.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of [x] Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo [y] the seer, concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam [z] slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XIII.

Abijah succeeding, maketh war against Jeroboam.

NOW in the [a] eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem: (his mother's name also was [b] Michaiah, the daughter of Uriel of [c] Gibeah;) and there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah † set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even [d] four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

4 And Abijah [e] stood up upon mount [f] Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel;

5 Ought you not to know, that the LORD God of Israel [g] gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by [h] a covenant of salt?

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon, the son of David, is risen up, and hath [i] rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him [k] vain men, the children of [l] Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was [m] young and [n] tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you [o] golden calves, which Jeroboam [p] made you for gods.

9 Have ye not [q] cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh to [r] consecrate himself with a young bullock and [s] seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.

10 But as [t] for us, the LORD is [u] our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business;

11 And they [x] burn unto the LORD, every morning and every evening, burnt-sacrifices and sweet incense: the shew-bread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him.

Before CHRIST 957.

12 And, behold, God himself is with us for our [y] captain, and his [z] priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper.

13 But Jeroboam caused an [a] ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they [b] cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that [c] God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah; and God [d] delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel [e] five hundred thousand chosen men.

18 Thus the children of Israel were † brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they [f] relied upon the LORD God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him; [g] Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof.

20 Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD [h] struck him, and he died.

21 But Abijah [i] waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of ‖ Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.

CHAPTER XIV.

Asa destroyeth idolatry, and overcometh Zerah.

955.

SO Abijah [a] slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet [b] ten years.

2 And Asa did that which was [c] good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God:

3 For he took away the [d] altars of the strange gods, and the [e] high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves;

4 And commanded Judah [f] to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

5 Also he took away, out of all the cities of Judah, the high places and the images: and the kingdom was [g] quiet before him.

6 And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because [h] the LORD had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built, and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand, and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and † drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

9 And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian, with a host of [i] a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots, and came unto [k] Mareshah.

Before CHRIST 941.

10 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of [l] Zephathah at Mareshah.

11 And Asa [m] cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is [n] nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and [o] in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not man prevail [p] against thee.

12 So the [q] LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa, and the people that were with him, pursued them unto [r] Gerar; and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his host: and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar: for the [s] fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They smote also the [t] tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to [u] Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XV.

Asa and Judah make a covenant with God.

AND the [a] Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded:

2 And he went out [b] to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The LORD [c] is with you while ye be with him: and if ye [d] seek him, he will be [e] found of you; but if ye forsake [f] him, he will forsake [g] you.

3 Now for [h] a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law:

4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And in [i] those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon [k] all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 And [l] nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye [m] strong, therefore, and let not your hands be weak: [n] for your work shall be rewarded.

8 ¶ And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away † the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the [o] cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the [p] altar of the LORD that was before the [q] porch of the LORD.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the [r] strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: (for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him:)

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in [s] the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 And they offered unto the LORD the same time, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen, and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they [t] entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

Before CHRIST 941.

13 That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should be [u] put to death, whether small or great, whether [x] man or woman.

14 And they [y] sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath; for they had sworn [z] with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

16 And also concerning Maachah the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But the high places were not taken away out of [a] Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18 And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the [b] five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAPTER XVI.

Asa diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah.

IN the [a] six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and [b] built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none [c] go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and [d] sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote [e] Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the [f] store-cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king [g] took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was a building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 And at that time [h] Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou [i] hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thy hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims a [k] huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thy hand.

9 For the [l] eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself [m] strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect towards him. Herein [n] thou hast done foolishly; therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

10 Then Asa was [o] wroth with the seer, and put him in a [p] prison-house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa [q] oppressed some of the people the same time.

11 And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa, in the thirty and ninth year of his reign, was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he [r] sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.

13 And ‖ Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with [s] sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art; and they made [t] a very great burning for him.

CHAPTER XVII.

Jehoshaphat succeeding Asa, reigneth and prospereth.

AND ‖ Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced [a] cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was [b] with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the [c] first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and [d] not after the doings of Israel:

5 Therefore [e] the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought [f] to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

6 And [g] his heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover, he took away the [h] high places and groves out of Judah.

7 Also, in the third year of his reign, he sent to his [i] princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, [k] to teach in the cities of Judah.

8 And with them he sent [l] Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, [m] priests.

9 And they taught in Judah, and had [n] the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.

10 And the [o] fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat.

11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute-silver: and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats.

12 And Jehoshaphat † waxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah castles, and cities of store.

13 And he had [p] much business in the cities of Judah: and the [q] men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.

14 And these are the [r] numbers of them, according to the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand.

15 And next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand.

16 And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who [s] willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Jehoshaphat goeth with Ahab against Ramoth-gilead.

NOW Jehoshaphat had [a] riches and honour in abundance, and [b] joined affinity with Ahab.

2 And after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria: and Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to [c] Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, [d] Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, [e] I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, [f] Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets [g] four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; [h] for God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but † always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied † before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him [i] horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until they be consumed.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, [k] Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper; for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with † one assent: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.

13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, [l] that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, [m] Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee, that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did [n] see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return, therefore, every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore, hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne and all the [o] host of heaven standing on his right hand, and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake, saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out [p] a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be † a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and [q] thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, [r] the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah [s] upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt [t] see on that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the [u] prison, and feed him with [x] bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD [y] spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will [z] disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel: therefore they [a] compassed about him to fight: but [b] Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel † between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot-man, Turn thy hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even; and about the time of the sun going down he [c] died.

CHAPTER XIX.

Jehoshaphat, reproved by Jehu, visiteth his kingdom.

Before CHRIST 896.

AND Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house [a] in peace to Jerusalem.

2 And [b] Jehu, the son of Hanani the seer, went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the [c] ungodly, and [d] love them that [e] hate the LORD? therefore [f] is wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

3 Nevertheless, there are [g] good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the [h] groves out of the land, and hast [i] prepared thy heart to seek God.

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he [k] went out again through the people, from [l] Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers.

5 And he set judges in the land, throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city,

6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, who is [m] with you in the judgment.

7 Wherefore now, let the [n] fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no [o] iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

8 Moreover, in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the [p] Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the [q] fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between [r] blood and blood, between [s] law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so [t] wrath come [u] upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass.

11 And, behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's [x] matters: also the Levites shall be [y] officers before you. Deal courageously, and the LORD shall be with the good.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Jehoshaphat proclaimeth a fast....5 His prayer.

IT came to pass after this also, that the children of [a] Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other besides the Ammonites, came [b] against Jehoshaphat to battle.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the [c] sea, on this side Syria: and, behold, they be in [d] Hazazon-tamar, which is [e] En-gedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat [f] feared, and set himself [g] to seek the LORD, and proclaimed [h] a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together to ask help of the LORD; even out of [i] all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before [k] the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou [l] God in heaven? and [m] rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thy hand is there not power and might, so that [n] none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou [o] our God, who didst [p] drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham [q] thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee [r] a sanctuary therein for thy [s] name, saying,

9 If, when [t] evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon, and Moab, and mount Seir, whom thou [u] wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

11 Behold, I say, how they [x] reward us, to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou [y] not judge them? for we have [z] no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but [a] our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood [b] before the LORD, with their [c] little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 [d] Then upon Jahaziel, the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite, of the sons of Asaph, came the [e] Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat; Thus saith the LORD unto you, [f] Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is [g] not yours, but God's.

16 To-morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 Ye shall [h] not need to fight in this battle; set yourselves, [i] stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to-morrow go out against them; for the LORD will be [k] with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat [l] bowed his head, with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites of the children of the [m] Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of [n] Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; [o] Believe in the LORD your God, so shall you be [p] established; believe his prophets, so shall ye [q] prosper.

21 And when he [r] had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the [s] beauty of holiness as they went out before the army, and to say, [t] Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set [u] ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab [x] stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch-tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they were [y] dead bodies fallen to the earth, and † none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance, both riches with the dead bodies, and † precious jewels, (which they stripped off for themselves,) more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 And on the fourth day, they assembled themselves in the valley of ‖ Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The [z] valley of Berachah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the † fore-front of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy: for the LORD had made them [a] to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets, unto the house of the LORD.

29 And the [b] fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his [c] God gave him rest round about.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the [d] way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD.

33 Howbeit the [e] high places were not taken away; for as yet the people had not [f] prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold they are written in the book of [g] Jehu, the son of Hanani, who is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah [h] join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly.

36 And he joined himself with him to make ships [i] to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in [k] Ezion-gaber.

37 Then Eliezer, the son of Dodavah of Mareshah, prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast [l] joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath [m] broken thy works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

CHAPTER XXI.

Jehoram succeeding Jehoshaphat, slayeth his brethren.

NOW Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and ‖ Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

2 And he had brethren, the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.

3 And their father gave them great [a] gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, because he was [b] the first-born.

4 Now when Jehoram was [c] risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and [d] slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned [e] eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the [f] kings of Israel, like as did [g] the house of Ahab; for he had the [h] daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the [i] house of David, because of the [k] covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a † light to him and to his sons for ever.

8 In his days the Edomites revolted from under the † dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram [l] went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did [m] Libnah revolt from under [n] his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover, he made [o] high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit [p] fornication, and [q] compelled Judah thereto.

12 And there came [r] a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the [s] ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go [t] a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of [u] Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself;

14 Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy [x] bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 ¶ Moreover, [y] the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were † near the Ethiopians.

17 And they came up into Judah, and [z] brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 ¶ And after all this the LORD smote him in his [a] bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that, in process of time after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness; so he died of sore diseases: and his people made no [b] burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and [c] departed † without being desired; howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, reigned.

2 Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned [c] one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah the [d] daughter of Omri.

3 [e] He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; for [f] his mother was his [g] counsellor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab; for they were his counsellors, after the death of his father, to his [h] destruction.

5 He walked also after their [i] counsel, and went with Jehoram, the son of Ahab, king of Israel, to war against Hazael king of Syria at [k] Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.

6 And he returned to be healed in [l] Jezreel, because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram, the son of Ahab, at Jezreel, because he was sick.

7 And the † destruction of Ahaziah [m] was of God, by coming to Joram; for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu, the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had [n] anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that when Jehu was [o] executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the [p] brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, [q] he slew them.

9 And [r] he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him; Because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who [s] sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

10 But when Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, [t] saw that her son was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the seed-royal of the house of Judah.

11 But [u] Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a † bed-chamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of [x] Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them [y] hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

CHAPTER XXIII.

Jehoiada restoreth the worship of God.

AND in the [a] seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, [b] into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and [c] gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers [d] of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made [e] a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he [f] said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD hath said of the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the † doors;

5 And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the [g] gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 But let none come into [h] the house of the LORD, save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they † are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the [i] Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death; but be you with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites, and all Judah, did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and [k] took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the ‖ courses.

9 Moreover, Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been [l] king David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, (every man having his weapon in his hand,) from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they [m] brought out the king's son, and put upon him [n] the crown, and gave him the [o] testimony, and made him king: and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, † God save the king.

12 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD.

13 And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his [p] pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and [q] sounded with trumpets; also the singers with instruments of music, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, [r] Treason, treason!

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso [s] followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her: and when she was come to the entering of the horse-gate, by the king's house, they [t] slew her there.

16 ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between [u] him, and between all the people, and between the king, [x] that they should be the LORD's people.

17 Then all the people went to the [y] house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and slew [z] Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had [a] distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt-offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the [b] law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing as it was ordained by [c] David.

19 And he set the [d] porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in.

20 And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the

[e] high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the people of the land [f] rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

CHAPTER XXIV.

Joash reigneth well all the days of Jehoiada.

JOASH was [a] seven years old when he began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And ‖ Joash did that which was [b] right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada [c] took for him [d] two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 And it came to pass after this, that Joash was [e] minded to repair the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of [f] all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

6 And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in, out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, the [g] collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the [h] tabernacle of witness?

7 For the sons of Athaliah, [i] that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the [k] dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon [l] Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made † a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that [m] at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired [n] masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen wrought, and † the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made [o] vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver: and they offered burnt-offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 But Jehoiada waxed old, and was [p] full of days when he died; a hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the [q] city of David [r] among the kings, because he had [s] done good in [t] Israel, both towards God, and [u] towards his house.

Before CHRIST cir. 840.

17 Now [x] after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah and made obeisance to the king: then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they [y] left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and [z] wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 Yet he [a] sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they [b] testified against them: but they would [c] not give ear.

20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye [d] cannot prosper? Because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and [e] stoned him with stones, [f] at the commandment of the king, in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son: and when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, [g] and require it.

23 And it came to pass, at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, [h] because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers: so they [i] executed judgment against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him (for they left him in great diseases,) [k] his own servants conspired against him, for the blood of [l] the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him [m] not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; [n] Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 Now concerning his sons, and the [o] greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the ‖ story of the book of the Kings. And † Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 Amaziah's reign....17 He provoketh Joash to his overthrow.

AMAZIAH was [a] twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but [b] not with a perfect heart.

3 Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he [c] slew his servants that had [d] killed the king his father:

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, [e] The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 Moreover, Amaziah gathered Judah together and made them captains [f] over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the [g] houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from [h] twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could [i] handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also a [k] hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for [l] a hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came [m] a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; [n] for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of [o] Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, [p] do it, be strong for the battle; God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath [q] power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD [r] is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their [s] anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the [t] valley of Salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were [u] broken in pieces.

13 But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto [x] Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the [y] gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be [z] his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the [a] people which could not deliver [b] their own people out of thy hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? [c] forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbare, and said, I know that God hath determined [d] to destroy thee because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 ¶ Then Amaziah king of Judah [e] took advice, and ‖ sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a † wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites, and [f] thy heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home, why shouldest thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear; for [g] it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up, and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth [h] to Judah.

22 And Judah was † put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, from the [i] gate of Ephraim to the † corner-gate, four hundred cubits.

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God [k] with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the † hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah, the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, [l] first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

27 Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to [m] Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the [n] city of Judah.

CHAPTER XXVI.

Uzziah invadeth the priest's office, and is smitten.

THEN all the people of Judah took ‖ Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, [a] according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And he sought God [b] in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in [c] the visions of God: and [d] as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth, and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God [e] helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims.

8 And the [f] Ammonites [g] gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover, Uzziah built [h] towers in Jerusalem, at the [i] corner-gate, and at the [k] valley-gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the [l] desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country and in the plains; husbandmen also, and vine-dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry.

11 Moreover, Uzziah had [m] a host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe, and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

Before CHRIST cir. 809.

13 And under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them, throughout all the host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and [n] slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal: and his name spread far abroad; for he was [o] marvellously helped till he was strong.

16 But when he was [p] strong, [q] his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the [r] temple of the LORD to [s] burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the [t] priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It [u] pertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the [x] priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed: neither shall it be for thine [y] honour [z] from the LORD God.

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and [a] while he was wroth with the priests, the [b] leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense-altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself [c] hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in [d] a several house, being a leper; for he was [e] cut off from the house of the LORD; and Jotham his son was over the king's house, [f] judging the people of the land.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did [g] Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, write.

23 So Uzziah [h] slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Jotham reigneth well....9 Ahaz succeedeth him.

JOTHAM was [a] twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did that which was [b] right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he [c] entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet [d] corruptly.

3 He [e] built the [f] high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of [g] Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover, he built cities in the mountains of Judah: and in the forests he built [h] castles and towers.

5 He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year [i] a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand † measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he [k] prepared his [l] ways before the LORD his God.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

Before CHRIST 742.

8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 And ‖ Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Ahaz reigning wickedly, is afflicted by the Syrians.

AHAZ was [a] twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, [b] like David his father;

741.

2 For he walked in the [c] ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for [d] Baalim.

3 Moreover, he burnt incense in the [e] valley of the son of Hinnom, and [f] burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also, and burnt incense in the [g] high places, and on the hills, and under [h] every green tree.

5 Wherefore the LORD [i] his God delivered him into the hand of the [k] king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus; and he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all valiant men; [l] because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was † next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their [m] brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But [n] a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers [o] was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that [p] reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for [q] bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, [r] sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me, therefore, and [s] deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for [t] the fierce wrath of God is upon you.

12 Then certain of the [u] heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war,

13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is [x] fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men which were expressed by name [y] rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them [z] to eat and to drink, and [a] anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho the city of palm-trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 ¶ At that time did king Ahaz send unto the [b] kings of Assyria to help him.

17 For [c] again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives.

18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken [d] Beth-shemesh, and [e] Ajalon, and [f] Gederoth, and [g] Shocho with the villages thereof, and [h] Timnah with the villages thereof; Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

19 For the LORD brought Judah low, because of Ahaz king of [i] Israel: for he made Judah [k] naked, and transgressed sore against the LORD.

20 And [l] Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came unto him, and [m] distressed him, but strengthened him not.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, [n] and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 And in the time of his distress did he trespass [o] yet more against the LORD: [p] this is that king Ahaz.

23 For he [q] sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria [r] help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they [s] may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz [t] gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto [u] other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26 Now the rest of his acts, and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem; but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Hezekiah's good reign....3 He restoreth religion.

HEZEKIAH [a] began to reign when he was five and twenty years old; and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

3 He, in the first year of his reign, in the first month, [b] opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the [c] Levites, and gathered them together into the east street,

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites; [d] Sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the † filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For [e] our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have [f] turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs.

7 Also they have [g] shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incense, nor offered burnt-offerings in the [h] holy place, unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the [i] wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to † trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes.

9 For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the [k] sword, and our sons, and our daughters, and our wives, are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in [l] my heart to make [m] a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, || be not now negligent: for the LORD hath [n] chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that you should minister unto him, and burn incense.

12 ¶ Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari; Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of [o] Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of [p] Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the [q] inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook [r] Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the [s] porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all the [t] vessels thereof, and the [u] shew-bread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover, all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did [x] cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 Then Hezekiah the king rose [y] early, and gathered the [z] rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought [a] seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for [b] a sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah: and he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and [c] sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought forth the he-goats for the sin-offering before the king and the congregation; and [d] laid their hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made [e] reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an [f] atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded, that the burnt-offering and the sin-offering should be made for all Israel.

25 And he [g] set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of [h] Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the [i] instruments of David, and the priests [k] with the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar. And when the burnt-offering began, the [l] song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by [m] David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation [n] worshipped, and the † singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt-offering was finished.

29 And when they had made [o] an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover, Hezekiah the king, and the princes, commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and [p] of Asaph the seer: and they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near, and bring [q] sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and as many as were of a free heart, [r] burnt-offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt-offerings, which the congregation brought, was [s] threescore and ten bullocks, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen, and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not [t] slay all the burnt-offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did [u] help them till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more [x] upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the [y] fat of the peace-offerings, and the [z] drink-offerings for [a] every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah [b] rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

CHAPTER XXX.

Hezekiah proclaimeth a solemn passover.

AND Hezekiah sent to [a] all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to [b] Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD [c] at Jerusalem, to keep the [d] passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king had [e] taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the [f] second month.

3 For they [g] could not keep it at that time, [h] because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree, to make proclamation throughout [i] all Israel, from [k] Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem; for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, [l] turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and [m] he will return to the remnant of you that are [n] escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye [o] like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who, therefore, [p] gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now be ye not [q] stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever; and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye [r] turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find [s] compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city, through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even unto Zebulun: but they [t] laughed them to scorn and mocked them.

11 [u] Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun [x] humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah, the [y] hand of God was to give them [z] one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the [a] word of the LORD.

13 And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And [b] they arose, and took away the [c] altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were [d] ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they stood in their place after their manner, [e] according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites:

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified; therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had [f] not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written: but Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one

19 That [g] prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the [h] purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and [i] healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the feast [k] of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake † comfortably unto all the Levites ‖ that taught the [l] good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace-offerings, and making [m] confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the congregation [n] a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 Then the [o] priests the [p] Levites arose and [q] blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up † to his holy dwelling-place, even unto heaven.

CHAPTER XXXI.

The people forward in destroying idolatry.

NOW [a] when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the [b] groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh; until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned every man to his possession into their own cities.

2 And Hezekiah appointed the [c] courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and [d] Levites for burnt-offerings and for peace-offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the [e] tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the [f] king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the [g] morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the [h] sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the [i] set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

4 Moreover, he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the [k] portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be [l] encouraged in the [m] law of the LORD.

5 And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the [n] first-fruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the [o] tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithes of oxen, and sheep, and the tithe of [p] holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them † by heaps.

7 In the [q] third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the [r] seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they [s] blessed the LORD, and [t] his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the † chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had [u] enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath [x] blessed his people: and that which is left is this great store.

11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare [y] chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them,

12 And brought in the offerings, and the tithes, and the dedicated things, † faithfully; over which Cononiah the Levite was [z] ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers, under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the [a] east, was over the free-will-offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the † most holy things.

15 And next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small:

16 Besides their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, † his daily portion for their service in their charges, according to their courses;

17 Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses:

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters through all the congregation: for in their [b] set office they sanctified themselves in holiness:

19 Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men that were expressed by name to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.

20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and truth [c] before the LORD his God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it [d] with all his heart, and [e] prospered.

CHAPTER XXXII.

Sennacherib invading Judah, Hezekiah fortifieth himself.

AFTER [a] these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to [b] win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was † purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

Before CHRIST 713.

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to [c] stop the waters of the fountains, which were without the city; and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the [d] brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come and find much water?

5 Also he [e] strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the [f] towers, and [g] another wall without, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be [h] strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the [i] multitude that is with him: for there be [k] more with us than with him.

8 With him is [l] an arm of flesh: but [m] with us is the LORD our God, to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his [n] servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon † do ye trust, that ye abide in the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD [o] our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his [p] high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the [q] people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways [r] able to deliver their lands out of my hand?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations, that my fathers [s] utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah [t] deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: † how much less shall your God deliver you out of my hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and [u] against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote also [x] letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of my hand.

18 Then they [y] cried with a loud voice, in the Jews' speech, unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them, that they might take the city.

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.

20 For this cause Hezekiah the king, and the [z] prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried [a] to heaven.

21 And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria: so he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and ‖ guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and [b] presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was [c] magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 [d] In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah [e] rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for [f] his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and [g] upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Notwithstanding, Hezekiah humbled himself [h] for the pride of his heart, (both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem,) so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for [i] God had given him substance very much.

30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper water-course of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 Howbeit, in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to [k] inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to [l] try him, that he might [m] know all that was in his heart.

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his † goodness, behold, they are written in the [n] Vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, and in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And ‖ Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 Manasseh's wicked reign....3 He setteth up idolatry.

MANASSEH was [a] twelve years old when he began to reign: and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the [b] abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he † built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had [c] broken down, and he reared up altars for [d] Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the [e] host of heaven, and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the [f] two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he caused his [g] children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he † wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David, and to Solomon his son, [h] In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 Neither will I any more [i] remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers: so that they will take heed to do [k] all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem [l] to err, and to do [m] worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people; but they would not [n] hearken.

11 Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of [o] the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the [p] thorns, and bound him with [q] fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was [r] in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers,

13 And prayed unto him; and he was [s] entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh [t] knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built [u] a wall without the city of David, on the west side of [x] Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at [y] the fish-gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the [z] strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace-offerings and thank-offerings, and [a] commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless, [b] the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the [c] name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel:

19 His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sin, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled, behold, they are written among the sayings of the [d] seers.

20 So Manasseh [e] slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and || Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

Before CHRIST 677.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, [f] as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them:

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself: but Amon † trespassed more and more.

24 And his servants [g] conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon: and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Josiah's good reign....3 He destroyeth idolatry.

641.

JOSIAH was [a] eight years old when he began to reign: and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right [b] in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the [c] right hand nor to the left.

3 For in the || eighth year of his reign, while he was yet [d] young, he began [e] to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to [f] purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

634. 630.

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim, in his presence: and the images that were on high above them he cut down: and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made [g] dust of them, and strewed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he burnt the [h] bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the [i] cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images [k] into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the [l] governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to [m] repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they [n] delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they [o] put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and mend the house;

11 Even to the [p] artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work † faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward: and other of the Levites, all that [q] could skill of instruments of music.

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service; and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest [r] found a book of the law of the LORD given by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they do it.

17 And they have † gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read † it before the king:

19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he [s] rent his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying,

21 Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and || for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college;) and they spake to her to that effect.

23 And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, [t] I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even [u] all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

25 Because they have [x] forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the [y] works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall [z] not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, concerning the words which thou hast heard;

27 Because thy heart was || tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be [a] gathered to thy grave [b] in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 [c] Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.

31 And the king stood [d] in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

32 And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah took away all [e] the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And † all his days they departed not [f] from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

CHAPTER XXXV.

Josiah keepeth a most solemn passover.

MOREOVER, Josiah kept [a] a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they [b] killed the passover on the [c] fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their [d] charges, and [e] encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD,

3 And said unto the Levites that [f] taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the [g] holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; it shall not be [h] a burden upon your shoulders; [i] serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel,

4 And prepare yourselves by the [k] houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of [l] David king of Israel, and according to the writing of [m] Solomon his son;

5 And [n] stand in the [o] holy place, according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites:

6 So kill the passover, and [p] sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

7 And Josiah [q] gave to the [r] people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover-offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

8 And his princes gave [s] willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: [t] Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah, and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah, and Jehiel, and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites, for passover-offerings, || five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared, and [u] the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.

11 And they killed the passover, and the priests [x] sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.

12 And they [y] removed the burnt-offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the † people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses: and so did they with the oxen.

13 And they roasted the passover [z] with fire, according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: [a] because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt-offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph, were in their place, according to the [b] commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer: and the porters waited at † every gate: they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt-offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of [c] unleavened bread seven days.

18 And there was [d] no passover like to that kept in Israel, from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 ¶ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, [e] Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, † What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against † thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: [f] for God commanded me to make haste; forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless, Josiah would not turn his face from him, but [g] disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of [h] Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah: and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore † wounded.

24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he [i] died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers: and all Judah and Jerusalem [k] mourned for Josiah.

25 And [l] Jeremiah lamented for Josiah; and all the singing-men and the singing-women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the Lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD,

27 And his deeds, [m] first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

Jehoahaz succeeding, is deposed by Pharaoh.

THEN the people of the land took [a] Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him [b] king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt [c] put him down at Jerusalem, and condemned the land in a hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him [d] to Egypt.

5 ¶ Jehoiakim was [e] twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned [f] eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

6 Against him came up [g] Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him [h] to Babylon.

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the [i] vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his [k] abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and [l] Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ Jehoiachin was [m] eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

10 And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made ‖ Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 ¶ Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign; and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and [n] humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet, speaking from the [o] mouth of the LORD.

13 And he also [p] rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him [q] swear by God: but he [r] stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel.

14 Moreover, all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much, after all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15 And the [s] LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his [t] messengers, [u] rising up betimes, and sending; because he had [x] compassion on his people, and on [y] his dwelling-place:

16 But they [z] mocked the messengers of God, and [a] despised his words, and [b] misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was † no remedy.

17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had [c] no compassion upon [d] young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age; he gave them all into his hand.

18 And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his princes, all these he brought to Babylon.

CHAPTER I.

The proclamation of Cyrus for the building of the temple.

536.

NOW in the first year of [a] Cyrus king of Persia, (that the word [b] of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be [c] fulfilled,) the LORD [d] stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made [e] a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath [f] charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah:

3 [g] Who is there among you of all his people? his God be [h] with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel ([i] he is the God) which is [k] in Jerusalem.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place † help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the [l] free-will-offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 Then rose up the [m] chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose [n] spirit God had raised to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all [o] they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all that was [p] willingly offered.

7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought [q] forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his [r] gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto [s] Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the [t] number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives,

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and [u] other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity, that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

54 The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.
55 The children of [k] Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Peruda,
56 The children of Jaalah, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel,
57 The children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Ami.
58 All the [l] Nethinims, and the children of [m] Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.
59 And these were they which went up from [n] Telmelah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, Addan, and Immer; but they could not shew their father's house, and their seed, whether they were of Israel:
60 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, [o] six hundred fifty and two.
61 And of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai; (which took a wife of the daughters of [p] Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name:)
62 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by [q] genealogy, but they were not found; therefore † were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.
63 And the ‖ Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with ‖ Urim and with Thummim.
64 The [r] whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore.
65 Besides their [s] servants and their maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred [t] singing-men and singing-women.
66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five;
67 Their camels four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
68 And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem, offered [u] freely for the house of God to set it up in his place:
69 They gave after their [x] ability unto the treasure of the work, threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pounds of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.
70 So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the [y] singers, and the [z] porters, and the [a] Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and [b] all Israel in their cities.

CHAPTER III.

1 The altar is set up....4 Offerings frequented.

AND when the [a] seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together [b] as one man to [c] Jerusalem.
2 Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, as it is [d] written in the law of Moses the [e] man of God.
3 And they set the altar upon his bases; (for [f] fear was upon them because of the people of those countries;) and they [g] offered burnt-offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt-offerings morning and evening.
4 They kept also the [h] feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the custom, † as the duty of every day required;
5 And afterward offered the [i] continual burnt-offering, both of the new moons, and of all the [k] set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that [l] willingly offered a free-will-offering unto the LORD.
6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.
7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of [m] Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring [n] cedar-trees from [o] Lebanon to the sea of [p] Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

q 2 Kings 25, 2.

9 Then [q] stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God; the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with [r] trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sung together by course, in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people [s] shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

Before CHRIST 520.

3 At the same time came to them Tatnai, [h] governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, [i] Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this [k] wall?

4 Then said [l] we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building?

5 But the [m] eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could [n] not cause them to cease, [o] till the matter came to Darius: and then they [p] returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king:

7 They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus: Unto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that [q] we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the [r] great God, which is builded with † great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked their [s] names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, [t] We are the servants of the [u] God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was [x] builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up.

12 But after that our fathers had [y] provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of [z] Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the [a] first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And the [b] vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple, that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did [c] Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time, even until now, hath it been in building, and yet it is [d] not finished.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure-house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send [e] his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

CHAPTER VI.

13 The temple finished....16 The feast of dedication kept.

THEN Darius the king [a] made a decree, and search was made in the house of the † rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

Before CHRIST 519.

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof [c] threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

4 With three [d] rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the [e] expenses be given out of the king's house:

5 And also let the golden and silver [f] vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, [g] be restored and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, [h] be ye far from thence;

7 [i] Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews, and the elders of the Jews, build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover, † I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews, for the building of this house of God: that, of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that they be not hindered.

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt-offerings of the God of heaven, [k] wheat, [l] salt, [m] wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail;

10 That they may offer sacrifices of † sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray [n] for the life of the king, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall [o] alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be † hanged thereon; and let his house be made [p] a dunghill for this.

12 And the God that hath caused [q] his name to dwell there, [r] destroy all kings and people that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it [s] be done with speed.

13 ¶ Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, [t] so they did speedily.

14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they [u] prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo: and they builded, and finished it, according to † the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month [x] Adar, which was in the [y] sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

16 And the children of Israel, the [z] priests and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the [a] dedication of this house of God with joy,

17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God [b] a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and, for a sin-offering for all Israel,

CHAPTER VII.

The gracious commission of Artaxerxes to Ezra.

NOW after these things, in the reign of [a] Artaxerxes king of Persia, [b] Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 The son of [c] Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of [d] Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of [e] Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of [f] Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was [g] a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the [h] hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 And there went up some of the [i] children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters and the [k] Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the [l] seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the [m] first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had [n] prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to [o] do it, and to [p] teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, [q] king of kings, Unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of [r] their own free will to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his [s] seven counsellors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of [t] thy God which is in thy hand;

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose [u] habitation is in Jerusalem;

16 And all the silver and gold that thou canst find [x] in all the province of Babylon, with the free-will-offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money, [y] bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat-offerings, and their drink-offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, [z] to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do [a] after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure-house.

21 And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily,

22 Unto ‖ a hundred talents of silver, and to a hundred † measures of wheat, and to a hundred baths of wine, and to a hundred ‖ baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be [b] wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

24 Also we certify you, that, touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God; it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.

25 And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thy hand, [c] set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as [d] know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not.

26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to † banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

27 ¶ [e] Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which hath [f] put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in [g] Jerusalem;

28 And hath extended mercy unto me before the king and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was [h] strengthened as the [i] hand of the LORD my God was upon me; and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

5 Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

6 Of the sons also of [h]Adin; Ebed the son of [i]Jonathan, and with him fifty males.

7 And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

8 And of the sons of [k]Shephatiah; [l]Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

9 Of the sons of [m]Joab; [n]Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him a hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of [o]Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And of the sons of [p]Azgad; Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him a hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

15 And I gathered them together to the [q]river that runneth to Ahava; and there [r]abode we in tents three days: and I [s]viewed the people and the priests, and found there [t]none of the sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief, at the place Casiphia; and †I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And, by the [u]good hand of our God upon us, they brought us [x]a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And [y]Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah, of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the [z]Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

21 Then I proclaimed [a]a fast there at the river Ahava, that we might [b]afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him [c]a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them [d]for good that [e]seek him; but his power and his [f]wrath is against all them that [g]forsake him.

23 So we fasted, and besought our God for this; and he was [h]entreated of us.

24 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And [i]weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had [k]offered;

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels a hundred talents, and of gold a hundred talents;

27 Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are [l]holy unto the LORD; [m]the vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a free-will-offering unto the LORD God of your fathers:

29 [n]Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the [o]chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, unto the house of our God.

31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava, on the twelfth day of the [p]first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

33 Now on the fourth day was the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, weighed in the house of our God by the hand of [q]Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was [r]Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites;

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 Also the children of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered [s]burnt-offerings unto the God of Israel, [t]twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin-offering: all this was a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

36 And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river; and they †furthered the people, and the house of God.

CHAPTER IX.

Ezra prayeth unto God with confession of sins.

NOW when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the [a]priests, and the Levites, have [b]not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their [c]abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they have [d]taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons; so that the [e]holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the [f]princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, I [g]rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down [h]astonished.

4 Then were [i]assembled unto me every one that [k]trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

5 And at the [l]evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and [m]spread out my hands unto the LORD my God,

6 And said, O my God! I am [n]ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for [o]our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up [p]unto the heavens.

great trespass unto this day: and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands. to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to [q] confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us ‖ a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us [r] a little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we were bondmen; yet our God hath [s] not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the [t] sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us [u] a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, [x] what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments,

11 Which thou hast [y] commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now, therefore, [z] give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, [a] nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever; that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for [b] an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us [c] less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;

14 Should we [d] again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations, wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O LORD God of Israel, thou art [e] righteous; for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day; behold, we are [f] before thee in our trespasses; for we [g] cannot stand before thee because of this.

CHAPTER X.

Ezra mourning, assembleth the people.

NOW when Ezra had prayed, and when he had [a] confessed, weeping and casting himself down [b] before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men, and [c] women, and children: for the people wept very sore.

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have [d] taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is [e] hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, [f] according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 [g] Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee; [h] be of good courage, and [i] do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, [k] to swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware.

6 Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the [l] chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did [m] eat no bread, nor drink water; for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

Before CHRIST 457.

7 And they † made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem, unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself ‖ separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days: it was the [n] ninth month, and the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the [o] street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the † great rain.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives † to increase the trespass of Israel.

11 Now therefore make [p] confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and [q] do his pleasure; and [r] separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, [s] so must we do.

13 But the people are [t] many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two; for we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our [u] rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the [x] judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us.

15 ¶ [y] Only Jonathan the son of Asahel, and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah, were employed about this matter; and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

18 And among the sons of the priests there were [z] found that had taken strange wives; namely, of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah.

19 And they [a] gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being [b] guilty, they offered [c] a ram of the flock for their trespass.

20 And of the sons of [d] Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah.

21 And of the sons of [e] Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziah.

23 Also of the [g] Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (the same is Kelita,) Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

24 Of the singers also; Eliashib: and of the porters; [h] Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

¶ The BOOK of NEHEMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

Nehemiah mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth.

cir. 446.

THE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month [a] Chisleu, in the [b] twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,
2 That [c] Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.
3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the [d] province are [e] in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is [f] broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.
4 And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that [g] I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and [h] fasted, and [i] prayed before the God of heaven,
5 And said, I beseech thee, [k] O LORD God of heaven, the [l] great and terrible God, that [m] keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments;
6 [n] Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and [o] night, for the children of Israel thy servants, [p] and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned [q] against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.
7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.
8 [r] Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, [s] If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:
9 But if ye [t] turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you [u] cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.
10 Now these are thy [x] servants, and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy [y] strong hand.
11 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to [z] fear thy name; and [a] prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man: For I was the king's cup-bearer.

CHAPTER II.

Artaxerxes sendeth Nehemiah to Jerusalem.

AND it came to pass in the month [a] Nisan, in the twentieth year of [b] Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the [c] wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime [d] sad in his presence.
2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but [e] sorrow of heart. Then I was [f] very sore afraid,
3 And said unto the king, [g] Let the king live for ever: [h] why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?
4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I [i] prayed to the God of heaven.
5 And I said unto the king, If it [k] please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest [l] send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that [m] I may build it.
6 And the [n] king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I [o] set him a time.
7 Moreover, I said unto the king, If it please the king, let [p] letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over, till I come into Judah;
8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which [q] appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house [r] that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the [s] good hand of my God upon me.
9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. (Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.)
10 When Sanballat the [t] Horonite, and Tobiah the [u] servant, the [x] Ammonite, heard of it, it [y] grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.
11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was [z] there three days.
12 And I arose [a] in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night, by the [b] gate of the valley, even before the [c] dragon-well, and to the [d] dung-port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the [e] fountain, and to the [f] king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by [g] the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers [h] knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come, and let us [i] build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more [k] a reproach.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was [l] good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they [m] strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and [n] Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they [o] laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye [p] rebel against the king?

20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but you have no [q] portion, nor [r] right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER III.

The names and order of them that builded the wall.

THEN [a] Eliashib the high priest rose up, with [b] his brethren the priests, and they builded the [c] sheep-gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of [d] Hananeel.

2 And next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

3 But the [e] fish-gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the [f] doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

4 And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of [g] Urijah, the son of Koz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana.

5 And next unto them the [h] Tekoites repaired; but their [i] nobles put [k] not their necks to the work of their LORD.

6 Moreover, the [l] old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

7 And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of [m] Gibeon and of [n] Mizpah, unto the [o] throne of the governor on this side the river.

8 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the [p] broad wall.

9 And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem.

10 And next unto them [q] repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired [r] Hattush the son of Hashabniah.

11 [s] Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces.

12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Halohesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his [t] daughters.

13 The [u] valley-gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of [x] Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the [y] dung-gate.

14 But the dung-gate repaired Malchiah the son of [z] Rechab, the ruler of part of [a] Beth-haccerem; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15 But the gate of the [b] fountain repaired Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah: he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of [c] Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the [d] city of David.

16 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of [e] Beth-zur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the [f] pool that was made, and unto the [g] house of the mighty.

17 After him repaired the Levites, [h] Rehum the son of Bani. Next unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of [i] Keilah, in his part.

18 After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of [k] Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah.

19 And next to him repaired [l] Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armoury, at the ‖ turning of the wall.

20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai † earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

21 After him repaired [m] Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of [n] Koz, another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib.

22 And after him repaired the priests, the men of the [o] plain.

23 After him repaired Benjamin and Hashub, over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, by his house.

24 After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad, another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner.

25 Palal the son of Uzai, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the [p] king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh.

26 Moreover, the [q] Nethinims dwelt in ‖ Ophel, unto the place over against the [r] water-gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out.

27 After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel.

28 From above the [s] horse-gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.

29 After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer, over against his house. After him repaired also Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the [t] east gate.

Before CHRIST 445.

30 After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, over against his chamber.

31 After him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith's son, unto the place of the Nethinims, and of the merchants, over against the gate Miphkad, and to the going up of the corner.

32 And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep-gate [u] repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

CHAPTER IV.

While the enemies scoff, Nehemiah prayeth.

BUT it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that [a] we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great [b] indignation, and [c] mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these [d] feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they [e] revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burnt?

3 Now [f] Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if [g] a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 [h] Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and [i] turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity;

5 And [k] cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be [l] blotted out from before thee; for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 [m] So built we the wall; and all the wall was [n] joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had [o] a mind to work.

7 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the [p] Arabians, and the [q] Ammonites, and the [r] Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were [s] very wroth,

8 And conspired [t] all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless we made our [u] prayer unto our God, and [x] set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The [y] strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not [z] able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which [a] dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 Therefore † set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, [b] Be not ye afraid of them: [c] remember the LORD which is great and terrible, and fight for your [d] brethren, your sons and your daughters, your [e] wives and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought [f] their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass, from that time forth, that the half of my [g] servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them [h] held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another:

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall [i] fight for us.

21 So [k] we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears, from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us [l] put off our clothes, || saving that every one put them off for washing.

CHAPTER V.

The Jews complain of their debt and bondage.

AND there was [a] a great cry of the people, and of their wives, against their [b] brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many; therefore we take up [c] corn [d] for them, that we may eat and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's [e] tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now [f] our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto [g] bondage already, neither is it [h] in our power to redeem them; for other men have [i] our lands and vineyards.

6 And I was very [k] angry when I heard their cry, and these words.

7 Then I consulted with myself, and [l] I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, [m] You exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a [n] great assembly against them:

8 And I said unto them, We, after our ability, have [o] redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will you even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and [p] found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is [q] not good that ye do: ought ye not [r] to walk in the fear of our God, because of the [s] reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off [t] this usury.

11 [u] Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-yards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye [x] exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will [y] require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took [z] an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also I [a] shook my lap, and said, So [b] God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out and emptied. And all the congregation said, [c] Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people [d] did according to this promise.

14 Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, [e] twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the [f] bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, [g] because of the fear of God.

16 Yea, also, I [h] continued in the work of this wall, neither [i] bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover, there were [k] at my table a hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was [l] one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 [m] Think upon me, my God, for good, [n] according to all that I have done for this people.

CHAPTER VI.

Sanballat practiseth by craft to terrify Nehemiah.

NOW it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was [a] no breach left therein, (though at that time I had [b] not set up the doors upon the gates,)

2 That Sanballat and Geshem [c] sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of [d] Ono. But they thought to do me [e] mischief.

3 And [f] I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the [g] work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me [h] four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me, in like manner, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand;

6 Wherein was written, [i] It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu [k] saith it, that thou and the Jews think to [l] rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be [m] their king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed [n] prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou [o] feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us [p] afraid, saying, [q] Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, [r] strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of [s] Shemaiah the son of [t] Delaiah, the son of Mehetabeel, who was [u] shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the [x] house of God, within the temple; and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should [y] such a man as I flee? and [z] who is there that being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? [a] I will not go in.

12 And, lo, [b] I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he [c] pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be [d] afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the [e] prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was [f] finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, [g] in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that when [h] all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were [i] much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of [k] our God.

17 Moreover, in those days, the nobles of Judah [l] sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of [m] Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of [n] Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his † good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

CHAPTER VII.

A register of those who returned from Babylon.

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the [a] doors, and the porters, and the singers, and the Levites were appointed,

2 That I gave my brother [b] Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: (for he was a faithful man, and [c] feared [d] God above many:)

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the [e] houses were not builded.

5 And my God [f] put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy: and I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein,

6 [g] These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city;

the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.

71 And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work twenty thousand [e] drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pounds of silver.

72 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pounds of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

73 So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, [f] dwelt in their cities; and when the [g] seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

CHAPTER VIII.

The religious manner of reading and hearing the law.

AND all the people gathered themselves together [a] as one man into the street that was before the [b] water-gate; and [c] they spake unto Ezra the [d] scribe, to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

2 And Ezra the priest brought the [e] law before the congregation, both of [f] men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the [g] seventh month.

3 And he [h] read therein before the street that was before the water-gate, from the morning until mid-day, before the men and the women, and those that could understand: and [i] the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and [k] beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand, and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5 And Ezra [l] opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people [m] stood up.

6 And Ezra [n] blessed the LORD, the great God: and all the people answered, [o] Amen, Amen, with [p] lifting up their hands: and they [q] bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their [r] faces to the ground.

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

8 So they read in the book, in the law of God, [s] distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

9 And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is [t] holy unto the LORD your God; [u] mourn not, nor weep. For all the people [x] wept when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and [y] send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is [z] holy unto our LORD: neither be ye sorry; for the [a] joy of the LORD is your strength.

11 So the Levites [b] stilled all the people, saying, [c] Hold your peace; for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, [d] because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

Before CHRIST cir. 445.

13 ¶ And on the [e] second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the [f] priests and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in [g] booths in the feast of the seventh month:

15 And that they should [h] publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in [i] Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch [k] olive-branches, and pine-branches, and myrtle-branches, and palm-branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16 So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the [l] roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the [m] courts of the house of God, and in the street of the [n] water-gate, and in the street of the [o] gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and [p] sat under the booths: for since the days of [q] Jeshua the son of Nun, [r] unto that day, had not the children of Israel done so. And there was [s] very great gladness.

18 Also day by day, from the first [t] day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

CHAPTER IX.

A solemn fast, and repentance of the people.

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of [a] this month the children of Israel were assembled with [b] fasting, and with [c] sackclothes, and [d] earth upon them.

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and [e] stood and [f] confessed their sins, and the iniquities [g] of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and [h] read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one [i] fourth part of the day, and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 Then stood up upon the [k] stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and [l] cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up, and [m] bless the LORD your God for ever and ever; and blessed be thy [n] glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone: thou hast [o] made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, [p] the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou [q] preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst [r] choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of [s] Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of [t] Abraham:

8 And foundest [u] his heart faithful before thee, and madest [x] a covenant with him, to give the land of the [y] Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his [z] seed, and hast [a] performed thy words; for thou art [b] righteous:

9 And didst [c] see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their [d] cry by the Red Sea:

10 And shewedst [e] signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land; for thou knewest that they dealt [f] proudly against them: so didst thou get thee [g] a name, as it is this day.

11 And thou didst [h] divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, [i] as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover, thou [k] leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar, and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou camest down also upon [l] mount Sinai, and spakest with them [m] from heaven, and gavest them [n] right judgments and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy [o] holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And gavest them [p] bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the [q] rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should [r] go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and [s] our fathers dealt [t] proudly, and hardened their necks, and [u] hearkened not to thy commandments,

17 And refused to obey, neither were [x] mindful of the wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed [y] a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, [z] slow to anger, and of great kindness, and [a] forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them [b] a molten calf, and said, This is thy god that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou, in thy [c] manifold mercies, forsookest them not in the wilderness: the [d] pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy [e] good Spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy [f] manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that [g] they lacked nothing; their [h] clothes waxed not old, and their feet [i] swelled not.

22 Moreover, thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of [k] Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the [l] stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go [m] in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou [n] subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and [o] a fat land, and possessed [p] houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and olive-yards, and fruit-trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and [q] delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law [r] behind their backs, and [s] slew thy prophets, which testified against them to turn them to thee; and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore [t] thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the [u] time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and, according to thy manifold mercies, thou gavest them [x] saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had [y] rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou [z] heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies;

29 And [a] testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man [b] do, he shall live in them,) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear:

30 Yet many years didst thou [c] forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy Spirit in thy prophets; yet would they [d] not give ear: therefore [e] gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless, for thy [f] great mercies' sake, thou didst [g] not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore, our God, [h] the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem [i] little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings [k] of Assyria unto this day.

33 Howbeit, thou art [l] just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done [m] right, but we have done wickedly:

34 Neither have [n] our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

35 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and [o] in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from [p] their wicked works.

36 Behold, we are [q] servants this day; and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers, [r] to eat the fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

37 And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

38 And [s] because of all this, we make a † sure covenant, and write it: and our princes, Levites, and priests, † seal unto it.

29 They [s] clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into [t] a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given [u] by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and [x] do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his judgments, and his statutes;

39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi, shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we [o] will not forsake the house of our God.

CHAPTER XI.

A catalogue of those who dwelt at Jerusalem.

AND the rulers of the [a] people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also [b] cast lots, to bring [c] one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem [d] the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.
2 And the people blessed all the men that [e] willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.
3 Now these are the chief of the [f] province that dwelt in Jerusalem, (but in the cites of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities,) to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the [g] Nethinims, and the children of [h] Solomon's servants.

21 But the [x] Nethinims dwelt in Ophel: and Ziha and Gispa were over the Nethinims.

22 The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were [y] over the business of the house of God.

23 For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day.

24 And [z] Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah, the son of Judah, was at the [a] king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

25 And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt at [b] Kirjath-arba, and in the villages thereof, and at Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Jekabzeel, and in the villages thereof,

CHAPTER XII.

The solemnity of the dedication of the walls.

NOW these are the [a] priests and the Levites that went up with Zerubbabel the son of [b] Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

2 [c] Amariah, Malluch, [d] Hattush,

3 [e] Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

4 [f] Iddo, Ginnethon, [g] Abijah,

5 Miamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

6 [h] Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,

7 Sallu, Amok, [i] Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chief of the priests, and of their brethren, in the days of Jeshua.

8 Moreover, the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, which was over the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.

9 Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, were over against them in the [k] watches.

10 ¶ And [l] Jeshua begat Joiakim, Joiakim also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, 11 And Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua.

12 And in the days of [m] Joiakim were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah: of Jeremiah, Hananiah:

13 Of Ezra, Meshullam: of Amariah, Jehohanan:

14 Of Melicu, Jonathan: of Shebaniah, [n] Joseph:

15 Of Harim, [o] Adna: of Meraioth, Helkai:

16 Of Iddo, [p] Zechariah: of Ginnethon, Meshullam:

17 Of [q] Abijah, Zichri: of Miniamin of Moadiah, Piltai:

18 Of Bilgah, Shammua: of Shemaiah, Jehonathan:

19 And of Joiarib, [r] Mattenai: of Jedaiah, Uzzi:

20 Of Sallai, Kallai: of Amok, Eber:

21 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah: of Jedaiah, Nethaneel.

22 ¶ The Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers; also the priests, to the reign of Darius the || Persian.

23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in † the book of the Chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

24 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks according to the commandment of David the [s] man of God, [t] ward over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters, keeping the ward at the || thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the [u] governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

27 And at the [x] dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with [y] gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of [z] Netophathi;

29 Also from the [a] house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of [b] Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites [c] purified themselves, and purified the people, and the [d] gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the [e] wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall, toward the [f] dung-gate:

32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah,

33 And [g] Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,

34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah;

35 And certain of the priests' sons with [h] trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph;

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the [i] musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 And at the [k] fountain-gate, which was over against them, they went up by the [l] stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the [m] water-gate eastward.

38 And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the [n] furnaces even unto the broad wall;

39 And from above the [o] gate of Ephraim, and above [p] the old gate, and above the fish-gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep-gate: and they stood still in the [q] prison-gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers † sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered [r] great sacrifices, and [s] rejoiced; for [t] God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced; so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 And at that time were some appointed over the [u] chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the first-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, out of the fields of the cities, the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of [x] their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David and Asaph, of old, there were [y] chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel, in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the [z] portions of the singers and the porters every † day his portion; and they [a] sanctified holy things unto the Levites, and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

CHAPTER XIII.

Divers abuses reformed by Nehemiah.

ON [a] that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found [b] written, that the [c] Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever;

2 Because they [d] met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but [e] hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them; howbeit our God [f] turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had [g] heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the [h] mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And [i] before this, Eliashib the priest, having the [k] oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was [l] allied unto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the [m] meat-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, (which was [n] commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters,) and the offerings of the priests.

Before CHRIST cir. 434.

6 But in all this time [o] was not I at Jerusalem: for in the [p] two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king.

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and [q] understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in [r] the courts of the house of God.

8 And it [s] grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household-stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I † commanded, and they cleansed the chambers; and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat-offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that the [t] portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers that did the [u] work were fled every one to his field.

11 Then [x] contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the [y] house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn, and the new wine, and the oil, unto the treasuries.

13 And I made [z] treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe; and of the Levites, Pedaiah; and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted [a] faithful; and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 [b] Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my † good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof.

15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine-presses on the [c] sabbath, and bringing in [d] sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of [e] burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath-day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of [f] Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and [g] all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in [h] Jerusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that [i] ye do, and profane the sabbath-day?

18 Did not [k] your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye † bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be [l] dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath-day.

20 So the merchants, and sellers of all kind of ware, lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And [m] I commanded the Levites, that they should [n] cleanse themselves, and that they should come and [o] keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath-day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

¶ The BOOK of ESTHER.

CHAPTER I.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts....10 Vashti sent for.

NOW it came to pass in the days of [a] Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned from India even unto Ethiopia, over [b] a hundred and seven and twenty provinces,)
2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus [c] sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in [d] Shushan the palace,
3 In the third year of his reign, he made [e] a feast unto all his princes and his [f] servants; the [g] power of Persia and Media, the [h] nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him;
4 When he [i] shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom, and the honour of his [k] excellent majesty, many days, even a hundred and fourscore days.
5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;
6 Where were white, green, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the [l] beds were of gold and silver, upon [m] a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black marble.
7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and † royal wine [n] in abundance, according to the state of the king.
8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did ‖ compel: for the king had [o] appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.
9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.
10 ¶ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was [p] merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king,
11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king, with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her [q] beauty: for she was fair to look on.
12 But the queen Vashti [r] refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very [s] wroth, and his [t] anger burned in him.
13 Then the king said to the [u] wise men, which [x] knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew [y] law and judgment:
14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, [z] the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw [a] the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;)
15 What shall [b] we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?
16 And Memucan answered † before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done [c] wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.
17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall [d] despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.
18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.
19 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, that Vashti [e] come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she.
20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands [f] honour, both to great and small.
21 And the saying † pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:
22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man [g] should bear rule in his own house; and † that it should be [h] published according to the language of every people.

CHAPTER II.

Out of the choice of virgins, a queen is to be chosen.

AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he [a] remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was [b] decreed against her.
2 Then said the [c] king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there [d] be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in [e] all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their ‖ things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king [f] be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king, and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain [g] Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite,

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with [h] Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he † brought up Hadassah (that is Esther) his uncle's daughter; for she had neither [i] father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own [k] daughter.

8 So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained [l] kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

10 Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had [m] charged her that she should not shew it.

11 And Mordecai walked † every day before the court of the women's house, to † know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 Now, when † every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been [n] twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women,)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her, to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 Now when the [o] turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required [p] nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed: and Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was [q] taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the [r] seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther [s] above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour † in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal † crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even [t] Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave [u] gifts according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate.

20 Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people, as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like [x] as when she was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought [y] to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was [z] known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen, and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both [a] hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the [b] Chronicles before the king.

CHAPTER III.

Haman seeketh revenge upon all the Jews.

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus [a] promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the [b] Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat [c] above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed and reverenced Haman: for the king had [d] so commanded concerning him: but Mordecai [e] bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, [f] Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and [g] he hearkened not unto them, that [h] they told Haman, to see whether [i] Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was [k] a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman [l] full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought [m] to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 In the first month, (that is the month [n] Nisan,) in the [o] twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast [p] Pur, that is, the lot, [q] before Haman, from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is the month Adar.

8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is [r] a certain people [s] scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and [t] their laws are diverse from all people, neither [u] keep they the [x] king's laws, therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed; and I will pay [y] ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

10 And the king took his [z] ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the [a] Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, [b] the people also, to do with them as it [c] seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded, unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province, according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the [d] name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were sent [e] by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish [f] all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, [g] in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment; and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down [h] to drink; but the [i] city Shushan was perplexed.

CHAPTER IV.

The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jews.

WHEN Mordecai perceived [a] all that was done, Mordecai [b] rent his clothes, and put on [c] sackcloth with [d] ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and [e] cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was [f] great mourning among the Jews, and [g] fasting, and weeping, and wailing: and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away the sackcloth from him: but he [h] received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, [i] to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach [k] went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate:

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the [l] sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them:

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at [m] Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to [n] charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make [o] supplication unto him, and to make [p] request before him for her people.

9 And Hatach came and [q] told Esther the words of Mordecai:

10 [r] Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether [s] man or woman, shall come unto the king into the [t] inner court, who is [u] not called, there is [x] one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall [y] hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these [z] thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in [a] the king's house more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace [b] at this time, then shall there † enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from [c] another place; but [d] thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and [e] who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

15 Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer;

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and [f] fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: [g] I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and [h] so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law; and [i] if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mordecai went his way, and [k] did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

CHAPTER V.

Esther obtaineth the grace of the golden sceptre.

NOW it came to pass on the [a] third day that Esther put on her [b] royal apparel, and stood in the [c] inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she [d] obtained favour in his sight: and the king [e] held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the [f] top of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, [g] What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the [h] half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther [i] answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the [k] banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and [l] it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

7 Then answered Esther, and said, [m] My petition and my request is;

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the king hath said.

9 Then went Haman forth that day [n] joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he [o] stood not up, nor moved for him, he was [p] full of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless, Haman [q] refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and [r] Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the [s] glory of his riches, and the [t] multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had [u] promoted him, and how

CHAPTER VI.

Ahasuerus rewardeth Mordecai.

ON [a] that night could not the king [b] sleep; and he commanded to bring the book of records of the Chronicles; and they were read before the king.

2 And it was [c] found written, That Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought [d] to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

3 And the king said, [e] What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

4 And the king said, Who is in the court? (Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king [f] to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.)

5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man † whom the king delighteth to honour? (Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?)

7 And Haman answered the king, For the man [g] whom the king delighteth to honour,

8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the [h] horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown-royal which is set upon his head:

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and [i] bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Haman the apparel, and the horse, and [k] arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12 And Mordecai [l] came again to the king's gate: but Haman hasted to his house mourning, and having his head [m] covered.

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends [n] every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt [o] not prevail against him, but shalt surely [p] fall before him

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had [q] prepared.

CHAPTER VII.

Esther maketh suit for her own life and her people's.

SO the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.

2 And the king said again unto Esther, on the [a] second day, at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let [b] my life be given me at my petition, and [c] my people at my request:

4 For we are [d] sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish: but if we had been sold for [e] bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not [f] countervail the king's damage.

5 Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Esther said, The [g] adversary and enemy is this [h] wicked Haman. Then Haman was [i] afraid before the king and the queen.

7 And the king, arising from the banquet of wine in his [k] wrath, went into the palace-garden: and Haman [l] stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil [m] determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace-garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was [n] fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they [o] covered Haman's face.

9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, [p] said before the king, Behold also, the [q] gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, [r] Hang him thereon.

10 So they [s] hanged Haman on the gallows that he [t] had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath [u] pacified.

CHAPTER VIII.

Esther maketh suit to reverse Haman's letters.

ON [a] that day did the king Ahasuerus [b] give the house of Haman, the Jew's enemy, unto Esther the queen: and Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was [c] unto her.

2 And the king took off [d] his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai [e] over the house of Haman.

3 And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the [f] mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then the king [g] held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be [h] pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of

Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can I † endure to see the evil that shall come [i] unto my people? or how can I endure to see the [k] destruction of my kindred?

7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen, and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the [l] house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because [m] he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may [n] no man reverse.

9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the [o] third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof: and it was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, a hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' [p] name, and sealed it with the king's ring; and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and [q] to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take [r] the spoil of them for a prey,

12 [s] Upon one day, in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 The copy of the writing, for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day [t] to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at [u] Shushan the palace.

15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great [x] crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan [y] rejoiced and was glad.

16 The Jews had [z] light, and gladness, and [a] joy, and [b] honour.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, [c] a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land [d] became Jews; for the [e] fear of the Jews fell upon them.

CHAPTER IX.

The Jews slay their enemies, and the sons of Haman.

cir. 509.

NOW in the twelfth month, that is the month [a] Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews [b] hoped to have power over them, (though it was [c] turned to the contrary, that the Jews had [d] rule over them that hated them,)

2 The Jews [e] gathered themselves together in their cities, throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as [f] sought their hurt; and no man could withstand them; for the [g] fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the [h] fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces; for this man Mordecai waxed [i] greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews [k] smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men,

7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

10 The ten sons of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, [l] slew they; but on the spoil laid they [m] not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

12 And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee; or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, [n] If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let [o] Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done; and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the [p] other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand (but they laid not their hands on the prey)

17 On the [q] thirteenth day of the month Adar: and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of [r] feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and † feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

20 And Mordecai [s] wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same [t] yearly.

22 As the days wherein the Jews [u] rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from [x] sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had [y] begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast ‖ Pur (that is, the lot) to consume them, and to destroy them:

25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters, that his wicked device which he devised against the Jews, should [z] return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days [a] Purim, after the name of Pur: therefore, for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as [b] joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time, every year;

28 And that these days should be [c] remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of [d] peace and truth,

31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed † for themselves, and for their [e] seed, the [f] matters of the fastings and their [g] cry.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

CHAPTER X.

1 Ahasuerus' greatness....3 Mordecai's advancement.

AND the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the [a] isles of the sea.

2 And all the acts of his power, and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, whereunto the king † advanced him, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordecai the Jew was [b] next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and [c] accepted of the multitude of his brethren, [d] seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

¶ The BOOK of JOB.

CHAPTER I.

The holiness, and religious care of Job for his children.

THERE was a man in the land of [a] Uz, whose name was [b] Job; and that man was [c] perfect and [d] upright, and one that [e] feared God, and [f] eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him [g] seven sons and three daughters.

3 His [h] substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 And his sons went and [i] feasted in their houses every one [k] his day; and sent and called for their three sisters, [l] to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and [m] sanctified them, and [n] rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt-offerings according [o] to the number of them all: for Job said, [p] It may be that my sons have [q] sinned, and cursed God in their [r] hearts. Thus did Job [s] continually.

6 ¶ Now there was a day when [t] the sons of God came to [u] present themselves before the LORD, and [x] Satan came also among them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, [y] Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From [z] going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Hast not thou made a [a] hedge about him, and about his [b] house, and about all that he hath on every side? Thou hast blessed the [c] work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land:

11 But put forth thy hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will [d] curse thee to thy face.

12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is [e] in thy power; [f] only upon himself put not forth thy hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were [g] eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came [h] a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them;

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and [i] I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 [k] While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, [l] The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, behold, there came [m] a great wind from the wilderness, and † smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead ; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 [n] Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and [o] fell down upon the ground, and [p] worshipped,

21 And said, [q] Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD [r] gave, and the LORD hath [s] taken away ; [t] blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

CHAPTER II.

Satan obtaineth further leave to tempt Job

AGAIN there was a day when the sons of God came to [a] present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from [b] walking up and down in it.

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he [c] holdeth fast his integrity, although [d] thou movedst me against him, to destroy him [e] without cause.

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin ; yea, [f] all that a man hath will he give for his life :

5 But put forth thy hand now, and touch his [g] bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thy hand ; but [h] save his life.

7 ¶ So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with [i] sore boils, from the [k] sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him [l] a potsherd to scrape himself withal ; and he [m] sat down among [n] the ashes.

9 Then said [o] his wife unto him, Dost thou [p] still retain thine integrity? Curse God, and die.

10 But he said [q] unto her, Thou speakest as one of the [r] foolish women speaketh. What! shall we receive [s] good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive [t] evil? In all this did not Job sin with his [u] lips.

11 ¶ Now when Job's [x] three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own [y] place ; Eliphaz the [z] Temanite, and Bildad the [a] Shuhite, and Zophar the [b] Naamathite : for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him, and to [c] comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and [d] knew him not, they lifted up their voice and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and [e] none spake a word unto him: for they saw that [f] his grief was very great.

CHAPTER III.

Job curseth the day and services of his birth.

AFTER this [a] opened Job his mouth, and [b] cursed his day.

2 And Job spake, and said,

3 Let [c] the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

4 Let that day be [d] darkness ; let not God [e] regard it from above, neither let [f] the light shine upon it

5 Let darkness and the [g] shadow of death stain it ; let a [h] cloud dwell upon it ; let the [i] blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let [k] darkness seize upon it ; let it not be [l] joined unto the days of the year ; let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be [m] solitary ; let no [n] joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them [o] curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.

9 Let the [p] stars of the twilight thereof be dark ; let it look for light, but have [q] none ; neither let it see the dawning of the day :

10 Because it shut not up the doors of [r] my mother's womb, nor hid [s] sorrow from mine eyes.

11 Why died I not from [t] the womb? why did I not [u] give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept : then had I been at rest,

14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which built desolate places for themselves ;

15 Or with princes that had [x] gold, who [y] filled their houses with silver :

16 Or as a [z] hidden untimely birth I had [a] not been ; as infants which [b] never saw light.

17 There the wicked [c] cease from troubling ; and there the [d] weary be at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together ; they hear not the voice of the [e] oppressor.

19 The [f] small and great are there ; and the [g] servant is free from his master.

20 Wherefore is [h] light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the [i] bitter in soul ;

21 Which [k] long for death, but it cometh not ; and [l] dig for it more than for hid treasures ;

22 Which [m] rejoice exceedingly, and are glad when they can find the grave?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is [n] hid, and whom God hath [o] hedged in?

24 For my sighing cometh [p] before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

25 For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet ; yet trouble came.

CHAPTER IV.

Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religion.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite [a] answered and said,

2 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou [b] be grieved? but who can [c] withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast [d] instructed many, and thou hast [e] strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upholden him that was [f] falling, and thou hast strengthened the [g] feeble knees.

5 But now it is [h] come upon thee, and thou faintest ; it [i] toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this thy [k] fear, thy [l] confidence, the [m] uprightness of thy ways, and thy hope?

7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.
10 The roaring of the [n] lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.
11 The old lion perisheth [o] for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.
12 Now a thing was [p] secretly brought to me, and mine ear received [q] a little thereof.
13 In thoughts from the [r] visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men,
14 Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my [s] bones to shake.
15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the [t] hair of my flesh stood up:
16 It stood still, but I could [u] not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes; there was [x] silence, and I heard [y] a voice, saying,
17 Shall [z] mortal man be [a] more just than God? shall a man be [b] more pure than his Maker?
18 Behold, he put [c] no trust in his [d] servants; and his angels he [e] charged with folly:
19 How much less on them that [f] dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are [g] crushed before the moth?
20 They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever, without any regarding it.
21 Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? they die, even without wisdom.

CHAPTER V.

God is to be regarded in affliction.

CALL now, if there be any that will [a] answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou [b] turn?
2 For [c] wrath killeth the foolish man, and envy slayeth the silly one.
3 I have seen the [d] foolish taking root: but [e] suddenly I cursed his habitation.
4 His children are [f] far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any [g] to deliver them.
5 Whose harvest the [h] hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.
6 Although affliction cometh not forth of the [i] dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground,
7 Yet man is [k] born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward.
8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause;
9 Which [l] doeth great things and unsearchable; marvellous things without number:
10 Who giveth [m] rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields:
11 To [n] set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be [o] exalted to safety.
12 He disappointeth the [p] devices of the crafty, so that their hands [q] cannot perform their enterprise.
13 He taketh the wise in their [r] own craftiness; and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.
14 They meet with [s] darkness in the day-time, and grope in the noon-day as in the night.
15 But he [t] saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.
16 So the poor hath hope, and [u] iniquity stoppeth her mouth.
17 Behold, [x] happy is the man whom God correcteth; therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:
18 For he maketh sore, and [y] bindeth up; he woundeth, and his hands make whole.
19 He shall deliver thee in [z] six troubles; yea, in [a] seven there shall no evil touch thee.
20 In [b] famine he shall redeem thee from death; and in war from the power of the sword.
21 [c] Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue; neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.
22 At destruction and famine thou shalt [d] laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.
23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field; and the [e] beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.
24 And thou shalt [f] know that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not sin.
25 Thou shalt know also that [g] thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth.
26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full [h] age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season.
27 Lo this, we have [i] searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it for [k] thy good.

CHAPTER VI.

Job sheweth that his complaints are not causeless.

BUT Job answered and said,
2 Oh that my [a] grief were thoroughly [b] weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together!
3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore my words are [c] swallowed up.
4 For the [d] arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrors of God do [e] set themselves in array against me.
5 Doth the wild ass bray when he hath [f] grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?
6 Can that which is [g] unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
7 The things that my soul [h] refused to touch are as my [i] sorrowful meat.
8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me the thing that [k] I long for;
9 Even that it would please God to [l] destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!
10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for I have not [m] concealed the words of the Holy One.
11 What is my strength, that I should [n] hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?
12 Is my strength [o] the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brass?
13 Is not [p] my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?
14 To him that is afflicted [q] pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.
15 My brethren have [r] dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away;
16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:
17 What time they wax warm they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.
18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.
19 The troops of [s] Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them.
20 They were [t] confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.
21 For now ye are nothing; ye see my casting down, and are [u] afraid.

Before CHRIST cir. 1520.

22 Did I say, [x] Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance?
23 Or, Deliver me from the enemies' hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the [y] mighty?
24 [z] Teach me, and I will [a] hold my tongue; and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
25 How forcible are [b] right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?
26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as [c] wind?
27 Yea, ye [d] overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.
28 Now, therefore, be content: look upon me: for it is [e] evident unto you if I lie.
29 [f] Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is in it.
30 Is there iniquity in [g] my tongue? cannot my taste [h] discern perverse things?

CHAPTER VII.

Job excuseth his desire of death.

[a] IS there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of [b] a hireling?
2 As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as a hireling looketh for [c] the reward of his work;
3 So am I made to possess [d] months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.
4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the [e] night be gone? and I am full of [f] tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.
5 My flesh is clothed with [g] worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become [h] loathsome.
6 My days are [i] swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without [k] hope.
7 O remember that my life is [l] wind: mine eye shall no more see good.
8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me [m] no more: [n] thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.
9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away; so he that goeth down to the grave shall [o] come up no more.
10 He shall return no more to [p] his house, neither shall his place know him any more.
11 Therefore I will not [q] refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
12 [r] Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou [s] settest a watch over me?
13 When I say, [t] My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;
14 Then thou [u] scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:
15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my † life.
16 I loathe it: I would not live always: [x] let me alone; for my days are vanity.
17 What is [y] man that thou shouldest magnify him? and that thou shouldest set thy heart upon him?
18 And that thou shouldest visit him [z] every morning, and try him every moment?
19 [a] How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?
20 I have [b] sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou Preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?
21 And why dost thou not † pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAPTER VIII.

Bildad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men.

Before CHRIST cir. 1520.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
2 [a] How long wilt thou speak [b] these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?
3 Doth God [c] pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?
4 If thy [d] children have sinned [e] against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression;
5 If thou wouldest [f] seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;
6 If thou wert [g] pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.
7 Though thy [h] beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.
8 For [i] inquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:
9 (For we are but of yesterday, and [k] know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)
10 Shall not they [l] teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?
11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?
12 Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.
13 So are the paths of all that [m] forget God; and the [n] hypocrite's hope shall perish:
14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be [o] a spider's web.
15 He shall [p] lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.
16 He is [q] green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.
17 [r] His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.
18 If he [s] destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.
19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and [t] out of the earth shall others grow.
20 Behold, God will [u] not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil-doers;
21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with [x] rejoicing.
22 They that hate thee shall be [y] clothed with shame; and the dwelling-place of the wicked shall come to nought.

CHAPTER IX.

Man's innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

THEN Job [a] answered and said,
2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should man be just [b] with God?
3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him [c] one of a thousand.
4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath [d] hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?
5 Which [e] removeth the mountains, and they know not; which overturneth them in his anger;
6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the [f] pillars thereof tremble;
7 Which [g] commandeth the sun, and it riseth not, and sealeth up the stars;
8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and [h] treadeth upon the waves of the sea;
9 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the [i] chambers of the south;

Before CHRIST cir. 1520.

10 Which doeth great things [k] past finding out, yea, and wonders without number.

11 Lo, he goeth [l] by me, and I see him not; he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 Behold, he taketh away, [m] who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, the [n] proud helpers do stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I [o] answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I [p] not answer, but I would make supplication to my Judge.

16 If I [q] had called, and he had answered me: yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds [r] without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with [s] bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is [t] strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

20 If I [u] justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I [x] not know my soul: I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the [y] perfect and the wicked.

23 If the scourge [z] slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The earth [a] is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?

25 Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they [b] see no good.

26 They are passed away as the swift ships; as the [c] eagle that hasteth to the prey.

27 If I say, I will forget my [d] complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself;

28 I am [e] afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I [f] in vain?

30 If I [g] wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;

31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the [h] ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.

32 For he is not a [i] man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.

33 Neither is there any [k] days-man betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his [l] fear terrify me;

35 [m] Then would I speak, and not fear him: but [n] it is not so with me.

CHAPTER X.

Job expostulateth with God about his afflictions.

MY soul is [a] weary of my life: I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the [b] bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say unto God, Do not [c] condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee, that thou shouldest oppress, that thou shouldest despise the [d] work of thy hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Hast thou [e] eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?

5 [f] Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,

6 That thou [g] inquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

7 [h] Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can [i] deliver out of thy hand.

8 Thy hands have made me, and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me [k] as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 Hast thou not [l] poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

11 Thou hast [m] clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me [n] life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou [o] hid in thy heart: I know that this is with thee.

14 If I sin, then thou [p] markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, [q] wo unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore [r] see thou mine affliction;

16 For it [s] increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion; and again thou shewest thyself [t] marvellous upon me.

17 Thou renewest thy [u] witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; [x] changes and war are against me.

18 Wherefore then hast thou [y] brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and [z] no eye had seen me!

19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 Are not my [a] days few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,

21 Before I go whence I shall [b] not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;

22 A land of [c] darkness, as darkness itself: and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

CHAPTER XI.

Zophar reproveth Job for justifying himself.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not the [a] multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy lies make men hold their peace? and when thou [b] mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

4 For [c] thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.

5 But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;

6 And that he would shew thee the [d] secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know, therefore, that God exacteth of thee [e] less than thine iniquity deserveth.

7 Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto [f] perfection?

8 It is [g] as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?

9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

10 If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can [h] hinder him?

11 For he knoweth [i] vain men: he seeth wickedness also: will he not then consider it?
12 For vain man would [k] be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.
13 If thou [l] prepare thy heart, and stretch out thy hands toward him;
14 If iniquity be in [m] thy hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.
15 For then shalt thou [n] lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear:
16 Because thou shalt [o] forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:
17 And thine age shall be clearer than the noonday; thou shalt [p] shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.
18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take [q] thy rest in safety.
19 Also thou shalt [r] lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall make suit unto thee.
20 But the [s] eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost.

CHAPTER XII.

Job maintaineth himself against his friends.

AND Job answered and said,
2 No doubt but ye are [a] the people, and wisdom shall die [b] with you.
3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not [c] inferior to you: yea, who knoweth not such things as these?
4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who [d] calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.
5 He that is ready [e] to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.
6 The tabernacles of robbers [f] prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.
7 But [g] ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:
8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee; and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.
9 Who knoweth not in all these, that the [h] hand of the LORD hath wrought this?
10 In whose [i] hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.
11 Doth not the [k] ear try words; and the mouth taste his meat?
12 With the [l] ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.
13 With him is [m] wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.
14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be [n] built again: he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.
15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up; also he [o] sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.
16 With him is [p] strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his.
17 He leadeth counsellors [q] away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools.
18 He [r] looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.
19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and [s] overthroweth the mighty.

22 He discovereth [x] deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.
23 He [y] increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again.
24 He taketh away [z] the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

CHAPTER XIII.

Job reproveth his friends of partiality.

LO, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.
2 What ye know, the same [a] do I know also: I am not inferior unto you.
3 Surely I would [b] speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.
4 But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all physicians of [c] no value.
5 Oh that you would altogether hold your peace! and it should be [d] your wisdom.
6 [e] Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.
7 Will you speak wickedly [f] for God? and talk deceitfully for him?
8 Will ye [g] accept his person? will ye contend for God?
9 Is it good that he should search you out? or, as one man [h] mocketh another, do ye so mock him?
10 He will surely [i] reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.
11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his [k] dread fall upon you?
12 Your remembrances are like unto [l] ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.
13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and [m] let come on me what will.
14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life [n] in my hand?
15 Though he slay me, [o] yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.
16 He also shall be my salvation: for a hypocrite shall [p] not come before him.
17 [q] Hear diligently my speech and my declaration with your ears.
18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; [r] I know that I shall be justified.
19 Who is he [s] that will plead with me? for now, if I [t] hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.
20 Only do not [u] two things unto me; then will I not hide myself from thee.
21 Withdraw [x] thy hand far from me; and let not thy dread make me afraid:
22 Then [y] call thou, and I will answer; [z] or let me speak, and answer thou me.
23 [a] How many are mine iniquities and sins! make me to know my transgression and my sin.
24 Wherefore [b] hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?
25 Wilt thou [c] break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?
26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of [d] my youth.

CHAPTER XIV.

Job entreateth God for favour, by the shortness of life.

MAN that is born of a woman is of [a] few days, and full of trouble.

2 He cometh forth like a flower, [b] and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And dost thou [c] open thine eyes upon such a one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

4 Who can bring a clean thing out of [d] an unclean? not one.

5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee; thou hast appointed his [e] bounds that he cannot pass:

6 Turn from him that he [f] may rest, till he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day.

7 For there is [g] hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof [h] die in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and wasteth away; yea, man giveth up the ghost, and [i] where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up;

12 So man [k] lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be [l] no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me [m] secret until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall he [n] live again? All the days of my appointed time, will I wait, till my change come.

15 Thou shalt [o] call; and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thy hands.

16 For now thou [p] numberest my steps; dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 My transgression is [q] sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling [r] cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou washest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the [s] hope of man.

20 Thou [t] prevailest for ever against him; and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he [u] perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall [x] mourn.

CHAPTER XV.

Eliphaz reproveth Job's impiety in justifying himself.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should [a] a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with [b] unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, thou castest off fear, and [c] restrainest prayer before God.

5 For thy [d] mouth uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.

6 Thine own mouth [e] condemneth thee, and not I, yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the [f] first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?

8 Hast thou heard the [g] secret of God? and dost thou [h] restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 What knowest thou, that [i] we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 [k] With us are both the gray-headed and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the [l] consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing [m] with thee?

12 Why doth thy heart carry thee away? and what do thine eyes wink at,

13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest [n] such words go out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he should be [o] clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, [p] the heavens are not clean in his sight:

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which [q] drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have [r] seen I will declare;

18 Which wise men have told [s] from their fathers, and have not hid it:

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and [t] no stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man [u] travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 [x] A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He [y] believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He [z] wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall [a] prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he [b] stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26 He [c] runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers;

27 Because he covereth his face with his [d] fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwelleth [e] in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be [f] rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness: the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the [g] breath of his mouth shall he go away.

31 Let not him that is deceived [h] trust in vanity; for vanity shall be his recompense.

32 It shall be [i] accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast [k] off his flower as the olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the [l] tabernacles of bribery.

35 They [m] conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

CHAPTER XVI.

Job maintaineth his innocence.

Before CHRIST cir. 1520.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 I have heard many [a] such things: [b] miserable comforters are ye all.
3 Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?
4 I also [c] could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake my head at you.
5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should [d] assuage your grief.
6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged; and though I forbear, what am I [e] eased?
7 But now he hath made [f] me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.
8 And thou hast filled me [g] with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.
9 [h] He teareth me in his wrath who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.
10 They have [i] gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.
11 [k] God hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.
12 I was [l] at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.
13 His archers compass me round about; he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth [m] not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.
14 He breaketh me with [n] breach upon breach; he runneth upon me like a giant.
15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and [o] defiled my horn in the dust.
16 My face is [p] foul with weeping, and on mine eyelids is the shadow of death;
17 [q] Not for any injustice in my hands: also my prayer is pure.
18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let [r] my cry have no place.
19 Also now, behold, [s] my witness is in heaven, and my record is on high.
20 My friends scorn me; but mine eye [t] poureth out tears unto God.
21 Oh that one might plead for a man with God, as a man [u] pleadeth for his neighbour!
22 When a few years are come, then I shall [x] go the way whence I shall not return.

CHAPTER XVII.

Job appealeth from men to God.

MY breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the [a] graves are ready for me.
2 Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye continue in their [b] provocation?
3 Lay down now, put me in [c] a surety with thee; who is he that will strike hands with me?
4 For thou hast [d] hid their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.
5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children [e] shall fail.
6 [f] He hath made me also a by-word of the people, and aforetime I was as a tabret.
7 Mine eye also is [g] dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shadow.
8 Upright men shall be [h] astonished at this, and the innocent [i] shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.
9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be [k] stronger and stronger.
10 But as for you all, do you return, and come now: for I cannot find [l] one wise man among you.
11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.
12 They [m] change the night into day: the light is short because of darkness.
13 If I [n] wait, the grave is my house: I have made my bed in the darkness.
14 I have said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother and my sister.
15 And where is now [o] my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?

Bildad reproveth Job of presumption and impatience.

THEN answered [a] Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
2 How long will it be ere you [b] make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will speak.
3 Wherefore are we counted [c] as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?
4 [d] He teareth himself in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for thee? and shall the rock be removed out of his place?
5 Yea, the light of the wicked shall be [e] put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.
6 The light shall be [f] dark in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him.
7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and his [g] own counsel shall cast him down.
8 For he is cast into [h] a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.
9 The gin shall take him by the heel, and the [i] robber shall prevail against him.
10 The snare is laid for him in the ground, and [k] a trap for him in the way.
11 [l] Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.
12 His strength shall be hunger-bitten, and destruction shall be [m] ready at his side.
13 It shall devour the strength of his skin: even the first-born of death shall devour his strength.
14 [n] His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle; and it shall bring him to the [o] king of terrors.
15 It shall [p] dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

21 Job craveth pity....25 He believeth the resurrection.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 [a] How long will ye [b] vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

a ch. 18, 2.
b 1 Sam. 1 6. 2 Pet. 2, 8. Ps. 42, 10.

3 These ten times have ye [c] reproached me: you are not ashamed that you make yourselves strange to me.
4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error [d] remaineth with myself.
5 If indeed ye will [e] magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach;
6 Know now that [f] God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.
7 Behold, I cry out of [g] wrong, but I am [h] not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.
8 He hath [i] fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.
9 He hath stripped me of [k] my glory, and taken the crown from my head.
10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and my [l] hope hath he removed like a tree.
11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him as one of [m] his enemies.
12 His troops come [n] together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.
13 He hath put my brethren [o] far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.
14 My kinsfolk have failed, and my [p] familiar friends have forgotten me.
15 They that dwell in my house, and my [q] maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.
16 I called my [r] servant, and he gave me no answer: I entreated him with my mouth.
17 My [s] breath is strange to my wife, though I entreated for the children's sake of mine own body.
18 Yea, [t] young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me.
19 All my [u] inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.
20 [x] My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.
21 Have pity upon me, have [y] pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me.
22 Why do ye persecute me [z] as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?
23 Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!
24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!
25 For [a] I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall [b] stand at the latter day upon the earth:
26 And though, after my skin, worms destroy this body, yet in [c] my flesh shall I see God:
27 Whom I shall see [d] for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.
28 But ye should say, Why [e] persecute we him? seeing the root of the matter is found in me.
29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is [f] a judgment.

CHAPTER XX.

Zophar sheweth the state and portion of the wicked.

THEN answered [a] Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this [b] I make haste.
3 I have heard the [c] check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.
4 Knowest thou not this [d] of old, since man was placed upon earth,
5 That the triumphing of the wicked is [e] short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?
6 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his [f] head reach unto the clouds:
7 Yet he shall perish for ever like his [g] own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?
8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall [h] not be found; yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.
9 The eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall [i] his place any more behold him.
10 [k] His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.
11 His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall [l] lie down with him in the dust.
12 Though wickedness be [m] sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue;
13 Though he spare it, and [n] forsake it not, but keep it still within his mouth;
14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the [o] gall of asps within him.
15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall [p] vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.
16 He shall suck the poison of asps: the [q] viper's tongue shall slay him.
17 He shall [r] not see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of honey and butter.
18 That which he laboured for shall he [s] restore, and shall not swallow it down: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice therein.
19 Because he hath oppressed and hath [t] forsaken the poor; because he hath violently taken away a house which he builded not;
20 Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall [u] not save of that which he desired.
21 There shall none of his meat be [x] left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.
22 In the [y] fullness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.
23 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall [z] cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him [a] while he is eating.
24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the [b] bow of steel shall strike him through.
25 It is [c] drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.
26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places; [d] a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.
27 The [e] heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the [f] earth shall rise up against him.
28 The increase of his house shall [g] depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.
29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage [h] appointed unto him by God.

CHAPTER XXI.

The judgment of the wicked is in anotner world.

BUT Job answered and said,
2 [a] Hear diligently my speech; and let this be your consolations.
3 [b] Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.
4 As for me, is my complaint [c] to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?
5 Mark me, and be [d] astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

Before CHRIST cir. 1520.

6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and [e] trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

7 [f] Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are [g] mighty in power?

8 Their [h] seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the [i] rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and [k] faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like [l] a flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13 They spend their days in wealth, and [m] in a moment go down to the grave.

14 Therefore they say unto God, [n] Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 [o] What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 Lo, [p] their good is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out? and how oft cometh their destruction upon them? God [q] distributeth sorrows in his anger.

18 They are as [r] stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

19 God layeth up his iniquity for his children: [s] he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

20 His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall [t] drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is [u] cut off in the midst?

22 Shall any [x] teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 One dieth in his [y] full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet:

24 His [z] breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.

25 And another dieth in the [a] bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

26 They shall lie down [b] alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

27 Behold, [c] I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, Where is the [d] house of the prince? and where are the dwelling-places of the wicked?

29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their [e] tokens,

30 That the wicked is [f] reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

31 Who shall declare his way [g] to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?

32 Yet shall he be brought to the [h] grave, and shall remain in the tomb.

33 The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall [i] draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

34 How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth [k] falsehood?

CHAPTER XXII.

Eliphaz sheweth that man's goodness profiteth not God.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 Can a man be [a] profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

3 Is it any [b] pleasure to the Almighty that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Will he [c] reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

5 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities [d] infinite?

6 For thou hast taken [e] a pledge from thy brother for nought, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast [f] withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But as for the mighty man, [g] he had the earth; and the honourable man dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty; and the [h] arms of the fatherless have been broken:

10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and [i] sudden fear troubleth thee;

11 Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of [k] waters cover thee.

12 Is not God in the height of heaven? and, behold, the [l] height of the stars, how high they are!

13 And thou sayest, [m] How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

14 [n] Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

15 Hast thou [o] marked the old way which wicked men have trodden;

16 Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was [p] overflown with a flood;

17 Which said unto God, Depart from us: and what can the Almighty do [q] for them?

18 Yet he [r] filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19 The righteous see it, and are glad; and the innocent [s] laugh them to scorn.

20 Whereas our [t] substance is not cut down: but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.

21 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby [u] good shall come unto thee.

22 Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words [x] in thy heart.

23 If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be [y] built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

24 Then shalt thou lay up [z] gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.

25 Yea, the Almighty shall be thy [a] defence, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.

26 For then shalt thou have thy [b] delight in the Almighty, and shalt [c] lift up thy face unto God.

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall [d] hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee; and the [e] light shall shine upon thy ways.

29 When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the [f] humble person.

30 [g] He shall deliver the island of the innocent; and it is delivered by the pureness of thy [h] hands.

CHAPTER XXIII.

God, who is invisible, observeth our ways.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 Even to-day is my complaint bitter: my [a] stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 Oh that I knew where I might [b] find him! that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would [c] order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

Before CHRIST cir. 1520.

5 I would [d] know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

6 Will he plead against me with his great power? [e] no; but he would put strength in me.

7 [f] There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my [g] judge.

8 Behold, I go forward, [h] but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot [i] perceive him:

9 On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he [k] hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him:

10 But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath [l] tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

11 My foot hath held his steps: his way have I kept, and [m] not declined.

12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth [n] more than my necessary food.

13 But he is in one mind, and [o] who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

14 For he performeth the thing that is [p] appointed for me: and many such things are with him.

15 Therefore am I [q] troubled at his presence; when I consider, I am afraid of him.

16 For God maketh my heart [r] soft, and the Almighty troubleth me:

17 Because I was not cut off [s] before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Wickedness goeth often unpunished....17 There is a secret judgment for the wicked.

WHY, seeing [a] times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?

2 Some [b] remove the land-marks; they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof;

3 They drive away [c] the ass of the fatherless; they take the widow's ox for a pledge;

4 They turn the needy out of the way: the [d] poor of the earth hide themselves together.

5 Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work, [e] rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap every one his [f] corn in the field, and they gather the vintage of the wicked;

7 They cause the [g] naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold;

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the [h] rock for want of a shelter;

9 They [i] pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor;

10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the [k] sheaf from the hungry;

11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their wine-presses, and [l] suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out; [m] yet God layeth not folly to them.

13 They are of those that [n] rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

14 The murderer, rising with the light, killeth the poor and needy, and [o] in the night is as a thief.

15 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye [p] shall see me; and disguiseth his face.

16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the day-time: [q] they know not the light.

17 For the morning is to them even as the [r] shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: [s] he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards.

19 Drought and heat consume the snow-waters; so doth the [t] grave those which have sinned.

20 The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him: he shall be [u] no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.

21 He evil entreateth the [x] barren that beareth not, and doeth not good to the widow.

22 He [y] draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life.

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet [z] his eyes are upon their ways.

24 They are exalted for [a] a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the [b] tops of the ears of corn.

25 And if it be [c] not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

CHAPTER XXV.

Bildad sheweth that man cannot be justified before God.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 [a] Dominion and [b] fear are with him; he maketh [c] peace in his high places.

3 Is there any number of his [d] armies? and upon whom doth not his [e] light arise?

4 How then can man be [f] justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

5 Behold, even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not [g] pure in his sight:

6 How much less man, that is a worm, and the son of man, which is [h] a worm?

CHAPTER XXVI.

Job reproveth the uncharitable spirit of Bildad.

BUT Job answered and said,

2 How hast thou [a] helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

3 How hast thou counselled him that hath [b] no wisdom? and how hast thou [c] plentifully declared the thing as it is?

4 [d] To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

5 Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.

6 [e] Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no covering.

7 He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and [f] hangeth the earth upon nothing.

8 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is [g] not rent under them.

9 He holdeth back the face of his [h] throne, and [i] spreadeth his cloud upon it.

10 He hath compassed the waters with [k] bounds, [l] until the day and night come to an end.

11 The pillars of heaven tremble, and are astonished at his [m] reproof.

12 He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the [n] proud.

13 By his Spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the [o] crooked serpent.

14 Lo, these are parts of his ways; but how [p] little a portion is heard of him? but the [q] thunder of his power who can understand?

CHAPTER XXVII.

The blessings which the wicked have are turned into curses.

Before CHRIST cir. 1520.

MOREOVER, [a] Job continued his parable, and said,

2 As God liveth, who hath [b] taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul;

3 All the while my breath is in me, and the [c] spirit of God is in my nostrils,

4 My lips shall not speak [d] wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

5 God forbid that I should [e] justify you: till I die I will [f] not remove mine integrity from me.

6 My righteousness [g] I hold fast, and will not let it go: [h] my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

7 [i] Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.

8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God [k] taketh away his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry when [l] trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he [m] always call upon God?

11 [n] I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether [o] vain?

13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of [p] oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the [q] sword; and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be [r] buried in death; and his widows shall [s] not weep.

16 Though he [t] heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but [u] the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house [x] as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall [y] not be gathered: [z] he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away [a] in the night.

21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth; and, as a storm, [b] hurleth him out of his place.

22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain [c] flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall [d] clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

There is a knowledge of natural things.

SURELY there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they [a] fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and [b] brass is molten out of the stone.

3 He setteth [c] an end to darkness, and searcheth out all [d] perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh [e] bread; and under it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of [f] sapphires; and it hath dust of gold.

7 There is [g] a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 He putteth forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He [h] cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye [i] seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is [k] hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But [l] where shall wisdom be found? and where is the [m] place of understanding?

13 Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the [n] land of the living.

14 The [o] depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.

15 It cannot be gotten for [p] gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious [q] onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for [r] jewels of fine gold.

18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of [s] pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

21 Seeing it is [t] hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.

22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.

23 [u] God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and [x] seeth under the whole heaven;

25 To make the [y] weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.

26 When he made [z] a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder;

27 Then did he see it, and [a] declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

28 And [b] unto man he said, Behold, the [c] fear of the LORD, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

CHAPTER XXIX.

Job bemoaneth himself of his former prosperity.

MOREOVER Job [a] continued his parable, and said,

2 Oh that I were as in [b] months past, as in the days when God preserved me;

3 When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through [c] darkness;

4 As I was in the days of my youth when the [d] secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty was yet [e] with me, when my children were about me;

6 When I [f] washed my steps with butter, and [g] the rock poured me out rivers of oil;

7 When I [h] went out to the gate, through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street;

8 The young men saw me, and [i] hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes [k] refrained talking, and [l] laid their hand on their mouth.

10 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard me, then it [m] blessed me; and when the eye saw me, [n] it gave witness to me:

Before CHRIST cir. 1520.

12 Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had [o] none to help him.
13 [p] The blessing of him that [q] was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
14 [r] I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.
15 I was [s] eyes to the blind, and [t] feet was I to the lame.
16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not [u] I searched out.
17 And I brake the [x] jaws of the wicked, and [y] plucked the spoil out of his teeth.
18 Then [z] I said, I shall die in my [a] nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.
19 My root was spread out [b] by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.
20 My [c] glory was fresh in me, and my bow was [d] renewed in my hand.
21 Unto me men gave ear, and [e] waited, and kept silence at [f] my counsel.
22 [g] After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.
23 And they waited for me [h] as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.
24 If I [i] laughed on them, they [k] believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.
25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAPTER XXX.

Job's honour is turned into extreme contempt.

BUT now they that are younger than I [a] have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.
2 Yea, whereto might the [b] strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?
3 For [c] want and famine they were [d] solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste:
4 Who cut up [e] mallows by the bushes, and juniper-roots for their [f] meat.
5 They were [g] driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief,)
6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.
7 Among the bushes they [h] brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.
8 They were children of fools, yea, children of base men; they were viler than the earth.
9 And now am I their [i] song; yea, I am their by-word.
10 They abhor me, they [k] flee far from me, and spare not to [l] spit in my face.
11 Because he hath loosed my cord, and [m] afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.
12 Upon my [n] right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.
13 They [o] mar my path, they [p] set forward my calamity, they have [q] no helper.
14 They [r] came upon me as a wide breaking-in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.
15 [s] Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind; and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.
16 And now my soul is [t] poured out upon me: the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.
17 My bones are pierced in me in [u] the night-season; and my sinews [x] take no rest.
18 By the great force of my disease is my [y] garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.
19 He hath cast me into the [z] mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.
20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I [a] stand up, and thou [b] regardest me not.
21 Thou art become [c] cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me.
22 Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my [d] substance.
23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the [e] house appointed for all living.
24 Howbeit he will not [f] stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.
25 Did not [g] I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?
26 When [h] I looked for good, then evil came unto me; and when I waited for light, there came darkness.
27 My [i] bowels boiled, and rested not; the days of affliction [k] prevented me.
28 I went [l] mourning [m] without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.
29 I am [n] a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls.
30 [o] My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burnt with heat.
31 My harp also is turned to mourning, and my [p] organ into the voice of them that weep.

CHAPTER XXXI.

Job maketh a solemn protestation of his integrity.

I MADE a covenant with [a] mine eyes; why then should I [b] think upon a maid?
2 For what [c] portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?
3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and [d] a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?
4 Doth not he [e] see my ways, and count all my steps?
5 If I have [f] walked with vanity, or if my [g] foot hath hasted to deceit;
6 Let me be [h] weighed in an even balance, that God [i] may know mine integrity.
7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and [k] my heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to my hands;
8 Then let me [l] sow, and let another eat: yea, let my offspring be rooted out.
9 If my heart have been deceived [m] by a woman; or if I have [n] laid wait at my neighbour's door;
10 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let [o] others bow down upon her.
11 For this is a heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the [p] judges.
12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would [q] root out all mine increase.
13 If I did [r] despise the cause of my man-servant, or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me;
14 What then shall I do when God riseth up? and, when he [s] visiteth, what shall I answer him?
15 Did not he that made me in the womb make [t] him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?
16 If I have withheld the poor from their [u] desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;
17 Or have [x] eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

22 [e] Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder-blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.

23 For [f] destruction from God was a [g] terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

26 If I [k] beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness, 28 This also were an iniquity [n] to be punished by the judge : for I should have [o] denied the God that is above.

34 (Did I fear a great multitude, or did the [u] contempt of families terrify me, that I [x] kept silence, and went not out of the door ?

35 Oh that one would hear me ! behold, my desire is that the Almighty would [y] answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book :

36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as [z] a crown to me.

37 I would [a] declare unto him the number of my steps ; as a prince would I [b] go near unto him.)

39 If I have [d] eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life ;

40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job [e] are ended.

CHAPTER XXXII.

Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends.

SO these three men [a] ceased to answer Job, because he was [b] righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was [c] kindled the wrath of Elihu, the son of Barachel the [d] Buzite, of the kindred of Ram ; against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified [e] himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had [f] condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were [g] elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old ; wherefore I was [h] afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, [i] Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach [k] wisdom.

8 But there is [l] a spirit in man ; and the [m] inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 [n] Great men are not always wise ; neither do the [o] aged understand judgment.

10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me ; I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words ; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst you searched out what to say.

12 Yea, [p] I attended unto you ; and, behold, there was none of you that [q] convinced Job, or that [r] answered his words :

13 [s] Lest ye should say, [t] We have found out wisdom : [u] God thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now, he hath not directed his words against me ; neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were [x] amazed ; they answered no more ; they [y] left off speaking.

16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more,)

17 I said, I will answer also my part ; I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of matter ; the spirit within me [z] constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which hath [a] no vent ; it is ready to burst like [b] new bottles.

20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed : I will [c] open my lips, and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, [d] accept any man's person ; neither let me give [e] flattering titles unto man.

22 For [f] I know not to give flattering titles ; in so doing my Maker would soon [g] take me away.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

Elihu offereth himself, instead of God, to reason with Job.

WHEREFORE, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken [a] to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have [b] opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the [c] uprightness of my heart ; and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The [d] Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up ;

6 Behold, I am according to thy wish [e] in God's stead ; I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, [f] my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in my [g] hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 I am [h] clean without transgression, I am [i] innocent ; neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he [k] findeth occasions against me, he [l] counteth me for his enemy ;

11 He putteth [m] my feet in the stocks, he [n] marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, [o] in this thou art not just : I will answer thee, that God is [p] greater than man.

13 Why dost thou [q] strive against him ? for he [r] giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 For God [s] speaketh once, yea, twice, yet man, [t] perceiveth it not.

15 In [u] a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed,

16 Then he [x] openeth the ears of men, and [y] sealeth their instruction,

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Elihu accuseth Job for charging God with injustice....10 God omnipotent cannot be unjust....31 Man must humble himself unto God....34 Elihu reproveth Job.

FURTHERMORE, Elihu answered and said,
2 Hear my words, O [a] ye wise men; and give ear [b] unto me, ye that have knowledge:
3 For the [c] ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat.
4 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is [d] good.
5 For Job hath [e] said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgment.
6 Should [f] I lie against my right? my wound is incurable [g] without transgression.
7 What man is [h] like Job, who drinketh up scorning [i] like water;
8 Which [k] goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men?
9 For he hath [l] said, It profiteth a man [m] nothing that he should delight himself with God.
10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: Far be it from God, that he should do [n] wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
11 For the work of a man shall he [o] render unto him, and cause every man to [p] find according to his ways.
12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty [q] pervert judgment.

14 If he set his heart upon man, if he [t] gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;
15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto [u] dust.
16 If now thou hast [x] understanding, hear this; hearken to the voice of my words:
17 Shall even he that hateth right [y] govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?
18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art [z] wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?
19 How much less to him that [a] accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.
20 [b] In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled [c] at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away [d] without hand.
21 For [e] his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.
22 There is [f] no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
23 For he will not lay upon man [g] more than right, that he should enter into judgment with God.
24 He shall [h] break in pieces mighty men without number, and [i] set others in their stead.
25 Therefore he [k] knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are [l] destroyed.
26 He striketh them as wicked men in the [m] open sight of others;
27 Because they [n] turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways:
28 So that they cause the [o] cry of the poor to come unto him, and [p] he heareth the cry of the afflicted.
29 When he giveth [q] quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:
30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be [r] ensnared.
31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have [s] borne chastisement, I will [t] not offend any more:
32 That which [u] I see not, teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do [x] no more.
33 Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.
34 Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.
35 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.
36 ‖ My desire is, that Job may be tried unto the end, because of his answers for wicked men.
37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin; he [y] clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

CHAPTER XXXV.

Comparison is not to be made with God.

ELIHU spake moreover, and said,
2 [a] Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is [b] more than God's?
3 For thou saidst, [c] What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin?
4 I will [d] answer thee, and thy companions with thee.
5 [e] Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds, which [f] are higher than thou.
6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou [g] against him?

or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

7 If thou be righteous, what [h] givest thou him? or what [i] receiveth he of thy hand?

8 Thy wickedness may [k] hurt a man as thou art, and thy righteousness may [l] profit the son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to [m] cry; they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty:

10 But none saith, Where is God my † Maker, who giveth [n] songs in the night;

11 Who [o] teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 There they cry, but [p] none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty [q] regard it.

14 Although thou sayest thou shalt [r] not see him, yet [s] judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him.

15 But now, because it is not so, he hath visited in his anger; yet he knoweth it [t] not in great extremity:

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth [u] in vain: he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways.

ELIHU also proceeded, and said,

2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee that I have yet to speak on [a] God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from [b] afar, and will [c] ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be [d] false: he that is perfect in knowledge is [e] with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, [f] and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisdom.

6 He [g] preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth [h] right to the poor.

7 He withdraweth not [i] his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the [k] throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they be bound in [l] fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their [m] work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He [n] openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in [o] prosperity, and their years in pleasures:

12 But if they obey not, they shall [p] perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the [q] hypocrites in heart [r] heap up wrath; they cry not when he bindeth them:

14 They [s] die in youth, and their life is among the [t] unclean.

15 He delivereth the [u] poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression:

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into [x] a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table should be [y] full of fatness.

17 But thou hast [z] fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice [a] take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a [b] great ransom cannot deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem thy [c] riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the [d] night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, [e] regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen [f] rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: who [g] teacheth like him?

23 Who hath [h] enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast [i] wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou [k] magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may [l] see it: man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and [m] we know him not; neither can [n] the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he maketh [o] small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof,

28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man [p] abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the [q] spreadings of the clouds, or the [r] noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he [s] spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them [t] judgeth he the people; he giveth [u] meat in abundance.

32 With [x] clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine, by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

God is to be feared because of his great works.

AT this also my heart [a] trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 Hear attentively the [b] noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He [c] directeth it under the whole heaven, and his [d] lightning unto the ends of the earth.

4 After it [e] a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; [f] great things doeth he, which we [g] cannot comprehend.

6 For [h] he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small [i] rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He [k] sealeth up the hand of every man, that all men [l] may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into [m] dens, and remain in their places.

9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind; and cold out of the north.

10 By the [n] breath of God frost is given; and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud; he scattereth [o] his bright cloud,

12 And it is turned round about by his [p] counsels; that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

13 He causeth it to come, whether for [q] correction, or for [r] his land, or for [s] mercy.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: [t] stand still and [u] consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know when God [x] disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the [y] balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect [z] in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warm, when he [a] quieteth the earth by the south wind?
18 Hast thou [b] with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as [c] a molten looking-glass?
19 [d] Teach us what we shall say unto him: for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.
20 Shall it be told him that I speak? If a man speak, surely he shall be [e] swallowed up.
21 And now men [f] see not the bright light which is in the clouds; but the wind passeth and cleanseth them.
22 Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.
23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot [g] find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.
24 Men do therefore [h] fear him: he respecteth not any that are [i] wise of heart.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

God, by his mighty works, convinceth Job of ignorance.

THEN the LORD [a] answered Job out of the [b] whirlwind, and said,
2 [c] Who is this that [d] darkeneth counsel by [e] words without knowledge?
3 [f] Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.
4 Where wast thou when [g] I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast [h] understanding.
5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?
6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner-stone thereof,
7 When the [i] morning-stars sang together, and all the [k] sons of God shouted for joy?
8 Or who [l] shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth as if it had issued out of the womb?
9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,
10 And brake up for it my decreed place, and [m] set bars and doors,
11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; and here shall thy [n] proud waves be stayed?
12 Hast thou [o] commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the day-spring to know his place;
13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be [p] shaken out of it?
14 It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand [q] as a garment.
15 And from the wicked their [r] light is withholden, and the high [s] arm shall be broken.
16 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the [t] search of the depth?
17 Have the [u] gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?
18 Hast thou perceived the [x] breadth of the earth? declare, if thou knowest it all.
19 Where is the way where [y] light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof,
20 That thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?
21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?
22 Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow, or hast thou seen the [z] treasures of the hail,
23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the [a] day of battle and war?
24 By what way is the light [b] parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?
25 Who hath divided [c] a water-course for the overflowing of waters; or a way for the lightning of thunder;
26 To cause it to [d] rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man;
27 To satisfy the desolate and waste ground, and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?
28 Hath the rain [e] a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?
29 Out of whose womb came the ice? and the [f] hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?
30 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the [g] face of the deep is frozen.
31 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of [h] Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?
32 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?
33 Knowest thou the [i] ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the [k] dominion thereof in the earth?
34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the [l] clouds, that [m] abundance of waters may cover thee?
35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?
36 Who hath put wisdom in the [n] inward parts? or who hath [o] given understanding to the heart?
37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven,
38 When the dust groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?
39 Wilt thou [p] hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions,
40 When they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?
41 Who provideth for the raven his food? when his [q] young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

Of the wild goats and hinds, &c.

KNOWEST thou the time when the [a] wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the [b] hinds do calve?
2 Canst thou number the [c] months that they fulfil; or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?
3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out [d] their sorrows.
4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn; they go forth, and [e] return not unto them.
5 Who hath sent out the [f] wild ass free? or who hath loosed [g] the bands of the wild ass?
6 Whose house I have made the [h] wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings.
7 He scorneth the multitude of the city, neither regardeth he the crying of the driver.
8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every [i] green thing.
9 Will the [k] unicorn be willing to serve thee, or abide by thy crib?
10 Canst thou [l] bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee?
11 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou [m] leave thy labour to him?
12 Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and [n] gather it into thy barn?
13 Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or wings and feathers unto the ostrich?

CHAPTER XL.

Job humbleth himself to God.

MOREOVER, the LORD answered Job, and said,
2 Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that [a] reproveth God, let him answer it.
3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,
4 Behold, [b] I am vile; [c] what shall I answer thee? I will [d] lay my hand upon my mouth.
5 Once have I spoken, but I will not answer; yea, twice; but I will proceed [e] no further.
6 ¶ Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the [f] whirlwind, and said,
7 [g] Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
8 Wilt thou also [h] disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?
9 Hast thou [i] an arm like God? or canst thou [k] thunder with a voice like him?
10 [l] Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.
11 Cast abroad the [m] rage of thy wrath; and behold every one that is [n] proud, and abase him.
12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him [o] low; and [p] tread down the wicked in their place.
13 Hide them in the dust together, and [q] bind their faces in secret.
14 Then will I also [r] confess unto thee that thine [s] own right hand can save thee.

CHAPTER XLI.

Of God's great power in the leviathan.

CANST thou draw out [a] leviathan with a hook? or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down?
2 Canst thou put a [b] hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?
3 Will he make many [c] supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?
4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for [d] a servant for ever?
5 Wilt thou [e] play with him as with a bird? wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?
6 Shall thy companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?
7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish-spears?
8 Lay thy hand upon him, [f] remember the battle, do no more.
9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up; who then is able [g] to stand before me?
11 Who hath [h] prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven [i] is mine.
12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.
13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?
14 Who can open the doors of his face? † his teeth are terrible round about.
15 His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.
16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.
17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.
18 By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.
20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething-pot or caldron.
21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold ; the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon.

27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

28 The † arrow cannot make him flee : [m] sling-stones are turned with him into stubble.

29 Darts are counted as stubble : he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.

31 He maketh the [n] deep to boil like a pot : he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 Job submitteth himself unto God....16 Job's age and death.

THEN Job [a] answered the LORD, and said,

2 I know that thou canst [b] do every thing, and that no [c] thought can be withholden from thee.

3 Who is he that [d] hideth counsel without knowledge ? therefore have [f] uttered that I [e] understood not ; things [f] too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak : I will [g] demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have [h] heard of thee by the hearing of the ear ; but now [i] mine eye seeth thee :

6 Wherefore I abhor myself, [k] and repent in dust and ashes.

7 ¶ And it was so, that [l] after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends : for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is [m] right, as [n] my servant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now [o] seven bullocks and seven rams, and [p] go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt-offering ; and my servant Job shall [q] pray for you, for him will I accept ; lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

9 ¶ So Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, went, and did according as the LORD commanded them : the LORD also accepted Job.

10 And the LORD [r] turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends : also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

11 Then came there unto him [s] all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house ; and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him : every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed [t] the latter end of Job more than his beginning : for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

13 He had also seven sons, and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first Jemima ; and the name of the second, Kezia ; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job : and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 [u] After this lived Job a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his [x] sons' sons, even four generations.

17 So Job died, being old and [y] full of days.

PSALM I.

The happiness of the godly....The unhappiness of the ungodly.

BLESSED is the man [a] that walketh not in [b] the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful :

2 But his [c] delight is in the law of the LORD ; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree [d] planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his [e] season : his leaf also shall not wither ; and whatsoever he doeth shall [f] prosper.

4 The ungodly are [g] not so : but are like the [h] chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall [i] not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the LORD [k] knoweth the way of the righteous : but the way of the ungodly shall [l] perish.

PSALM II.

1 The kingdom of Christ....10 Kings are exhorted to accept it.

WHY do the heathen [a] rage, and the people imagine [b] a vain thing ?

2 The [c] kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his [d] Anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their [e] bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

4 He that [f] sitteth in the heavens shall laugh : the LORD shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and [g] vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I [h] set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

7 I will declare the [i] decree : the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son ; this day have I begotten thee.

8 [k] Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine [l] inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt [m] break them with a rod of iron ; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 [n] Be wise now, therefore, O ye kings ; be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

11 [o] Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be [p] angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their [q] trust in him.

7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me [h] counsel; my reins also instruct me in the night-seasons.

8 I have set the LORD [i] always before me: because he is at my [k] right hand, I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth; my flesh also shall rest [l] in hope:

10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thy [m] Holy One to see [n] corruption.

11 Thou wilt shew me the [o] path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy [p] right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSALM XVII.

David craveth defence of God against his enemies.

A prayer of David.

HEAR the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry; give ear unto my prayer, that goeth [a] not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

3 Thou hast proved my heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt [b] find nothing: I am [c] purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the [d] destroyer.

5 [e] Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

6 I have called upon thee; for thou [f] wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

7 Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, O thou that [g] savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

8 Keep me as the apple of the eye; hide [h] me under the shadow of thy wings,

9 From the wicked that oppress me, from my [i] deadly enemies who compass me about.

10 They are enclosed in their own [k] fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

11 They have now [l] compassed us in our steps; they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

12 Like as [m] a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

13 Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy [n] sword:

14 From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which have their [o] portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

15 As for me, I will behold thy [p] face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

PSALM XVIII.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the [a] servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of this [b] song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of [c] Saul: and he said,

I WILL [d] love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my [e] rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the [f] horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, who is [g] worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The [h] sorrows of death compassed me, and the [i] floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The sorrows of hell compassed me about; the [k] snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and [l] cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the [m] earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was [n] wroth.

8 There went up [o] a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 [p] He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon [q] a cherub, and did fly; yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place: his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed; hail-stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also [r] thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail-stones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he sent out his [s] arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and [t] discomfited them.

15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the [u] blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of [x] many waters.

17 He delivered me from my [y] strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my [z] stay.

19 He brought me forth also into [a] a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 The LORD rewarded me [b] according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not [c] wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments [d] were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also [e] upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eye-sight.

25 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the [f] froward thou wilt shew thyself froward.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down [g] high looks.

28 For thou wilt [h] light my candle; the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is [i] tried; he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

31 For [k] who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

32 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like [l] hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

34 He [m] teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou hast also [n] given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and [o] thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast [p] enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued mine enemies, and [q] overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

38 I have [r] wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.
39 For thou hast [s] girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.
40 Thou hast also given me [t] the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.
41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he [u] answered them not.
42 Then did I [x] beat them small as the dust before the wind; I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.
43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me [y] the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.
44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers † shall submit themselves unto me.
45 The strangers shall fade away, and be [z] afraid out of their close places.
46 The LORD [a] liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be [b] exalted.
47 It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me.
48 He delivereth me from mine enemies; yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.
49 Therefore will I [c] give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.
50 [d] Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his [e] seed for evermore.

1 The creatures shew God's glory; 7 the word, his grace.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

THE [a] heavens declare the glory of God: and the [b] firmament sheweth his handy-work.
2 Day unto day [c] uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.
3 There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard.
4 Their [d] line is gone out through all the earth, and their [e] words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun;
5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man [f] to run a race.
6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is [g] nothing hid from the heat thereof.
7 The law of the LORD is [h] perfect, [i] converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple:
8 The statutes of the LORD are [k] right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, [l] enlightening the eyes:
9 The fear of the LORD is [m] clean, enduring [n] for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much [o] fine gold; sweeter also than honey and the honey-comb.
11 Moreover, by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is [p] great reward.
12 Who can understand his [q] errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.
13 [r] Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have [s] dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

The church blesseth the king in his exploits.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm [a] of David.

THE LORD [b] hear thee in the day of trouble; the [c] name of the God of Jacob defend thee.
2 Send thee help from the [d] sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion.
3 Remember all thy offerings, and [e] accept thy burnt-sacrifice. Selah.
4 Grant thee according to thine own heart, and [f] fulfil all thy counsel.
5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our [g] banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.
6 Now know I that the LORD saveth his [h] anointed: he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his [i] right hand.

A thanksgiving for victory.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

2 Thou hast given him his [b] heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.
3 For thou [c] preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest [d] a crown of pure gold on his head.
4 He asked [e] life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even [f] length of days for ever and ever.
5 His glory is great in thy salvation: [g] honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.
6 For thou hast † made him most blessed for ever: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.
7 For the king trusteth in the LORD; and, through the mercy of the Most High, he shall not be moved.
8 Thy hand shall [h] find out all thine enemies; thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.
9 Thou shalt make them [i] as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall [k] swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.
10 Their [l] fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.
11 For they intended evil [m] against thee; they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform:
12 Therefore shalt thou make them turn their back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings against the face of them.

To the chief Musician upon Aijeleth Shahar. A Psalm of David.

[a] MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my [b] roaring?

4 [e] Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.
5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered; they trusted in thee, and were not † confounded.
6 But I am [f] a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.
7 All they that see me [g] laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,
8 [h] He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.
9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb; thou didst make me [i] hope when I was upon my [k] mother's breasts.
10 I was cast upon thee from the womb; thou art my God from my mother's belly.
11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near; for there is [l] none to help.
12 Many [m] bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.
13 They [n] gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.
14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like [o] wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.
15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue [p] cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.
16 For [q] dogs have compassed me; the assembly of the wicked have enclosed me: they [r] pierced my hands and my feet.
17 I may tell all my bones: [s] they look and stare upon me.
18 They [t] part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.
19 But be not thou far from me, O LORD; O my strength, haste thee to help me.
20 Deliver my soul from [u] the sword; my † darling from the power [x] of the dog.
21 Save me from the [y] lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from [z] the horns of the unicorns.

23 Ye that fear the LORD, praise him: all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.
24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he [b] cried unto him, he heard.
25 My praise shall be of thee in the [c] great congregation: I will pay my [d] vows before them that fear him.
26 The meek shall eat and be [e] satisfied; they shall praise the LORD that seek him: [f] your heart shall live for ever.
27 [g] All the ends of the world shall remember, and turn unto the LORD; and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.
28 For the [h] kingdom is the LORD's; and he is the governor among the nations.
29 All they that be [i] fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall [k] bow before him, and none can keep alive his own soul.
30 [l] A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the LORD for a generation.

A Psalm [a] of David.

UNTO thee, O LORD, do I [b] lift up my soul.
2 O my God, [c] I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed; let not mine enemies [d] triumph over me.
3 Yea, let none that [e] wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress [f] without cause.
4 Shew me [g] thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths.
5 [h] Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.
6 [i] Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies, and thy loving-kindnesses; for they have been ever [k] of old.
7 Remember not the sins of [l] my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me, for thy [m] goodness' sake, O LORD.
8 Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will he teach [n] sinners in the way.
9 The [o] meek will he [p] guide in judgment, and the meek will he teach his way.
10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation.
m Job 31, 20. Psalm 51, 8.
10 All [m] my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that [n] spoileth him?

11 [o] False witnesses did rise up: they laid to [p] my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me [q] evil for good, to the spoiling of my soul.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was [r] sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting, and my prayer returned unto mine own bosom.

14 I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down † heavily, as one that mourneth for [s] his mother.

15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together; yea, the [t] abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did [u] tear me, and ceased not.

16 With hypocritical mockers [x] in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

17 LORD, how long wilt thou [y] look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, my darling from the lions.

18 I will give thee thanks in the [z] great congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me; neither let them [a] wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

20 For they speak [b] not peace; but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.

21 Yea, they [c] opened their mouth wide against me, and said, [d] Aha, aha! our eye hath seen it.

22 This thou hast [e] seen, O LORD; [f] keep not silence: O LORD, be not far from me.

23 Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, even unto my cause, my God and my LORD.

24 Judge me, O LORD my God, [g] according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up.

26 Let them [h] be ashamed, and brought to confusion together, that rejoice at my hurt: let them be [i] clothed with shame and dishonour that [k] magnify themselves against me.

27 Let them [l] shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause; yea, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

28 And [m] my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise, all the day long.

PSALM XXXVI.

The grievous state of the wicked.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the [a] servant of the LORD.

THE transgression of the wicked [b] saith within my heart, that there is [c] no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he [d] flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and [e] deceit: he hath left off to [f] be wise, and to do good.

4 [g] He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is [h] not good; he abhorreth not evil.

5 Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens, and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a [i] great deep: O LORD, thou [k] preservest man and beast.

7 How [l] excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! therefore [m] the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be [n] abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

9 For with thee is the [o] fountain of life: in thy [p] light shall we see light.

10 O continue thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee: and thy righteousness to the [q] upright in heart.

11 Let not the [r] foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are the [s] workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

PSALM XXXVII.

David persuadeth to patience and confidence in God.

A Psalm of David.

FRET not thyself [a] because of evil-doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity:

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the [b] grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and [c] do good: so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 [d] Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thy heart.

5 † Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass:

6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the [e] light, and thy judgment as the noon-day.

7 † Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from [f] anger, and forsake wrath; fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 For evil-doers shall be [g] cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall [h] inherit the earth.

10 For [i] yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall [k] not be.

11 But the [l] meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked plotteth against the just, and [m] gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 The LORD shall [n] laugh at him; for he seeth that [o] his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.

15 Their sword shall enter into their [p] own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

16 [q] A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

17 For the [r] arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.

18 The LORD knoweth the days of the upright; and their inheritance shall be [s] for ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the [t] evil time; and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the [u] fat of lambs: they shall consume, into smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked [x] borroweth and payeth not again: but the righteous [y] sheweth mercy, and giveth.

22 For such as be [z] blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

36 Yet he [u] passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be [x] found.
37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the ‖ end of that man is [y] peace.
38 [z] But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.
39 But the salvation of the righteous is [a] of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble.
40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them; he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, [b] because they trust in him.

PSALM XXXVIII.

David moveth God to take compassion of his pitiful case.

A Psalm of David, [a] to bring to remembrance.

O LORD, rebuke me not in [b] thy wrath; neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.
2 For thine [c] arrows stick fast in me, and [d] thy hand presseth me sore.
3 There is [e] no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.
4 For mine iniquities are gone over my head; as a [f] heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt, because of my foolishness.
6 I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.
7 For my loins are filled with a [g] loathsome disease; and there is no soundness in my flesh.
8 I am [h] feeble and sore broken: I have [i] roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.
9 LORD, [k] all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is [l] not hid from thee.
10 My heart † panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.
11 My [m] lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore; and my kinsmen stand afar off.
12 They also that seek after my life lay snares for me; and they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.
13 But I, [n] as a deaf man, heard not; and I was [o] as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.
14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.
15 For in thee, O LORD, do I hope: thou wilt hear, O LORD my God.
16 For I said, Hear me; lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot ‖ slippeth, they [p] magnify themselves against me.
17 For I am ready [q] to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.
18 For I will [r] declare mine iniquity; I will be [s] sorry for my sin.
19 But mine enemies are lively, and they are strong; and they that hate me wrongfully are [t] multiplied.
20 They also that render [u] evil for good are mine adversaries; [x] because I follow the thing that good is.
21 Forsake me not, O LORD: O [y] my God, be not far from me.
22 Make haste † to help me, O LORD my salvation.

PSALM XXXIX.

David's care of his thoughts, and prayer.

To the chief Musician, even to [a] Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

I SAID, I will [b] take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue; I will keep my † mouth with a bridle, while the [c] wicked is before me.
2 I was dumb with silence: I held my peace, even [d] from good; and my sorrow was stirred.
3 My heart was hot within me; while I was musing the [e] fire burned: [f] then spake I with my tongue,
4 LORD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am.
5 Behold, thou hast made my days as a handbreadth, and mine age is [g] as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether [h] vanity. Selah.
6 Surely every man walketh in [i] a vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain; he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall [k] gather them.
7 And now, LORD, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.
8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the [l] reproach of the foolish.
9 I was [m] dumb, and opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.
10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thy hand.
11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a [n] moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah.
12 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am [o] a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, [p] as all my fathers were.
13 O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be [q] no more.

PSALM XL.

1 The benefit of confidence in God....6 Obedience is the best sacrifice.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm [a] of David.

I WAITED [b] patiently for the LORD; and he [c] inclined unto me, and heard my cry.
2 He brought me up also out of a [d] horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon [e] a rock, and established my goings.

3 And he hath put [f] a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall [g] see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

4 Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD [h] his trust; and [i] respecteth not the proud, nor such [k] as turn aside to lies.

5 Many, O LORD my God, are thy [l] wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are [m] more than can be numbered.

6 [n] Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou † opened: burnt-offering and [o] sin-offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, [p] Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is [q] written of me;

8 [r] I delight to do [s] thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

9 I have preached [t] righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have [u] not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest.

10 I have [x] not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let [y] thy loving-kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about; ‖ mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up: they are more than the hairs of my head; therefore my heart faileth me.

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me.

14 Let them [z] be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward, and put to shame, that wish me evil.

15 Let them [a] be desolate for a reward of their shame, that say unto me, Aha, aha!

16 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The LORD [b] be magnified.

17 But I am poor and needy; yet the LORD [c] thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

PSALM XLI.

1 God's care of the poor....10 David fleeth to God for succour.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

BLESSED is he that considereth the ‖ poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.

2 The LORD will [a] preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed [b] upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

3 The LORD will [c] strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt † make all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, O LORD, be merciful unto me; [d] heal my soul; for I have [e] sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me; When shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if he come to see me, he [f] speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

7 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt.

8 [g] An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth, he shall rise up no more.

9 Yea, mine own [h] familiar friend in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me.

10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.

11 By this I know that thou [i] favourest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

12 And as for me, thou [k] upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.

13 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.

PSALM XLII.

David's zeal to serve God in the temple.

To the chief Musician, Maschil, for the sons of [a] Korah.

AS the hart [b] panteth after the water-brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul [c] thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3 My [d] tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, [e] Where is thy God?

4 When I [f] remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude; I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept [g] holy-day.

5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? [h] Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: [i] therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.

7 [k] Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy [l] water-spouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8 Yet the LORD will [m] command his loving-kindness in the day-time, and in the night [n] his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is † the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIII.

David prayeth to be restored to the temple.

JUDGE me, O God, and [a] plead my cause against an ungodly nation; O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

2 For thou art the God of [b] my strength: why dost thou cast me off? why go I [c] mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 O send out thy [d] light and thy [e] truth: let them lead me, let them bring me unto thy [f] holy hill, and to thy [g] tabernacles.

4 Then will I [h] go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God, my God.

5 [i] Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIV.

The church complaineth of her present evils.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, [a] our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old;

2 How thou didst [b] drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people and cast them out.

3 For they got not the land in possession [c] by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them; but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because [d] thou hadst a favour unto them.

4 Thou art my King, O God: [e] command deliverances for Jacob.

5 Through thee will we push down our enemies; through thy name will we [f] tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For I will not [g] trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us.

8 In God [h] we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

9 But thou [i] hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest us [k] to turn back from the enemy; and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen.

12 Thou sellest thy people [l] for nought, and dost [m] not increase thy wealth by their price.

13 Thou makest us [n] a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14 Thou makest us [o] a by-word among the heathen, [p] a shaking of the head among the people.

15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me,

16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and [q] avenger.

17 All this is come upon us; [r] yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 [s] Our heart is not turned back, neither have our [t] steps declined from thy way;

19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.

20 If we have [u] forgotten the name of our God, or stretched our hands to a strange god;

21 Shall not God [x] search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 Yea, [y] for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 [z] Awake, why sleepest thou, O LORD? arise, cast us not off for ever.

24 Wherefore [a] hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

25 For our soul is bowed down to the [b] dust; our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise for our help, and redeem us, for thy mercies' sake.

PSALM XLV.

The majesty and grace of Christ's kingdom.

To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim, for the sons of Korah, Maschil. [a] A Song of loves.

MY heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching [b] the King; my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

2 Thou art [c] fairer than the children of men; grace is [d] poured into thy lips: therefore God hath [e] blessed thee for ever.

3 [f] Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, [g] O most Mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

4 And in thy majesty [h] ride prosperously, because of [i] truth, and [k] meekness, and [l] righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee [m] terrible things.

5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the [n] King's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

6 [o] Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever. the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness [p] above thy fellows.

8 All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have [q] made thee glad.

9 Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the [r] queen in gold of Ophir.

10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy [s] father's house;

11 So shall the King greatly desire thy [t] beauty; for he is [u] thy LORD, and worship thou him.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the [x] rich among the people shall entreat thy favour.

13 The King's daughter is [y] all glorious within; her clothing is of wrought gold.

14 She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needle-work: the [z] virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.

15 With [a] gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the [b] King's palace.

16 Instead of thy fathers shall be [c] thy children, whom thou mayest make [d] princes in all the earth.

17 I will make [e] thy name to be remembered in all generations; therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

PSALM XLVI.

The confidence which the church hath in God.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah. A Song upon Alamoth.

GOD is our [a] refuge and strength, a very [b] present help in trouble:

2 Therefore will not we [c] fear, though the earth [d] be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

3 Though the [e] waters thereof roar and [f] be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

4 There is [g] a river, the streams whereof shall [h] make glad [i] the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

5 God is [k] in the midst of her; she shall [l] not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

6 The heathen [m] raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth [n] melted.

7 The LORD of hosts [o] is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

8 Come, [p] behold the works of the LORD, [q] what desolations he hath made in the earth.

9 He maketh [r] wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder: he burneth the chariot in the fire.

10 [s] Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

PSALM XLVII.

The nations are exhorted to entertain the kingdom of Christ.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

O CLAP your hands, all ye people; [a] shout unto God with the voice of triumph:

2 For the LORD most high is [b] terrible; he is [c] a great King over all the earth.

3 He shall [d] subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

4 He shall choose [e] our inheritance for us, the [f] excellency of Jacob, whom he loved. Selah.

5 God is [g] gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

6 Sing praises to God, sing praises; sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

7 For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises [h] with understanding.

8 [i] God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon [k] the throne of his holiness.

9 The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

PSALM XLVIII.

The ornaments and privileges of the church.

A Song and Psalm for the sons of Korah.

GREAT is [a] the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the [b] city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

2 Beautiful for situation, the [c] joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion; on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

3 God is [d] known in her [e] palaces for a refuge.

4 For, lo, the [f] kings were assembled, they passed by together.

5 They [g] saw it, and so they marvelled; they [h] were troubled, and hasted away.

6 [i] Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

7 Thou breakest the [k] ships of Tarshish with an east wind.

8 As we have [l] heard, [m] so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah.

9 We have [n] thought of thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

10 According to thy [o] name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is [p] full of righteousness.

11 Let [q] mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, [r] because of thy judgments.

12 Walk [s] about Zion, and go round about her: tell the [t] towers thereof.

13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, [u] consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even unto death.

PSALM XLIX.

Worldly prosperity is not to be admired.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

HEAR this, all ye people; [a] give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both low and high, rich and poor together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of † understanding.

4 I will [b] incline mine ear to a parable; I will open my [c] dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should [d] I fear in the [e] days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

6 They that [f] trust in their wealth, and [g] boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God [h] a ransom for him;

8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever;)

9 That he should still [i] live for ever, and not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that [k] wise men die, likewise the fool and the [l] brutish person perish, and leave their wealth [m] to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling-places to all generations: they call their lands [n] after their own names.

12 Nevertheless, man being [o] in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that [p] perish.

13 This their way is their ‖ folly: yet their posterity [q] approve their sayings. Selah.

14 [r] Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have [s] dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the [t] power of the grave: for he shall [u] receive me. Selah.

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased:

17 For, when he dieth, he shall [x] carry nothing away; his glory shall not descend after him;

18 Though, while he lived, [y] he blessed his soul: (and men will praise thee when thou doest well to thyself:)

19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall [z] never see light.

20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

PSALM L.

The majesty of God in the church.

A Psalm of [a] Asaph.

THE [b] mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 [c] Out of Zion, the [d] perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

3 Our God [e] shall come, and shall not [f] keep silence: a [g] fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very [h] tempestuous round about him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, (that he may [i] judge his people.)

5 [k] Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made [l] a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is [m] judge himself. Selah.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee for thy [n] sacrifices, or thy burnt-offerings, to have been continually before me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he-goats out of thy folds:

10 For every beast of the forest is [o] mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains; and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

PSALM LI.

God delighteth not in sacrifice, but in sincerity.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came [a] unto him, after he had [b] gone in to Bath-sheba.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness; according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies [c] blot out my transgressions.
2 [d] Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.
3 For [e] I acknowledge my transgressions; and my sin is [f] ever before me.
4 Against [g] thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight; that thou mightest be [h] justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.
5 Behold, I was shapen [i] in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.
6 Behold, thou desirest truth [k] in the inward parts; and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.
7 [l] Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be [m] whiter than snow.
8 Make me [n] to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken [o] may rejoice.
9 [p] Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.
10 [q] Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew [r] a right spirit within me.
11 Cast me not away from [s] thy presence; and take not thy [t] Holy Spirit from me.
12 Restore unto me the [u] joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy [x] free Spirit:
13 Then will I [y] teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.
14 Deliver me from [z] blood-guiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation; and my tongue shall sing aloud of [a] thy righteousness.
15 O LORD, [b] open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.
16 For thou [c] desirest not sacrifice, else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt-offering.
17 [d] The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: [e] a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.
18 Do [f] good in thy [g] good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the [h] walls of Jerusalem.
19 Then shalt thou [i] be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt-offering, and whole burnt-offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

PSALM LII.

David, upon his confidence in God's mercy, giveth thanks.

To the chief Musician, Maschil. A Psalm of David, when [a] Doeg the Edomite came and [b] told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

WHY [c] boastest thou thyself in mischief, [d] O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth [e] continually.
2 Thy tongue [f] deviseth mischiefs, like [g] a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
3 Thou lovest evil [h] more than good, and [i] lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.
4 Thou lovest [k] all-devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.
5 God shall [l] likewise destroy thee for ever: he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling-place, and [m] root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.
6 The righteous also shall [n] see, and [o] fear, and shall [p] laugh at him:
7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but [q] trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.
8 But I am like [r] a green olive-tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.
9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

PSALM LIII.

David describeth the corruption of a natural man.

To the chief Musician upon Mahalath, Maschil. A Psalm of David.

THE fool hath said [a] in his heart, [b] There is no God. [c] Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.
2 God [d] looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did [e] seek God.
3 Every one of them is [f] gone back; they are altogether become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.
4 Have the workers of iniquity [g] no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon God.
5 There were they in great fear where [h] no fear was; for God hath scattered [i] the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.
6 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM LIV.

David, upon his confidence in God's help, promiseth sacrifice.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil. A Psalm of David, when the [a] Ziphims came and said to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us?

4 Behold, God is my [f] helper: the LORD is with them that uphold my soul.
5 He shall [g] reward evil unto mine enemies: cut them off in thy [h] truth.
6 I will [i] freely sacrifice unto thee; I will praise thy name, O LORD, for it is good.
7 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble; and [k] mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

PSALM LV.

David in his prayer complaineth of his fearful case.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil. A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my prayer, O God; and [a] hide not thyself from my supplication.
2 Attend unto me, and hear me: [b] I mourn in my complaint, and make [c] a noise;
3 Because of the [d] voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they [e] cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they [f] hate me.
4 My heart is sore pained within me; and the [g] terrors of death are fallen upon me.
5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath [h] overwhelmed me.
6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I [i] flee away, and be at rest.
7 Lo then would I wander far off, and remain in the [k] wilderness. Selah.
8 I would [l] hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.
9 Destroy, O LORD, and [m] divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city.
10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof; mischief also and sorrow are in the [n] midst of it.
11 [o] Wickedness is in the midst thereof; deceit and guile depart not from her streets.
12 For it was [p] not an enemy that reproached me: then could I have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him;
13 But it was thou, a man mine [q] equal, [r] my guide, and mine [s] acquaintance.
14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God [t] in company.
15 Let death seize upon them, and let them go down [u] quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.
16 As for me, I will [x] call upon God, and the LORD shall save me.
17 [y] Evening and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud; and he shall hear my voice.
18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from [z] the battle that was against me: for there were many with me.
19 God shall hear and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah. Because they have [a] no changes, therefore they fear not God.
20 He hath [b] put forth his hands against such as be at [c] peace with him; he hath broken his covenant.
21 The words of his mouth were [d] smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they [e] drawn swords.
22 Cast thy [f] burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.
23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall [g] not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

PSALM LVI.

David professeth his confidence in God's word.

To the chief Musician upon Jonath-elem-rechokim, Michtam of David, when the Philistines [a] took him in Gath.

BE merciful unto me, O God; for man would swallow me up: he fighting daily oppresseth me.
2 Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be [b] many that fight against me, [c] O thou Most High.
3 What time I [d] am afraid I will trust in thee.
4 In God I will praise [e] his word; in God I have put my trust: I will not fear what [f] flesh can do unto me.
5 Every day they [g] wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil.
6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul.
7 Shall they escape [h] by iniquity? in thine anger cast down the people, O God.
8 Thou tellest [i] my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle; are they not in [k] thy book?
9 When I cry unto thee, [l] then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me.
10 In God I will praise his word; in the LORD will I praise his word.
11 In God have I put [m] my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.
12 [n] Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee.
13 For [o] thou hast delivered my soul from death; wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may [p] walk before God in the [q] light of the living?

PSALM LVII.

David encourageth himself to praise God.

To the chief Musician, Al-taschith, Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the [a] cave.

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the [b] shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, [c] until these calamities be overpast.
2 I will cry unto God most high; unto God that [d] performeth all things for me.
3 He shall send [e] from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Selah. God shall send forth [f] his mercy and his truth.
4 My soul is among [g] lions; and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are [h] spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.
5 Be thou [i] exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth.
6 They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they [k] are fallen themselves. Selah.

A Psalm of David, when he was in the [a] wilderness of Judah.

O GOD, thou art [b] my God; [c] early will I seek thee, my [d] soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee [e] in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;

2 [f] To see thy [g] power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 Because thy loving-kindness is [h] better than life, [i] my lips shall praise thee.

4 Thus will I bless thee [k] while I live: I will lift up [l] my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and [m] fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips;

6 When [n] I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the [o] night-watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help: [p] therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

HEAR [a] my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from [b] fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the [c] secret counsel of the wicked; from the [d] insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 Who [e] whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words;

4 That they may [f] shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and [g] fear not.

5 They [h] encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying [i] snares privily; they say, Who shall [k] see them?

6 They [l] search out iniquities; they accomplish [m] a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly shall they be wounded.

8 So they shall make their [n] own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall [o] flee away.

9 And all men shall [p] fear, and shall [q] declare the work of God: for they shall wisely [r] consider of his doing.

9 Thou [o] visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full [p] of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm or Song of David.

LET [a] God [b] arise, let his enemies be [c] scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.

2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: [d] as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish [e] at the presence of God.

3 But let the [f] righteous be glad: let them rejoice before God; yea, let them [g] exceedingly rejoice.

4 Sing unto God, [h] sing praises unto his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name JAH, and rejoice before him.

6 God setteth the solitary [k] in families: he bringeth out those which are [l] bound with chains; but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

21 But God shall wound the [m] head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his trespasses.

22 The LORD said, I will [n] bring again from Bashan; I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea:

23 That thy foot may be dipped in the [o] blood of thine enemies, and the tongue of thy dogs in the same.

18 [t] Now also, when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not, until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.
19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, [u] who is like unto thee?
20 Thou, which hast shewed me great [x] and sore troubles, shalt [y] quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.
21 Thou shalt [z] increase my greatness, and comfort me [a] on every side.
22 I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even [b] thy truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou [c] Holy One of Israel.
23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee; and [d] my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

A Psalm for [a] Solomon.

GIVE the [b] king thy [c] judgments, O God, and thy [d] righteousness unto the king's son.
2 He shall judge thy people [e] with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.
3 The mountains shall bring [f] peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.
4 He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces [g] the oppressor.
5 They shall [h] fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, [i] throughout all generations.
6 He shall come down [k] like rain upon the mown grass; as showers that water the earth.
7 In his days shall [l] the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.
8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the [m] ends of the earth.
9 They [n] that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall [n] lick the dust.
10 The kings of [o] Tarshish and of the isles shall [p] bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.
11 Yea, [q] all kings shall fall down before him; all nations shall serve him.
12 For he shall deliver the [r] needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.
13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.
14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and [s] precious shall their blood be in his sight.
15 And he shall [t] live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: [u] prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.
16 There shall be [x] a handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

PSALM LXXIII.

Knowledge of God's purpose, in destroying of the wicked, and sustaining the righteous.

A Psalm of Asaph.

TRULY God [a] is good to Israel, even to such as are of [b] a clean heart.
2 But as for me, my feet were [c] almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.
3 For I was [d] envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
4 For there are no bands || in their death; but their strength is firm.
5 They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued [e] like other men.
6 [f] Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.
7 Their eyes [g] stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.
8 They are [h] corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak [i] loftily.
9 They set their mouth [k] against the heavens; and their tongue walketh through the earth.
10 Therefore his people [l] return hither; and waters of [m] a full cup are wrung out to them:
11 And [n] they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the Most High?
12 Behold, these are the ungodly who [o] prosper in the world; [p] they increase in riches.
13 Verily I have cleansed my heart [q] in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.
14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and [r] chastened every morning.
15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.
16 When I thought to know this, it was [s] too painful for me,

17 Until I went into the [t] sanctuary of God; then understood I their [u] end.

18 Surely thou didst set them [x] in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought [y] into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 [z] As a dream when one awaketh; so, O LORD, when thou [a] awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was † grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 So foolish was I and ignorant; I was as † a beast before thee.

23 Nevertheless, I am continually with thee; thou hast [b] holden me by my right hand.

24 Thou shalt [c] guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me [d] to glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven [e] but thee? and there is none upon earth that [f] I desire besides thee.

26 My flesh and my heart [g] faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my [h] portion for ever.

27 For, lo, they that are [i] far from thee shall perish; thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord GOD, that I may declare all thy works.

PSALM LXXIV.

The Prophet complaineth of the desolation of the sanctuary.

Maschil of Asaph.

O GOD, [a] why hast thou cast us off for ever? why [b] doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Remember thy congregation, which thou hast [c] purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Sion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done [d] wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 Thine enemies [e] roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their [f] ensigns for signs.

5 A man † was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down the [g] carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 They have cast [h] fire into thy sanctuary; they have defiled by casting down the dwelling-place of thy name [i] to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts, [k] Let us destroy them together: they have burnt up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our [l] signs: there is no more any [m] prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth [n] how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme [o] thy name for ever?

11 Why [p] withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy [q] right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

12 For God is my King of old, [r] working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 Thou didst [s] divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the [t] dragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be [u] meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 Thou didst [x] cleave the fountain and the flood: thou driedst up mighty rivers.

16 The [y] day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 Thou hast [z] set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

18 [a] Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that [b] the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

19 O deliver not the soul of thy [c] turtle-dove unto the [d] multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

20 Have respect unto the [e] covenant: for the [f] dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed [g] return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name.

22 Arise, O God, [h] plead thine own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee † increaseth continually.

UNTO thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name [b] is near, thy [c] wondrous works declare.

2 When I shall receive the congregation, I will judge [d] uprightly.

3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are [e] dissolved: [f] I bear up the [g] pillars of it. Selah.

4 I said unto the [h] fools, Deal not foolishly; and to the wicked, Lift not up [i] the horn:

5 Lift not up your horn [k] on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

6 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south:

7 But God is the judge; he putteth [l] down one, and setteth up another.

8 For in the hand of the LORD there is [m] a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of [n] mixture, and he poureth out of the same: but the [o] dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

9 But I will [p] declare for ever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 All the horns of the [q] wicked also will I cut off; but the [r] horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

4 O LORD God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?
5 Thou feedest them with the [f] bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

PSALM LXXXI.

An exhortation to a solemn praising of God.

To the chief Musician upon Gittith.
A Psalm of Asaph.

SING [a] aloud unto God [b] our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.
2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.
3 Blow up the [c] trumpet in the [d] new moon, in the time [e] appointed, on our solemn [f] feast-day.
4 For this was [g] a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.
5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out through the land of Egypt; where I heard a language that I [h] understood not.
6 I removed his [i] shoulder from the burden: his hands were delivered from the [k] pots.
7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; I answered thee in the [l] secret place of thunder; I proved thee at the waters of [m] Meribah. Selah.
8 Hear, O my people, and I will [n] testify unto thee: O Israel, [o] if thou wilt hearken unto me;
9 There shall no [p] strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.
10 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: [q] open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.
11 But my people would not hearken to my voice: and Israel would [r] none of me.
12 So [s] I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust; and they walked in their [t] own counsels.
13 [u] Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!
14 I should soon have [x] subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.
15 The [y] haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.
16 He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the [z] rock should I have satisfied thee.

PSALM LXXXII.

The Psalmist, having exhorted the judges, prayeth to God.

A Psalm of Asaph.

GOD standeth in the congregation of the [a] mighty: he judgeth among the [b] gods.
2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the [c] persons of the wicked? Selah.
3 Defend the poor and fatherless: [d] do justice to the afflicted and needy.
4 [e] Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.
5 They [f] know not, neither will they understand; they [g] walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are [h] out of course.
6 I have said, Ye are [i] gods; and all of you are children of the Most High:
7 But ye shall die [k] like men, and fall like one of the princes.
8 Arise, O God, [l] judge the earth: for [m] thou shalt inherit all nations.

PSALM LXXXIII.

A prayer against them that oppress the church.

A Song or Psalm of Asaph.

KEEP not thou [a] silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.
2 For, lo, [b] thine enemies make a tumult; and they [c] that hate thee have [d] lifted up the head.
3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy [e] hidden ones.
4 They have said, [f] Come, and let us cut them off from being [g] a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.
5 For they have [h] consulted together with one consent; they are confederate against thee:
6 The tabernacles of [i] Edom, and the [k] Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the [l] Hagarenes;
7 [m] Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines, with the inhabitants of Tyre;
8 [n] Assur also is joined with them: they have [o] holpen the children of Lot. Selah.
9 Do unto them as unto the [p] Midianites; as to [q] Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison;
10 Which perished at En-dor: they became as dung for the earth.
11 Make their nobles like Oreb and like Zeeb; yea, all their princes as [r] Zebah and as Zalmunna:
12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the [s] houses of God in possession.
13 O my God, make them like a wheel; as the [t] stubble before the wind.
14 As the [u] fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire,
15 So persecute them with thy [x] tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm.
16 Fill their faces with [y] shame; that [z] they may seek thy name, O LORD.

17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:
18 That men may [a] know that thou, whose name alone is [b] JEHOVAH, art the Most High over all the earth.

HOW [a] amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!
2 My soul [b] longeth, yea, even fainteth, for the courts of the LORD; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.
3 Yea, the sparrow hath found a house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God.
4 [c] Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be [d] still praising thee. Selah.
5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the [e] ways of them,
6 Who passing through the valley of || Baca, make it [f] a well: the [g] rain also filleth the pools.
7 They go from [h] strength to strength; every one of them in Zion [i] appeareth before God.
8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.
9 Behold, O God, our shield, and look upon the face of [k] thine anointed.
10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
11 For the LORD God is [l] a sun and shield; the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.
12 O LORD of hosts, [m] blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSALM LXXXV.

The Psalmist prayeth for the continuance of former mercies.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

LORD, thou hast been favourable unto thy land: thou hast brought back the [a] captivity of Jacob.
2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people; thou hast [b] covered all their sin. Selah.
3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: thou hast [c] turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.
4 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.
5 Wilt thou be angry with us [d] for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?
6 Wilt thou not [e] revive us again, that thy people may rejoice in thee?
7 Shew us [f] thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation.
8 I will [g] hear what God the LORD will [h] speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not [i] turn again to folly.
9 Surely his salvation [k] is nigh them that fear him; that [l] glory may dwell in our land.
10 Mercy and truth are [m] met together; righteousness and peace have [n] kissed each other.
11 Truth shall spring [o] out of the earth; and righteousness shall [p] look down from heaven.
12 Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good: and our [q] land shall yield her increase.
13 Righteousness shall go [r] before him, and shall set us in the [s] way of his steps.

PSALM LXXXVI.

David strengtheneth his prayer by the conscience of his religion.

A Prayer of David.

BOW down thine ear, O LORD, hear me; [a] for I am poor and needy.
2 Preserve my soul, for I am [b] holy: O thou my God, save thy servant that [c] trusteth in thee.
3 Be merciful unto me, O LORD: for I cry unto thee [d] daily.
4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O LORD, do [e] I lift up my soul.
5 For thou, LORD, art good, and [f] ready to forgive; and [g] plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.
6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and attend to the [h] voice of my supplications.
7 In the [i] day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.
8 Among the gods there is [k] none like unto thee, O LORD; neither are there any works like unto [l] thy works.
9 [m] All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O LORD; and shall glorify thy name.
10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art [n] God alone.
11 [o] Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth: [p] unite my heart to fear thy name.
12 I will praise thee, O LORD my God, with all my heart; and I will [q] glorify thy name for evermore.
13 For great is thy mercy toward me; and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.
14 O God, [r] the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul, and have not set thee before them.
15 But thou, O LORD, art a God full of compassion, and gracious; † long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.
16 O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me: give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the [s] son of thy handmaid.
17 [t] Shew me a token [u] for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed; because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

1 The nature and glory of the church....4 Its increase.

A Psalm or Song for the sons of Korah.

HIS [a] foundation is in the holy mountains.
2 The LORD loveth the [b] gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
3 [c] Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah.
4 I will make mention of Rahab and [d] Babylon to them that know me; behold, Philistia, and [e] Tyre, with [f] Ethiopia: this man [g] was born there.
5 And of Zion it shall be said, [h] This and that man was born in her; and the Highest himself shall [i] establish her.
6 The LORD shall count, when he [k] writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Selah.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

A prayer containing a grievous complaint.

A song or Psalm for the sons of Korah. To the chief Musician upon Mahalath Leannoth, Maschil of [a] Heman the Ezrahite.

O LORD God of [b] my salvation, I have cried [c] day and night before thee.

a 1 Kings 4, 3.
b Ex. 15, 2
c Ps. 86, 3. Luke 18, 7

2 Let [d] my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;

3 For my soul is full of troubles, and my life [e] draweth nigh unto the grave.

4 I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength:

5 [f] Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off [g] from thy hand.

6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in † darkness, in the deeps.

7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with [h] all thy waves. Selah.

8 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance [i] far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am [k] shut up, and I cannot come forth.

9 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, I have called daily upon thee; I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

10 Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the [l] dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

11 Shall thy [m] loving-kindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness † in destruction?

12 Shall thy wonders be known in the [n] dark? and thy righteousness in the land of [o] forgetfulness?

13 But unto thee have I cried, O LORD; and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.

14 LORD, [p] why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

16 Thy † fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

17 They came round about me daily like water, they [q] compassed me about together.

18 [r] Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.

PSALM LXXXIX.

The Psalmist praiseth God for his covenant and wonderful power.

Maschil of [a] Ethan the Ezrahite.

I WILL [b] sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness [c] to all generations.

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very [d] heavens.

3 I have made a covenant with my [e] chosen, I have sworn unto [f] David my servant,

4 Thy [g] seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy [h] throne to all generations. Selah.

5 And the [i] heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD; thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

7 God is [k] greatly to be feared in the ‖ assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are [l] about him.

8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?

9 Thou rulest the [m] raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

10 Thou hast broken [n] Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain: thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

11 The heavens are [o] thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world, and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

12 The [p] north and the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

13 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

15 Blessed is the people that know the [q] joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the [r] light of thy countenance.

16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

17 For thou art the [s] glory of their strength; and in thy favour [t] our horn shall be exalted.

18 For the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our King.

19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy Holy One, and saidst, I have laid help upon [u] one that is mighty; I have exalted [x] one chosen out of the people.

20 I have found David my servant; with my [y] holy oil have I anointed him:

21 With whom [z] my hand shall be established; mine arm also shall strengthen him.

22 The enemy shall [a] not exact upon him; nor the [b] son of wickedness afflict him.

23 And I will [c] beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.

24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him; and in my name shall his horn be [d] exalted.

25 I will [e] set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.

26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art [f] my Father, my God, and the Rock of my salvation.

27 Also I will make him my [g] first-born, [h] higher than the kings of the earth.

28 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my [i] covenant shall stand fast with him.

29 [k] His seed also will I make to endure [l] for ever, and [m] his throne as the days of heaven.

30 If [n] his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments;

31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments;

32 Then will I visit their transgression with the [o] rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

33 Nevertheless my loving-kindness will I [p] not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.

34 My covenant will I not break, [q] nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

35 Once have I sworn by [r] my holiness, that I will not lie unto David.

36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne [s] as the sun before me.

37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and [t] as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah.

38 But thou hast [u] cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.

39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant; thou hast profaned [x] his crown, by casting it to the ground.

40 Thou hast broken down all his [y] hedges; thou hastbrought his strong holds to ruin.

41 All that pass by the way spoil [z] him: he is a reproach to his neighbours.

42 [a] Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

PSALM XC.

Moses setteth forth God's providence, and divine chastisements.

A Prayer of [a] Moses, the [b] man of God.

LORD, thou hast been our [c] dwelling-place in all generations.
2 Before the mountains were [d] brought forth, or ever thou hadst [e] formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.
3 Thou turnest man to [f] destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.
4 For [g] a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as [h] a watch in the night.
5 Thou carriest them away as with [i] a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like [k] grass which groweth up.
6 In the morning it [l] flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.
7 For we are [m] consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.
8 Thou hast [n] set our iniquities before thee, our [o] secret sins in the [p] light of thy countenance.
9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath; we spend our years as [q] a tale that is told.
10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow: for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear; so is thy wrath.
12 So teach us [r] to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.
13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it [s] repent thee concerning thy servants.
14 O satisfy us [t] early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.
16 Let thy [u] work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.
17 And let the [x] beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands [y] establish thou it.

PSALM XCI.

1 The state of the godly....3 Their safety....9 Their habitation.

HE that dwelleth in the [a] secret place of the Most High, shall abide under the [b] shadow of the Almighty.
2 I will say of the LORD, He is my [c] refuge, and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.
3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the [d] snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.
4 He shall cover thee with his [e] feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy [f] shield and buckler.
5 Thou shalt [g] not be afraid for the [h] terror by night, nor for the arrow that flieth by day.
6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the destruction that wasteth at [i] noon-day.
7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall [k] not come nigh thee.
8 Only [l] with thine eyes shalt thou behold, and see the [m] reward of the wicked.
9 Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation,
10 There shall [n] no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
11 For he shall give [o] his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all [p] thy ways.
12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
13 Thou shalt tread upon the [q] lion and [r] adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.
14 Because he hath set [s] his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him [t] on high, because he hath [u] known my name.
15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be [x] with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and [y] honour him.

PSALM XCII.

The Prophet exhorteth to praise God for his great works.

A Psalm or Song for the [a] sabbath-day.

IT is [b] a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High:
2 To shew forth thy loving-kindness in the [c] morning, and thy faithfulness [d] every night,
3 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound.
4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work; I will triumph in the [e] works of thy hands.
5 O LORD, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very [f] deep.
6 [g] A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.
7 When the wicked spring as the [h] grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever:
8 But thou, LORD, art [i] most high for evermore.
9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish: all the workers of iniquity shall be [k] scattered;
10 But my horn shalt thou exalt like the [l] horn of an unicorn: I shall be anointed with [m] fresh oil.
11 [n] Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies; and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

14 They shall still [r] bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;
15 To shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is [s] no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM XCIII.

The majesty, power, and holiness of Christ's kingdom.

THE LORD [a] reigneth; he is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath [b] girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.
2 Thy throne is established [c] of old: thou art from everlasting.
3 The [d] floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.
4 The LORD [e] on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the [f] mighty waves of the sea.
5 Thy testimonies are very sure: [g] holiness becometh thy house, O LORD, for ever.

PSALM XCIV.

The Prophet sheweth the blessedness of affliction.

O LORD God, to whom [a] vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself.
2 Lift up thyself, thou [b] judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.
3 LORD, how long shall the [c] wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?
4 How long shall they utter and speak [d] hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?
5 They [e] break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thy heritage:
6 They [f] slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.
7 Yet [g] they say, The LORD shall [h] not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.
8 Understand, ye [i] brutish among the people; and, ye fools, when will ye be wise?
9 He that planted [k] the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?
10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that teacheth [l] man knowledge, shall not he know?
11 The LORD knoweth [m] the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.
12 Blessed is the man whom thou [n] chastenest, O LORD, and [o] teachest him out of thy law;
13 That thou mayest give him rest from the [p] days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.
14 For the LORD will [q] not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance:
15 But [r] judgment shall return unto righteousness; and all the upright in heart shall follow it.
16 [s] Who will rise up for me against the evil-doers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?
17 [t] Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.
18 When I said, [u] My foot slippeth; thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.
19 In the [x] multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.
20 Shall the [y] throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief [z] by a law?
21 They [a] gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.
22 But the LORD is [b] my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge.
23 And he shall bring upon them [c] their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.

PSALM XCV.

An exhortation to praise God for his goodness.

O COME, [a] let us sing unto the LORD; let us make a joyful noise to the [b] rock of our salvation.
2 Let us [c] come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.
3 For the LORD is a [d] great God, and a great King [e] above all gods.
4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth; the [f] strength of the hills is his also.
5 The [g] sea is his, and he made it; and his hands formed the dry land.
6 O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD [h] our Maker.
7 For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the [i] sheep of his hand. [k] To-day, if ye will hear his voice,
8 [l] Harden not your heart, as in the [m] provocation, and as in the day of [n] temptation in the wilderness:
9 When your fathers [o] tempted me, proved me, and saw [p] my work.
10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do [q] err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:
11 Unto whom I sware in my wrath, that they should [r] not enter into my rest.

PSALM XCVI.

An exhortation to praise God for his general judgment.

O SING unto the LORD [a] a new song; sing unto the LORD all the earth.
2 Sing unto the LORD, bless [b] his name: shew forth [c] his salvation from day to day.
3 Declare his glory [d] among the heathen, his wonders among all people.
4 For the LORD is great, [e] and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared [f] above all gods.
5 For all the gods of the nations are † idols: but the LORD made the heavens.
6 [g] Honour and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
7 [h] Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength;
8 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring [i] an offering, and come into his courts.
9 O worship the LORD in the [k] beauty of holiness: fear before him all the earth.
10 Say [l] among the heathen, that the LORD [m] reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people [n] righteously.
11 Let the [o] heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.
12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice
13 Before the LORD: for he [p] cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

PSALM XCVII.

The church rejoiceth at God's judgments upon idolaters.

THE LORD [a] reigneth, let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of [b] isles be glad thereof.
2 [c] Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne.

3 [d] A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.
4 His lightnings [e] enlightened the world: the earth saw, and [f] trembled.
5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the [g] presence of the LORD of [h] the whole earth.
6 The [i] heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.
7 [k] Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him all ye gods.
8 Sion heard and was glad; and [l] the daughters of Judah rejoiced, because of thy judgments, O LORD.
9 For thou, LORD, art high [m] above all the earth; thou art exalted far above all gods.
10 Ye that love the LORD, [n] hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.
11 [o] Light is [p] sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

A Psalm.

O SING unto the LORD a new song; for he hath done [a] marvellous things: his [b] right hand and his holy arm hath gotten him the victory.
2 The LORD hath made known [c] his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.
3 He hath [d] remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: [e] all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
4 Make [f] a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth; make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.
5 Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp and the voice of a psalm.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL sing [a] of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.
2 I will behave myself [b] wisely in a perfect way. O! when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.
3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that [c] turn aside, it shall not cleave to me.
4 A froward heart shall depart from me; I will [d] not know a wicked person.
5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath a [e] high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.
6 [f] Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh [g] in a perfect way, he shall serve me.
7 He that worketh [h] deceit shall not dwell within my house; he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

The mercies of God are to be recorded.

A Prayer || of the afflicted; when he is [a] overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and let my [b] cry come unto thee.
2 [c] Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call, answer me speedily.
3 For my days are consumed like [d] smoke, and my bones are burned as a [e] hearth.
4 My heart is smitten, and withered like [f] grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of the voice of my groaning, [g] my bones cleave to my skin.
6 I am like [h] a pelican of the wilderness; I am like an [i] owl of the desert.
7 [k] I watch, and am as a sparrow [l] alone upon the house-top.
8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are [m] mad against me are [n] sworn against me.

9 He will [i] not always chide; neither will he keep his anger [k] for ever.
10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

PSALM CIV.

BLESS the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; thou art [a] clothed with honour and majesty:
2 Who coverest thyself with [b] light as with a garment; who stretchest out the heavens like [c] a curtain;
3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers [d] in the waters; who maketh the [e] clouds his chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind;
4 Who maketh his [f] angels spirits; his ministers [g] a flaming fire;
5 Who [h] laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed [i] for ever.
6 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with [k] a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.
7 At thy rebuke they fled; at [l] the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.
8 They [m] go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.
9 Thou hast set [n] a bound that they may not pass over, that they turn not again to cover the earth.
10 He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills.
11 They give drink to [o] every beast of the field: the wild asses [p] quench their thirst.
12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.
13 He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the [q] fruit of thy works.
14 He causeth the [r] grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man, that he may bring forth † food out of the earth;
15 And wine that [s] maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.
16 The [t] trees of the LORD are full of sap: the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted;
17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir-trees are her house.
18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats, and the rocks for the [u] conies.

PSALM CV.

An exhortation to praise God, and to seek out his works.

O GIVE [a] thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name; [b] make known his deeds among the people.
2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: [c] talk ye of all his wondrous works.
3 [d] Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart [e] of them rejoice that seek the LORD.
4 Seek the LORD, and [f] his strength; seek his face evermore.
5 Remember his [g] marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;
6 O ye seed of Abraham his [h] servant, ye children of Jacob his [i] chosen.
7 He is the LORD our God; his [k] judgments are in all the earth.
8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he [l] commanded to a thousand generations:
9 Which covenant he made [m] with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;
10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant;
11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the [n] land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance:
12 When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and [o] strangers in it.
13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people,
14 He suffered no man to do them wrong; yea, he [p] reproved kings for their sakes,
15 Saying, Touch not mine [q] anointed, and do my [r] prophets no harm
16 Moreover, he [s] called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole [t] staff of bread.
17 [u] He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was [x] sold for a servant;
18 Whose feet they hurt [y] with fetters: he was laid in iron;
19 Until the time that [z] his word came; the word of the LORD [a] tried him.
20 The king [b] sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.
21 He made him [c] lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance;
22 To [d] bind his princes at his pleasure, and teach his senators wisdom.
23 [e] Israel also came into Egypt, and Jacob sojourned in the land of [f] Ham.
24 And he [g] increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their enemies.
25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal [h] subtilly with his servants.
26 [i] He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron whom he had chosen.
27 They shewed his [k] signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.
28 He sent [l] darkness, and made it dark; and they [m] rebelled not against his word.
29 He turned their [n] waters into blood, and slew their fish.
30 The land brought forth frogs [o] in abundance, in the [p] chambers of their kings.
31 He spake, and there came [q] divers sorts of flies, and [r] lice in all their coasts.
32 He gave them [s] hail for rain, and [t] flaming fire in their land.
33 He smote their vines also, and their fig-trees; and brake the trees of their coasts.
34 He spake, and the [u] locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number,
35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.
36 He smote also all the [x] first-born in their land, the [y] chief of all their strength.
37 He brought them forth also with silver and gold; and there was [z] not one feeble person among their tribes.
38 Egypt was glad when they departed; for [a] the fear of them fell upon them.
39 He spread [b] a cloud for a covering, and [c] fire to give light in the night.
40 The people asked, and he brought [d] quails, and satisfied them with the [e] bread of heaven.
41 He opened the [f] rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like [g] a river.
42 For he [h] remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.
43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen [i] with gladness;
44 And gave them the [k] lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people;
45 That they might [l] observe his statutes, and keep his laws. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CVI.

The Psalmist exhorteth to praise God.

PRAISE ye the LORD. [a] O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.
2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth [b] all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that [c] doeth righteousness [d] at all times.

4 [e] Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people; O visit me with thy salvation;

5 That I may [f] see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may [g] glory with thine inheritance.

6 We have [h] sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even [i] at the Red Sea.

8 Nevertheless, he saved them [k] for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 He [l] rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through [m] the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And the waters [n] covered their enemies; there was not one of them left.

12 Then [o] believed they his words; they [p] sang his praise.

13 They [q] soon forgat his works; they waited not for his counsel;

14 But [r] lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and [s] tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their request; but sent [t] leanness into their soul.

16 They [u] envied Moses also in the camp; and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 The [x] earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18 And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burnt up [y] the wicked.

19 They made a calf in [z] Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they changed their [a] glory into the similitude of [b] an ox that eateth grass.

21 They forgat God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt;

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red Sea.

23 Therefore [c] he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the [d] breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised the [e] pleasant land; they [f] believed not his word;

25 But [g] murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD;

26 Therefore [h] he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to [i] scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also unto [k] Baal-peor, and ate the [l] sacrifices of the [m] dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions; and the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up [n] Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him [o] for righteousness, unto all generations for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went [p] ill with Moses for their sakes:

33 Because they [q] provoked his spirit, so that he spake [r] unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did [s] not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35 But were [t] mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And they served their idols; which were [u] a snare unto them.

37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils,

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons, and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the [x] idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went [y] a whoring with their own inventions.

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And [z] he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 [a] Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless, [b] he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry:

45 And he [c] remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

46 He made them also [d] to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy [e] name, and to triumph in thy praise.

48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CVII.

The Psalmist exhorteth, in praising God, to observe his providence.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is [a] good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let the [b] redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

3 And [c] gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

4 They wandered in the [d] wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

5 [e] Hungry and thirsty, their soul [f] fainted in them.

6 Then they [g] cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he [h] led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a [i] city of habitation.

8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9 For he [k] satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Such as sit in darkness, and in the [l] shadow of death, being bound in [m] affliction and iron;

11 Because they rebelled [n] against the words of God, and [o] contemned the counsel of the Most High;

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they [p] cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

PSALM CXV.

God is to be praised for his blessings.

NOT unto us, O LORD, [a] not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

2 Wherefore should the heathen say, [b] Where is now their God?

3 But our God [c] is in the heavens; he [d] hath done whatsoever he pleased.

4 Their [e] idols are silver and gold, the [f] work of men's hands.

5 They have mouths, but they [g] speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

6 They have ears, but they hear not; noses have they, but they smell not;

7 They have hands, but they handle not; feet have they, but they [h] walk not; neither speak they through their throat.

8 They that [i] make them are like unto them; so is every one [*] that trusteth in them.

9 [k] O Israel, trust thou in the LORD; he is their help and their shield.

10 O house of [l] Aaron, trust in the LORD; he is their help and their shield.

11 Ye that [m] fear the LORD, trust in the LORD; he is their help and their shield.

12 The LORD hath been mindful of us; he will bless us: he will [n] bless the house of Israel, he will bless the house of Aaron.

13 He will bless them that fear the LORD, both [o] small and great.

14 The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

15 You are [p] blessed of the LORD, which made heaven and earth.

16 The [q] heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

17 [r] The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into silence.

18 But [s] we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the LORD.

PSALM CXVI.

The Psalmist professeth his love and duty to God for his deliverance.

I [a] LOVE the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him [b] as long as I live.

3 The [c] sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then called I upon [d] the name of the LORD: O LORD, [e] I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the LORD, and [f] righteous; yea, our God is merciful.

6 The LORD [g] preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.

7 Return unto thy [h] rest, O my soul; for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.

8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from [i] falling.

9 [k] I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.

10 [l] I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted.

11 I said in [m] my haste, [n] All men are liars.

12 What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits towards me?

13 I will take the [o] cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the LORD.

14 I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people.

15 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the [p] death of his saints.

16 O LORD, truly, I am thy servant; I am thy servant and the son of thy [q] handmaid: thou hast loosed my [r] bonds.

17 I will offer to thee the [s] sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the LORD.

18 I will pay [t] my vows unto the LORD now in the [u] presence of all his people,

19 In the [x] courts of the LORD's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXVII.

An exhortation to praise God for his mercy and truth.

O PRAISE the LORD, [a] all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

2 For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the [b] truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXVIII.

The coming of Christ in his kingdom is expressed.

O [a] GIVE thanks unto the LORD; for he is good; because his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let [b] Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

3 Let the [c] house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that [d] fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

5 I called upon the LORD [e] in distress: the LORD answered me, and set me in [f] a large place.

6 The LORD is on my side; I [g] will not fear: what can man do unto me?

7 The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I [h] see my desire upon them that hate me.

8 It is [i] better to trust in the LORD, than to put confidence [k] in man:

9 It is better to trust in the LORD, than to put confidence in princes.

10 [l] All nations compassed me about: but in [m] the name of the LORD will I destroy them.

11 They [n] compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

12 They compassed me about like [o] bees; they are quenched [p] as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

13 [q] Thou hast thrust sore at me, that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.

14 The LORD is [r] my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

15 The voice of rejoicing and [s] salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

16 The [t] right hand of the LORD is exalted; the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

17 I shall [u] not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.

18 The LORD hath chastened me sore: but he hath [x] not given me over unto death.

19 [y] Open to me the gates [z] of righteousness: I will go in to them, and I will praise the LORD;

20 This gate of the LORD, into which the [a] righteous shall enter.

21 I will praise thee; for thou hast [b] heard me, and art become my salvation.

22 The stone which the [c] builders refused is become the [d] head stone of the corner.

23 This is the LORD's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.

24 This is [e] the day which the LORD hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

25 Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

26 Blessed be he that [f] cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you [g] out of the house of the LORD.

27 God is the LORD, which hath shewed us [h] light: bind the sacrifice with [i] cords, even unto [k] the horns of the altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee; thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

29 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

PSALM CXIX.

This Psalm containeth sundry prayers, praises, and professions of obedience.

ALEPH.

BLESSED are the [a] undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD.

2 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that [b] seek him with the whole heart.

3 They also [c] do no iniquity: they [d] walk in his ways.

4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

5 O that my ways were [e] directed to keep thy statutes!

6 Then shall I [f] not be ashamed when I have respect unto [g] all thy commandments.

7 I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned thy righteous judgments.

8 I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not [h] utterly.

BETH.

9 Wherewithal shall [i] a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to [k] thy word.

10 With my [l] whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

11 Thy word have [m] I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee.

12 Blessed art thou, O LORD: [n] teach me thy statutes.

13 With my lips have [o] I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

14 I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

15 [p] I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

16 I will [q] delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

GIMEL.

17 Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may [r] live, and keep thy word.

18 Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold [s] wondrous things out of thy law.

19 I am [t] a stranger in the earth; hide not thy commandments from me.

20 My soul [u] breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times.

21 Thou hast rebuked [x] the proud that are cursed, which do err from thy commandments.

22 Remove from me [y] reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies.

23 Princes also did [z] sit and [a] speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy statutes.

24 Thy testimonies also are my delight, and my [b] counsellors.

DALETH.

25 My soul [c] cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word.

26 I have [d] declared my ways, and thou heardest me: [e] teach me thy statutes.

27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I [f] talk of thy wondrous works.

28 My soul melteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me according unto thy word.

29 Remove from me the [g] way of lying; and grant me thy law graciously.

30 I have chosen the [h] way of truth: thy judgments have I laid ‖ before me.

31 I have stuck unto thy testimonies: O LORD, put me not to shame.

32 I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou [i] shalt enlarge my heart.

HE.

33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes, and I shall keep it unto the [k] end.

34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

35 Make me [l] to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight.

36 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and [m] not to covetousness.

37 Turn away mine eyes [n] from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

38 [o] Establish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear.

39 Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good.

40 Behold, I have [p] longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness.

VAU.

41 Let thy mercies [q] come also unto me, O LORD; even thy salvation, according to thy word.

42 So shall I have wherewith [r] to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word.

43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments.

44 So shall I keep thy law [s] continually for ever and ever.

45 And I will walk † at liberty: for I seek thy precepts.

46 I will speak of thy testimonies also [t] before kings, and will not be ashamed.

6 He hath also [i] established them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass.
7 Praise the LORD from the earth, ye [k] dragons, and all deeps.
8 Fire and hail; snow and vapour; [l] stormy wind fulfilling his word:
9 Mountains, and all hills; [m] fruitful trees, and all cedars:
10 [n] Beasts, and all cattle: creeping things, and flying fowl:
11 Kings of the earth, and all people; princes and all judges of the earth:
12 Both young men and maidens; old men and children:
13 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for his name alone is excellent; his glory is above the earth and heaven.
14 He also exalteth the [o] horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, [p] a people near unto him. Praise ye the LORD.

The Prophet exhorteth to praise God for his love to the church.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the [a] congregation of saints.
2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in [b] their King.

¶ The PROVERBS.

CHAPTER I.

1 The use of the proverbs....7 An exhortation to fear God and believe his word.

THE [a] Proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel;
2 To know [b] wisdom and instruction; [c] to perceive the words of understanding;
3 To receive the instruction [d] of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and [e] equity;
4 To give [f] subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.
5 A wise man will hear, and [g] will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels;
6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their [h] dark sayings.
7 The [i] fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.
8 My son, [k] hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:
9 For they shall be [l] an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.
10 My son, if sinners [m] entice thee, [n] consent thou not.
11 If they [o] say, [p] Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:
12 Let us [q] swallow them up alive, as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:
13 We shall find all [r] precious substance, we shall [s] fill our houses with spoil:
14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse.
15 My son, [t] walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:
16 For their [u] feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood:
17 (Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird:)
18 And they lay wait [x] for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.
19 So are the ways of every one that [y] is greedy of gain; which [z] taketh away the life of the owners thereof.
20 [a] Wisdom crieth without; she [b] uttereth her voice in the streets;
21 She crieth in the [c] chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,
22 [d] How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity, and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?
23 Turn you at my reproof; behold, I will † pour out my Spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.
24 Because I have [e] called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;
25 But ye have [f] set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof;
26 I also will [g] laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your [h] fear cometh.
27 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your [i] destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you;
28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will [k] not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:
29 For that they [l] hated knowledge, and did [m] not choose the fear of the LORD:
30 They would [n] none of my counsel; they despised all my reproof:
31 Therefore shall they [o] eat of the fruit of their own way, and be [p] filled with their own devices.
32 For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.
33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be [q] quiet from fear of evil.

CHAPTER II.

Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and [a] hide my commandments with thee;
2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and [b] apply thy heart to understanding;
3 Yea, if thou [c] criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;
4 If thou [d] seekest her as silver, and [e] searchest for her as for hid treasures;
5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and [f] find the knowledge of God:
6 For the LORD [g] giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding;
7 He layeth up [h] sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.
8 He keepeth the [i] paths of judgment, and [k] preserveth the way of his saints.
9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every [l] good path.
10 When wisdom entereth into thy heart, and knowledge is [m] pleasant unto thy soul,
11 Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee;
12 To deliver thee from the way of the [n] evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;
13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways [o] of darkness;
14 Who [p] rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;
15 Whose ways are crooked, and they [q] froward in their paths:
16 To deliver thee from the [r] strange woman, even from the stranger which [s] flattereth with her words;
17 Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the [t] covenant of her God.

20 That thou mayest walk in the way of [y] good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.
21 For the upright shall [z] dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.
22 But the wicked shall be [a] cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

CHAPTER III.

An exhortation to obedience, faith, and mortification.

MY son, forget not my law; but let [a] thy heart keep my commandments:
2 For length of days, and long life, and [b] peace, shall they add to thee.
3 Let not [c] mercy and truth forsake thee; bind them about thy neck; [d] write them upon the table of thy heart:
4 So shalt thou find [e] favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.
5 [f] Trust in the LORD with all thy heart; [g] and lean not unto thine own understanding.
6 [h] In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall [i] direct thy paths.
7 [k] Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and [l] depart from evil.
8 It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.
9 Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the [m] first-fruits of all thine increase:
10 So shall thy barns be filled with [n] plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.
11 My son, despise not [o] the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:
12 For whom the LORD [p] loveth he correcteth, even [q] as a father the son in whom he delighteth.
13 [r] Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding:
14 For the merchandise of it is [s] better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.
15 She is more precious than rubies: and [t] all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.
16 Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand [u] riches and honour.
17 Her ways are ways of [x] pleasantness, and all her paths are [y] peace.
18 She is [z] a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her; and happy is every one that retaineth her.
19 The LORD [a] by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he [b] established the heavens.
20 By his knowledge the [c] depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.
21 My son, let not them [d] depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion.
22 So shall they be [e] life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck.
23 Then shalt thou walk in thy way [f] safely, and [g] thy foot shall not stumble.
24 When thou [h] liest down thou shalt not be afraid; yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy [i] sleep shall be sweet.
25 Be not afraid of [k] sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.
26 For the LORD shall be thy [l] confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being [m] taken.
27 Withhold [n] not good from them to whom it is [o] due, when it is in the power of thy hand to do it.
28 Say not unto thy neighbour, [p] Go, and come again, and to-morrow I will give, when thou hast it by thee.
29 [q] Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.
30 [r] Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.
31 [s] Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.
32 For the froward is abomination to the LORD: but [t] his secret is with the righteous.
33 The [u] curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but [x] he blesseth the habitation of the just.
34 Surely he [y] scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.
35 [z] The wise shall inherit glory; but [a] shame shall be the promotion of fools.

CHAPTER IV.

Solomon sheweth what instruction he had of his parents.

HEAR, ye [a] children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.
2 For I give you [b] good doctrine, forsake you not my law.
3 For I was my father's son, [c] tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.
4 [d] He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thy heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live.
5 [e] Get wisdom, get understanding; forget it not: neither decline from the words of my mouth.
6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: [f] love her, and she shall keep thee.
7 Wisdom is the [g] principal thing: therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.
8 Exalt her, and she shall [h] promote thee: she shall [i] bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.
9 She shall give to thy head [k] an ornament of grace; a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.
10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the [l] years of thy life shall be many.
11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in [m] right paths.
12 When thou [n] goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.
13 Take [o] fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy [p] life.
14 Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the [q] way of evil men.
15 Avoid it, pass not by it, † turn from it and pass away.
16 For they [r] sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.
17 For they [s] eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.
18 But the path of the just is as the [t] shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.
19 The way of the wicked is [u] as darkness; they [x] know not at what they stumble.
20 My son, [y] attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings:
21 Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thy heart:
22 For they are life unto those that find them, and † health to all their flesh.

23 [z] Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the [a] issues of life.
24 Put away from thee [b] a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.
25 Let thine [c] eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.
26 [d] Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.
27 [e] Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: [f] remove thy foot from evil.

CHAPTER V.

Solomon exhorteth to the study of wisdom.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and [a] bow thine ear to my understanding;
2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that [b] thy lips may keep knowledge.
3 For the lips of a strange woman [c] drop as a honey-comb, and her mouth is smoother than oil:
4 But her end is [d] bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.
5 Her feet go down [e] to death, her steps take hold on hell.
6 Lest thou shouldest [f] ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst [g] not know them.
7 [h] Hear me now, therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.
8 [i] Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house;
9 Lest thou give thine [k] honour unto others, and thy years unto the [l] cruel:
10 Lest [m] strangers be filled with thy wealth, and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;
11 And thou mourn at the last, when thy [n] flesh and thy body are consumed,
12 And say, [o] How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;
13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!
14 I was almost in all evil in the midst of the [p] congregation and assembly.
15 ¶ [q] Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.
16 Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.
17 Let them be [r] only thine own, and not strangers' with thee.
18 Let thy fountain be [s] blessed; and rejoice with the [t] wife of thy youth.
19 Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant [u] roe; let her [x] breasts [y] satisfy thee at all times, and be thou ravished always with her love.
20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?
21 For the ways of man are before [z] the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.
22 His own iniquities shall [a] take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.
23 He shall die [b] without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

CHAPTER VI.

Against suretiship, idleness, and mischievousness.

MY son, if thou be [a] surety for thy friend, if thou hast [b] stricken thy hand with a stranger,
2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.
3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.
4 [c] Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.
5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.
6 ¶ [d] Go to the ant, thou sluggard; [e] consider her ways, and be wise:
7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,
8 [f] Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.
9 How long wilt thou [g] sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou [h] arise out of thy sleep?
10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep;
11 So shall thy [i] poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as [k] an armed man.
12 ¶ [l] A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with [m] a froward mouth.
13 He [n] winketh with his eyes, he [o] speaketh with his feet, he [p] teacheth with his fingers;
14 Frowardness is in his heart, he [q] deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord.
15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken [r] without remedy.
16 ¶ These six things doth the LORD hate; yea, seven are an abomination unto him:
17 [s] A proud look, [t] a lying tongue, and [u] hands that shed innocent blood,
18 A heart that deviseth [x] wicked imaginations, [y] feet that be swift in running to mischief,
19 A [z] false witness that speaketh lies, and him that [a] soweth discord among brethren.
20 ¶ My son, [b] keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:
21 [c] Bind them continually upon thy heart, and tie them about thy neck.
22 When thou [d] goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.
23 For the commandment is [e] a lamp, and the law is light; and [f] reproofs of instruction are the way of life:
24 To keep thee [g] from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.
25 [h] Lust not after her beauty in thy heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids;
26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to [i] a piece of bread; and the [k] adulteress will [l] hunt for the precious life.
27 Can a man take fire in [m] his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?
28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burnt?
29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife: whosoever [n] toucheth her shall not be [o] innocent,
30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to [p] satisfy his soul when he is hungry:
31 But if he be found, he shall restore [q] seven-fold; he shall give all the substance of his house.
32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh [r] understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.
33 [s] A wound and dishonour shall he get, and his reproach shall not be wiped away.
34 For jealousy is the rage of a man; therefore he will not spare in the [t] day of vengeance.
35 He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

CHAPTER VII.

Solomon persuadeth to a sincere and kind familiarity with wisdom.

MY son, [a] keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.

2 Keep my commandments, and [b] live; and my law as the apple of thine eye.

3 [c] Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thy heart.

4 Say unto Wisdom, Thou art my [d] sister; and call Understanding thy kinswoman:

5 That they may [e] keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

6 For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,

7 And beheld among the [f] simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man [g] void of understanding,

8 Passing through the street [h] near her corner; and he [i] went the way to her house;

9 In [k] the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:

10 And, behold, there met him a woman, with the [l] attire of a harlot, and [m] subtle of heart.

11 (She is [n] loud and stubborn; her feet [o] abide not in her house:

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and [p] lieth in wait at every corner.)

13 So she [q] caught him, and kissed him, and [r] with an impudent face said unto him,

14 I have [s] peace-offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows:

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face; and I have [t] found thee.

16 I have [u] decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning; let us solace ourselves with loves:

19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone [x] a long journey:

20 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.

21 With much fair speech she [y] caused him to yield, with the [z] flattering of her lips she forced him.

22 He goeth after her straightway, as [a] an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the [b] correction of the stocks;

23 Till [c] a dart strike through his liver, as a bird [d] hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 Hearken unto me now, therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth:

25 Let not [e] thy heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths:

26 For she hath cast down many wounded; yea, many [f] strong men have been slain by her.

27 [g] Her house is the way to hell, going down to the [h] chambers of death.

CHAPTER VIII.

Wisdom is to be desired for the blessedness it bringeth.

DOTH not [a] Wisdom cry? and Understanding [b] put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, [c] by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She [d] crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors;

4 Unto [e] you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom; and, [f] ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of [g] excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be [h] right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak [i] truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.

9 They are all [k] plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 [l] Receive my instruction, and [m] not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is [n] better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 [o] I Wisdom dwell with Prudence, and find out knowledge of [p] witty inventions.

13 [q] The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the [r] froward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and [s] sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

15 [t] By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me [u] princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 I love them that [x] love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

18 [y] Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

19 [z] My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

20 [a] I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment;

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit † substance; and I will fill their treasures.

22 The LORD [b] possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, [c] I was there; when he set a compass upon the face of the depth;

28 When he established the clouds above; when he strengthened the fountains of the deep;

29 When he gave to the sea [d] his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment; when he appointed the foundations of the earth:

30 Then I was [e] by him, as one brought up with him; and I was daily [f] his delight, rejoicing always before him,

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and [g] my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now, therefore, hearken unto me, O ye children: for [h] blessed are they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and [i] refuse it not.

34 Blessed is the man that [k] heareth me, [l] watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth against me [m] wrongeth his own soul: all they that [n] hate me love death.

CHAPTER IX.

The discipline and doctrine of wisdom.

Before CHRIST cir. 1000.

WISDOM hath builded [a] her house, she hath [b] hewn out her seven [c] pillars:

2 She hath killed her [d] beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table:

3 She hath [e] sent forth her [f] maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city,

4 Whoso is [g] simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 [h] Come, eat of my [i] bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 [k] Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth [l] a scorner getteth to himself shame; and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 [m] Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke [n] a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser; teach a just man, and he will [o] increase in learning.

10 [p] The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 For [q] by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise [r] for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 ¶ A foolish woman is clamorous; she is simple, and [s] knoweth nothing.

14 For she [t] sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who [u] go right on their ways;

16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

17 [x] Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that the [y] dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

CHAPTER X.

From this chapter to the five and twentieth, are sundry observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices.

THE Proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the [a] heaviness of his mother.

2 Treasures of wickedness [b] profit nothing: but [c] righteousness delivereth from death.

3 The LORD will [d] not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.

4 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

6 [e] Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence [f] covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 [g] The memory of the just is blessed: but the [h] name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: but [i] a prating fool shall fall.

9 He that walketh uprightly walketh [k] surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be [l] known.

10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow; but a prating fool shall fall.

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a [m] well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but [n] love covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding [o] wisdom is found: but a [p] rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

14 Wise men [q] lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 The rich man's wealth is [r] his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous [s] tendeth to life; the [t] fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the [u] way of life that [x] keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth [y] a slander, is a fool.

19 In the [z] multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as [a] choice silver: [b] the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous [c] feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.

22 The blessing of the LORD, [d] it maketh rich; and he addeth [e] no sorrow with it.

23 It is [f] as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 The fear of the wicked, it shall [g] come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be [h] granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked [i] no more: but the righteous is [k] an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the [l] sluggard to them that send him.

27 The fear of the LORD prolongeth days: but the years of the wicked shall be [m] shortened.

28 [n] The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the [o] expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright; but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall [p] never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

31 The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is [q] acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh frowardness.

CHAPTER XI.

A [a] FALSE balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight.

2 When pride cometh, then cometh [b] shame: but with the [c] lowly is wisdom.

3 The integrity of the upright shall [d] guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall [e] destroy them.

4 Riches [f] profit not in the day of wrath: but [g] righteousness delivereth from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way; but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them; but transgressors [h] shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

7 When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish; and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked [i] cometh in his stead.

9 A hypocrite with his [k] mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through [l] knowledge shall the just be delivered.

10 When it goeth well with the righteous, the city [m] rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is [n] shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright the city is [o] exalted: but it is overthrown [p] by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding [q] holdeth his peace.

13 A tale-bearer [r] revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

14 Where no counsel is, the people [s] fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

15 He that is [t] surety for a stranger shall smart for it: and he that hateth suretiship is sure.

16 A gracious woman [u] retaineth honour; and strong men retain riches.

17 The merciful man doeth good [x] to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

18 The wicked worketh [y] a deceitful work: but to him that soweth righteousness shall be [z] a sure reward.

19 As righteousness tendeth to life; so he that pursueth evil, pursueth it to his own death.

20 They that are of a froward heart are [b] abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way are [c] his delight.

21 Though [d] hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the [e] seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is [f] only good: but the expectation of the wicked [g] is wrath.

24 There is that [h] scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

25 [i] The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

26 He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: but he that seeketh mischief, it shall [k] come unto him.

28 He that [l] trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall [m] flourish as a branch.

29 He that [n] troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be [o] servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that [p] winneth souls is wise.

31 Behold, the righteous shall be [q] recompensed in the earth: [r] much more the wicked and the sinner.

CHAPTER XII.

WHOSO loveth instruction [a] loveth knowledge: but he that hateth reproof is [b] brutish.

2 A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of [c] wicked devices will he condemn.

3 A man shall not be established [d] by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall [e] not be moved.

4 [f] A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are [g] right: but the counsels of the wicked are [h] deceit.

6 The words of the wicked are to [i] lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall [k] deliver them.

7 The wicked are overthrown, and [l] are not: but the house of the righteous [m] shall stand.

8 A man shall be commended [n] according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart shall be [o] despised.

9 He that is despised, and hath [p] a servant, is better than he that [q] honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are [r] cruel.

11 He that [s] tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding.

12 The wicked desireth the [t] net of evil men: but the root of the righteous [u] yieldeth fruit.

13 The wicked is [x] snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.

14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth; and the [y] recompense of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

15 The way of a fool is right in his [z] own eyes: but he that [a] hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.

16 A fool's wrath is [b] presently known: but a prudent man [c] covereth shame.

17 He that speaketh truth [d] sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

18 There is that speaketh like the [e] piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

19 The lip of truth shall be [f] established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for [g] a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors [h] of peace is joy.

21 There shall [i] no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be [k] filled with mischief.

22 Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that [l] deal truly are his [m] delight.

23 A prudent man [n] concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be [o] under tribute.

25 Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it [p] stoop: but [q] a good word maketh it glad.

26 The righteous is [r] more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked [s] seduceth them.

27 The slothful man [t] roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man [u] is precious.

28 In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death.

CHAPTER XIII.

A WISE son heareth his father's instruction: but [a] a scorner heareth not rebuke.

2 A man shall eat good by the fruit of his [b] mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall [c] eat violence.

3 He that [d] keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that [e] openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

4 The soul of the sluggard [f] desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the [g] diligent shall be made fat.

5 A righteous man [h] hateth lying: but a wicked man is [i] loathsome, and cometh to shame.

6 Righteousness [k] keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth the sinner.

7 There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing; there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

8 The [l] ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous [m] rejoiceth: but the lamp of the wicked shall [n] be put out.

10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well-advised is wisdom.

11 [o] Wealth gotten [p] by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall [q] increase.

12 Hope deferred maketh the heart [r] sick: but when the [s] desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoso despiseth the word shall be [t] destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.

14 The law of the wise is [u] a fountain of life, to depart from the [x] snares of death.

15 Good understanding [y] giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is [z] hard.

16 Every prudent man [a] dealeth with knowledge: but a fool [b] layeth open his folly.

17 A wicked messenger [c] falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is [d] health.

18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that [e] refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be [f] honoured.

19 The [g] desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to [h] depart from evil.

20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

21 Evil [i] pursueth sinners: but to the righteous [k] good shall be repaid.

22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children; and the [l] wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

23 [m] Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for [n] want of judgment.

24 He that [o] spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

CHAPTER XIV.

EVERY wise woman [a] buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down [b] with her hands.

2 He that [c] walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his ways [d] despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is [e] a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where no [f] oxen are, the crib is clean: but [g] much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 [h] A faithful witness will not lie: but [i] a false witness will utter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and [k] findeth it not: but knowledge is [l] easy unto him that understandeth.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou [m] perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is [n] to understand his way: but the folly of fools is [o] deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is [p] favour.

10 The heart knoweth [q] his own bitterness: and a stranger doth [r] not intermeddle with his joy.

11 [s] The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the [t] tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 There is a way which [u] seemeth right unto a man; but the [x] end thereof are the ways of death.

13 Even in [y] laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the [z] end of that mirth is heaviness.

14 The backslider in heart shall be [a] filled with his own ways; and a good man shall be satisfied [b] from himself.

15 The simple [c] believeth every word: but the prudent man [d] looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man [e] feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is [f] confident.

17 He that is [g] soon angry dealeth foolishly; and a man of [h] wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple [i] inherit folly: but the prudent are [k] crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil [l] bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor is [m] hated even of his own neighbour: but the rich hath [n] many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, [o] happy is he.

22 Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence; and [p] his children shall have a place of refuge.

27 The fear of the LORD is [q] a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the [r] king's honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He that is [s] slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

30 [t] A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy the [u] rottenness of the bones.

31 He that oppresseth the poor [x] reproacheth his Maker: but he that [y] honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.

32 The wicked [z] is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath [a] hope in his death.

33 Wisdom resteth in the [b] heart of him that hath understanding: but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.

34 [c] Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.

35 The king's favour is toward [d] a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

CHAPTER XV.

A SOFT answer [a] turneth away wrath: but [b] grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise [c] useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

3 [d] The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

4 [e] A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is [f] a breach in the spirit.

5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof [g] is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is [h] much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is [i] trouble.

7 The lips of the wise [k] disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish [l] doeth not so.

8 The [m] sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his [n] delight.

9 The [o] way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he loveth him that [p] followeth after righteousness.

10 Correction is [q] grievous unto him that forsaketh the way; and he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD; how much more then the [r] hearts of the children of men?

12 A scorner [s] loveth not one that reproveth him; neither will he [t] go unto the wise.

13 [u] A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the [x] spirit is broken.

Before CHRIST cir. 1000.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding [y] seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools [z] feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are [a] evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

16 [b] Better is little with the fear of the LORD, than great treasure and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than [c] a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

18 [d] A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is [e] slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the slothful man is [f] as a hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made [g] plain.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 [h] Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding [i] walketh uprightly.

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the [k] multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth; and a word spoken [l] in due season, how good is it!

24 The way of life is [m] above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 The LORD will [n] destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

26 [o] The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are [p] pleasant words.

27 He that is greedy of gain [q] troubleth his own house: but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous [r] studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The LORD is far [s] from the wicked: but he [t] heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart; and [u] a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 The ear that heareth the [x] reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

33 The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and [y] before honour is humility.

CHAPTER XVI.

THE [a] preparations of the heart in man, and the [b] answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 All the ways of a man are [c] clean in his own eyes: but the LORD [d] weigheth the spirits.

3 [e] Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy [f] thoughts shall be established.

4 The LORD hath made all things [g] for himself; yea, even the wicked [h] for the day of evil.

5 Every one that is [i] proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though [k] hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is [l] purged; and by the [m] fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

7 When a man's ways [n] please the LORD, he maketh even his [o] enemies to be at peace with him.

8 [p] Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues [q] without right.

9 A man's heart [r] deviseth his way: but the LORD [s] directeth his steps.

10 [t] A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth [u] transgresseth not in judgment.

11 [x] A just weight and balance are the LORD's; all the weights of the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness; for the [y] throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the [z] delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The [a] wrath of a king is as messengers of death; but a wise man will [b] pacify it.

15 In the [c] light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the [d] latter rain.

16 How much better is it to get wisdom [e] than gold? and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver?

17 [f] The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of a humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find [g] good; and whoso [h] trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The [i] wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is [k] a well-spring of life unto him that hath it: but the [l] instruction of fools is folly.

23 [m] The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

24 [n] Pleasant words are as a honey-comb, [o] sweet to the soul, and [p] health to the bones.

25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death.

26 He that [q] laboureth, laboureth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him.

27 An ungodly man [r] diggeth up evil; and in his [s] lips there is as a burning fire.

28 A froward man soweth strife; and [t] a whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 [u] A violent man [x] enticeth his neighbour, and [y] leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things; moving his lips, he bringeth evil to pass.

31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 He that is [z] slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that [a] ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

33 The [b] lot is cast into the lap; but the whole [c] disposing thereof is of the LORD.

CHAPTER XVII.

BETTER is [a] a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than a house full of [b] sacrifices with strife.

2 [c] A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 The fining-pot is for silver, and the [d] furnace for gold: but the LORD [e] trieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear [f] to a naughty tongue.

5 Whoso [g] mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker; and he that [h] is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

6 [i] Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are [k] their fathers.

7 Excellent speech becometh [l] not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince.

8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it; whithersoever it turneth, [m] it prospereth.

9 He that [n] covereth a transgression seeketh love: but he that [o] repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man than [p] a hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only [q] rebellion; therefore [r] a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.
12 Let a bear, robbed of her whelps, meet a man, rather than [s] a fool in his folly.
13 Whoso rewardeth [t] evil for good, [u] evil shall not depart from his house.
14 [x] The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water; therefore leave off contention [y] before it be meddled with.
15 He that [z] justifieth the wicked, and he that [a] condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.
16 Wherefore is there [b] a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath [c] no heart to it?
17 A friend loveth [d] at all times, and a brother is born [e] for adversity.
18 A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.
19 He loveth transgression that [f] loveth strife: and he that [g] exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.
20 He that hath a froward heart findeth no good; and he that hath [h] a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.
21 He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow; and the father of a fool hath [i] no joy.
22 [k] A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but [l] a broken spirit drieth the bones.
23 A wicked man taketh a gift [m] out of the bosom [n] to pervert the ways of judgment.
24 Wisdom is [o] before him that hath understanding: but the eyes of a fool are in the [p] ends of the earth.
25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and [q] bitterness to her that bare him.
26 Also to punish the just is [r] not good, nor to strike princes for equity.
27 He that hath knowledge [s] spareth his words; and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.
28 Even a fool when he [t] holdeth his peace is counted wise; and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THROUGH desire a man, having [a] separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.
2 A fool hath [b] no delight in understanding, but that [c] his heart may discover itself.
3 When the [d] wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with [e] ignominy reproach.
4 The words of a man's mouth are [f] as deep waters, and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brook.
5 It is not good [g] to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.
6 A fool's lips [h] enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.
7 A fool's mouth is his [i] destruction, and his lips are the [k] snare of his soul.
8 The words of [l] a tale-bearer are as [m] wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.
9 He also that is [n] slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.
10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous [o] runneth into it, and is [p] safe.
11 The rich man's [q] wealth is his strong city, and as a high wall in his own conceit.
12 Before destruction the [r] heart of man is haughty, and [s] before honour is humility.
13 He that answereth a matter before [t] he heareth it, it is [u] folly and shame unto him.
14 [x] The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity: but [y] a wounded spirit who can bear?
15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the [z] ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.
16 [a] A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.
17 He that is [b] first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and [c] searcheth him.
18 The [d] lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.
19 [e] A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city; and their [f] contentions are like the bars of a castle.
20 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the [g] fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.
21 Death and life are in the power of the [h] tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.
22 Whoso findeth [i] a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.
23 The poor useth [k] entreaties: but the rich answereth [l] roughly.
24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

CHAPTER XIX.

BETTER [a] is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.
2 Also, that the soul be [b] without knowledge, it is not good; and he that [c] hasteth with his feet sinneth.
3 The foolishness of man [d] perverteth his way: and his heart [e] fretteth against the LORD.
4 Wealth maketh many [f] friends; but the poor is [g] separated from his neighbour.
5 A false witness shall not be [h] unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.
6 Many will entreat the favour of the prince; and every man is a friend to him that [i] giveth gifts.
7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him; how much more do his friends go [k] far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.
8 He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that [l] keepeth understanding shall find good.
9 A false witness shall not be unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall perish.
10 Delight [m] is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant [n] to have rule over princes.
11 The discretion of a man [o] deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to [p] pass over a transgression.
12 The king's wrath is as the roaring [q] of a lion: but his favour [r] is as dew upon the grass.
13 [s] A foolish son is the calamity of his father; and the [t] contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.
14 House and riches are the inheritance [u] of fathers; and a prudent wife is [x] from the LORD.
15 [y] Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall [z] suffer hunger.
16 He that [a] keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.
17 He that hath pity upon the poor [b] lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he [c] pay him again.
18 Chasten thy son while there is [d] hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.
19 A man of [e] great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.
20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy [f] latter end.

21 There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless, the counsel of the LORD, that shall [g] stand.
22 The desire of a man is [h] his kindness: and a poor man is [i] better than a liar.
23 [k] The fear of the LORD tendeth to life; and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.
24 A slothful man hideth his hand in his [l] bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.
25 Smite a scorner, and the simple will [m] beware; and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will [n] understand knowledge.
26 He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.
27 Cease, my son, [o] to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.
28 An ungodly witness || scorneth judgment; and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.
29 Judgments are [p] prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAPTER XX.

WINE is [a] a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.
2 The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth [b] against his own soul.
3 It is an honour for a man [c] to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.
4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he [d] beg in harvest, and have nothing.
5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water: but a man of understanding will [e] draw it out.
6 Most men will [f] proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man [g] who can find?
7 The just man walketh in his [h] integrity: his children are blessed after him.
8 A king that sitteth in the [i] throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.
9 Who can say, I have made my [k] heart clean, I am pure from my sin?
10 [l] Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.
11 Even a child is known by his [m] doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.
12 The [n] hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both of them.
13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty: [o] open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.
14 It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he [p] boasteth.
15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a [q] precious jewel.
16 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger; and take a pledge of him for a [r] strange woman.
17 [s] Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with [t] gravel.
18 Every purpose is established by [u] counsel; and with [x] good advice make war.
19 He that goeth about as a tale-bearer revealeth secrets; therefore meddle not with him that [y] flattereth with his lips.
20 Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in [z] obscure darkness.
21 An inheritance may be gotten [a] hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall [b] not be blessed.
22 Say not thou, I will [c] recompense evil: but [d] wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.
23 Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and a false balance is not good.
24 Man's goings are [e] of the LORD: how can a man then [f] understand his own way?
25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and [g] after vows to make inquiry.
26 A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the [h] wheel over them.
27 The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, [i] searching all the inward parts of the belly.
28 [k] Mercy and truth preserve the king; and his throne is upholden by mercy.
29 The glory of young men is their [l] strength; and the beauty of old men is the gray head.
30 The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do [m] stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE king's [a] heart is in the [b] hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water; he turneth it whithersoever he will.
2 Every way of a man is [c] right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts.
3 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than [d] sacrifice.
4 A high look, and a proud heart, and the || plowing of the wicked, is sin.
5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty, only to want.
6 The getting of treasures by [e] a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.
7 The robbery of the wicked shall [f] destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.
8 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the [g] pure, his work is right.
9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.
10 The soul of the wicked [h] desireth evil: his neighbour findeth [i] no favour in his eyes.
11 When the scorner is punished, the simple is [k] made wise; and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.
12 The righteous man [l] wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.
13 Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall [m] cry himself, but shall not be heard.
14 A gift in secret pacifieth anger, and a reward in the bosom strong wrath.
15 It is [n] joy to the just to do judgment: but [o] destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.
16 The man that [p] wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.
17 He that loveth [q] pleasure shall be a poor man; he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.
18 The wicked shall be [r] a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.
19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a [s] contentious and an angry woman.
20 There is [t] treasure to be desired, and oil in the dwelling of the wise: but a foolish man spendeth it up.
21 He that [u] followeth after righteousness and mercy, findeth life, righteousness, and honour.
22 A wise man [x] scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.
23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue, keepeth his soul from troubles.

Before CHRIST cir. 1000.

24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in [y] proud wrath.
25 The desire of the slothful [z] killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour.
26 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous [a] giveth and spareth not.
27 The sacrifice of the [b] wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?
28 A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.
29 A wicked man [c] hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way.
30 There is no [d] wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the LORD.
31 The [e] horse is prepared against the day of battle: but [f] safety is of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXII.

A [a] GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.
2 The rich and poor [b] meet together: the LORD is the [c] maker of them all.
3 A prudent man [d] foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple [e] pass on, and are punished.
4 By humility, and the fear of the LORD, [f] are riches, and honour, and life.
5 [g] Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: he that doth keep his soul shall be [h] far from them.
6 [i] Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will [k] not depart from it.
7 The rich [l] ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.
8 He that [m] soweth iniquity shall reap vanity; and the rod of his anger shall fail.
9 He that hath [n] a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.
10 Cast out the [o] scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.
11 He that loveth [p] pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the [q] king shall be his friend.
12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge; and he [r] overthroweth the words of the transgressor.
13 The slothful man saith, There is [s] a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.
14 The mouth of strange women is [t] a deep pit: he that is [u] abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.
15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.
16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that [x] giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.
17 Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto [y] my knowledge.
18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.
19 That [z] thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee.
20 Have not I written to thee excellent things in counsels and knowledge,
21 That I might make thee know the certainty of the [a] words of truth, that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?
22 Rob not the poor, because he is poor; neither [b] oppress the afflicted in the gate;
23 For the LORD will [c] plead their cause, and [d] spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.
24 Make no friendship with an angry man, and with a [e] furious man thou shalt not go;
25 Lest thou [f] learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.
26 Be not thou one of them that [g] strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.
27 If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he take away thy [h] bed from under thee?
28 Remove not the ancient [i] landmark which thy fathers have set.
29 Seest thou a man [k] diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men.

Before CHRIST cir. 1000.

CHAPTER XXIII.

WHEN thou sittest to eat with a ruler, [a] consider diligently what is before thee;
2 And put [b] a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.
3 Be not desirous of his dainties; for they are [c] deceitful meat.
4 Labour not to be [d] rich; cease from thine [e] own wisdom.
5 Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which [f] is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away, as an eagle toward heaven.
6 Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an [g] evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:
7 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, [h] saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.
8 [i] The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.
9 Speak not in the ears of a fool; for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.
10 Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the [k] fields of the fatherless:
11 For their [l] Redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.
12 [m] Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.
13 Withhold not [n] correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.
14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul [o] from hell.
15 My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall [p] rejoice, even mine;
16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice when thy lips speak right things.
17 Let not thine heart [q] envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.
18 For surely there is an [r] end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.
19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and [s] guide thine heart in the way.
20 Be not among [t] wine-bibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:
21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness shall clothe a man with [u] rags.
22 Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.
23 [x] Buy the truth, and [y] sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.
24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice; and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.
25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.
26 My son, [z] give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.
27 For a whore is a deep ditch; and a [a] strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the [b] transgressors among men.

29 Who hath wo? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

30 They that tarry long at the wine, they that go to seek [c] mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright:

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like [d] an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold [e] strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things:

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I [f] felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet [g] again.

CHAPTER XXIV.

BE not thou [a] envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them:

2 For their heart [b] studieth destruction, and their lips [c] talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is a house [d] builded, and by understanding it is established;

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A wise man is [e] strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy [f] war; and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7 Wisdom is [g] too high for a fool; he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that [h] deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The [i] thought of foolishness is sin; and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou [k] faint in the day [l] of adversity, thy strength is small.

11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that [m] pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he [n] render to every man according to his works?

13 My son, [o] eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honey-comb, which is sweet to thy taste:

14 So shall the [p] knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, [q] against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting-place:

16 For a just man falleth seven times, and [r] riseth up again: but the wicked shall [s] fall into mischief.

17 [t] Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth; and let not thy heart be glad when he stumbleth;

18 Lest the LORD see it, and it [u] displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 [x] Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked:

20 For there shall be [y] no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My son, [z] fear thou the LORD and the king; and meddle not with them that are given [a] to change:

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the [b] ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have [c] respect of persons in judgment.

24 He that saith unto the [d] wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them that [e] rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a [f] right answer.

27 [g] Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

28 Be not a witness against thy neighbour [h] without cause; and deceive not with thy lips.

29 Say not, I will [i] do so to him as he hath done to me; I will render to the man according to his work.

30 I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

31 And lo, it was all grown over with [k] thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

32 Then I saw, and considered it well; I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33 [l] Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

34 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.

CHAPTER XXV.

Observations about the kings, and about avoiding quarrels.

THESE are also proverbs of Solomon, which the [a] men of Hezekiah, king of Judah, copied out.

2 It is the glory of God to [b] conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to [c] search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is [d] unsearchable.

4 Take away the [e] dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 [f] Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 [g] Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither, than that thou shouldest be put lower in the [h] presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

8 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee [i] to shame.

9 [k] Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself, and discover not a secret to another;

10 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away.

11 A word [l] fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an ear-ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover upon an [m] obedient ear.

13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him; for he [n] refresheth the soul of his masters.

14 Whoso boasteth himself of [o] a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.

15 By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and [p] a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is [q] sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

17 Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be [r] weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a [s] sword, and a sharp arrow.

Before CHRIST cir. 700.

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like [t] a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.
20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre; so is he that [u] singeth songs to a heavy heart.
21 If thine enemy be [x] hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:
22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall [y] reward thee.
23 The north wind driveth away rain; so doth an angry countenance a [z] backbiting tongue.
24 It is [a] better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman, and in a wide house.
25 As cold waters to a [b] thirsty soul, so is [c] good news from a far country.
26 A righteous man [d] falling down before the wicked, is as a troubled fountain and a corrupt spring.
27 It is not good to eat much honey; so for men to search their [e] own glory is not glory.
28 He that hath [f] no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

CHAPTER XXVI.

Observations about fools, sluggards, and busy-bodies.

AS snow in summer, and as rain in harvest; so [a] honour is not seemly for a fool.
2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying; so the [b] curse causeless shall not come.
3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and [c] a rod for the fool's back.
4 [d] Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.
5 Answer a fool [e] according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.
6 He that sendeth [f] a message by the hand of a fool, cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage.
7 The legs of the lame are not equal; so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
8 As he that bindeth a stone in a sling; so is he that [g] giveth honour to a fool.
9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard; so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
10 The great God, that formed all things, both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.
11 As a dog [h] returneth to his vomit; so a fool returneth to his folly.
12 Seest thou a man [i] wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.
13 The slothful man saith, There is [k] a lion in the way, a lion is in the streets.
14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.
15 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it [l] grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.
16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can [m] render a reason.
17 He that passeth by, and [n] meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.
18 As a mad man, who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death;
19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I [o] in sport?
20 Where no [p] wood is, there the fire goeth out; so where there is no tale-bearer, the strife ceaseth.
21 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a [q] contentious man to kindle strife.
22 The words of a tale-bearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.
23 [r] Burning lips, and a wicked heart, are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.
24 He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;
25 When he speaketh fair, [s] believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.
26 Whose hatred is covered by [t] deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.
27 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein; and he that [u] rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.
28 A lying tongue hateth those that are [x] afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

CHAPTER XXVII.

Observations of self-love, and of care to avoid offences.

BOAST not thyself [a] of to-morrow; for thou knowest not what [b] a day may bring forth.
2 Let [c] another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.
3 A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty: but [d] a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.
4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before [e] envy?
5 [f] Open rebuke is better than [g] secret love.
6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.
7 The [h] full soul [i] loatheth a honey-comb; but to the [k] hungry soul every bitter thing is [l] sweet.
8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.
9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart; so doth the [m] sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.
10 [n] Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.
11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.
12 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.
13 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.
14 He that blesseth his friend with [o] a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.
15 A continual dropping in a very rainy day, and a contentious woman, are alike.
16 Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth itself.
17 Iron [p] sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.
18 Whoso keepeth the fig-tree shall eat the fruit thereof; so he that [q] waiteth on his master shall be honoured.
19 As in water, face answereth to face; so the heart of man to man.
20 Hell and destruction are never full: [r] so the eyes of man are never satisfied.
21 As the fining-pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise.
22 Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not [s] his foolishness depart from him.
23 Be thou diligent [t] to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds;
24 For † riches are not for ever: and doth the [u] crown endure to every generation?
25 The [x] hay appeareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered:

CHAPTER XXVIII.

General observations of impiety, and religious integrity.

THE [a] wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are [b] bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be [c] prolonged.

3 A poor man that [d] oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain, which leaveth no food.

4 They that forsake the law [e] praise the wicked; but such as keep the law [f] contend with them.

5 Evil men [g] understand not judgment: but they that seek the LORD [h] understand all things.

6 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse † in his ways, though he be rich.

7 Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that is a companion of riotous men, shameth his father.

8 He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 He that [i] turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have [k] good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise [l] in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do [m] rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is [n] hidden.

13 He that [o] covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso [p] confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man that [q] feareth always: but he that [r] hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 As a [s] roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is [t] a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 A man that doth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is [u] perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land shall have [x] plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have [y] poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

21 To have respect of persons is not good; for, for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and [z] considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 He that [a] rebuketh a man, afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer.

25 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that [b] putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.

26 He that [c] trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 He that giveth unto the poor shall [d] not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous [e] increase.

CHAPTER XXIX.

Observations of public and private government.

HE that, being often reproved, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be [a] destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are [b] in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked [c] beareth rule, the people mourn.

3 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots [d] spendeth his substance.

4 The king [e] by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth [f] gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that [g] flattereth his neighbour [h] spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth [i] sing and rejoice.

7 The righteous [k] considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise [l] men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, [m] whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 The blood-thirsty [n] hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 A fool uttereth [o] all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken [p] to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the LORD [q] lighteneth both their eyes.

14 The king that [r] faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child [s] left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their [t] fall.

17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 Where there is no vision, the people [u] perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will [x] not be corrected by words: for though he [y] understand, he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that [z] delicately bringeth up his servant from a child, shall have him become his son at the length.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 A man's pride shall bring him [a] low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is [b] partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The [c] fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe.

26 Many seek the ruler's favour; but [d] every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the [e] just; and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Agur's confession of faith: 7 The two points of his prayer.

THE words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: The man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal,

2 Surely I am [a] more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding [b] of a man.

3 I neither [c] learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

4 Who hath [d] ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the [e] wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? [f] what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

5 [g] Every word of God is pure; he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6 Add thou not unto his words, lest he [h] reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee; [i] deny me them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with [k] food convenient for me;

9 Lest I be full, and [l] deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be [m] poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 [n] Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that are pure in their [o] own eyes, and yet is not washed from their [p] filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how [q] lofty are their eyes! and their eye-lids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw-teeth as knives, to [r] devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horse-leech hath two daughters, crying, [s] Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough:

16 The grave; and the [t] barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire, that saith not, It is enough.

17 The eye that [u] mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too [x] wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air, the way of a serpent upon a rock, the way of a ship in the midst of the sea, and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an [y] adulterous woman; she eateth, and [z] wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have [a] done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 For a servant when he reigneth, and a fool when he is [b] filled with meat;

23 For an odious woman when she is married, and a handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

24 There be four things which are [c] little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise:

25 The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

26 The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the [d] rocks;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands;

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

30 † A lion, which is [e] strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any,

31 A greyhound; a he-goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast [f] thought evil, lay thy hand upon thy mouth.

33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood; so the [g] forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

CHAPTER XXXI.

Lemuel's lesson of chastity and temperance.

THE words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that [a] his mother taught him.

2 What, my son? and what, the son of my [b] womb? and what, the son of [c] my vows?

3 Give not thy [d] strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which [e] destroyeth kings.

4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, nor for princes strong drink;

5 Lest they drink, and [f] forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted.

6 Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

8 Open thy mouth for the [g] dumb in the cause of all such as are [h] appointed to destruction.

9 Open thy mouth, [i] judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

10 Who can find [k] a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

11 The heart of her [l] husband doth safely [m] trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

12 She will do him [n] good, and not evil, all the days of her life.

13 She seeketh wool and flax, [o] and worketh [p] willingly with her hands.

14 She is like the [q] merchants' ships, she bringeth her [r] food from afar.

15 She riseth also while it is yet [s] night, and giveth meat to her household, and a [t] portion to her maidens.

16 She considereth a [u] field, and buyeth it; with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

17 She girdeth her loins with strength, and [x] strengtheneth her arms.

18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her [y] candle goeth not out by night.

19 She layeth her hands to the [z] spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

20 She [a] stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household; for all her household are clothed with scarlet.

22 She maketh herself [b] coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.

23 Her husband [c] is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.

24 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth [d] girdles unto the merchant.

25 [e] Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.

26 She openeth her mouth [f] with wisdom; and in her tongue is the [g] law of kindness.

27 She [h] looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

28 Her [i] children rise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

29 Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou [k] excellest them all.

30 Favour is [l] deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.

31 [m] Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let [n] her own works praise her in the gates.

¶ ECCLESIASTES, or the PREACHER.

CHAPTER I.

The Preacher sheweth that all human courses are vain.

Before CHRIST cir. 977.

THE words of the Preacher, the son of David, [a] king of Jerusalem.

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; [b] all is vanity.

3 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he [c] taketh under the sun?

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the [d] earth abideth for ever.

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and [e] hasteth to his place where he arose.

6 The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north: it [f] whirleth about continually; and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full: unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they [g] return again.

8 All things are full of labour, man cannot utter it: the [h] eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done, is that which shall be done: and there is no [i] new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, [k] this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is [l] no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 ¶ [m] I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem:

13 And I [n] gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning [o] all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man, to be exercised therewith.

14 I have [p] seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 That which is [q] crooked cannot be made straight; and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem; yea, my heart had [r] great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 And I [s] gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know [t] madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For in much wisdom is much [u] grief; and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAPTER II.

The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure

I SAID [a] in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure; and, behold, this also is [b] vanity.

2 I said [c] of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

3 I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, (yet [d] acquainting mine heart with wisdom,) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life.

4 I [e] made me great works; I builded me [f] houses; I planted me vineyards;

5 I made me gardens and [g] orchards, and I planted trees in them [h] of all kind of fruits;

6 I made me [i] pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees;

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had [k] great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me;

8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces; I gat me men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as [l] musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom [m] remained with me.

10 And whatsoever [n] mine eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy: for [o] my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I [p] looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was [q] no profit under the sun.

12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and [r] madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh [s] after the king? even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw that [t] wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that [u] one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me: and why was I then [x] more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall be [y] forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? [z] As the fool.

17 Therefore I [a] hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 Yea, [b] I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun; because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man [c] or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also [d] vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart [e] to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he [f] leave it for his portion. This also is vanity, and a great evil.

22 For what hath man of [g] all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For [h] all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief: yea, his heart taketh not [i] rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was [k] from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is [l] good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the [m] sinner he giveth travail, to gather, and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good [n] before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER III.

The excellency of God's work.

TO every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time to be [a] born, and a time to [b] die: a time to [c] plant, and a time to pluck [d] up that which is planted:

3 A time [e] to kill, and a time to heal: a time to break down, and a time to build up:

4 A time to [f] weep, and a time to [g] laugh: a time to mourn, and a time to dance:

5 A time [h] to cast away stones, and a time to [i] gather stones together: a time to embrace, and a time to [k] refrain from embracing.

6 A time to get, and a time to lose: a time to keep, and a time to cast away:

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew: a time to [l] keep silence, and a time to speak:

8 A time to love, and a time to [m] hate: a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 [n] What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

10 I have [o] seen the travail which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 [p] He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart; so that no man can [q] find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good [r] in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also that every man should [s] eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that whatsoever God doeth, it shall be [t] for ever: [u] nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it that men should fear before him.

15 That which hath been is now; and that which [x] is to be hath already been: and God requireth that which is past.

16 And, moreover, I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that [y] wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in my heart, God shall [z] judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose, and for every work.

18 I said in my heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are [a] beasts.

19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath: so that a man hath [b] no pre-eminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

20 All go unto [c] one place: all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth [d] upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should [e] rejoice in his own works; for that is his [f] portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

CHAPTER IV.

Vanity is increased unto men by oppression.

SO I returned, and [a] considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and, behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had [b] no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

2 Wherefore I [c] praised the dead which are already dead, more than the living which are yet alive.

3 Yea, better is he than both they which hath [d] not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 ¶ Again, I considered all travail, and every right work, that for this a man is [e] envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 The fool [f] foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

6 [g] Better is a handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone and there is not [h] a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his [i] eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

9 ¶ [k] Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but wo to him that is [l] alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if [m] two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and [n] a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a [o] poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, who will no more [p] be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh [q] to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh [r] poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the [s] second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no [t] end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall [u] not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER V.

Vanities in divine service, and in murmuring against oppression.

KEEP thy [a] foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear than to give the [b] sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thy heart be hasty to utter any thing before God; for God is in heaven, and thou upon [c] earth: therefore let thy words be [d] few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and [e] a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

4 When thou [f] vowest a vow unto God, defer not [g] to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 Better is it that thou shouldest [h] not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin;

neither say thou before the [i] angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be [k] angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of the hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but [l] fear thou God.

8 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest [m] regardeth; and there be [n] higher than they.

9 Moreover, the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself [o] is served by the field.

10 He that [p] loveth silver shall [q] not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase. This is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the [r] owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The [s] sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, [t] riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail; and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 [u] As he came forth of his mother's womb, [x] naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also he eateth in [y] darkness, and he hath much [z] sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him; for it is his [a] portion.

19 Every man also to whom God hath [b] given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God [c] answereth him in the joy of his heart.

CHAPTER VI.

The vanity of riches without use.

THERE is [a] an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he [b] desireth, yet God giveth him [c] not power to eat thereof, but a [d] stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 If a man [e] beget a hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be [f] not filled with good, and also that he have [g] no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he:

4 For he [h] cometh in with vanity, and departeth in [i] darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover, he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath [k] more rest than the other.

6 Yea, though he live [l] a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his [m] mouth, and yet the appetite is [n] not filled.

8 For what hath the wise [o] more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 Better is the sight of the eyes than [p] the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he [q] contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 Seeing there be many things that [r] increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For [s] who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a [t] shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

CHAPTER VII.

Remedies against vanity are, a good name, patience, and wisdom.

A [a] GOOD name is better than precious ointment; and the day of [b] death than the day of one's birth.

2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the [c] house of [d] feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 [e] Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The [f] heart of the wise is in the [g] house of mourning: but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 It is better to hear the [h] rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the [i] laughter of the fool. This also is vanity.

7 Surely oppression maketh [k] a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the [l] end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and the [m] patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 Be not [n] hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the [o] former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this.

11 ¶ Wisdom is [p] good with an inheritance; and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a [q] defence, and [r] money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider [s] the work of God: for who can make that [t] straight which he hath made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity [u] consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that [x] perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that [y] prolongeth his life in his wickedness.

16 Be not righteous [z] over-much; neither make thyself [a] over-wise: why shouldest thou destroy thyself?

17 Be not [b] over-much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die [c] before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldest [d] take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thy hand: for he that feareth God shall [e] come forth of them all.

19 Wisdom [f] strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 For there is not a just man upon earth, that [g] doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken, lest thou hear thy servant [h] curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart [i] knoweth that [k] thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 All this have I [l] proved by wisdom: I said I will be [m] wise; but it was far from me.

24 That which is [n] far off, and exceeding [o] deep, who can find it out?

25 I applied my heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26 And [p] I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart [q] is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso [r] pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, (saith the Preacher,) counting one by one, to find out the account;

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: [s] one man among a thousand have I found; but [t] a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man [u] upright; but they have sought out many [x] inventions.

CHAPTER VIII.

It is better with the godly in adversity, than with the wicked in prosperity.

WHO is as the [a] wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom maketh [b] his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the [c] oath of God.

3 [d] Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth [e] whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power; and who may say unto him, [f] What doest thou?

5 Whoso [g] keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both [h] time and judgment.

6 Because to every purpose there is time and judgment; therefore the [i] misery of man is great upon him.

7 For he [k] knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be?

8 There is no man that hath power over the spirit, to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the [l] day of death; and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his [m] own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked [n] buried, who had come and gone from the [o] place of the holy, and they were [p] forgotten in the city where they had so done. This is also vanity.

11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore [q] the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 Though a sinner do evil a hundred [r] times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be [s] well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall [t] not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

15 Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than [y] to eat, and to drink, and to be merry; for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither [z] day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld [a] all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun; because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall [b] not find it; yea, further, though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

CHAPTER IX.

Like things happen to good and bad.

FOR all this I considered in my heart, even [a] to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise and their works, are in the hand of God: no man [b] knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 All things come alike to all: there is [c] one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and † madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for [d] a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living [e] know that they shall die: but the dead [f] know not any thing, neither have they any more a [g] reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more [h] a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 [i] Go thy way, [k] eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy [l] garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the [m] life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with [n] thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave whither thou goest.

11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the [o] race is not to the swift, nor the [p] battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor [q] yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men r snared in an evil time, when it falleth s suddenly upon them.

13 This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

14 There was a little t city, and few men within it; and there came u a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it.

15 Now there was found in it x a poor wise man, and he y by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man z remembered that same poor man.

16 Then said I, Wisdom a is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard b in quiet, more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but c one sinner destroyeth much good.

CHAPTER X.

Observations of wisdom, folly, riot, and slothfulness.

DEAD flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his b right hand; but a fool's heart at c his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and d he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for e yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an f error which proceedeth from the ruler;

6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the g rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen h servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 He that i diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso k breaketh a hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but l wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the m serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better.

12 The words of a wise man's mouth are n gracious: but the lips of a fool will o swallow up himself.

13 The p beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14 A fool also is q full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them; because he knoweth not how to go to the r city.

16 Wo to thee, O land, when thy king is s a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of t nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

20 u Curse not the king, no, not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bed-chamber: for x a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

1 Directions for charity....9 The day of judgment to be thought on.

CAST thy bread a upon the waters: for thou shalt find it b after many days.

2 Give a c portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the d clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that e observeth the wind, shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds, shall not reap.

5 As thou knowest not what is the way of the || spirit, nor how f the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy g seed, and in the evening withhold not thy hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 Truly the h light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him i remember the days of darkness; for they shall be k many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 l Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into m judgment.

10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away n evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

CHAPTER XII.

The fear of God is the chief antidote of vanity.

REMEMBER now thy Creator in the a days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the b years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened; nor the clouds return after the rain:

3 In the day when the c keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened;

4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low; and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird; and all d the daughters of music shall be brought low:

5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond-tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail because man goeth to his e long home, and the mourners go about the streets:

6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern:

7 Then shall the f dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return g unto God who gave it.

8 ¶ h Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; all is vanity.

9 And, moreover, because the Preacher was wise,

Before CHRIST cir. 977.

he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order, many proverbs.

10 The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as [i] goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making [k] many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 ¶ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter; Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For God shall bring every work into judgment, with [l] every secret thing, whether it be [m] good, or whether it be evil.

¶ The SONG of SOLOMON.

CHAPTER I.

1 The church's love unto Christ....5 She confesseth her deformity.

cir. 1014.

THE [a] Song of songs, which is Solomon's.

2 Let [b] him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy [c] love is better than wine.

3 Because of the [d] savour of thy good ointments, thy [e] name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.

4 Draw me, we will [f] run after thee. The King hath brought me into his [g] chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee; we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee.

5 I am black, but [h] comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem; as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

6 Look not upon me, because I am [i] black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my [k] mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

7 Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou [l] feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

8 If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the [m] footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

9 I have compared thee, O [n] my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's [o] chariots.

10 Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with [p] chains of gold.

11 [q] We will make thee borders of gold, with studs of silver.

12 While the King sitteth at his [r] table, my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.

13 A bundle of myrrh is my well-beloved unto me; he shall lie all night [s] betwixt my breasts.

14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of [t] camphire in the vineyards of En-gedi.

15 Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair, thou [u] hast doves' eyes.

16 Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also [x] our bed is green.

17 The [y] beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir.

CHAPTER II.

The mutual love of Christ and his church.

I AM the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the [a] valleys.

2 As the lily [b] among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

3 As the apple-tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, [c] and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

4 He brought me to the banqueting-house, and his banner over me was [d] love.

5 Stay me with flagons, comfort me with apples; for I am [e] sick of love.

6 His [f] left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

7 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye [g] stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

8 The [h] voice of my beloved! behold, he [i] cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

9 My beloved is like a roe, or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind [k] our wall, he looketh forth at the window, shewing himself through the lattice.

10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and [l] come away.

11 For, lo, the [m] winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the [n] singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land.

13 The fig-tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with [o] the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 ¶ O my dove, that art in the [p] clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take us the [q] foxes, the [r] little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

16 ¶ My beloved is [s] mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies.

17 Until the day † break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved; and be thou like a roe, or a young hart, upon the mountains of [t] Bether.

CHAPTER III.

The church's fight and victory in temptation.

BY night on [a] my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and [b] go about the city; in the streets, and in the broad ways, I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The [c] watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, [d] Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would [e] not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that [f] conceived me.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love till he please.

9 King Solomon made himself a || chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the [k] pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple; the midst thereof being paved with love for the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his [l] mother [m] crowned him in the day of his [n] espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

CHAPTER IV.

Christ setteth forth the graces of the church.

BEHOLD, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast [a] doves' eyes [b] within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from mount Gilead.

2 Thy [c] teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even [d] shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy [e] speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

4 Thy neck is like the [f] tower of David, builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

5 Thy two [g] breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

6 Until the [h] day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

7 Thou art all fair, my love; there is [i] no spot in thee.

8 Come with me from Lebanon, [k] my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' [l] dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

9 Thou hast † ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

10 How fair is thy † love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honey-comb; honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of [m] thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

12 A garden [n] enclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring [o] shut up, a [p] fountain sealed.

13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with [q] pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard;

14 Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the [r] chief spices:

15 A fountain of gardens, a well of [s] living waters, and streams from Lebanon.

16 ¶ Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his [t] pleasant fruits.

CHAPTER V.

Christ awaketh the church with his calling.

I AM [a] come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my [b] myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honey-comb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O [c] friends, drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

2 ¶ I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that [d] knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

3 I have put off my coat; [e] how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

4 My beloved put in his [f] hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him.

5 I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet-smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

6 I [g] opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul [h] failed when he spake; I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no [i] answer.

7 The watchmen that went about the city found me, they [k] smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my vail from me.

8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

9 What is thy beloved [l] more than another beloved, O thou [m] fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

10 My beloved is [n] white and ruddy, the [o] chiefest among ten thousand.

11 His head is as the most fine gold; his locks are bushy, and [p] black as a raven:

12 His eyes are as the eyes of [q] doves by the rivers of waters washed with milk, and fitly set:

13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers; his lips like lilies, dropping [r] sweet-smelling myrrh:

14 His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl; his [s] belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires:

15 His [t] legs are as pillars of marble set upon sockets of fine gold; his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars:

16 His mouth is † most sweet; yea, he is altogether † lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER VI.

The church professeth her faith in Christ.

WHITHER is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside, [a] that we may seek him with thee?

2 My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the [b] beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

3 I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

4 ¶ Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah; comely as Jerusalem; terrible as an army with banners.

5 Turn away thine eyes from me, for they have overcome me: thy [c] hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead:

6 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep, which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

7 As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.

8 There are [d] threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

13 [m] Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of [n] two armies.

CHAPTER VII.

A further description of the church's graces.

HOW beautiful are thy [a] feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a [b] cunning workman:

2 Thy [c] navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor; thy belly is like a heap of wheat set about with lilies:

3 Thy two [d] breasts are like two young roes that are twins:

4 Thy neck is as a [e] tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fish-pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim: thy [f] nose is as the tower of Lebanon, which looketh toward Damascus:

5 Thine head upon thee is like Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple: the King is [g] held in the galleries.

6 How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, [h] for delights!

7 This thy stature is like to a [i] palm-tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

8 I said, I will go up to the palm-tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as [k] clusters of the vine, and the [l] smell of thy nose like apples;

9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the [m] lips of those that are asleep to speak.

10 ¶ [n] I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the [o] field; let us lodge in the villages.

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee [p] my loves.

13 The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, [q] new and old, which I have [r] laid up for thee, O my beloved.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The love of the church to Christ....8 The calling of the Gentiles.

OH that thou wert as my [a] brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would [b] kiss thee; yea! I should not be despised.

2 I would [c] lead thee, and bring thee into my [d] mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

3 His left hand should be [e] under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

5 (Who is this that cometh up from the [f] wilderness, [g] leaning upon her beloved?) I raised thee up under the apple-tree: there thy mother brought thee forth; there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

6 Set me as a seal upon [h] thine heart, as a seal upon thine [i] arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

7 Many waters [k] cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

8 We have [l] a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be [m] spoken for?

9 If she be a [n] wall, we will build upon her [o] a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found † favour.

11 Solomon had a [p] vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers: every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O [q] Solomon, must have a thousand, [r] and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to hear it.

14 [s] Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe, or to a young hart, upon [t] the mountains of spices.

¶ The BOOK of the Prophet ISAIAH.

CHAPTER I.

Isaiah complaineth of Judah for her rebellion.

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he [a] saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the LORD hath [b] spoken: I have [c] nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me:

3 The [d] ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth [e] not consider.

4 Ah, sinful nation, a people [f] laden with iniquity, [g] a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters! they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

5 Why should ye be stricken [h] any more? ye will revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the [i] sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrefying sores: they have [k] not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

7 Your country is [l] desolate, your cities are [m] burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a || besieged city.

9 [n] Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been [o] as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye [p] rulers of Sodom; give ear [q] unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah:

11 To what purpose is the [r] multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I [s] delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats.

12 When ye come to appear before me, who hath [t] required this at your hand to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more [u] vain oblations: incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, [x] I cannot away with: it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your new-moons and your appointed feasts my soul [y] hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am [z] weary to bear them.

15 And when ye spread forth your hands I will [a] hide mine eyes from you; yea when ye make many prayers I will not hear: [b] your hands are full of blood.

16 [c] Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; [d] cease to do evil;

17 Learn to do well: seek [e] judgment, relieve the oppressed; judge the fatherless; plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and let us [f] reason together, saith the LORD: Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as [g] white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the [h] mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 How is [i] the faithful city become [k] a harlot! it was full of judgment: righteousness lodged in it; but now [l] murderers.

22 Thy silver is become dross, thy [m] wine mixed with water:

23 Thy [n] princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth [o] after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, [p] Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:

25 And [q] I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy [r] tin:

26 And I will [s] restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The [t] city of righteousness, The faithful city.

27 Zion shall be [u] redeemed with judgment, and her converts with [x] righteousness.

28 And the destruction of the [y] transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be [z] ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath [a] no water.

31 And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both [b] burn together, and none shall [c] quench them.

CHAPTER II.

Isaiah prophesieth the coming of Christ's kingdom.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And it shall come to pass in the [a] last days, that the [b] mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be [c] exalted above the hills; [d] and all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, [e] Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will [f] teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for [g] out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall [h] judge among the nations, and shall [i] rebuke many people; and they shall [k] beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they [l] learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the [m] light of the LORD.

6 Therefore thou hast [n] forsaken thy people, the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they [o] please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of [p] silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.

8 Their land also is full of [q] idols; they worship the [r] work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore [s] forgive them not.

10 Enter into the [t] rock, and hide thee in the dust, for [u] fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be [x] bowed down; and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is [y] proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low;

13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

14 And upon all the [z] high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

16 And upon all the [a] ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant [b] pictures.

17 And the [c] loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the LORD [d] alone shall be exalted in that day.

18 And the [e] idols he shall utterly abolish.

19 And they shall go into the [f] holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth [g] to shake terribly the earth.

20 In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles, and to the bats;

21 To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

22 [h] Cease ye from man, whose [i] breath is in his nostrils; for wherein is he to be accounted of?

CHAPTER III.

The great confusion which cometh by sin.

Before CHRIST cir. 760.

FOR, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem, and from Judah, the stay and the [a] staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,

2 The mighty man, and the man of war, the [b] judge, and the prophet, and the [c] prudent, and the ancient,

3 The captain of fifty, and the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator.

4 And I will give [d] children to be their princes, and † babes shall rule over them.

5 And the [e] people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the [f] child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

6 When a man shall [g] take hold of his brother, of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our [h] ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand:

7 In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

8 For Jerusalem is [i] ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their [k] tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The [l] shew of their countenance doth witness against them, and they declare their sin [m] as Sodom, they hide it not: wo unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

10 Say ye to the [n] righteous, that it shall be [o] well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11 Wo unto the wicked! it shall be [p] ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

12 As for my people, children are their oppressors, and [q] women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee [r] cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

13 The LORD [s] standeth up to plead, and standeth to [t] judge the people.

14 The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the [u] princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the [x] vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

15 What mean ye that ye [y] beat my people to pieces, and [z] grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord GOD of hosts.

16 Moreover, the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched-forth † necks and [a] wanton eyes, walking, and [b] mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:

17 Therefore the LORD will smite with a [c] scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will [d] discover their secret parts.

18 In that day the LORD will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their [e] round tires like the moon,

19 The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers,

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the head-bands, and the tablets, and the ear-rings,

21 The rings, and [f] nose-jewels,

22 The [g] changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping-pins,

23 The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the vails.

24 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell, there shall be stink: and instead of a girdle, a [h] rent; and instead of well-set hair, [i] baldness; and instead of a stomacher, a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.

25 Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war.

26 And her [k] gates shall lament and mourn: and she, being [l] desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

CHAPTER IV.

In the extremity of evils, Christ's kingdom shall be a sanctuary.

AND in [a] that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat [b] our own bread, and wear our own apparel; only let us be called by thy name, to take away [c] our reproach.

2 [d] In that day shall the [e] branch of the LORD be [f] beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are [g] escaped of Israel.

3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called [h] holy, even every one that is [i] written among the living in Jerusalem:

4 When the LORD shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof, by the [k] spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.

5 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling-place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be [l] a defence.

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the day time from the heat, and for [m] a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from [n] rain.

CHAPTER V.

Under the parable of a vineyard, God excuseth his severe judgment.

NOW will I sing to my [a] well-beloved a song of my beloved touching his [b] vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:

2 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a wine-press therein: and he [c] looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth [d] wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, [e] judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard [f] that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5 And now, go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will [g] take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down:

6 And I will lay it [h] waste: it shall not be [i] pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold [k] a cry.

8 Wo unto them that [l] join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be [m] no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

9 In mine ears, said the LORD of hosts, Of a truth, many [n] houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of a homer shall yield an ephah.

11 Wo unto them that rise up [o] early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!

12 And the [p] harp and the viol, the tabret and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they [q] regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 Therefore my people [r] are gone into captivity, because they have [s] no knowledge; and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the [t] eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be [u] exalted in judgment, and God, that is holy, shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the [x] lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the [y] fat ones shall [z] strangers eat.

18 Wo unto them that [a] draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a [b] cart-rope!

19 That [c] say, Let him [d] make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel [e] draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

20 Wo unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put [f] darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Wo unto them that are [g] wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

22 Wo unto them that are [h] mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink:

23 Which [i] justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

24 Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their [k] root shall be rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore is the [l] anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets. [m] For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

26 And he will lift up an [n] ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the [o] end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly.

27 None shall be [p] weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:

28 Whose [q] arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind:

29 Their [r] roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions; yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the [s] sea; and if one look unto the land, behold [t] darkness and sorrow; and the light is darkened in the [u] heavens thereof.

Before CHRIST cir. 758.

CHAPTER VI.

Isaiah's vision of the Lord's glory.

IN the year that king Uzziah [a] died I saw also the LORD [b] sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the [c] seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his [d] face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, [e] Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts; the whole [f] earth is full of his glory.

4 And the [g] posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was [h] filled with smoke.

5 Then said I, [i] Wo is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of [k] unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then [l] flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the [m] altar;

7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips, and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard the [n] voice of the LORD, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go [o] for us? Then said I, Here am I; [p] send me.

9 And he said, [q] Go, and tell this people, [r] Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10 [s] Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; [t] lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, LORD, how long? And he answered, Until the [u] cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be [x] utterly desolate;

12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be [y] a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 But yet in it shall be a [z] tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil-tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them when they cast their leaves, so the [a] holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Ahaz is comforted by Isaiah....14 Christ promised.

742.

AND it came to pass in the days of [a] Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up towards Jerusalem to [b] war against it, but could [c] not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is [d] confederate with Ephraim: and [e] his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou and ‖ Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be [f] quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted, for the two tails of these [g] smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, [h] have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

Before CHRIST cir. 742.

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein [i] for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the Lord GOD, it shall [k] not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within [l] threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be [m] not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is [n] Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall [o] not be established.

10 Moreover, the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 [p] Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God: [q] ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I [r] tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to [s] weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign: Behold, [t] a Virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name || Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall [u] he eat, that he may [x] know to refuse the evil, and choose the good:

16 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the [y] land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17 The LORD shall bring [z] upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy [a] father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for the [b] fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria:

19 And they shall come, and shall rest [c] all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

20 In the same day shall the LORD shave with a razor that is [d] hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the [e] feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day that a man shall nourish a [f] young cow and two sheep:

22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give, he shall eat butter: for [g] butter and honey shall every one eat that is [h] left in the land.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were [i] a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns.

24 With [k] arrows and with bows shall men come thither; [l] because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, || there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

CHAPTER VIII.

Comfort shall be to them that fear God.

MOREOVER the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great [a] roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning [b] Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful [c] witnesses to record, [d] Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah

3 And I [e] went unto the prophetess; and she conceived and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz:

4 For [f] before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the [g] riches of Damascus, and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 ¶ The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of [h] Shiloah that go softly, and [i] rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son;

7 Now therefore, behold, the LORD bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, [k] strong and many, even the [l] king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over; he shall reach even to the [m] neck: and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 [n] Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be [o] broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 Take counsel together, and it shall come [p] to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for [q] God is with us.

11 For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and [r] instructed me, that I should [s] not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 [t] Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither [u] fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 [x] Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

14 And he shall be for [y] a sanctuary; but for a [z] stone of stumbling, and for a rock of offence, to both the houses of Israel; for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And [a] many among them shall [b] stumble and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 [c] Bind up the testimony, [d] seal the law among my [e] disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the LORD, that [f] hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will [g] look for him.

18 Behold, [h] I, and the children whom the LORD [i] hath given me, are for [k] signs and for wonders in Israel, from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 And when they shall [l] say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep and that mutter; should not a people seek unto their God? [m] for the living to the dead?

20 To the [n] law and to the testimony: if they speak not [o] according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

21 And they shall [p] pass through it hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall [q] fret themselves, and curse their king and their [r] God, and look upward.

22 And they shall [s] look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

CHAPTER IX.

What joy shall be in the midst of afflictions by Christ.

NEVERTHELESS, the [a] dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he

[b] lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward [c] did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations

2 The [d] people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the [e] light shined.

3 Thou hast [f] multiplied the nation, and not [g] increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they [h] divide the spoil.

4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the [i] staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of [k] Midian.

5 For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and [l] garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with [m] burning and fuel of fire.

6 For unto [n] us a child is born, unto us a Son is [o] given; and the [p] government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The [q] mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be [r] no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The [s] zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

8 ¶ The LORD sent a word into Jacob, and it hath [t] lighted upon Israel.

9 And all the people [u] shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, that [x] say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 The [y] bricks are fallen down, but [z] we will build with hewn stones; the [a] sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together;

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. [b] For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they [c] seek the LORD of hosts.

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel [d] head and tail, branch and rush, in [e] one day.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet [f] that teacheth lies, he is the [g] tail.

16 For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are [h] destroyed.

17 Therefore the LORD shall have [i] no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their [k] fatherless and widows: for every one is [l] a hypocrite and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

18 For wickedness [m] burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest; and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire: no man shall [n] spare his brother.

20 And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be [o] satisfied: they shall eat every man [p] the flesh of his own arm:

21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. [q] For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

CHAPTER X.

1 The wo of tyrants....24 Israel is comforted with a promise of deliverance from Assyria.

WO unto them that decree [a] unrighteous decrees, and [b] that write grievousness which they have prescribed:

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their [c] prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

3 And what will ye do in the [d] day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come [e] from far? to whom [f] will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

4 || Without me they shall [g] bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

5 O Assyrian, the [h] rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

6 I will send him against a [i] hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I [k] give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 Howbeit [l] he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

8 For [m] he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?

9 Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?

10 As my hand hath [n] found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, [o] so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that, when the LORD hath [p] performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will [q] punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

13 For he saith, By the [r] strength of my hand I have done it, and by my [s] wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the [t] bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man:

14 And my hand hath found, as a [u] nest, the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall the axe [x] boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were [y] no wood.

16 Therefore shall the Lord, the LORD of hosts, send among his [z] fat ones [a] leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his [b] briers [c] in one day;

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his [d] fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth.

19 And the rest of the [e] trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

Before CHRIST cir. 713.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the [f] remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again [g] stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto [h] the mighty God.

22 For though thy people Israel be as the [i] sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow [k] with righteousness.

23 For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a [l] consumption, even [m] determined, in the midst of all the land.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be [n] not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt.

25 For yet a [o] very little while, and the indignation shall [p] cease, and mine anger, [q] in their destruction.

26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge [r] for him according to the slaughter [s] of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up [t] after the manner of Egypt.

27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his [u] burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of [x] the anointing.

28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages:

29 They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul is fled.

30 [y] Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim; cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth.

31 Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim [z] gather themselves to flee.

32 As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall [a] shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the [b] high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forests with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a [c] mighty one.

CHAPTER XI.

The peaceable kingdom of the Branch out of the root of Jesse.

AND there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and [a] a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

2 And the Spirit of the LORD shall [b] rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge, and of the fear of the LORD;

3 And shall make him of [c] quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears.

4 But with righteousness shall he judge [d] the poor, and [e] reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall [f] smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with [g] the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

5 And [h] righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

6 The [i] wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf, and the young lion, and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den.

9 They shall [k] not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the [l] knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

10 And in that day there shall be a [m] root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his [n] rest shall be glorious.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall set his hand again the [o] second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

12 And he shall [p] set up an ensign for the [q] nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the [r] dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

13 The [s] envy also of Ephraim [t] shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall [u] not vex Ephraim.

14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward [x] the west; they shall spoil them of the [y] east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall [z] obey them.

15 And the LORD shall utterly destroy the [a] tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand [b] over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dry-shod.

16 And there shall be a [c] highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of [d] Egypt.

CHAPTER XII.

A joyful thanksgiving of the faithful for the mercies of God.

AND in [a] that day [b] thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou [c] comfortedst me.

2 Behold, God [d] is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD [e] JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the [f] wells of salvation.

4 And in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD, call upon his name, declare [g] his doings among the people, make mention that [h] his name is exalted.

5 Sing unto the LORD; for he hath done [i] excellent things: this is known in all the earth.

6 Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for [k] great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 God mustereth the armies of his wrath....19 The desolation of Babylon.

THE [a] burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.

2 Lift ye up a [b] banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, [c] shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded my [d] sanctified ones, I have also called my [e] mighty ones for mine [f] anger, even them that rejoice in [g] my highness.

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the [h] kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts [i] mustereth the host of the battle.

5 They come from a [k] far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the [l] weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

6 [m] Howl ye; for the [n] day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt:

8 And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a [o] woman that travaileth; they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as [p] flames.

9 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, [q] cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate; and he shall destroy the sinners thereof [r] out of it.

10 For the [s] stars of heaven, and the constellations thereof, shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the [t] world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud [u] to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

12 I will make a [x] man [y] more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will [z] shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his [a] fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the [b] chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

15 Every one that is [c] found shall be thrust through; and every one that is [d] joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children also shall be [e] dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

17 Behold, I will stir up the [f] Medes against them, which shall not regard [g] silver, and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have [h] no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew [i] Sodom and Gomorrah.

20 It shall never be [k] inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation; neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there, neither shall the shepherds make their fold there:

21 But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and [l] satyrs shall dance there.

22 And the [m] wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces; and her [n] time is near to come, and her [o] days shall not be prolonged.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 God's merciful restoration of Israel....29 Palestina threatened.

FOR the LORD will have [a] mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the [b] strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

2 And the people shall take them, and [c] bring them to their place; and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall [d] rule over their oppressors.

3 And it shall come to pass, in the day that the LORD shall give thee [e] rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the [f] hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve,

4 That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the [g] golden city ceased!

5 The LORD hath broken the [h] staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

6 He who [i] smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that [k] ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

7 The whole earth is at [l] rest, and is quiet: they break forth [m] into singing.

8 Yea, the [n] fir-trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

9 Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

10 All they shall speak, and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become [o] like unto us?

11 Thy [p] pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

12 How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou [q] cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will [r] ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the [s] stars of God; I will sit also upon the [t] mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be [u] like the Most High.

15 Yet thou shalt be brought [x] down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, [y] Is this the man that made the [z] earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;

17 That made the world as a [a] wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that [b] opened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house:

19 But thou art [c] cast out of thy grave like an [d] abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a [e] carcase trodden under feet.

20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the [f] seed of evil-doers shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children for the [g] iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the [h] name, and remnant, and [i] son, and nephew, saith the LORD.

23 I will also make it a possession for the [k] bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the [l] besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

24 The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand;

25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains [m] tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the [n] whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27 For the LORD of hosts hath [o] purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

28 In the [p] year that king [q] Ahaz died, was this burden.

29 Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the [r] rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a [s] cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

30 And the [t] first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.

31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city: thou, whole Palestina, art dissolved: for there shall come from the north a [u] smoke, and none shall be alone in his appointed times.

32 What shall one then answer the [x] messengers of the nation? That the LORD hath [y] founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

CHAPTER XV.

The lamentable state of Moab.

THE burden of [a] Moab. Because in the [b] night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence:

2 He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba; on all their [c] heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the [d] tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; [e] his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 My heart shall [f] cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, a [g] heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the [h] waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the [i] willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of [k] blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that [l] escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

CHAPTER XVI.

Moab is threatened for her pride.

SEND ye the [a] lamb to the [b] ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be, that as a [c] wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

Before CHRIST cir. 726.

3 Take counsel, execute judgment, make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noon-day; hide the [d] outcasts, [e] bewray not him that wandereth.

4 Let mine outcasts [f] dwell with thee, Moab: be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be established; and he shall [g] sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging and seeking [h] judgment, and hasting righteousness.

6 We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is [i] very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his [k] lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the [l] foundations of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Heshbon [m] languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness; her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea:

9 Therefore I will [n] bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh; for the shouting for thy summer-fruits, and for thy harvest, is fallen.

10 And [o] gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage-shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like a [p] harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-haresh.

12 And it shall [q] come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary [r] to pray; but he shall [s] not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, [t] Within three years, as the years of a [u] hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Syria and Israel are threatened....12 The wo of Israel's enemies.

741.

THE burden of [a] Damascus. Behold, [b] Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken; they shall be for flocks which shall lie down, and none shall [c] make them afraid.

3 The fortress shall also cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be [d] as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made [e] thin, and the [f] fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 And it shall be as when the harvest-man [g] gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

6 Yet [h] gleaning-grapes shall be [i] left in it, as the shaking of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

7 At that day shall a man [x] look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

8 And he shall not look to the [l] altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his [m] fingers have made, either the groves or the images.

9 In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they [n] left, because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.

10 Because thou hast [o] forgotten the God of thy [p] salvation, and hast not been mindful of the Rock of thy strength; therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish; but the [q] harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

12 Wo to the multitude of many people, which make a [r] noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall [s] rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the [t] chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a [u] rolling thing before the whirlwind.

14 And, behold, at [x] evening-tide trouble; and before the [y] morning he is not. This is the [z] portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

CHAPTER XVIII

God, in care of his people, will destroy the Ethiopians.

WO to the [a] land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:

2 That sendeth [b] ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people [c] terrible from their [d] beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled!

3 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, [e] see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, [f] hear ye.

4 For so the LORD said unto me, I will take [g] my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling-place like a clear [h] heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

5 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the [i] sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and take away and cut down the branches.

6 They shall be left together unto the [k] fowls of the mountains, and to the [l] beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

7 In that time shall the [m] present be brought unto the LORD of hosts of a [n] people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 The confusion of Egypt....11 The foolishness of their princes.

THE burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD [a] rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt; and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the [b] heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

2 And I will set the Egyptians [c] against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the [d] counsel thereof; and they shall [e] seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

4 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a [f] cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

5 And the [g] waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away, and the brooks of [h] defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper-reeds by the brooks, by the [i] mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.

8 The [k] fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that [l] spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover, they that work in fine flax, and they that weave net-works, shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for [m] fish.

11 Surely the princes of Zoan are [n] fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become [o] brutish: [p] how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12 [q] Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The LORD hath mingled a [r] perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to [s] err in every work thereof, as [t] a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the [u] head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto [x] women; and it shall be afraid and fear, because of the [y] shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Judah shall be a [z] terror unto Egypt: every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

18 In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and [a] swear to the LORD of hosts: one shall be called, The city of destruction.

19 In that day shall there be an [b] altar to the LORD in the midst of [c] the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof [d] to the LORD.

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall [e] cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a [f] saviour, and a [g] great one, and he shall deliver them.

21 And the LORD shall be [h] known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do [i] sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.

22 And the LORD shall [k] smite Egypt: he shall smite and heal it: and they shall [l] return even to the LORD, and he shall be entreated of them, and shall heal them.

23 In that day shall there be a [m] highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a [n] blessing in the midst of the land;

25 Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt [o] my people, and Assyria the [p] work of my hands, and Israel mine [q] inheritance.

CHAPTER XX.

A type prefiguring the shameful captivity of Egypt and Ethiopia.

IN the year that [a] Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it;

2 At the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose the [b] sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he [c] did so, walking naked and barefoot.

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a [d] sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;

4 So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their [e] buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

5 And they shall be [f] afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their [g] expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

6 And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

CHAPTER XXI.

The prophet bewaileth the captivity of God's people.

THE burden of the [a] desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.

2 A grievous vision is declared unto me; The [b] treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler [c] spoileth. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media: all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

3 Therefore are my [d] loins filled with pain; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a [e] woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

4 My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the [f] night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

5 [g] Prepare the table, watch in the watch-tower, [h] eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

6 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go, set [i] a watchman, let him declare [k] what he seeth.

7 And he saw a [l] chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened [m] diligently with much heed.

8 And he cried, [n] A lion: My lord, I stand [o] continually upon the [p] watch-tower in the day time, and I am set in my ward whole nights;

9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, [q] Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the [r] graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

10 O my [s] threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

11 ¶ The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, [t] what of the night? watchman, what of the night?

12 The watchman said, The [u] morning cometh, and also the [x] night: if ye will inquire, [y] inquire ye: [z] return, [a] come.

13 ¶ The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

15 For they [b] fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.

16 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Within a [c] year, according to the years of a hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail:

17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of [d] Kedar, shall be [e] diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

CHAPTER XXII.

The prophet reproveth human wisdom and worldly joy.

THE burden of the [a] valley of [b] vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the house-tops?

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a [c] joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy [d] rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are [e] bound together, which have fled from far.

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will [f] weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me; because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity [g] by the Lord GOD of hosts in the valley of vision, [h] breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir [i] uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

8 And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the [k] forest.

9 Ye have seen also the [l] breaches of the city of David, that they are many; and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool:

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the [m] old pool: but ye have not looked unto the [n] maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call to [o] weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13 And, behold, [p] joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, [q] eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall die.

14 And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be [r] purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto [s] Shebna, which is [t] over the house, and say,

16 What hast thou here, and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he

that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that [t] graveth a habitation for himself in a rock?

17 Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely [x] cover thee.

18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the [y] shame of thy lord's house.

19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he [z] pull thee down.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant [a] Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah:

21 And I will [b] clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy [c] girdle, and I will commit thy [d] government into his hand; and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

22 And the [e] key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder: so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.

23 And I will fasten him as a [f] nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a [g] glorious throne to his father's house.

24 And they shall hang upon him all [h] the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all [i] vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons.

25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the [k] burden that was upon it shall be [l] cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre; 17 her restoration after seventy years, &c.

THE burden of Tyre. [a] Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is [b] laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be [c] still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have [d] replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a [e] mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon; for the [f] sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up [g] young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely [h] pained at the report of Tyre.

6 [i] Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your [k] joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her [l] own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the [m] crowning city, whose [n] merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the [o] honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the [p] pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength.

11 He [q] stretched out his hand over the sea; he [r] shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant-city, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more [s] rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon; arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold, the land of the Chaldeans: this people was not till the Assyrian [t] founded it for them that dwell in the [u] wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten ‖ seventy years, according to the [x] days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as a harlot.

16 Take a harp, go about the city, [y] thou harlot that hast been forgotten: make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 And it shall come to pass, after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her [z] hire, and shall [a] commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her [b] merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to [c] eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

CHAPTER XXIV.

God in his judgments shall advance his kingdom.

BEHOLD, the LORD maketh the earth [a] empty; and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and [b] scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be, as with the [c] people, so with the ‖ priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly [d] spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth [e] mourneth, and fadeth away; the world languisheth, and fadeth away; the [f] haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 The earth also is [g] defiled under the inhabitants thereof, because they have transgressed the laws, [h] changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath the [i] curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and [k] few men left.

7 The new wine [l] mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the [m] merry-hearted do sigh.

8 The mirth of [n] tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be [o] bitter to them that drink it.

10 The city of [p] confusion is broken down; every house is [q] shut up, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is [r] darkened, the mirth of the land [s] is gone.

12 In the city is left [t] desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the [u] shaking of an olive-tree, and as the gleaning-grapes when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the [x] majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the [y] sea.

15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the [z] fires, even the [a] name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea.

16 From the [b] uttermost part of the earth have we heard [c] songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My [d] leanness, my leanness, wo unto me! the treacherous dealers [e] have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

17 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the [f] pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the [g] windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

19 The earth is [h] utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

20 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and [i] not rise again.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the [k] high ones that are on high, and the [l] kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be [m] gathered together as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited.

23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall [n] reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his [o] ancients, gloriously.

CHAPTER XXV.

The prophet praiseth God for his judgments and salvation.

O LORD, thou art my God; I will [a] exalt thee, I will praise thy name: for thou hast done [b] wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made of a [c] city a [d] heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people [e] glorify thee, the city of the [f] terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a [g] refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the [h] terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 And in this [i] mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto [k] all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees; of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the [l] covering cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations.

8 He will [m] swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the [n] rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is [o] our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have [p] waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down [q] under him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall [r] spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim, and he shall bring down their [s] pride together with the spoils of their hands.

12 And the fortress of the high fort of thy [t] walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAPTER XXVI.

A song inciting to confidence in God for his judgments.

IN [a] that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a [b] strong city: salvation will God appoint for [c] walls and bulwarks.

2 Open ye the gates, that the [d] righteous nation which [e] keepeth the truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in [f] perfect peace, whose mind is [g] stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

4 [h] Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength.

5 For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; the lofty city he layeth it low: he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the [i] feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is [k] uprightness: thou, most upright, dost [l] weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, in [m] the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to [n] thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 With my soul have I desired thee in [o] the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will [p] learn righteousness.

10 Let [q] favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal [r] unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they will [s] not see: but they [t] shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

12 LORD, thou wilt [u] ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us.

13 O LORD our God, other [x] lords besides thee have had dominion over us; but by thee [y] only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall [z] not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their [a] memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified; thou hadst removed it far unto all the [b] ends of the earth.

16 LORD, in [c] trouble have they visited thee; they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; [d] so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth [e] wind; we have not [f] wrought any deliverance in the earth, neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Thy [g] dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 Come, my people, enter thou into thy [h] chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for [i] a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21 For, behold, the LORD [k] cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her [l] blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

CHAPTER XXVII.

God's chastisements differ from judgments.

IN that day the LORD, with his sore, and great, and strong [a] sword, shall punish [b] leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard of [c] red wine.

3 I the LORD do [d] keep it; I will [e] water it every moment; lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and [f] day.

4 Fury is [g] not in me: who would set the briers and [h] thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together.

5 Or let him [i] take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Jacob to [k] take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and [l] fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 Hath he [m] smitten him, [n] as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

8 [o] In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he [p] stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.

9 By this, therefore, shall the iniquity of Jacob be [q] purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalk-stones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up.

10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come and set them [r] on fire; for it is a people of [s] no understanding; therefore he that made them will [t] not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour.

12 And it shall come to pass in that day that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the [u] great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were [x] ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the [y] land of Egypt, and shall [z] worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Christ, the sure foundation, is promised.

WO to the [a] crown of pride, to the [b] drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the [c] fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the LORD hath a mighty and [d] strong one, which, as a [e] tempest of hail, and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet.

4 And the glorious beauty which is on the head of the fat valley shall be a fading flower, and as the [f] hasty fruit before the summer; which, when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he [g] eateth it up.

5 In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the [h] residue of his people;

6 And for a [i] spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the [k] battle to the gate.

7 But [l] they also have [m] erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way: the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in [n] vision, they stumble in judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 [o] Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them [p] that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For [q] precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

11 For with [r] stammering lips, and another tongue, will he speak to this people.

12 To whom [s] he said, This is the [t] rest wherewith ye may cause [u] the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them, precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might [x] go, and fall backward, and be [y] broken, and snared, and taken.

14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye [z] scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem:

15 Because ye have said, We have [a] made a covenant with death, and with [b] hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made [c] lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, [d] I lay in Zion for a [e] foundation a stone, a tried stone, a [f] precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall [g] not make haste.

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and [h] righteousness to the plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place.

18 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be [i] trodden down by it.

19 [k] From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night; and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.

20 For the bed is [l] shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it; and the [m] covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as in [n] mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of [o] Gibeon, that he may do his work, his [p] strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now, therefore, be ye not [q] mockers, lest your [r] bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts a consumption, even determined, upon the [s] whole earth.

24 Doth the plowman plow [t] all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat, and the appointed barley, and the rye, in their place?

26 For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not [u] threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart-wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread-corn is bruised; because he will not ever be [x] threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his [y] horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth [z] from the LORD of hosts, which is [a] wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

CHAPTER XXIX.

A promise of sanctification to the godly.

712.

WO to ‖ Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! [a] add ye year to year; let them kill sacrifices.

‖ That is, The Lion of God, Ezek. 43, 15.

2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me [b] as Ariel.

3 And I will [c] camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be as of one that hath a [d] familiar spirit out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover, the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that [e] passeth away; yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.

6 Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with [f] thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

7 And the [g] multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a [h] dream of a night-vision.

8 It shall even be as when a hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty. or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath [i] appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be that fight against mount Zion.

9 Stay yourselves and [k] wonder; cry ye out, and [l] cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

10 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the [m] spirit of deep sleep, and hath [n] closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers, hath he covered.

11 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is [o] learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, [p] I cannot; for it is [q] sealed.

12 And the book is delivered to him that is [r] not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

13 Wherefore the LORD said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their [s] mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the [t] precept of men:

Before CHRIST cir. 712.

14 Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder; for the [u] wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

15 Wo unto them that seek [x] deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, [y] Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

16 Surely your [z] turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work [a] say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

17 Is it not yet a very little while, and [b] Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be [c] esteemed as a forest?

18 And in that day shall the [d] deaf hear the words of the [e] book, and the [f] eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

19 The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the [g] poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20 For the [h] terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, and all that [i] watch for iniquity are cut off:

21 That make a man an offender [k] for a word, and lay a snare for him that [l] reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought.

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD, who [m] redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall not now be [n] ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.

23 But when he seeth his [o] children, the [p] work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel.

24 They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that [q] murmured shall [r] learn doctrine.

CHAPTER XXX.

18 God's mercies towards his church....27 The destruction of Assyria.

713.

WO to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that [a] take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my Spirit, that they may [b] add sin to sin:

2 That walk to [c] go down into Egypt, and have not [d] asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

3 Therefore shall the [e] strength of Pharaoh be your [f] shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

4 For his [g] princes were at [h] Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

5 They were all ashamed of a people that could not [i] profit them, nor be a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

6 The burden of the [k] beasts of the south: Into the [l] land of trouble and anguish, from whence come [m] the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is [o] to sit still.

8 Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in [p] a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever;

9 That this is a [q] rebellious people, [r] lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD:

10 Which say to the seers, [s] See not: and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us [t] right things; speak unto us [u] smooth things, prophesy [x] deceits:

11 Get ye [y] out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

14 And he shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall [z] not be found in the bursting of it [a] a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, [b] in returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in [c] confidence shall be your strength; and [d] ye would not.

16 But ye said, [e] No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 [f] One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee; till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill.

18 And therefore will the LORD [g] wait, that he may be gracious unto you; and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you; for the LORD is a [h] God of judgment: [i] blessed are all they that wait for him.

19 For the people shall [k] dwell in Zion at Jerusalem; thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the [l] voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

20 And though the LORD give [m] you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy [n] teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:

21 And thine [o] ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the [p] way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

22 Ye shall [q] defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, [r] Get thee hence.

23 [s] Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy [t] cattle feed in large pastures.

24 The [u] oxen likewise, and the young asses that ear the ground, shall eat [x] clean provender which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

25 And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the [y] great slaughter, when the towers fall.

26 Moreover, the light of the [z] moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be [a] sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from [b] far, [c] burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy; [d] his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

28 And his [e] breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

29 Ye shall have a [f] song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the [g] Mighty One of Israel.

30 And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice [h] to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and [i] hail-stones.

31 For through the voice of the LORD shall the [k] Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

32 And [l] in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with [m] tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it.

33 For [n] Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the [o] king it is prepared: he hath made it deep and large; the pile thereof is fire and much wood: the breath of the LORD, like a [p] stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

CHAPTER XXXI.

The prophet sheweth the cursed folly in trusting to Egypt.

WO to them that go down to Egypt [a] for help and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong: but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither [b] seek the LORD!

2 Yet he also is [c] wise, and will bring evil, and will not [d] call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are [e] men, and [f] not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

4 For thus hath the LORD [g] spoken unto me, Like as [h] the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for [i] mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 As [k] birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts [l] defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it, and passing over he will preserve it.

6 [m] Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

7 For in that day every man shall [n] cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a [o] sin.

8 Then shall the Assyrian fall with the [p] sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited.

9 And he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose [q] fire is in Zion, and his [r] furnace in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 The blessings of Christ's kingdom....9 Desolation is foreshewn.

BEHOLD, a King [a] shall reign in righteousness, and [b] princes shall rule in judgment.

2 And ‖ a man shall be as a hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as [c] rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

3 And the eyes of them that see shall not be [d] dim; and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.

5 The [e] vile person shall be no [f] more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and [g] his heart will work iniquity, to practice hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause the [h] drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he [i] deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal [k] deviseth [l] liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand.

9 Rise up, ye women that are at [m] ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10 Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the [n] vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: [o] strip ye, and make ye bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament [p] for the teats, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 Upon the land of my people shall come up [q] thorns and briers, yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city:

14 Because the palaces [r] shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 Until the [s] Spirit be poured upon us [t] from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then [u] judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 And the work of righteousness shall be [x] peace; and the [y] effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in [z] sure dwellings, and in quiet resting-places,

19 When it shall [a] hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place.

20 Blessed are ye that [b] sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of the [c] ox and the ass.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

God's judgments against the enemies of the church.

WO to thee that [a] spoilest, and thou wast [b] not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt [c] cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, [d] they shall deal treacherously with thee.

2 O LORD, be gracious unto us; we have [e] waited for thee: be thou [f] their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the tumult the people [g] fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations were [h] scattered.

4 And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them.

5 The LORD is [i] exalted; for he dwelleth [k] on high: he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.

6 And [l] wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the LORD is his [m] treasure.

7 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without; the [n] ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8 The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: [o] he hath broken the covenant, he hath [p] despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

9 The [q] earth mourneth and languisheth; Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down; Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

10 [r] Now will I rise, saith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself.

11 Ye shall [s] conceive chaff; ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath as fire shall devour you.

12 And the people shall be as the [t] burnings of lime; as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire.

13 Hear, ye that are [u] far off, what I have done; and ye that are near, acknowledge my might.

14 The [x] sinners in [y] Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites: Who among [z] us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with [a] everlasting burnings?

15 He that walketh [b] righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and [c] shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

16 He shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the [d] munitions of rocks; bread shall be given him, his water shall be sure.

17 Thine eyes shall see the [e] King in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is [g] very far off.

18 Thine heart shall [h] meditate terror. [i] Where is the scribe? where is the receiver? where is he that counted the towers?

19 Thou shalt [k] not see a fierce people; a people of a deeper speech than thou canst perceive; of a stammering tongue, that thou canst not understand.

20 Look [l] upon Zion, the city of our solemnities: thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be [m] removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken.

21 But there the glorious LORD will be unto us a place of [n] broad rivers and streams; wherein shall go [o] no galley with oars, neither shall gallant ship pass thereby.

22 For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our [p] lawgiver, the LORD is our king; he will [q] save us.

23 Thy tacklings are loosed; they could not well strengthen their mast; they could not spread the sail: then is the [r] prey of a great spoil divided; the lame take the prey.

24 And the inhabitants shall not say, I am [s] sick: the people that dwell therein shall be [t] forgiven their iniquity.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

The judgments wherewith God revengeth his church.

Before CHRIST cir. 713.

COME near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people; let the [a] earth hear, and all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it.

2 For the indignation of the LORD is upon [b] all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: [c] he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter.

3 Their slain also shall be [d] cast out, and their [e] stink shall come up out of their carcases, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood.

4 And all the [f] host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their hosts shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a [g] falling fig from the fig-tree.

5 For my sword shall be [h] bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my [i] curse, to judgment.

6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood; it is made fat with fatness, and with the [k] blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sacrifice in [l] Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

7 And the [m] unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

8 For it is the [n] day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year of recompenses for the [o] controversy of Zion.

9 And the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become [p] burning pitch.

10 It shall not be quenched night nor day: the smoke thereof shall go up for ever: from generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever.

11 But the cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall stretch out upon it the [r] line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness.

12 They shall call the † nobles thereof to the kingdom, but [s] none shall be there, and all her princes shall be nothing.

13 And thorns shall come up in her palaces, [t] nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof; and it shall be a habitation of dragons, and a court for owls.

14 The [u] wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wild beasts of the island, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; the screech-owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest.

15 There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow; there shall the vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate.

16 Seek ye out of the [x] book of the LORD, and read; no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for my mouth it hath commanded, and his [y] Spirit it hath gathered them.

17 And he hath cast the [z] lot for them, and his hand hath [a] divided it unto them by line: they shall possess it for ever, [b] from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

CHAPTER XXXV.

The joyful flourishing of Christ's kingdom.

THE wilderness, and the [a] solitary place, shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

2 It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the [b] glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon; they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God.

3 [c] Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

4 Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not; behold, your God will come with [d] vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come and [e] save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be [f] opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be [g] unstopped:

6 Then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb [h] sing: for in the wilderness [i] shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

7 And the [k] parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass, with reeds and rushes.

8 And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the [l] unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though [m] fools, shall not err therein.

9 No [n] lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there: but the redeemed shall walk there.

10 And the [o] ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with songs and [p] everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah....4 Rabshakeh's blasphemous persuasions to the people.

NOW it came to pass in the [a] fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the [b] defenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from [c] Lachish to Jerusalem, unto king Hezekiah, with a † great army: and he stood by the conduit of the [d] upper pool, in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the [e] great king, the king of Assyria, [f] What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words,) I have counsel and strength for war: now, on whom dost thou trust, that thou [g] rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the [h] staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that [i] trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he whose [k] high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before [l] this altar?

8 Now, therefore, give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee [m] two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the [n] face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust [o] on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come [p] up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? [q] The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 Then said Eliakim, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may [r] eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and [s] cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria:

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he [t] shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you [u] trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah; for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and [x] come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

17 Until I come and [y] take you away to a land like your own land, [z] a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, [a] The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the [b] gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they [c] among all the gods of these lands that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they [d] held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their [e] clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 Hezekiah sendeth to Isaiah....36 An angel slayeth the Assyrians.

AND it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and [a] went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, [b] unto Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of [c] trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy [d] God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to [e] reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath [f] heard: wherefore [g] lift up thy prayer for the [h] remnant that is left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have [i] blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him; and he shall hear a rumour, and [k] return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the [l] sword in his own land.

8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from [m] Lachish.

9 And he [n] heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee: and when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou [o] trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it [p] before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O [q] LORD of hosts, God of Israel, [r] that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 [s] Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries,

19 And have cast their gods into the [t] fire; for they were no gods, but the [u] work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now, therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth [x] may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 [y] Then Isaiah, the son of Amoz, sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him, The [z] virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath [a] shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even [b] against the Holy One of Israel.

24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the LORD, and hast [c] said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel.

sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places.

26 Hast thou not heard long ago how I have [e] done it; and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the [f] grass of the field, and as the green herb; as the grass on the house-tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears; therefore will I put my [g] hook in thy nose, and my [h] bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall [i] again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a [k] remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this [l] city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the [m] way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city to save it, [n] for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

36 Then the angel of the LORD went forth, [o] and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria [p] departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his [q] sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

Hezekiah, by prayer, hath his life lengthened.

713.

IN [a] those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thy house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah [b] turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,

3 And said, [c] Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth, and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good [d] in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept sore.

4 Then came [e] the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have [f] heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I [g] will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6 And I will [h] deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.

Before CHRIST 713.

7 And this shall be a [i] sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken;

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun-dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

9 ¶ The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

10 I said, in the [k] cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

11 I said, I shall [l] not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 Mine [m] age is departed, and is removed from me as a [n] shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life; he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he [o] break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 Like a crane, or a swallow, so did I [p] chatter; I did [q] mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with [r] looking upward: O Lord, I am oppressed; undertake for me.

15 [s] What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in [t] the bitterness of my soul.

16 O LORD, [u] by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me and make me to live.

17 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness; but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins [x] behind thy back.

18 For the [y] grave cannot praise thee; death cannot celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The [z] living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day; the [a] father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments, [b] all the days of our [c] life, in the house of the LORD.

21 For Isaiah had [d] said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall [e] go up to the house of the LORD?

CHAPTER XXXIX.

Merodach-baladan, sending to visit Hezekiah, hath notice of his treasures.

cir. 712.

AT [a] that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was [b] glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was [c] nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, [d] What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a [e] far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thy house? And Hezekiah answered, [f] All that is in my house have they seen; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts;

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thy house, and that which thy [g] fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy [h] sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be [i] eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, [k] Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken: he said moreover, For there shall be [l] peace and truth in my days.

CHAPTER XL.

1 The promulgation of the gospel....3 The preaching of John Baptist.

COMFORT ye, comfort ye [a] my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is [b] accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD's hand [c] double for all her sins.

3 The [d] voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for [e] our God.

4 Every [f] valley shall be exalted, and every [g] mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

5 And the [h] glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall [i] see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? [k] All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the Spirit of the LORD [l] bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the [m] word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 O Zion, that bringest [n] good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength: lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, [o] Behold your God!

10 Behold, the Lord [p] GOD will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his [q] reward is with him, and his work before him.

11 He shall [r] feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with [s] young.

12 Who hath [t] measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the [u] span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 Who hath [x] directed the [y] Spirit of the LORD, or, being his counsellor, hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsel, and who [z] instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small [a] dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt-offering.

17 All nations before him are [b] as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing and [c] vanity.

18 [d] To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 The [e] workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that is so impoverished, that he hath no oblation, chooseth a tree that will not rot: he seeketh unto him a cunning [f] workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21 Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been [g] told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that [h] stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in;

23 That bringeth the [i] princes to nothing: he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown; yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also [k] blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away [l] as stubble.

25 To whom then will ye [m] liken me, or shall I be [n] equal? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host [o] by number: he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one [p] faileth.

27 [q] Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way [r] is hid from the LORD, and my [s] judgment is passed over from my God?

28 Hast thou not known, hast thou not [t] heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, [u] fainteth not, neither is weary? there is [x] no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the [y] faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the [z] youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall [a] renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and [b] not faint.

CHAPTER XLI.

God expostulateth with his people about his mercies to the church.

KEEP silence [a] before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near, then let them speak; let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who raised up the righteous man from the [b] east, called him to his [c] foot, [d] gave the nations before him, and made him [e] rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He [f] pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he [g] had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath [h] wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the [i] first, and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and [k] feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew [l] near, and came.

6 They [m] helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the [n] goldsmith, and he that smooth*eth* with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the sodering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, art my [o] servant, Jacob whom I have [p] chosen, the seed of Abraham my [q] friend.

9 Thou whom I have [r] taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the [s] chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant, I have chosen thee, and [t] not cast thee away.

10 Fear thou not; for I am [u] with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will [x] strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be [y] ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that [z] contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of [a] nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy [b] right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, I will make thee [c] a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt [d] thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

16 Thou shalt [e] fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt [f] rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 When the [g] poor and needy seek water, and there is [h] none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18 I will [i] open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the [k] wilderness the cedar, the shittah-tree, and the myrtle, and the [l] oil-tree; I will set in the desert the fir-tree, and the pine, and the box-tree together;

20 That they may [m] see and know, and consider, and understand together, that the [n] hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.

22 Let them bring them forth, and [o] shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

23 Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, [p] do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

24 Behold, ye are of [q] nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.

25 I have raised up [r] one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he || call upon my name; and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and before-time, that we may say, He is [s] righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth; yea, there is none that declareth; yea, there is none that heareth your words.

27 The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to [t] Jerusalem one that bringeth good [u] tidings.

28 For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could † answer a word.

29 Behold, they are all [x] vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

CHAPTER XLII.

The office of Christ graced with meekness and constancy.

BEHOLD my [a] servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul [b] delighteth: I have put my Spirit upon him; he shall [c] bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

2 He shall [d] not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the [e] street.

3 A [f] bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He shall [g] not fail nor be discouraged, till he have [h] set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

5 Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out: he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein;

6 I the LORD have [i] called thee [k] in righteousness, and will hold thy hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for [l] a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles;

7 To [m] open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from [n] the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison-house.

8 I am the LORD; that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and [o] new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 Sing unto the LORD [p] a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that [q] go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the [r] wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them [s] give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as [t] a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry; yea, roar; he shall [u] prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time [x] holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will [y] destroy and devour at once.

15 I will make waste [z] mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they [a] knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 They shall be [b] turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may [c] see.

19 Who is blind, but [d] my servant? or deaf, as my [e] messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is [f] perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?

20 [g] Seeing many things, but thou [h] observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The LORD is [i] well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it [k] honourable.

22 But this is a people [l] robbed and spoiled: they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will [m] hearken, and hear for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not [n] the LORD, he against whom we [o] have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the [p] fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he [q] knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

CHAPTER XLIII.

The Lord comforteth the church with his promises.

BUT now, thus saith the LORD that [a] created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not; for I have redeemed thee, I have [b] called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

2 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the [c] fire thou shalt not be burnt; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: [d] I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast [e] precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

5 Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the [f] east, and gather thee from the [g] west;

6 I will say to the [h] north, [i] Give up; and to the south, [k] Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

7 Even every one that is [l] called by my name: for I have created him for [m] my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

8 [n] Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be [o] justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye are my [p] witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen; that ye may know and [q] believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even [r] I, am the LORD; and besides me there is no Saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was [s] no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 Yea, before the day was, [t] I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it?

14 Thus saith the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For [u] your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the [x] ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your [y] King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh [z] a way in the sea, and [a] a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army, and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall [b] not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as [c] tow.

18 [d] Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do [e] a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in [f] the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The [g] beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall [h] shew forth my praise.

22 But thou hast [i] not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast [k] been weary of me, O Israel.

23 Thou hast [l] not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt-offerings, neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices: I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices; but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast [m] wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that [n] blotteth out thy transgressions for mine [o] own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

26 [p] Put me in remembrance: let us [q] plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy [r] first father hath sinned, and thy [s] teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I have profaned [t] the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the [u] curse, and Israel to reproaches.

CHAPTER XLIV.

1 God comforteth the church with his promises....7 The vanity of idols.

YET now hear, O [a] Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD that [b] made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob my servant; and thou, [c] Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will [d] pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall [e] spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water-courses.

5 [f] One shall say, I am the [g] LORD's; and another shall [h] call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

Before CHRIST cir. 712.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his Redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the [i] first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God.

7 And who, as I, shall [k] call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the [l] ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? yea, there is † no God; I know not any.

9 They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable [m] things shall [n] not profit: and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is [o] profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed; and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be [p] ashamed together.

12 The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, [q] he is hungry, and his strength faileth; he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule, he marketh it out with a line, he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the [r] house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he [s] strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof and [t] warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he [u] maketh a god, and worshippeth it: he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire: with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied; yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

18 They have [x] not known nor understood: for he hath † shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burnt part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it; and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree?

20 He feedeth on ashes: [y] a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not [z] a lie in my right hand?

21 [a] Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

22 I have blotted out, as [b] a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have [c] redeemed thee.

23 [d] Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the [e] earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself;

25 That frustrateth the tokens of the [f] liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish;

26 That [g] confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the decayed places thereof:

27 That saith to the [h] deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers:

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

CHAPTER XLV.

God calleth Cyrus for his church's sake.

THUS saith the LORD to his [a] anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to [b] subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved [c] gates; and the gates shall not be shut:

2 I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight; I will break in pieces the [d] gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the [e] treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest [f] know that I the LORD which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine [g] elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast [h] not known me.

5 I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God besides me: [i] I girded thee, though thou hast not known me;

6 That they may know from the [k] rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides me: I am the LORD, and there is none else.

7 I form the light, and create darkness; I make [l] peace, and create [m] evil: I the LORD do all these things.

8 Drop down, ye [n] heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down [o] righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together. I the LORD have created it.

9 Wo unto him that [p] striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the [q] clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

10 Wo unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons; and concerning the work of my hands [r] command ye me.

12 I have made the earth, [s] and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.

13 [t] I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for [u] price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia, and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall [x] come over [y] unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee, and there is none else; there is no God.

15 Verily, thou art a God that [z] hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour.

16 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of † idols.

17 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an [a] everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

18 For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens, God himself that formed the earth and made it, he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be [b] inhabited; I am the LORD, and there is none else.

19 I have not spoken in secret, [c] in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me [d] in vain. I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

20 Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are [e] escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that [f] cannot save.

21 Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else besides me; a just God, and a Saviour: there is none besides me.

22 [g] Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else.

23 I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That [h] unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

24 Surely, shall one say, In the LORD have I [i] righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

25 In the LORD shall all the [k] seed of Israel be [l] justified, and shall glory.

CHAPTER XLVI.

Idols not comparable to God for power.

BEL boweth down, Nebo stoopeth; their idols were upon the [a] beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy loaden: they are a burden to the weary beast.

2 They stoop; they bow down together; they could not [b] deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.

3 Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are [c] borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the [d] womb:

4 And even to your [e] old age [f] I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

5 To whom will ye [g] liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?

6 They [h] lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith, and he maketh it a god: they fall down; yea, they worship.

7 They [i] bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

Before CHRIST cir. 712.

8 Remember this, and shew yourselves [k] men; bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.

9 Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is [l] none else; I am God, and there is none like me;

10 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, [m] My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11 Calling a [n] ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth [o] my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

12 Hearken unto me, ye [p] stout-hearted, that are far from righteousness:

13 I bring near [q] my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel [r] my glory.

CHAPTER XLVII.

God's judgments upon Babylon and Chaldea.

COME down, and sit in the [a] dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou [b] shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, [c] make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will [d] take vengeance, and I will [e] not meet thee as a man.

4 As for [f] our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into [g] darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

6 I was [h] wroth with my people; I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thy hand: thou didst shew them [i] no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 And thou saidst, I shall be a [k] lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given [l] to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly; that sayest in thy heart, [m] I am, and none else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But [n] these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy [o] sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 For thou hast [p] trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy [q] wisdom and thy knowledge it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thy heart, I am, and none else besides me.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know [r] from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able [s] to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thy [t] enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the star-gazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold they shall be as [u] stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be [x] a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee [y] with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

God saveth his people for his own sake.

HEAR yē this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the [a] name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah; which swear by the name of the LORD, and make [b] mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves of the holy city, and [c] stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name.

3 I have [d] declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, and they [e] came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art † obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy [f] brow brass;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine † idol hath done them; and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will [g] not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even [h] hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are [i] created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou [k] heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a [l] transgressor from the womb.

9 [m] For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my [n] praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, I have refined thee, but ‖ not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

11 For [o] mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? and I will [p] not give my glory unto another.

12 Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my [q] called; I am he: I am the [r] first, I also am the last.

13 My hand also hath laid the [s] foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I [t] call unto them, they [u] stand up together.

14 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which [x] among them hath declared these things? The LORD hath [y] loved him; he will do his [z] pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him; I have brought him, and he shall make his way [a] prosperous.

16 Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from [b] the time that it was, [c] there am I: and now the Lord GOD and his Spirit hath [d] sent me.

17 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which [e] leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

18 [f] Oh that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy [g] peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea;

19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name ‖ should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 [h] Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of [i] singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath [k] redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the [l] rock for them; he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 There is [m] no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 Christ complaineth of the Jews; 5 he is sent to the Gentiles.

LISTEN, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; The LORD hath [a] called me from the [b] womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made [c] my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a [d] polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

3 And said unto me, Thou art my servant, O [e] Israel, in whom I will be [f] glorified.

4 Then I said, I have laboured [g] in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain; yet surely [h] my judgment is with the LORD, and my work with my God.

5 And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be [i] not gathered, yet shall I be [k] glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be [l] my strength.

6 And he said, It is a [m] light thing that thou shouldest be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel; I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man [n] despiseth, to him whom the [o] nation abhorreth, to a [p] servant of rulers, [q] Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, In an [r] acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped [s] thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for [t] a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages:

9 That thou mayest say to the [u] prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves: they shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall [x] not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them; for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, these shall come [y] from far; and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of [z] Sinim.

Before CHRIST cir. 712.

13 Sing, [a] O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains; for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

14 But [b] Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my LORD hath forgotten me.

15 Can [c] a woman forget her [d] sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will [f] I not forget thee.

16 Behold, I have [g] graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy [h] walls are continually before me.

17 Thy ‖ children shall make haste; thy destroyers, and they that made thee waste, shall [i] go forth of thee.

18 [k] Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely [l] clothe thee with them all as with an ornament, and bind them on thee as a bride doeth.

19 For thy [m] waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be [n] too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be [o] far away.

20 The children which thou shalt [p] have, after thou hast [q] lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell.

21 Then shalt thou say in thy heart, Who hath [r] begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up my hand to the [s] Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 And kings shall be thy [t] nursing-fathers, and their queens thy nursing-mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and [u] lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

24 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the [x] captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their [y] own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall [z] know that I the LORD am thy Saviour, and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

CHAPTER L.

Christ sheweth that the dereliction of the Jews is not to be imputed to him.

THUS saith the LORD, Where is the [a] bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my [b] creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is [c] your mother put away.

2 Wherefore, when [d] I came, was there [e] no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand [f] shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea: I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 The Lord GOD hath given me the [g] tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak [h] a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning; he [i] wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

5 The Lord GOD hath [k] opened mine ear, and I was not [l] rebellious, neither turned away back.

6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my [m] cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 For the Lord GOD will [n] help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall [o] not be ashamed.

8 He is [p] near that justifieth me: who will contend with me? let us [q] stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord GOD will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall [r] wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

10 Who is among you that [s] feareth the LORD, that [t] obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh [u] in darkness, and hath no light? let [x] him trust in the name of the LORD, and [y] stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that [z] kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks; walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of my hand; ye shall lie down [a] in sorrow.

CHAPTER LI.

An exhortation, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ.

HEARKEN to me, ye that follow after [a] righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the [b] hole of the pit, whence ye are digged.

2 Look unto [c] Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I [d] called him alone, and [e] blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD shall [f] comfort Zion: he will comfort all her [g] waste places, and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 Hearken unto me, my people, and give ear unto me, O my nation: for [h] a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for [i] a light of the people.

5 [k] My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people: the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine [l] arm shall they trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the [m] heavens, and look upon the earth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but [n] my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose [o] heart is my law; fear ye not the [p] reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

8 For the [q] moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the [r] worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

Before CHRIST cir. 712.

9 [s] Awake, awake, [t] put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the [u] dragon?

10 Art thou not it which hath [x] dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

11 Therefore the [y] redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their [z] head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 I, even I, am he that [a] comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as [b] grass;

13 And forgettest the LORD thy Maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day, because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and [c] where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the [d] pit, nor that his bread should fail.

15 But I am the LORD thy God, that [e] divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name.

16 And I have [f] put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of my hand, that I may [g] plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 [h] Awake, awake, stand up, [i] O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury: thou hast drunken the [k] dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to [l] guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand, of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19 [m] These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I [n] comfort thee?

20 Thy sons have [o] fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the [p] fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 Therefore, hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but [q] not with wine:

22 Thus saith thy Lord, the LORD, and thy God that [r] pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken [s] out of thy hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

23 But I will put it [t] into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, [u] Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

CHAPTER LII.

Christ persuadeth the church to believe his free redemption.

AWAKE, awake; [a] put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more [b] come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.

2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and [c] sit down, O Jerusalem: [d] loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have [e] sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed [f] without money.

Before CHRIST cir. 712.

4 For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went down aforetime [g] into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them [h] without cause.

5 Now, therefore, [i] what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD, and my name continually every day is [k] blasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know [l] my name: therefore they shall know in that day that [m] I am he that doth speak; behold, it is I.

7 How beautiful upon the [n] mountains are the feet of him that bringeth [o] good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God [p] reigneth!

8 Thy [q] watchmen shall [r] lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see [s] eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and [t] all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 [u] Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye [x] clean that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ye shall not go out with [y] haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will [z] go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rere-ward.

13 Behold, my servant shall deal [a] prudently, he shall be [b] exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were [c] astonished at thee; (his visage was so marred more than [d] any man, and his form more than the sons of men;)

15 So shall he [e] sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had [f] not been told them shall they see, and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

CHAPTER LIII.

1 The prophet complaineth of the want of faith....4 The sufferings of Christ, &c.

WHO hath believed our report? and to whom is the [a] arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor [b] comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 He is despised and [c] rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and [d] acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we [d] esteemed him not.

4 Surely he hath borne our [f] griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, [g] smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was wounded [h] for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we, like [i] sheep, have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath [k] laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted; yet he [l] opened not his mouth: he is brought as a [m] lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

9 And he made his grave with the [p] wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any [q] deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it [r] pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul [s] an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall [t] prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the [u] travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his [x] knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I [y] divide him a portion with the great, and he shall [z] divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors: and he bare the sin of many, and made [a] intercession for the transgressors.

CHAPTER LIV.

The prophet prophesieth the preservation of the church.

SING, [a] O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst [b] not travail with child: for [c] more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them [d] stretch forth the curtains of thy habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

3 For thou shalt [e] break forth on the right hand and on the left; and [f] thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt [g] forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 For thy Maker is thy [h] husband; The LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; The God of the [i] whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the LORD hath [k] called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and [l] a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 For a [m] small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath [n] I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with [o] everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this is as the [p] waters of Noah unto me: for as I have [q] sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For the mountains shall [r] depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath [s] mercy on thee.

11 O thou [t] afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted! behold, I will lay thy [u] stones with fair colours, and lay thy [x] foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be [y] taught of the LORD; and great shall be the [z] peace of thy children.

14 [a] In righteousness shall thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee.

15 Behold, they shall surely [b] gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have [c] created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

17 No [d] weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every [e] tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD; and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER LV.

The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calleth to faith.

HO, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the [a] waters, and he that hath [b] no money; come ye, [c] buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is [d] not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, [e] and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an [f] everlasting covenant with you, even [g] the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a [h] witness to the people, [i] a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou [k] knowest not; and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath [l] glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the LORD [m] while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

7 Let the [n] wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his [o] thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will [p] abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts, are not your thoughts, neither are [q] your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the [r] heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my [s] thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the [t] rain cometh down, and the snow, from heaven, and returneth not thither, but [u] watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give [x] seed to the sower, and bread to the eater;

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not [y] return unto me void; but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall [z] go out with joy; and be led forth with peace: [a] the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the [b] thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to the LORD for [c] a name, and for an everlasting sign, that shall not be cut off.

CHAPTER LVI.

Sanctification promised without respect to persons.

THUS saith the LORD, Keep ye [a] judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my [b] righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that [c] doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that [d] keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 Neither let the son of the [e] stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am [f] a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the [g] eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that [h] please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in my [i] house, and within my walls, a place and a name [k] better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger that [l] join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and [m] taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in [n] my house of prayer; their [o] burnt-offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar: for my house shall be called [p] a house of prayer for [q] all people.

8 The Lord GOD, which gathereth the outcasts of Israel, saith, Yet will I [r] gather others to him, besides those that are [s] gathered unto him.

9 All ye beasts of the field, come to [t] devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are [u] blind; they are all [x] ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they [y] cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea, they are [z] greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand; they all look to their own way, every one for his [a] gain from his quarter.

12 Come ye, say they, I will [b] fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and [c] to-morrow shall be as this day, and [d] much more abundant.

CHAPTER LVII.

1 The blessed death of the righteous....3 God reproveth the Jews.

THE righteous [a] perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the [b] evil to come.

2 He shall enter into [c] peace: they shall rest in their [d] beds, each one walking in his uprightness.

3 But draw near hither, ye [e] sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye [f] sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood;

5 [g] Inflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, [h] slaying the children in the valleys under the clifts of the rocks?

6 Among the [i] smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot; even to them hast thou poured a drink-offering, thou hast offered a meat-offering. Should I receive [k] comfort in these?

7 Upon [l] a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy [m] remembrance; for thou hast discovered thyself to another [n] than me, and art gone up: thou hast enlarged thy bed, and [o] made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou [p] sawest it.

9 And thou wentest to the king with [q] ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art [r] wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is [s] no hope: thou hast found the life of thy hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast [t] lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I [u] held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy [x] righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not [y] profit thee.

13 When thou [z] criest, let thy companies [a] deliver thee: but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust [b] in me shall [c] possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that [d] inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a [e] contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not [f] contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should [g] fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his [h] covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he [i] went on frowardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have [k] seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his [l] mourners.

19 I create the [m] fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

20 But the wicked are like the [n] troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 There is [o] no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

CHAPTER LVIII.

The prophet declareth what promises are due to the keeping of the sabbath.

CRY [a] aloud, spare not; lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their [b] transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 [c] Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the [d] day of your fast you find pleasure, and exact all your labours.

4 Behold, ye [f]ast for [e] strife and debate, and to [f] smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 [g] Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to [h] afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? [i] to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the [k] heavy burdens, and to let the [l] oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not to [m] deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are [n] cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou [o] cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine [p] own flesh?

8 Then shall thy [q] light break forth as the morning, and thy health shall spring forth speedily; and thy righteousness shall [r] go before thee: the glory of the LORD shall be thy rere-ward.

9 Then shalt thou [s] call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the [t] putting forth of the finger, and [u] speaking vanity:

10 And if thou [x] draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon-day:

11 And the LORD shall [y] guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in [z] drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a [a] watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

12 And they that shall be [b] of thee shall build the old [c] waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The Repairer of the breach, The [d] Restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 If thou [e] turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing [f] thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath [g] a Delight, the Holy of the LORD, Honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own [h] words:

14 Then shalt thou [i] delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to [k] ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the [l] heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAPTER LIX.

1 The damnable nature of sin....3 The sins of the Jews.

BEHOLD, the LORD's hand is [a] not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have [b] separated between you and your God, and your sins have [c] hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For [d] your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken [e] lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 [f] None calleth for justice, nor any [g] pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they [h] conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch [i] cockatrice' eggs, and weave the [k] spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their [l] webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their [m] feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is [n] no judgment in their goings; they have made them [o] crooked paths; whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 Therefore is [p] judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait [q] for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 We [r] grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon-day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We [s] roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our [t] transgressions are multiplied [u] before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are [x] with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them:

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, [y] conceiving and uttering from the [z] heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth [a] faileth; and he that [b] departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 And he saw that there was [c] no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor; therefore [d] his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 For he [e] put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

18 According to their [f] deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to [g] his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense.

19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the [h] west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like [i] a flood, the [k] Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

20 And the [l] Redeemer shall come to [m] Zion, and unto them that [n] turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21 As for me, this is my [o] covenant with them, saith the LORD; My Spirit that is upon thee, and [p] my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of [q] thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and forever.

CHAPTER LX.

The glory of the church in the abundant access of the Gentiles.

ARISE, [a] shine; for [b] thy light is come, and the [c] glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the [d] darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the Gentiles shall come to [e] thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: [f] thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be [g] nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and [h] flow together, and thy heart shall [i] fear, and be [k] enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the [l] forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from [m] Sheba shall come: they shall bring [n] gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the [o] flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall [p] minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify [q] the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as [r] a cloud, and as the doves to their [s] windows?

9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy [t] sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto [u] the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

10 And the sons of [x] strangers shall [y] build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had [z] mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy [a] gates shall be open continually: they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall [b] perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir-tree, the pine-tree, and the box together, to beautify the [c] place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come [d] bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The [e] Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been [f] forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an [g] eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also [h] suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breasts of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy [i] Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy [k] officers [l] peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 [m] Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders: but thou shalt call thy [n] walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 The [o] sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

20 Thy sun shall no more [p] go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy [q] mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be [r] all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the [s] branch of my planting, the [t] work of my hands, that I may be [u] glorified.

22 [x] A little one shall [y] become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will [z] hasten it [a] in his time.

CHAPTER LXI.

1 The office of Christ....7 The blessings of the faithful.

THE Spirit of the Lord GOD [a] is upon me; because the LORD hath [b] anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek: he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the [c] captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To proclaim the [d] acceptable year of the LORD, and [e] the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the [f] oil of joy for mourning, the [g] garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, that they might be called [h] Trees of Righteousness, The Planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

4 And they shall build the [i] old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And [k] strangers shall stand and feed your [l] flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your [m] plowmen, and your vine-dressers.

6 But ye shall be named the [n] priests of the LORD; men shall call you the ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

7 For your [o] shame ye shall have double, and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double; everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For I the LORD [p] love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt-offering; and I will [q] direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their [r] seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath [s] blessed.

10 I will [t] greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God: for he hath clothed me with the [u] garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as [x] a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the [y] garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause [z] righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

CHAPTER LXII.

The desire of the prophet to confirm the church in God's promises.

FOR [a] Zion's sake will I not [b] hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof [c] go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof, as a lamp that burneth.

2 And the Gentiles shall see [d] thy righteousness, and all kings thy [e] glory: and thou shalt be called by [f] a new name, which the [g] mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a [h] crown of glory in the [i] hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 Thou shalt no more be termed [k] Forsaken: neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzi-bah, and thy land Beulah: for the LORD [l] delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be [m] married.

5 For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the [n] bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall [o] thy God rejoice over thee.

6 [p] I have set watchmen upon thy [q] walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence;

7 And give him [r] no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a [s] praise in the earth.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his [t] right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy [u] corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

10 Go through, go through the gates; [x] prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the [y] stones; lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath [z] proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the [a] daughter of Zion, Behold, thy [b] salvation cometh; behold, his [c] reward is with him, and his work before him.

12 And they shall call them, [d] The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city [e] not forsaken.

CHAPTER LXIII.

Christ sheweth his power to save.

WHO [a] is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is [b] glorious in his apparel, travelling in [c] the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

3 I have [d] trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their [e] blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the [f] day of vengeance is in my heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I [g] wondered that there was none to uphold; therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 I will [h] mention the loving-kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 In all their affliction [i] he was afflicted, and the angel of his [k] presence saved them: in his [l] love and in his pity he redeemed them: and he [m] bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and [n] vexed his Holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he [o] fought against them.

11 Then he [p] remembered the days of old, [q] Moses and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his [r] Holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with [s] his glorious arm, [t] dividing the water before them to make himself an everlasting [u] name?

13 That led them through the deep, [x] as a horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest; so didst thou [y] lead thy people, to make thyself a [z] glorious name.

15 [a] Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy [b] bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our Father, though Abraham be [c] ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our Father, our Redeemer; thy name is from [d] everlasting.

17 O LORD, why hast thou [e] made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? [f] Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The [g] people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have [h] trodden down thy sanctuary.

19 [i] We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called [k] by thy name.

CHAPTER LXIV.

The church prayeth for the illustration of God's power.

OH that thou wouldest [a] rend the heavens, that thou wouldest [b] come down, that the mountains might [c] flow down at thy presence;

2 As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil; to make thy [d] name known to thine adversaries, that the nations [e] may tremble at thy presence!

3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the [f] mountains flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the [g] eye seen, O God, besides thee, what he hath [h] prepared for [i] him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou [k] meetest him that rejoiceth and [l] worketh righteousness; those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: [m] in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our [n] righteousnesses are as filthy rags: and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And there is none that [o] calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, thou art [p] our Father: we are the clay, and thou our [q] Potter; and we all are the [r] work of thy hand.

9 Be not [s] wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all [t] thy people.

10 Thy [u] holy cities are a wilderness, [x] Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, [y] is burned up with fire: and all our [z] pleasant things are laid waste.

12 Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, [a] and afflict us very sore?

CHAPTER LXV.

1 The calling of the Gentiles....2 The Jews are rejected.

I AM [a] sought of them that [b] asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was [c] not called by my name.

2 I have spread out my hands all the day unto a [d] rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their [e] own thoughts;

ally to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick;

4 Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments; which eat swine's flesh, and broth of [g] abominable things is in their vessels;

5 Which [h] say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am [i] holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a [k] fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, it is [l] written before me; I will [m] not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom,

7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers [n] together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

8 Thus saith the LORD, As the [o] new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for [p] a blessing is in it: so will I do for my [q] servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth [r] a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine elect shall [s] inherit it, and my [t] servants shall dwell there.

10 And [u] Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of [x] Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

11 But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that [y] troop, and that furnish the drink-offering unto that number.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I [z] called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall [a] eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shall [b] sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for [c] vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and call his servants by [d] another name:

16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth, shall bless himself in the God of † truth: and he that sweareth in the earth, shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

17 For, behold, I create [e] new heavens, and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem [f] a rejoicing, and [g] her people a joy.

19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not [h] filled his days: for the child shall die [i] a hundred years old; but the sinner, being a hundred years old, shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall [k] long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall [l] not labour in vain, nor bring forth [m] for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, that [n] before they call, I will answer; and while [o] they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The [p] wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my [q] holy mountain, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER LXVI.

The glorious God will be served in humble sincerity.

THUS saith the LORD, The [a] heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: [b] where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath my hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a [c] contrite spirit, and [d] trembleth at my word.

3 He that killeth an [e] ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol: yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their [f] soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their [g] delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your [h] brethren that [i] hated you, that [k] cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be [l] glorified: but he shall [m] appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the [n] city, a voice from the [o] temple, a voice of the [p] LORD that rendereth recompense to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a [q] man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born [r] at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the [s] birth, and [t] not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice [u] for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may [x] suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the [y] abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend [z] peace to her like a river, and the [a] glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be [b] dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, [c] so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your [d] heart shall rejoice, and your [e] bones shall flourish like an herb; and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For, behold, the LORD will come with [f] fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his [g] anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens, behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For [l] I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather [m] all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will set [n] a sign among them, and I will send those that [o] escape of them unto the [p] nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for [q] an offering unto the LORD, out of all nations, upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take [r] of them for [s] priests, and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the [t] new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one [u] new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall [x] all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall [y] go forth, and look upon the [z] carcases of the men that have transgressed against me; for their [a] worm shall not die, neither shall their [b] fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

¶ The BOOK of the Prophet JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

The time and the calling of Jeremiah.

THE [a] words of Jeremiah the son of [b] Hilkiah, of the priests that were in [c] Anathoth, in the land of Benjamin:

2 To whom the word of the LORD [d] came in the days of [e] Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the || end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I [f] formed thee in the belly [g] I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I [h] sanctified thee; and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, [i] Ah, Lord GOD! behold, [k] I cannot speak; for I am a [l] child.

7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall [m] send thee, and [n] whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 [o] Be not afraid of their faces: for [p] I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and [q] touched my mouth: and the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have [r] put my words in thy mouth.

10 See, I have this day [s] set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a [t] rod of an [u] almond-tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast [x] well seen: for I will [y] hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a [z] seething-pot; and the face thereof is toward the [a] north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an [b] evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will [c] call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall [d] set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgments [e] against them touching all their wickedness, [f] who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 Thou therefore [g] gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I [h] confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a [i] defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brazen walls, against the whole [k] land; against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall [l] fight against thee; but they shall [m] not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAPTER II.

God expostulateth with the Jews.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I remember [a] thee, the [b] kindness of thy youth, the [c] love of thine espousals, when thou wentest [d] after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was [e] holiness unto the LORD, and the [f] firstfruits of his increase: all that [g] devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 Thus saith the LORD, [h] What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are [i] gone far from me, and have walked after [k] vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said [l] they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness; through a land of deserts, and of pits; through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man [m] passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into a [n] plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodness thereof: but when ye entered, ye [o] defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination.

8 The [p] priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that [q] handle the law [r] knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do [s] not profit.

9 Wherefore I will yet [t] plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass over the [u] isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto [x] Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing:

11 Hath a nation [y] changed their gods, which are yet [z] no gods? but my people have changed their [a] glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be [b] astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the [c] fountain of living waters, and hewed them out [d] cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 Is Israel a [e] servant? is he [f] a home-born slave? why is he spoiled?

15 The [g] young lions roared upon him and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burnt [h] without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of [i] Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head.

17 Hast thou not [k] procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he [l] led thee by the way?

18 And now, what hast thou to do in the [m] way of Egypt, to drink the waters of [n] Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine [o] own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know, therefore, and see, that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts.

20 For of [p] old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and [q] thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every [r] high hill, and under every green tree, thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had [s] planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the [t] degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou wash thee with [u] nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is [x] marked before me, saith the Lord GOD.

23 How canst [y] thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? [z] See thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24 A wild ass [a] used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her [b] occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her [c] month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy [d] foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is [e] no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is [f] ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets,

27 Saying to a stock, Thou art [g] my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they [h] have turned their back unto me, and not their face; but [i] in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But where are [k] thy gods that thou hast made thee? [l] let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number [m] of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah

29 Wherefore will ye [n] plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

30 [o] In vain have I smitten your children: they received no correction: [p] your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 O generation, [q] see ye the word of the LORD: [r] Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? Wherefore say my people, We are [s] lords; we will come [t] no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid [u] forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

33 Why [x] trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones [y] thy ways.

34 Also in thy [z] skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.

35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me: behold, I will [a] plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have [b] not sinned.

36 Why [c] gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of [d] Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of [e] Assyria.

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thy hands upon thy head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

CHAPTER III.

1 God's great mercy in Judah's vile whoredom....12 The promises of the gospel to the penitent.

THEY say, If a man [a] put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly [b] polluted? but thou hast [c] played the harlot with many lovers; yet [d] return again to me, saith the LORD.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been [e] lien with: in the ways hast thou [f] sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the [g] showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst [h] a whore's forehead, thou [i] refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, [k] My father, thou art the [l] guide of my youth?

5 Will he reserve his anger [m] for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things [n] as thou couldest.

6 The LORD said also unto me in the days of [o] Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every [p] high mountain, and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 And I said, after she had done all these things, [q] Turn thou unto me: but she returned not. And her treacherous [r] sister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, when [s] for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had [t] put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah [u] feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass, through the [x] lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with [y] stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but [z] feignedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified † herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 Go, and proclaim these words toward the [a] north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you; for I am [b] merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger [c] for ever.

13 Only [d] acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast [e] scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am [f] married unto you: and I will take you [g] one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you [h] pastors according to my heart, which shall [i] feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be [k] multiplied and increased in the land, in [l] those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The [m] ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind; neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the [n] throne of the LORD; and [o] all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the [p] imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk [q] with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and [r] give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? And I said, Thou shalt call me, [s] My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

20 Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her † husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A [t] voice was heard upon the [u] high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have [x] perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 [y] Return, ye backsliding children, and I will [z] heal your backslidings. Behold, [a] we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the [b] hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly [c] in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 For [d] shame hath devoured [e] the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 [f] We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, [g] from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

CHAPTER IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise....3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance.

IF thou wilt return, [a] O Israel, saith the LORD, return [b] unto me; and if thou wilt put away thine [c] abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou [d] not remove.

2 And thou shalt [e] swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they [f] glory.

3 For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, [g] Break up your fallow ground, and [h] sow not among thorns.

4 [i] Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest [k] my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, [l] Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, Gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: † retire, stay not; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.

7 [m] The lion is come up from his thicket, and [n] the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land [o] desolate: and thy cities shall be laid waste without an inhabitant.

8 For this [p] gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl; for the fierce anger of the LORD is [q] not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the [r] heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets [s] shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! surely [t] thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace: whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, [u] A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to [x] cleanse,

12 Even [y] a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I [z] give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall [a] come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are [b] swifter than eagles. [c] Wo unto us! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, [d] wash thy heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy [e] vain thoughts lodge [f] within thee?

15 For a voice declareth [g] from Dan, and publisheth [h] affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye [i] mention to the nations: behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a [k] far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 As [l] keepers of a field are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

Before CHRIST cir. 612.

18 Thy way and thy doings have [m] procured these things unto thee: this is thy wickedness, because it is [n] bitter, because it reacheth unto thy heart.

19 [o] My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me: I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 Destruction [p] upon destruction is cried: for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is [q] foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are [r] wise to do evil, but to do good they have [s] no knowledge.

23 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was [t] without form and void; and the heavens, and they had [u] no light.

24 I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they [x] trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the [y] birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the [z] presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make [a] a full end.

28 For this shall the earth [b] mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will [c] not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into [d] thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou [e] deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rendest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy [f] lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as [g] of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child; the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that [h] spreadeth her hands, saying, Wo is me now! for my soul is wearied because of [i] murderers.

CHAPTER V.

The judgments of God upon the Jews for their perverseness.

RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can [a] find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will [b] pardon it.

2 And though they [c] say, The LORD liveth, surely they swear [d] falsely.

3 O LORD, are not [e] thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast [f] stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have [g] refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a [h] rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the [i] way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the [k] great men, and will speak unto them: for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but [l] these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of [m] the evenings shall spoil them, a [n] leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.

7 How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are [o] no gods: when I had [p] fed them to the full, they then committed [q] adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 They were as [r] fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his [s] neighbour's wife.

9 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be [t] avenged on such a nation as this?

10 Go ye up upon her [u] walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are [x] not the LORD's.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have [y] dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 They have [z] belied the LORD, and said, [a] It is not he, neither shall evil come upon us, neither shall we see sword nor famine;

13 And the prophets shall become [b] wind, and the word is [c] not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth [d] fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you [e] from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an [f] ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall [g] eat up thy harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thy herds; they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless, in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you.

19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, [h] Wherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land; so shall ye serve [i] strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O [k] foolish people, and without † understanding; which have [l] eyes, and see not; which have ears and hear not:

22 [m] Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the [n] bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it; and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God that giveth [o] rain, both the [p] former and the latter, in his [q] season: he reserveth unto us the [r] appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 [s] Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait as he that setteth snares: they set a trap, they [t] catch men.

27 As a [u] cage is full of birds, so are their [x] houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are [y] waxen fat, they shine; yea, they [z] overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they [a] prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 A [b] wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;

31 The [c] prophets prophesy [d] falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people [e] love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

CHAPTER VI.

The enemies sent against Judah encourage themselves.

O YE children of [a] Benjamin, gather yourselves to [b] flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up [c] a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth out of the [d] north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman.

3 The [e] shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up [f] at noon. Wo unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her [g] palaces.

6 For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, [h] Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is [i] wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 As [k] a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: [l] violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou † instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly [m] glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thy hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their [n] ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have [o] no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am [p] weary with holding in: I will [q] pour it out upon the [r] children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together; for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And their [s] houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given [t] to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people [u] slightly, saying, [x] Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were [y] not at all ashamed, neither could they blush; therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, [z] Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the [a] old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find [b] rest for your souls. But they said, [c] We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set [d] watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the [e] sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 [f] Hear, O earth; Behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the [g] fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 [h] To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your [i] burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay [k] stumbling-blocks before this people, and the [l] fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and [m] spear; they are [n] cruel, and have no mercy: their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof; our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain as of a [o] woman in travail.

25 [p] Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes; make thee mourning as for an [q] only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler [r] shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a [s] tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest [t] know and try their way.

28 They are all [u] grievous revolters, walking with [x] slanders: they are [y] brass and iron; they are all [z] corrupters.

29 The [a] bellows are burnt, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are [b] not plucked away.

30 [c] Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

4 Trust ye not in [d] lying words, saying, The [e] temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are [f] these.

5 For if ye [g] thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not [h] innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in [i] this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that [k] cannot profit.

9 Will ye [l] steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after [m] other gods whom ye [n] know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are [o] delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is this house, which is [p] called by my name, become a [q] den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place, which was in Shiloh, where I set my [r] name [s] at the first, and [t] see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, [u] rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and [x] I called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to [y] Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your [z] brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore [a] pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not [b] hear thee.

17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The [c] children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the † queen of heaven, and to [d] pour out drink-offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they [e] provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, [f] upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall [g] burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; [h] Put your burnt-offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 For I [i] spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices:

23 But [k] this thing commanded I them, saying, [l] Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in [m] all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 But they [n] hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, I have even sent unto you [o] all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early, and sending them:

26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but [p] hardened their neck: they did [q] worse than their fathers.

27 Therefore [r] thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth [s] correction: [t] truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 Cut off thy [u] hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have [x] set their abominations in the house which is called [y] by my name, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the [z] high places of [a] Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart.

32 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor, The valley of the son of Hinnom, but, The valley of [b] Slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet till there be no place.

33 And the [c] carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will [d] I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride; for the land shall be desolate.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The calamity of the Jews....4 Their impenitency upbraided.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall [a] bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have [b] worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for [c] dung upon the face of the earth.

3 And [d] death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Moreover, thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by [e] a perpetual backsliding? [f] they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return.

6 I hearkened and heard, but they spake [g] not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, [h] as the horse rusheth into the battle.

7 Yea, the [i] stork in the heaven knoweth her [k] appointed times; and the turtle, and the crane, and the swallow, observe the time of their coming: but my people [l] know not the judgment of the LORD.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, and [m] the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it; the pen of the [n] scribes is in vain.

9 The wise men are [o] ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have [p] rejected the word of the LORD; and [q] what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore will I give [r] their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one, from the least even unto the greatest, is given [s] to covetousness; from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

11 For they have [t] healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, [u] Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they [x] blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

13 I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be [y] no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig-tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

14 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be [z] silent there; for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us [a] water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 We looked for [b] peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from [c] Dan; the whole land trembled at the sound of the [d] neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

17 For, behold, I will send serpents, [e] cockatrices, among you, which will not be [f] charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

18 When I would [g] comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint [h] in me.

19 Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people, because of them that dwell in a far country. Is not the LORD in Zion? [i] is not her King in her? why have they [k] provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with [l] strange vanities?

20 The [m] harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am [n] black; [o] astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22 Is there [o] no balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people [p] recovered?

CHAPTER IX.

Jeremiah lamenteth the Jews for their manifold sins.

OH that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might [a] weep day and night for the [b] slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging-place of wayfaring men, that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all [c] adulterers, an [d] assembly of treacherous men.

3 And they [e] bend their tongue like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth: for they proceed [f] from evil to evil, and they [g] know not me, saith the LORD.

4 [h] Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly [i] supplant, and every neighbour will walk with [k] slanders.

5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have [l] taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thy habitation is in the midst of deceit; through [m] deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will [n] melt them, and try them; for [o] how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their [p] tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh [q] peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait.

9 Shall I not [r] visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the [s] mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burnt up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle: both [t] the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem [u] heaps, and [x] a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 [y] Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may [z] declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burnt up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, [a] Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have walked after the [b] imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their [c] fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with [d] wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will [e] scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the [f] mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our [g] eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For [h] a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have [i] forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye [k] women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and [l] teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation:

21 For death is come up into our [m] windows, and is entered into our [n] palaces, to cut off the [o] children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall [p] as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvest-man, and none shall gather them.

Before CHRIST cir. 600.

23 Thus saith the LORD, Let not the [q] wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24 But let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and [r] knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise[s] loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I [t] delight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are [u] circumcised with the uncircumcised;

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are [x] uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAPTER X.

The unequal comparison of God and idols.

HEAR ye the word which [a] the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

2 Thus saith the LORD, [b] Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the [c] signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the customs of the people are vain: for one [d] cutteth a tree out of the forest (the work of the hands of the workman) with the axe:

4 They [e] deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm-tree, but speak not; they must [f] needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

6 Forasmuch as there is [g] none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is [h] great in might.

7 Who would not [i] fear thee, [k] O King of nations? for to thee [l] doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

8 But they are altogether [m] brutish and foolish; the stock is [n] a doctrine of vanities.

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing; they are all the work of cunning men.

10 But the LORD is the [o] true God, he is the [p] living God, and an [q] everlasting King; at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall [r] perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

12 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath [s] established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out [t] the heavens by his discretion.

13 When he [u] uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of [x] waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

14 Every man is [y] brutish in his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no [z] breath in them.

15 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

16 The [a] Portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of [b] all things; and Israel is the [c] rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts is his name.

17 [d] Gather up thy wares out of the land, [e] O inhabitant of the fortress:

18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, [f] I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, that they may [g] find it so.

19 Wo is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must [h] bear it.

20 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not; there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastors are become [i] brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall [k] not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

23 O LORD, I know that the way of man [l] is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

24 O LORD, [m] correct me, but with [n] judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

25 [o] Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and [p] devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

CHAPTER XI.

Jeremiah proclaimeth God's covenant, and rebuketh the Jews.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 [a] Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD of Israel, [b] Cursed be the man that † obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded [c] your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the [d] iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God;

5 That I may [e] perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, [f] So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and [g] do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers, in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, [h] rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the [i] imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant which I commanded them to do: but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, [k] A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities [l] of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went [m] after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant, which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring [n] evil upon them, which they shall not be able to [o] escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will [r] not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem, [q] go and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the [r] number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that [s] shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore [t] pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble.

15 What hath my beloved [u] to do in my house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness [x] with many, and the [y] holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou [z] rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, [a] A green olive-tree, fair, and of goodly fruit; with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts that [b] planted thee hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel, and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves, to provoke me to anger, in offering incense unto Baal.

18 And the LORD hath given me [c] knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was like [d] a lamb, or an ox, that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had [e] devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be [f] no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that [g] triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them; for unto thee have I revealed [h] my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of [i] Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, [k] Prophesy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them; the young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by famine;

23 And there shall be [l] no remnant of them, for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of [m] their visitation.

CHAPTER XII.

Jeremiah complaineth of the prosperity of the wicked.

RIGHTEOUS [a] art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee; yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked [b] prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them; yea, they have taken root: they grow; yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art [c] near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, [d] knowest me; thou hast seen me, and tried my heart [e] toward thee; pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the [f] day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the [g] land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the [h] wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall [i] not see our last end.

5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou [k] contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the [l] swelling of Jordan?

6 For even thy [m] brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have [n] called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak [o] fair words unto thee.

7 I have forsaken [p] my house, I have left my heritage; I have given the dearly-beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 My heritage is unto me as [q] a lion in the forest; it crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 My heritage is unto me as [r] a speckled bird; the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, [s] come to devour.

10 Many [t] pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my [u] portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 [x] They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man [y] layeth it to heart.

12 The [z] spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: [a] no flesh shall have peace.

13 They have [b] sown wheat, but shall reap thorns; they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit; and they shall be [c] ashamed of your revenues, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 Thus saith the LORD against all mine [d] evil neighbours, that [e] touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will [f] pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will [g] bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; (as they [h] taught my people to swear by Baal;) then shall they [i] be built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will [k] not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER XIII.

By the type of a linen girdle, God prefigureth his people's destruction.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a [a] linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and [b] put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle, [c] according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to [d] Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 [e] So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was [f] profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the [g] pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and [h] walk after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to [i] cleave unto me the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for [k] a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every [l] bottle shall be filled with [m] wine; and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly [n] know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, [o] with drunkenness.

14 And I will dash them [p] one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD; I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, [q] but destroy them.

15 Hear ye, and give ear; be not [r] proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 [s] Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause [t] darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall [u] weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eyes shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

18 [x] Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your principalities shall come down, even the [y] crown of your glory.

19 The [z] cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north; where is the flock that was [a] given thee, thy beautiful flock?

21 What wilt thou say when he shall [b] punish thee? (for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee;) shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?

22 And if thou say in thy heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy [c] skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I [d] scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is thy [e] lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and [f] trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy [g] neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Wo unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? [h] when shall it once be?

CHAPTER XIV.

A grievous famine causeth Jeremiah to pray.

THE word of the LORD that came to [a] Jeremiah concerning the dearth.

2 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish, they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the [b] pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and [c] covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was [d] no rain in the earth, the [e] plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hind also [f] calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

6 And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they [g] snuffed up the wind like dragons; their [h] eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

7 [i] O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy [k] name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

8 O the [l] Hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for [m] a night?

9 Why shouldest thou be as a man [n] astonished, as a mighty man that [o] cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the [p] midst of us, and we are called by thy name: leave us not.

10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they [q] loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet; therefore the LORD doth not accept them: he will now [r] remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, [s] Pray not for this people for their good.

12 When they fast, I will [t] not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt-offering and an oblation, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 Then said I, Ah, LORD God! behold, [u] the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy [x] lies in my name; [y] I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; [z] By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters; for I will [b] pour their wickedness upon them.

17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, [c] Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the [d] field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

19 Hast thou utterly rejected [e] Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is [f] no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have [g] sinned against thee.

21 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: [h] remember, [i] break not thy covenant with us.

22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can [k] the heavens give showers? Art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will [l] wait upon thee; for thou hast made all these things.

CHAPTER XV.

The utter rejection and manifold judgments of the Jews.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Though [a] Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people; cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD, Such as are [b] for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will [c] appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD; the sword to slay, and the dogs [d] to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

4 And I will cause them [e] to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of [f] Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For [g] who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest?

6 Thou hast [h] forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward; therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am [i] weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan in [k] the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they [l] return not from their ways.

8 Their widows are [m] increased to me above the sand of the seas: [n] I have brought upon them, against the mother of the young men, a spoiler at noon-day; I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

9 She that hath borne seven languisheth; she hath given up the ghost; her sun is [o] gone down while it was yet day; she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

10 [p] Wo is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me [q] a man of strife, and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither [r] lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me.

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy [s] remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to [t] entreat thee well in the time of evil, and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall [u] iron break the northern iron and the steel?

13 Thy substance and thy [x] treasures will I give to the spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.

14 And I will make thee to pass [y] with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not; for [z] a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

15 O LORD, [a] thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and [b] revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy long-suffering: know that for [c] thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

16 Thy words were found, and I did [d] eat them; and thy word was unto me the [e] joy and rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.

17 I sat not in the [f] assembly of the mockers, nor [g] rejoiced; I sat [h] alone, because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with [i] indignation.

18 Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as [k] a liar, and as waters that fail?

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou [l] return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take forth the [m] precious from the vile, thou shalt be as [n] my mouth: let them return [o] unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

20 And I will make thee unto this people [p] a fenced brazen wall; and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not [q] prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee, and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAPTER XVI.

The prophet foresheweth the utter ruin of the Jews.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt [a] not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons [b] nor daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons, and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their [c] carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even loving-kindness and mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor [d] cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall men † tear themselves for them in mourning to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to [e] drink for their father or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the [f] house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place [g] in your eyes, and in your days, the voice [h] of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, [i] Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or [k] what is our iniquity? or what is our sin, that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, [l] Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law:

12 And ye have [m] done worse than your fathers; (for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may [n] not hearken unto me;)

13 Therefore will I [o] cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night, where I will not [p] shew you favour.

14 [q] Therefore, behold, the [r] days come, saith the LORD, that it [s] shall no more be said, The LORD liveth that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

15 But, The LORD liveth that brought up the [t] children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will [u] bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

16 Behold, I will send for many [x] fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

17 For [y] mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are [z] not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

18 And first I will [a] recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the [b] carcases of their detestable and abominable things.

19 O LORD, [c] my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the [d] Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is [e] no profit.

20 Shall a man [f] make gods unto himself, and they are [g] no gods?

21 Therefore, behold, I will this once [h] cause them to know, I will cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is The LORD.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The captivity of Judah for her sin....5 Trust in God is blessed.

THE sin of Judah is written with a [a] pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven [b] upon the table of their heart, and upon the [c] horns of your altars;

2 Whilst their children remember their altars and their [d] groves by the green trees upon the [e] high hills.

3 O my mountain in the field, I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high [f] places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

4 And thou, even thyself, shalt [g] discontinue from thy heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled [h] a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

5 Thus saith the LORD, Cursed be the man that [i] trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD:

6 For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall [k] not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the [l] parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited.

7 Blessed is the man that [m] trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is:

8 For he shall be as [n] a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of [o] drought, neither shall [p] cease from yielding fruit.

9 The heart is deceitful [q] above all things, and [r] desperately wicked: who [s] can know it?

10 I the LORD [t] search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he [u] that getteth riches, and not by right, shall [x] leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be [y] a fool.

12 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, the Hope of Israel, all that [z] forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be [a] written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters.

14 [b] Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise.

15 Behold, they say unto me, [c] Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

16 As for me, I have [d] not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee; neither have [e] I desired the woful day, thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was [f] right before thee.

17 Be not a terror unto me: thou art my hope in the [g] day of evil.

18 Let them be [h] confounded that persecute me, but let [i] not me be confounded; let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

19 Thus said the LORD unto me, Go and stand in the [k] gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 And [l] say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye [m] kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

21 Thus saith the LORD, [n] Take heed to yourselves, and [o] bear no burden on the sabbath-day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath-day, neither do ye any work; but hallow ye the sabbath-day, [p] as I commanded your fathers.

23 But they [q] obeyed not, neither inclined their ear,

24 And it shall come to pass, if ye [r] diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath-day, but hallow the sabbath-day, to do no work therein;

25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city [s] kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain for ever.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Under the type of a potter is shewed God's absolute power

cir. 605.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 [a] Arise, and go down to [b] the potter's house, and [c] there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then [d] I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel that [e] he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again another vessel, [f] as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you [g] as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, [h] so are ye in my hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, [i] to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it:

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, [k] turn from their evil, I will [l] repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build, and to plant it;

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the [m] good wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 Now, therefore, go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, [n] I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: [o] return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, There is [p] no hope; but [q] we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD, [r] Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things? the [s] virgin of Israel hath done a very [t] horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

15 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burnt incense to vanity, and they have [u] caused them to stumble in their ways from the [x] ancient paths, to walk in paths in a way not cast up;

16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual [y] hissing: every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.

17 I will [z] scatter them as with an [a] east wind before the enemy: I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 [b] Then said they, Come, and let us [c] devise devices against Jeremiah; for the [d] law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet: come, and let us smite him with the [e] tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 Shall [f] evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and [g] to turn away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore [h] deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring [i] a troop suddenly upon them; for they have [k] digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: [l] forgive not their iniquity, neither [m] blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee: deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

CHAPTER XIX.

The desolation of the Jews for their sins foretold.

THUS saith the LORD, Go, and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the [a] ancients of the priests,

2 And go forth unto the [b] valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the [c] east gate, and proclaim there the words that [d] I shall tell thee;

3 And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, [e] O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of [f] hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall [g] tingle.

4 Because they have [h] forsaken me, and have [i] estranged this place, and have burnt incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the [k] blood of innocents;

5 They have built also the high places of Baal, to [l] burn their sons with fire for burnt-offerings unto Baal, which I [m] commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind:

6 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor, The [n] valley of the son of Hinnom, but, The valley of Slaughter.

7 And I will make void the [o] counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them [p] to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives; and their [q] carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city [r] desolate, and a hissing: every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss, because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them [s] to eat the flesh of their sons, and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his [t] friend, in the siege and straitness wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

10 Then shalt thou break [u] the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee,

11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, [x] Even so will I break this people, and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again; and they shall [y] bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even [z] make this city as Tophet:

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled, as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose [a] roofs they have burnt incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink-offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the [b] court of the LORD's house, and said to all the people,

15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring upon this city, and upon all [c] her towns, all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have [d] hardened their necks, that they might [e] not hear my words.

CHAPTER XX.

Pashur, smiting Jeremiah, receiveth a new name, and a fearful doom.

NOW [a] Pashur, the son of [b] Immer the priest, who was also [c] chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

2 Then Pashur [d] smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in [e] the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but ‖ Magor-missabib.

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee [f] a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and [g] thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover, I will deliver all the [h] strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the [i] treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thy house, shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied [k] lies.

7 O LORD, thou hast [l] deceived me, and I was [m] deceived; thou art [n] stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in [o] derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision daily.

9 Then I [p] said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in my heart as [q] a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was [r] weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

10 For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. All my familiars [s] watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

11 But the LORD is [t] with me as a mighty terrible one; therefore my persecutors shall [u] stumble, and they shall not prevail; they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

12 But, O LORD of hosts, that [x] triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: [y] for unto thee have I [z] opened my cause.

13 Sing unto the LORD, [a] praise ye the LORD; for he hath [b] delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evil-doers.

14 [c] Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, [d] A man-child is born unto thee; making him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities which the LORD [e] overthrew, and repented not; and let him hear the cry in the [f] morning, and the shouting at noon-tide;

17 Because he slew me not [g] from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

18 Wherefore came I forth out of the womb [h] to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Zedekiah sendeth to enquire the event of Nebuchadrezzar's war....3 A hard siege foretold.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah [a] sent unto him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

2 ‖ Inquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon [b] maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his [c] wondrous works, that he may go up [d] from us.

3 Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the Lord GOD of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are [e] in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and [f] I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight [g] against you with an outstretched hand, and with a strong arm, even in [h] anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, [i] both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their † life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall [k] not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8 And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I set [l] before you the way of life, [m] and the way of death.

9 He that [n] abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him [o] for a prey.

10 For I have [p] set my face against this city, for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD; it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall [q] burn it with fire.

11 And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD, [r] Execute judgment in the [s] morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, I am [t] against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD; which say, [u] Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?

14 But I will punish you according [x] to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall [y] devour all things round about it.

CHAPTER XXII.

Jeremiah exhorteth to repentance with promises and threats.

cir. 609.

THUS saith the LORD, Go down to the [a] house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, [b] Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the LORD, [c] Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and [d] deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye [e] do this thing indeed, then shall there [f] enter in by the gates of this house kings, sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will [g] not hear these words, I [h] swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah, Thou art [i] Gilead [k] unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee [l] a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare [m] destroyers against thee, every one with his [n] weapons; and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall [o] pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, [p] Wherefore hath the LORD done [q] thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, [r] Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 Weep ye not [s] for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep sore for him that [t] goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which [u] went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 Wo unto him that buildeth his house by [x] unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his [y] work;

14 That saith, I will build me a wide house, and large chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is ceiled with cedar, and painted with vermilion!

15 Shalt thou [z] reign because thou closest thyself in cedar? [a] Did not thy father [b] eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then [c] it was well with him?

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: [d] was not this to know me? saith the LORD.

17 But thine eyes and thy heart are not but for thy [e] covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence to do it.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning [f] Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; They shall [g] not lament for him, saying, [h] Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

19 He shall be buried with the [i] burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 [k] Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destroyed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will [l] not hear: this hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou [m] obeyedst not my voice.

22 [n] The wind shall eat up all thy pastors, and thy [o] lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how [p] gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail!

24 As I live, saith the LORD, though [q] Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the [r] signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

25 And I will [s] give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 And I will [t] cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another [u] country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.

27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he [x] a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

29 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD:

30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man [y] childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

CHAPTER XXIII.

599.

Jeremiah prophesieth a restoration of the scattered flock.

WO be unto the [a] pastors that destroy and [b] scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

2 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of Israel

Before CHRIST 599.

against the pastors that feed my people, Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their [c] folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up [d] shepherds over them, which shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they [e] be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 Behold, [f] the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous [g] Branch, and [h] a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute [i] judgment and justice in the earth.

6 In his days [k] Judah shall be saved, and [l] Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD [m] OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that [n] they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up, and which led, the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall [o] dwell in their own land.

9 My heart within me is [p] broken because of the [q] prophets; all my [r] bones shake: I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the [s] words of his holiness.

10 For the land is full of [t] adulterers; for because of [u] swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, [x] in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as [y] slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen folly in the [z] prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and [a] caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the [b] prophets of Jerusalem a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in [c] lies: they [d] strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me [e] as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets, Behold, I will feed them with [f] wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, [g] Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you [h] vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have [i] peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, [k] No evil shall come upon you.

18 For who hath [l] stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath † perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a [m] grievous whirlwind: it shall [n] fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD shall [o] not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed, the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall [p] consider it perfectly.

21 I have not [q] sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood [r] in my counsel, and had [s] caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God [t] at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any hide himself [u] in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I [x] fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have [y] dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 [z] How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the [a] deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think [b] to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbour, [c] as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet that hath a dream, [d] let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word [e] faithfully. What is the [f] chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 Is not my word like [g] as a fire? saith the LORD; and like [h] a hammer that [i] breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, I am [k] against the prophets, saith the LORD, that [l] steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, [m] He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their [n] lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall [o] not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, [p] saying, What is the [q] burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will [r] even forsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And as for this prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say [s] every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye [t] mention no more; for every man's word shall be [u] his burden: for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the [x] prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD, Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will [y] utterly forget

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Jeremiah, by promises and threatenings, exhorteth to repentance....8 He is apprehended and arraigned, &c.

Before CHRIST 610. cir. 609.

IN the [a] beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah king of Judah, came this word from the LORD, saying,

a ch. 25, 1.

2 Thus saith the LORD, Stand in the [b] court of the LORD's house, and speak unto [c] all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them: diminish not a word:

b ch. 19, 14. c Ezek. 3, 10. Mat. 28, 20. Acts 20, 27.

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may [d] repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

d Gen. 6, 6. chap. 18, 8. Jonah 3, 8, 9.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, If ye will [e] not hearken to me, to walk in my law which I have set before you, e Lev. 26, 15. Psal. 81, 13.

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both [f] rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

Before CHRIST cir. 606.

f ch. 7, 13. & 11, 7.

6 Then will I make [g] this house like Shiloh, and will make this city [h] a curse to all the nations of the earth.

g ch. 7, 12. h Isa. 65, 15.

7 So the [i] priests, and the prophets, and all the people, heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

i ch. 5, 31.

8 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests, and the prophets and [k] all the people, took him, saying, Thou shalt surely [l] die.

k Gen. 19, 4. Mat. 27, 20. l Mat. 26, 66. Acts 22, 21.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be [m] like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered [n] against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

m Ps. 132, 14. Mat. 26, 61. n Acts 4, 1 2. & 13, 45.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the [o] entry of the [p] new gate of the LORD's house.

o ch. 36, 10 p 2 Kings 15, 35.

11 Then spake the [q] priests and the prophets unto the princes, and to all the people, saying, This man is [r] worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

q Mat. 23, 29. Rev. 16, 13. r Deut. 21, 22. John 10, 2.

12 Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes, and to all the people, saying, The LORD [s] sent me to prophesy against this house, and against this city, all the words that ye have heard.

s Acts 4, 19 & 23, 9.

13 Therefore now [t] amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

t ch. 18, 3. Acts 13, 46.

14 As for me, behold, [u] I am in your hand; do with me [x] as seemeth good and meet unto you:

u ch. 38, 5. x 2 Sam. 15, 26.

15 But know ye for certain, that, if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring [y] innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you, to speak all these words in your ears.

y Judges 9, 24. Ezek. 7, 3, 4.

16 [z] Then said the [a] princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets, This man is not worthy to die; for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

c Micah 1, 1 d Micah 3, 12.

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not [e] fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD [f] repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure [g] great evil against our souls.

h Acts 5, 37. i Josh. 15, 60. Judg. 18, 12.

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and [k] fled, and went into Egypt:

k 1 Kings 19, 3.

Before CHRIST cir. 609.

22 And Jehoiakim the king [l] sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt:

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king, who [m] slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless, the hand [n] of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

CHAPTER XXVII.

The subduing of the neighbouring kings unto Nebuchadnezzar.

IN the beginning of the reign [a] of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me, Make thee [b] bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which [c] come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith the [d] LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 I have made the [e] earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power, and by my out-stretched arm, and have [f] given it unto whom it [g] seemed meet unto me.

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, [h] my servant; and the [i] beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 And all nations shall serve him, and his [k] son, and his [l] son's son, until the very [m] time of his land come; and then many nations and great kings shall [n] serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your [o] prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 For they prophesy [p] a lie unto you, to [q] remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under [r] the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to [s] Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 [t] Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy [u] a lie unto you.

15 For I have [x] not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my name, that I [y] might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests, and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the [z] vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be [a] laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make [b] intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the [c] pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive [d] Jeconiah, the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the † nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that [e] remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 They shall be [f] carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD: then will I bring them up, and [g] restore them to this place.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Hananiah prophesieth the return of the vessels and of Jeconiah.

AND it came to pass the same year, in [a] the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the [b] prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests, and of all the people, saying,

2 [c] Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Within two full years will I [d] bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the [e] captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will [f] break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah, in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, [g] Amen: the LORD do so; the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless, hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The [h] prophets that have been before me, and before thee of old, prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of [i] evil, and of pestilence.

15 Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah, The LORD hath [t] not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

CHAPTER XXIX.

Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon.

cir. 599.

NOW these are the words of the [a] letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away [b] captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon,

2 (After that [c] Jeconiah the king, and the [d] queen, and the [e] eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem,)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah [f] sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have [g] caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon,

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 [h] Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and [i] take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the [k] peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and [l] pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, [m] deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which [n] ye cause to be dreamed.

9 For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name; I have [o] not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 For thus saith the LORD, That after [p] seventy years be [q] accomplished at Babylon I will [r] visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know [s] the thoughts that I think towards you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you [t] an expected end.

12 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will [u] hearken unto you.

13 And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me [x] with all your heart.

14 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD; and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will [y] bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 Because [z] ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will send upon them the [a] sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like [b] vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them † to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be [c] a curse, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them:

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which [d] I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 Hear ye, therefore, the word of the LORD, [e] all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of [f] Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall [g] slay them before your eyes;

22 And of them shall be taken up [h] a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee [i] like Zedekiah, and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon [k] roasted in the fire;

23 Because they have committed [l] villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even [m] I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

24 Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the || Nehelamite, saying,

25 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters [n] in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to [o] Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is [p] mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest [q] put him in prison, and in the stocks:

27 Now, therefore, why hast thou not [r] reproved

Before CHRIST 598.

Jeremiah of Anathoth, which [s] maketh himself a prophet to you?

28 For therefore [t] he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29 And [u] Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and [x] I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in [y] a lie;

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell [z] among this people; neither shall [a] he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; because he hath [b] taught rebellion against the LORD.

CHAPTER XXX.

God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jews.

cir. 606.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lord GOD of Israel, saying, [a] Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, [b] the days come, saith the LORD, that I will [c] bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel, and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD, We have heard a voice of [d] trembling, of fear, and [e] not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth [f] travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas! for that day is [g] great, so that [h] none is like it: it is even the [i] time of Jacob's trouble; but [k] he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall [l] no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and [m] David their king, whom I will [n] raise up unto them.

10 Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will [o] save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be [p] in rest and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make [q] a full end of thee; but I will correct thee [r] in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy [s] bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is [t] none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast [u] no healing medicines.

14 All thy [x] lovers have forgotten thee: they seek thee not: for I have wounded thee with the wound of an [y] enemy, with the chastisement of [z] a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15 Why [a] criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the [b] multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that [c] devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I [d] give for a prey.

17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee [e] an Outcast, saying, [f] This is Zion, whom [g] no man seeketh after.

18 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, [h] I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and [i] have mercy on his dwelling-places; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And out of them shall proceed [k] thanksgiving, and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they [l] shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be [m] as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their † nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall [n] approach unto me: for who is this that [o] engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.

22 And ye shall be [p] my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the [q] whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind; it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The [r] fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The restoration of Israel....22 Christ is promised.

Before CHRIST cir. 606.

AT the same time, saith the LORD, will I be the God [a] of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword [b] found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him [c] to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared of old [d] unto me, saying, Yea, I have [e] loved thee with [f] an everlasting love; therefore [g] with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

4 Again I will [h] build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy [i] tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall [k] plant, and shall eat them as common things.

6 For there shall be [l] a day, that the [m] watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and [n] let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD, [o] Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the [p] coasts of the earth, and with them the [q] blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

9 They shall come with [r] weeping, and with [s] supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall [t] not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will [u] gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

11 For the LORD hath [x] redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was [y] stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the [z] height of Zion, and shall flow together to the [a] goodness of the LORD, for [b] wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock, and of the herd: and their souls shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the [c] virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their [d] sorrow.

14 And I will [e] satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

15 Thus saith the LORD, A voice was heard in [f] Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, [g] because they were not.

16 Thus saith the LORD, [h] Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be [i] rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall [k] come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is [l] hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy [m] children shall come again to their own border.

18 I have surely heard [n] Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast [o] chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely [p] after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was [q] instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the [r] reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my [s] dear son? is he a pleasant child? For since I spake against him, I do earnestly [t] remember him still; therefore my bowels are [u] troubled for him: I will surely [x] have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up [y] way-marks, make thee [z] high heaps: [a] set thy heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, [b] A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The LORD [c] bless thee, [d] O habitation of justice, and [e] mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall [f] dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the [g] weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I [h] awaked, and beheld; and my [i] sleep was sweet unto me.

27 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, with the [k] seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to [l] pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to [m] build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 In those days they shall say no more, [n] The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die [o] for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make [p] a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah;

32 Not according [q] to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt; (which my covenant [r] they brake, although I was a husband unto them, saith the LORD;)

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, [s] I will put my law in their [t] inward parts, and [u] write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all [x] know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will [y] forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 Thus saith the LORD, which [z] giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which [a] divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name:

36 If [b] those ordinances [c] depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD, If heaven above can be [d] measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off [e] all the seed of Israel, [f] for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the [g] city shall be built [h] to the LORD, from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And the measuring-line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields, unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse-gate toward the east, shall be [i] holy unto the LORD; it shall [k] not be plucked up, nor thrown down, any more for ever.

in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, [e]Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, [f]I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And [g]Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall [h]speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be [i]until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall [k]not prosper.

6 And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel, the son of Shallum, thine uncle, shall come unto thee, saying, [l]Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth; for the [m]right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel, mine uncle's son, came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in [n]Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. [o]Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel, mine uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and [p]weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and [q]sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according [r]to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto [s]Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, (both which is sealed,) and this evidence which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days:

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Houses, and fields, and vineyards, shall be [t]possessed again in this land.

16 Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, [u]I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah, Lord GOD! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is [x]nothing too hard for thee:

18 Thou shewest [y]loving-kindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: The [z]Great, The Mighty God, The LORD of hosts, is his name;

19 [a]Great in counsel, and mighty [b]in work: (for thine [c]eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men; [d]to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:)

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee [e]a name, as at this day;

21 And hast [f]brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt, with [g]signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, [h]a land flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they [i]obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law: they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do; therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them.

24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city [k]is given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken [l]is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for [m]the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, [n]the God of all flesh: is there [o]any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, [p]I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it.

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and [q]set fire on this city, and burn it, with the houses [r]upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel, and the children of Judah [s]have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath been to me as [t]a provocation of mine anger and of my fury, from the day that they built it, even unto this day, that I should remove it from before my face;

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel, and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, [u]they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, [x]rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they [y]set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they [z]built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech, which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof [a]ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, I will [b]gather them out of all countries whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 A gracious return promised....15 Christ the branch of righteousness promised.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the [a] second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the [b] maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to [c] establish it; The LORD is his name;

3 [d] Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee [e] great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are [f] thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword;

5 [g] They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom [h] I have slain in mine anger, and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, [i] I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will [k] reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah, and the captivity of [l] Israel, to return, and will [m] build them as at the first.

8 And I will [n] cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 And it shall be to me [o] a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall [p] fear and tremble for all the goodness, and for all the prosperity, that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD, Again there shall be heard in this place (which [q] ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast,)

For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, [t] as at the first, saith the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be [u] a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 [x] In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that [y] telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will [z] perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel, and to the house of Judah.

15 In those days, and at that time, will I cause the [a] Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall [b] execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be [c] called, [d] The LORD our Righteousness.

17 For thus saith the LORD, [e] David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me, [f] to offer burnt-offerings, and to kindle meat-offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD, If ye can [g] break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

21 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son [h] to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the [i] priests, my ministers.

22 As the [k] host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the [l] seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

23 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what [m] this people have spoken, saying, [n] The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? Thus they have despised my people, that they should be [o] no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD, If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not [p] appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be [q] rulers over the [r] seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and [s] have mercy on them.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

Jeremiah causeth Baruch to write his prophecy.

AND it came to pass, in the [a] fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein [b] all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even || unto this day.

3 [c] It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his [d] evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch [e] wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am [f] shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD, in the ears of the people, in the LORD's house upon the [g] fasting-day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

7 It may be they will [h] present their supplication before the LORD, and will [i] return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

Before CHRIST cir. 606.

9 And it came to pass, in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed [k] a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the [l] chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan [m] the scribe, in the [n] higher court, at the entry of the [o] new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD,

12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the [p] scribe's chamber, and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah [q] declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thy hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah [r] took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it [s] in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were [t] afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, [u] Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I [x] wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go hide thee, [y] thou and Jeremiah, and let no man know where ye be.

20 And they went in to the king into the court, but they [z] laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll; and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber: and Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the [a] winter-house, in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he [b] cut it with the pen-knife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor [c] rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless, Elnathan, and Delaiah, and Gemariah, had [d] made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

28 [h] Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burnt.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast burnt this roll, saying, [i] Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall [k] certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah, He shall have [l] none to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will [m] punish him, and his seed, and his servants, from their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: but they hearkened not.

32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein, from the [n] mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burnt in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the Chaldeans' certain return and victory....11 He is smitten and put in prison.

AND king Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, reigned instead of [a] Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

2 But neither he, [b] nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, [c] Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then [d] Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they [e] departed from Jerusalem.

6 Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that [f] sent you unto me to inquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall [g] return to Egypt into their own land.

8 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and [h] take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD, [i] Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, [k] yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army,

12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to [l] separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the [m] gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou [n] fallest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, It is † false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes [o] were wroth with Jeremiah, and [p] smote him, and put him in prison in the house of [q] Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

16 When Jeremiah was entered into the [r] dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and [s] took him out; and the king asked him secretly in the house, and said, Is there [t] any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be [u] delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, [x] What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 [y] Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, [z] lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should [a] commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily [b] a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 Jeremiah, by a false suggestion, is put into the dungeon of Malchiah....7 Ebed-melech getteth him some enlargement.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard [a] the words that Jeremiah had spoken [b] unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, [c] He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have [d] his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be [e] given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the [f] princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be [g] put to death; for thus he [h] weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man [i] seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that [k] can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the

Before CHRIST cir. 589.

[l] dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 Now when Ebed-melech the [m] Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs, which was [n] in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon, (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin,)

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and [o] spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, [p] these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is; for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king [q] commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and [r] rotten rags [s] under thine arm-holes, under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the [t] prison.

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and [u] took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the [x] third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee [y] a thing; [z] hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely [a] put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou [b] not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, If thou wilt assuredly [c] go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burnt with fire; and thou shalt live, and thy house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt [d] not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, [e] I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I [f] beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, [g] this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the [h] women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes: and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy [i] children to the Chaldeans; and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burnt with fire.

24 Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if [k] the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee;

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I [l] presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to [m] Jonathan's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them [n] according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him: for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah [o] abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 Jerusalem is taken....7 Zedekiah is made blind, and sent to Babylon....9 The people carried away captive.

IN the [a] ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. 590.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the [b] fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the [c] city was broken up. 588.

3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in [d] the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then [e] they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, [f] by the gate betwixt the two walls; and he went out the way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon to [g] Riblah, in the land of Hamath, where he [h] gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the [i] nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover, he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him [k] with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

8 And the Chaldeans burnt the king's house, and the [l] houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that [m] fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

10 But Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the guard, [n] left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge [o] concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying,

12 Take him, and look well to him, and [p] do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

CHAPTER XL.

1 Jeremiah, being set free by Nebuzar-adan, goeth to Gedaliah: 7 The Jews repair to him....15 Ishmael's conspiracy.

a ch. 41, 7.

THE word [a] which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him, being bound [b] in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.

b chap. 39, 14.

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath [c] pronounced this evil upon this place.

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon [e] thy hand. CHAPTER XLIII.

Jeremiah prophesieth the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the [a] proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest [b] falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But [c] Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that [d] they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, [e] obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to [f] dwell in the land of Judah;

5 But [g] Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the [h] king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and [i] Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD. Thus came they even to [k] Tahpanhes.

8 [l] Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thy hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which is [m] at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of [n] Babylon my servant, and will [o] set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, he shall [p] smite the land of Egypt, and deliver [q] such as are for death, to death; and such as are for captivity, to captivity; and such as are for the sword, to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the [r] houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives; and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence [s] in peace.

13 He shall break also the images of Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

CHAPTER XLIV.

Jeremiah prophesieth their destruction who commit idolatry.

587.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at [a] Migdol, and at [b] Tahpanhes, and at [c] Noph, and in the country of [d] Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are [e] a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein;

a Ex. 14, 2.

c Isai. 19, 13.

d Gen. 10, 14.

Before CHRIST 587.

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed, [f] to provoke me to anger, in that they went to [g] burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, [h] rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore [i] my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, [k] as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, [l] Wherefore commit ye this great evil [m] against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the [n] works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be [o] a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the [p] kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not † humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, [q] nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you, and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will [r] set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have [s] set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be [t] an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will † punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, † shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape.

15 ¶ Then [u] all the men [x] which knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, [y] we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing [z] goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the [a] queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and [b] our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of [c] victuals, and were [d] well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, we have [e] wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And [f] when we burnt incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink-offerings unto her [g] without our men?

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people, which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burnt in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD [h] remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no [i] longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; [k] therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because ye have burnt incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in [l] the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Ye and your wives have both [m] spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely [n] perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have [o] sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that [p] my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah, in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD liveth.

27 Behold, I will [q] watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet [r] a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall [s] know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

29 And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil:

30 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, [t] I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of [u] his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life, as I gave [x] Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon his enemy, and that sought his life.

CHAPTER XLV.

Baruch being dismayed, Jeremiah comforteth him.

Before CHRIST cir. 607.

THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto [a] Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the [b] fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, [c] unto thee, O Baruch;

3 Thou didst say, [d] Wo is me now! for the LORD hath [e] added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, that which I have built will I [f] break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? [g] seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil [h] upon all flesh, saith the LORD; but thy life will I give unto thee [i] for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAPTER XLVI.

Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at Euphrates.

THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the [a] Gentiles;

2 Against Egypt, against the army of [b] Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar [c] king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 [d] Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and [e] get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are [f] beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for [g] fear was round about, saith the LORD.

6 Let not the [h] swift flee away, nor the [i] mighty man escape; they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 [k] Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and [l] he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy [m] the city, and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the [n] Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is [o] the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the [p] sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood; for the Lord GOD of hosts hath [q] a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up into Gilead and [r] take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many [s] medicines; for thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the [t] mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, [u] how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and [x] smite the land of Egypt.

Before CHRIST cir. 607.

14 [y] Declare ye in Egypt, and publish [z] in Migdol, and publish in Noph, and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall [a] devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men [b] swept away? they stood not, because [c] the LORD did drive them.

16 He made many to fall, [d] yea, one fell upon another; and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the [e] oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but [f] a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, [g] whose name is The LORD of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, [h] so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter [i] dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go [k] into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like [l] a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of [m] the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are [n] turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the [o] day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 The [p] voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her [q] forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are [r] innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith, Behold, I will punish the multitude of [s] No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their [t] gods, and their [u] kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him:

26 And I will [x] deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be [y] inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

27 But [z] fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall [a] return, and [b] be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

28 Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD; for I am with thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee; but I will [c] not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure: yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

CHAPTER XLVII.

The destruction of the Philistines.

cir. 600.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, [a] before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

2 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, [b] waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; [c] the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his [d] strong horses, at the [e] rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the [f] fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands;

4 Because of the day [g] that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every [h] helper that remaineth; for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of [i] Caphtor.

5 [k] Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou [l] cut thyself?

6 [m] O thou sword of the LORD, [n] how long will it be ere thou be quiet? Put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7 How can it be [o] quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea-shore? there hath he [p] appointed it.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

The judgment of Moab for their contempt of God.

AGAINST Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Wo unto [a] Nebo! for it is spoiled; Kiriathaim is confounded and taken; [b] Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

2 There shall be [c] no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have [d] devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation: also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee.

3 A voice of crying shall be [e] from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is [f] destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the going up of [g] Luhith [h] continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 [i] Flee, save your lives, and be like the [k] heath in the wilderness.

7 For because thou hast [l] trusted in thy works, and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken; and [m] Chemosh shall go forth into captivity, with his [n] priests and his princes together.

8 And the [o] spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 Give [p] wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and [q] cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 Moab hath been [r] at ease from his youth, and he hath [s] settled on his lees, and hath [t] not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him [u] to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and [x] break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall [y] be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of [z] Beth-el their confidence.

14 How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his [a] chosen young men are gone down to the [b] slaughter, saith the King, [c] whose name is The LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction [d] hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, [e] bemoan him; and all ye that know his [f] name, say, How is the [g] strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

18 Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, [b] come down from thy glory, and sit [i] in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; [k] ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, [l] What is done?

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: [m] howl and cry; [n] tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled,

21 And [o] judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,

23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon,

24 And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

25 The [p] horn of Moab is cut off, and his [q] arm is broken, saith the LORD.

26 Make ye him [r] drunken; for he magnified himself [s] against the LORD: Moab also shall [t] wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For was not Israel a [u] derision unto thee? was he [x] found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou [y] skippedst for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the [z] rock, and be like the [a] dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 [b] We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud,) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD: but it shall [c] not be so; his [d] lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore will [e] I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; my heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: [f] the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer-fruits, and upon thy vintage.

33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-presses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be [g] no shouting.

34 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, [h] as a heifer of three years old; for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

35 Moreover, I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the [i] high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore my heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and my heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because the riches that he hath gotten [k] are perished.

37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard [l] clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like [m] a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howl, saying, [n] How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, he shall fly [o] as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab.

41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be [p] as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shall be [q] destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.

43 [r] Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.

44 He that fleeth [s] from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45 They that fled stood [t] under the shadow of Heshbon, because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the [u] crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

46 Wo be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 Yet will [x] I bring again the captivity of Moab in the [y] latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 The judgment of the Ammonites....6 Their restoration.

CONCERNING the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD, [a] Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king [b] inherit Gad, and his people [c] dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burnt with fire: then shall Israel [d] be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 [e] Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, [f] and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore [g] gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that [h] trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be [i] driven out every man right forth; and [k] none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And [l] afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

7 ¶ Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts, [m] Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom [n] vanished?

8 Flee ye, turn back, [o] dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring [p] the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If [q] grape-gatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning-grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough.

10 But I have made Esau [r] bare, I have uncovered his [s] secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and [t] he is not.

11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will [u] preserve them alive; and let thy widows [x] trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, they whose judgment [y] was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go [z] unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become [a] a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have [b] heard a rumour from the LORD, and an [c] ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I [d] will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy [e] terribleness hath deceived thee, and the [f] pride of thy heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldest make thy [g] nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation; every one that goeth by it shall [h] be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 As in the overthrow of [i] Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 Behold, [k] he shall come up like a lion from the [l] swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will [m] suddenly make him run away from her; and who is [n] a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will [o] stand before me?

20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the [p] least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The earth is [q] moved at the noise of their fall; at the cry, the noise thereof was heard in the [r] Red Sea.

22 Behold, he shall come up [s] and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 ¶ Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil tidings; they are faint-hearted: there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be [t] quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, [u] as a woman in travail.

25 How is the [x] city of praise [y] not left, the city of my joy!

26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the [z] men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will [a] kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of [b] Benhadad.

28 ¶ Concerning [c] Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of [d] Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the [e] east.

29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their [f] curtains, and all their vessels, and their [g] camels; and they shall cry unto them, [h] Fear is on every side.

30 ¶ Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

Before CHRIST cir. 600.

31 Arise, get you up unto [i] the wealthy nation, that dwelleth [k] without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which [l] dwell alone.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the [m] multitude of their cattle a spoil; and I will scatter into [n] all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity [o] from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

33 And Hazor shall be a [p] dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

34 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet [q] against Elam, [r] in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying,

35 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will break the [s] bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

36 And upon Elam will I bring the [t] four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come.

37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life; and I will bring evil upon them, even my [u] fierce anger, saith the LORD; and I will send [x] the sword after them, till I have consumed them:

38 And I will set [y] my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.

39 But it shall come to pass in the [z] latter days, that I will [a] bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER L.

The judgment of Babylon, and the redemption of Israel.

THE word that the LORD spake against [a] Babylon, and against the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 [b] Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; [c] her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 For out of the north there cometh up [d] a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, [e] both man and beast.

4 [f] In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the [g] children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and [h] weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall [i] ask the way to Zion, with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD [k] in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been [l] lost sheep; their [m] shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their [n] resting-place.

7 All that found them have [o] devoured them; and their adversaries said, We [p] offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice; even the LORD, [q] the hope of their fathers.

8 [r] Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

Before CHRIST 595.

9 For, lo, I will raise, and cause to come up against Babylon, an assembly of [s] great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return [t] in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be [u] satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 Because ye were [x] glad, because ye rejoiced, [y] O ye destroyers of my [z] heritage, because ye are [a] grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls;

12 Your [b] mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the [c] hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the [d] wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and [e] hiss at all her plagues.

14 Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow shoot at her, [f] spare no arrows; for she hath [g] sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about; she hath given her hand: [h] her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the [i] vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; [k] as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the [l] sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the [m] sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 Israel is [n] a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the [o] king of Assyria hath devoured him, and last this [p] Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will [q] punish the king of Babylon and his land, [r] as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And I will [s] bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall [t] not be found: for I will [u] pardon them whom I reserve.

21 Go up against the land of ‖ Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and [x] do according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great [y] destruction.

23 How is the [z] hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! [a] how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

24 [b] I have laid a [c] snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath [d] brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her from the [e] utmost border, [f] open her store-houses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her [g] bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: wo unto them! for their [h] day is come, the time of their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of [i] Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his [k] temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about: let none thereof escape: [l] recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud [m] against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, † O thou most proud, saith the Lord GOD of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and [n] none shall raise him up: and I will [o] kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed [p] together; and all that took them captives held them fast; they [q] refused to let them go.

34 Their Redeemer [r] is strong; The LORD of hosts is his name; he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give [s] rest to the land, and [t] disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men.

36 A sword is upon the † liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become [u] as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 [x] A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are [y] mad upon their idols.

39 Therefore [z] the wild beasts of the desert, with the wild beasts of the islands, shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As God overthrew [a] Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many [b] kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance; they are [c] cruel, and will not shew mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath [d] heard the report of them, and his [e] hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 Behold, [f] he shall come up like a lion from the [g] swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong; but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me

CHAPTER LI.

The judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel.

THUS saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up [a] against me, [b] a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon [c] fanners, that shall fan her, and shall [d] empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and [e] spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been ‖ forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was [f] filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 [g] Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man [h] his soul; be not cut off in her iniquity: for this is the [i] time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompense.

7 Babylon hath been [k] a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that [l] made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

8 Babylon is [m] suddenly fallen and destroyed: [n] howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 [o] We would have healed Babylon, but she [p] is not healed: forsake her, and [q] let us go every one into his own country; for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The LORD hath [r] brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us [s] declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11 Make bright the arrows, gather the shields: the LORD hath [t] raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the [u] vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the [x] standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong; set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest upon many [y] waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the [z] measure of thy covetousness.

14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men as with [a] caterpillars; and they shall [b] lift up a shout against thee.

15 He hath [c] made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the [d] vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 Every man is [e] brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their [f] visitation they shall perish.

19 [g] The Portion of Jacob is [h] not like them; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance; The LORD of hosts is his name.

20 Thou art my [i] battle-axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations; and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the [k] chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces [l] old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;

23 I will also break in pieces with thee [m] the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 And I will render unto Babylon, and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea, all their evil that they have done [n] in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying [o] mountain, saith the LORD, which [p] destroyest all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the [q] rocks, and will make thee [r] a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee a [s] stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, [t] prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.

28 Prepare against her the nations, with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the [u] land shall tremble and sorrow: for [x] every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their [y] holds: their [z] might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwelling-places; her [a] bars are broken.

31 [b] One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end,

32 And that the passages are stopped, and the [c] reeds they have burnt with fire, and the [d] men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, The daughter of Babylon is like [e] a threshing-floor, it is time [f] to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her [g] harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath [h] devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like [i] a dragon, he hath filled his [k] belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 The [l] violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, [m] My blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, [n] I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make [o] her springs dry.

37 And Babylon shall become [p] heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment, and a hissing, without an inhabitant.

38 They shall [q] roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them [r] drunken, that they may [s] rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down [t] like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the [u] praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 The [x] sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man [y] dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon; and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath [z] swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 My people, [a] go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the [b] fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land: a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in [c] another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, [d] ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then the [e] heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

49 As Babylon [f] hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth.

50 Ye that have [g] escaped the sword, go away, [h] stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

51 We are [i] confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces; for [k] strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images; and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 Though Babylon should [l] mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

54 A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great [m] destruction from the land of the Chaldeans:

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the [n] great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

56 Because the [o] spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken; every one of their bows is broken: for the Lord GOD [p] of recompenses shall surely [q] requite.

57 And I will make [r] drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is The LORD of hosts.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The [s] broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burnt with fire; and the people shall labour [t] in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

59 ¶ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with [u] Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon, in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was [x] a quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah wrote [y] in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words;

62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, [z] neither man nor beast, but that it shall be [a] desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon [b] sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her, and they shall be [c] weary. [d] Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

CHAPTER LII.

1 Zedekiah rebelleth....4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken.

ZEDEKIAH was [a] one and twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil [b] in the eyes of the LORD, [c] according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For [d] through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his [e] presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass, in the [f] ninth year of his reign, in the [g] tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the [h] fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was [i] no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then [k] the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of [l] the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about;) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and [m] overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah, in the land of Hamath; where he † gave judgment upon him.

10 And the king of Babylon [n] slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

Before CHRIST 588.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him [o] in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison [p] till the day of his death.

12 Now in the [q] fifth month, in the [r] tenth day of the month, (which was the [s] nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon,) came Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,

13 And [t] burned the [u] house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire.

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, [x] brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the [y] poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land, for vine-dressers and for husbandmen.

17 Also the [z] pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 The [a] caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass, wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basons, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the [b] cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The [c] two pillars, one sea, and twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was [d] without weight.

21 And concerning the [e] pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and [f] a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapiter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapiter was [g] five cubits, with net-work and pomegranates upon the chapiters round about, all of brass: the second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were a hundred round about.

24 And the [h] captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and [i] Zephaniah the [k] second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

25 He took also out of the city a eunuch which had the charge of the men of war; and [l] seven men of them that † were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

28 This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: In the [m] seventh year, three thousand Jews and three and twenty:

29 In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive [n] from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two † persons:

30 In the [o] three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 ¶ And it came to pass, in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that [p] Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, [q] lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison,

32 And spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon,

33 And [r] changed his prison-garments; and he did continually [s] eat bread before him all the days of his life.

34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

¶ The LAMENTATIONS of JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 The miserable estate of Jerusalem by her sin....12 Her complaint, 18 and confession of God's righteous judgments.

HOW doth the [a] city sit solitary that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and [b] princess among the provinces, how is she become [c] tributary!

2 She [d] weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among [e] all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

3 Judah [f] is gone into captivity, because of affliction, and because of great servitude; she [g] dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the [h] straits.

4 [i] The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: [k] her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the [l] chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the [m] multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion [n] all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find [o] no pasture; and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction, and of her miseries, all her [p] pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did [q] mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath [r] grievously sinned; therefore she is removed : all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her [s] nakedness ; yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her [t] filthiness is in her skirts ; she [u] remembereth not her last end ; therefore she came down wonderfully : she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction, for the enemy hath [x] magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things : for she hath seen that the [y] heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should [z] not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek [a] bread ; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul : see, O LORD, and consider ; for I am become [b] vile.

12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that [c] pass by ? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From [d] above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them : he hath spread [e] a net for my feet ; he hath turned me back ; he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The [f] yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand ; they are [g] wreathed, and come up upon my neck ; he hath made my strength to fall ; the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my [h] mighty men in the midst of me ; he hath called an assembly against me to [i] crush my young men : the LORD hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as [k] in a wine-press.

16 For these things I weep : [l] mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the [m] comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me ; my children are desolate, because the enemy [n] prevailed.

17 Zion [o] spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her : the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him : Jerusalem is [p] as a menstruous woman among them.

18 The LORD [p] is righteous ; for I have rebelled against his [r] commandment : hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow ; my [s] virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they [t] deceived me ; my [u] priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD, for I am in distress ; my bowels are [x] troubled : my heart is turned within me ; for I have grievously rebelled : [y] abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh ; there is none to comfort me : all mine enemies have heard of my trouble ; they [z] are glad that thou hast done it : thou wilt bring [a] the day that thou hast called, and they shall be [b] like unto me.

22 [c] Let all their wickedness come before thee ; and do unto them as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions : for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

CHAPTER II.

Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem.

HOW hath the LORD [a] covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the [b] beauty of Israel, and remembered not his [c] footstool in the day of his anger !

2 The LORD hath [d] swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied : he hath thrown down in his wrath the [e] strong holds of the daughter of Judah ; he hath brought them down to the ground : he hath [f] polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his [g] fierce anger all the horn of Israel : he hath [h] drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like [i] an enemy : [k] he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion : [l] he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The LORD was [m] as an enemy ; he hath [n] swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces ; he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently [o] taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden ; he hath destroyed his places of the assembly : the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised, in the indignation of his anger, the [p] king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his [q] altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces ; they have made [r] a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the [s] wall of the daughter of Zion ; he hath stretched out [t] a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying : therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament ; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground ; he hath destroyed and broken her bars ; [u] her king and her princes are among the Gentiles : [x] the law is no more ; her [y] prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the [z] ground, and keep silence : they have cast up dust upon their heads ; they have girded themselves with sackcloth ; the virgins of Jerusalem [a] hang down their heads to the ground.

11 [b] Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people ; because the children and the sucklings [c] swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is [d] corn and wine ? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee ? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem ? what shall I [e] equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion ? for thy breach is great like [f] the sea ; [g] who can heal thee ?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee ; and they have [h] not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity ; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by [i] clap their hands at thee ; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The [k] perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth ?

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee : they hiss and gnash the teeth : they say,

Before CHRIST cir. 583.

We have [l] swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have [m] seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had [n] devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy [o] to rejoice over thee; he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart [p] cried unto the LORD, [q] O wall of the daughter of Zion, let [r] tears run down like a river day and night; give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the [s] night; in the beginning of the watches pour out thy heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy [t] young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

20 Behold, O LORD, and [u] consider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women [x] eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD?

21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast [y] killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called, [z] as in a solemn day, [a] my terrors round about; so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine [b] enemy consumed.

CHAPTER III.

1 The prophet bewaileth his own calamities: 37 His humble confession of sins.

I AM the man that hath [a] seen affliction by the [b] rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into [c] darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath [d] broken my bones.

5 He hath [e] builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.

6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be [f] dead of old.

7 He hath [g] hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, [h] he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath [i] enclosed my ways with hewn stone; he hath made my paths [k] crooked.

10 He was unto me as a [l] bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and [m] pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as [n] a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the [o] arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was [p] a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me [q] drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also [r] broken my teeth with gravelstones, he hath [s] covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from [t] peace: I forgat prosperity.

18 And [u] I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the [x] wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is [y] humbled in me.

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have [z] I hope.

22 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are [a] not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new [b] every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is [c] my portion, saith my soul: therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that [d] wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope and [e] quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that [f] he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone, and [g] keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

29 [h] He putteth his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.

30 He giveth his [i] cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the LORD will [k] not cast off for ever:

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have [l] compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict [m] willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the [n] prisoners of the earth,

35 [o] To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High,

36 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD [p] approveth not.

37 Who is he that [q] saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the Most High proceedeth not [r] evil and good?

39 Wherefore doth a living man [s] complain, a man for the [t] punishment of his sins?

40 Let us [u] search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands [x] unto God in the heavens.

42 We have transgressed, and have [y] rebelled: thou hast not pardoned.

43 Thou hast [z] covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should [a] not pass through.

45 Thou hast made us as the [b] offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.

46 All our enemies have [c] opened their mouths against us.

47 Fear and [d] a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.

48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the [e] destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 [f] Mine eye trickleth down and ceaseth not, without any intermission,

50 Till the LORD [g] look down, and behold from heaven.

51 Mine eye affecteth my heart, because of all the [h] daughters of my city.

52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, [i] without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast [k] a stone upon me.
54 [l] Waters flowed over my head; then I said, I am cut off.
55 I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the [m] low dungeon.
56 Thou [n] hast heard my voice; hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.
57 Thou [o] drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not.
58 O LORD, thou hast [p] pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast redeemed my life.
59 O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong; judge thou my [q] cause.
60 Thou hast seen all their [r] vengeance, and all their imaginations against me.
61 Thou hast heard their [s] reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me;
62 The [t] lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.
63 Behold their [u] sitting down, and their rising up; I am their music.
64 [x] Render unto them a recompense, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.
65 Give them sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.
66 Persecute and destroy them in anger from [y] under the heavens of the LORD.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Zion's pitiful estate bewailed....13 She confesseth her sins.

HOW is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are [a] poured out in the top of every street.
2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed [b] as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!
3 Even the sea-monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their [c] young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.
4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children [d] ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.
5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet embrace [e] dunghills.
6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater [f] than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.
7 Her [g] Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:
8 Their visage is [h] blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.
9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these [i] pine away, [k] stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.
10 The hands of the [l] pitiful women have [m] sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath [n] poured out his fierce anger, and hath [o] kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.
12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have [p] entered into the gates of Jerusalem.
13 For the [q] sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the [r] blood of the just in the midst of her,
14 They have wandered [s] as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.
15 They cried unto them, [t] Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, [u] they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.
16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they [x] respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.
17 As for us, our eyes as yet [y] failed for our vain help: in our [z] watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.
18 They hunt our steps, that [a] we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for [b] our end is come.
19 Our persecutors are [c] swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.
20 The [d] breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their [e] pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.
21 ¶ [f] Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz: the [g] cup also shall pass through unto thee; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.
22 The punishment of thine iniquity is [h] accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no [i] more carry thee away into captivity: he will [k] visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins.

CHAPTER V.

A pitiful complaint of Zion, in prayer unto God.

REMEMBER, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our [a] reproach.
2 Our inheritance is turned [b] to strangers, our houses to aliens.
3 We are [c] orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.
4 We have drunken our water for money; our wood [d] is sold unto us.
5 [e] Our necks are under persecution: we [f] labour, and have no rest.
6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be [g] satisfied with bread.
7 [h] Our fathers have sinned, [i] and are not; and we have [k] borne their iniquities.
8 [l] Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.
9 We gat our bread with the [m] peril of our lives, because of the sword of the wilderness.
10 [n] Our skin was black like an oven, because of the terrible famine.
11 They [o] ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.
12 [p] Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of elders were not honoured.
13 They took the young men [q] to grind, and the children fell under the wood.
14 The elders have ceased from the [r] gate, the young men from their music.
15 The [s] joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.
16 The [t] crown is fallen from our head: [u] wo unto us that we have sinned!

Before CHRIST cir. 538.

17 For this our heart is faint; for these things our [x] eyes are dim.

18 Because of the [y] mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the [z] foxes walk upon it.

19 Thou, O LORD, remainest for ever; thy [a] throne from generation to generation.

20 Wherefore dost thou forget us [b] for ever, and forsake us so long time?

21 [c] Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned; [d] renew our days as of old.

22 But thou hast utterly rejected us; thou art [e] very wroth against us.

¶ The Book of the Prophet EZEKIEL.

CHAPTER I.

1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Chebar; 4 his vision.

cir. 595. NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chebar, that the [a] heavens were opened, and I saw [b] visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, (which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity,)

3 The word of the LORD [c] came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the [d] Chaldeans, by the river Chebar; and the [e] hand of the LORD was there upon him.

4 And I [f] looked, and, behold, [g] a whirlwind came out of [h] the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a [i] brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof, as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire:

5 Also out of the [k] midst thereof came the likeness of [l] four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four [m] wings.

7 And their feet were [n] straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a [o] calf's foot; and they sparkled like the colour of [p] burnished brass.

8 And they had the [q] hands of a man [r] under their wings, on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings were [s] joined one to another; they [t] turned not when they went; they went every one [u] straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of [x] a man, and the face of [y] a lion on the right side; and they four had the face of an [z] ox on the left side; they four also had the face of [a] an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies.

12 And they went every one straight forward: whither the [b] spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like [c] burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: [d] it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures [e] ran and [f] returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now, as I beheld the living creatures, behold, [g] one wheel upon the [h] earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 The appearance [i] of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl; and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides; and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so [k] high, that they were dreadful; and their rings were [l] full of eyes round about them four.

19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went [m] by them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the [n] wheels were lifted up.

20 Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature [o] was in the wheels.

21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for [p] the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likeness of the [q] firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of [r] the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two which [s] covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of [t] great waters, as the voice of [u] the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of a host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was [x] a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they [y] stood, and had let down their wings.

26 And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a [z] throne, as the appearance of a sapphire-stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above [a] upon it.

27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of [b] fire round about within it; from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had [c] brightness round about.

28 As the appearance of the [d] bow that is in the cloud in the day of [e] rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, [f] I fell upon my face, and I [g] heard a voice of one that spake.

1 Ezekiel's commission; 6 his instruction; 9 his prophecy.

AND he said unto me, [a] Son of man, [b] stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And the spirit [c] entered into me [d] when he spake unto me, and [e] set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, [f] I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious † nation that hath rebelled against me: they and [g] their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

Before CHRIST cir. 595.

I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD.

5 And they, [i] whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet [k] shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 And thou, son of man, [l] be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though [m] briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak [n] my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are [o] most rebellious.

8 But thou son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, [p] and eat that I give thee.

9 And when I looked, behold, a hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein;

10 And [q] he spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there was written therein [r] lamentations, and mourning, and wo.

CHAPTER III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll....4 God encourageth him.

MOREOVER, he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; [a] eat this [b] roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I [c] opened my mouth, and he [d] caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause [e] thy belly to eat, and [f] fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I [g] eat it; and it was in my mouth [h] as honey for sweetness.

4 And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of [i] a strange speech, and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel:

6 Not to many people of a strange speech, and of a hard language, whose words thou canst not understand: surely, had I sent thee to them, [k] they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken [l] unto me: for all the house of Israel are [m] impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy [n] face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant, [o] harder than flint, have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, [p] all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in [q] thy heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of [r] thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, [s] whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the [t] spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the [u] glory of the LORD from [x] his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a [y] great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went [z] in bitterness, [a] in the heat of my spirit; but the [b] hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Telabib, that dwelt by [c] the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there [d] astonished among them [e] seven days.

16 And it came to pass, [f] at the end of seven days, that [g] the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, [h] I have made thee [i] a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word [k] at my mouth, and give them [l] warning [m] from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, [n] to save his life; the same wicked man shall [o] die in his iniquity; but his [p] blood will I require at thy hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered [q] thy soul.

20 Again, When [r] a righteous man doth turn from his [s] righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay [t] a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at [u] thy hand.

21 Nevertheless, if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous [x] sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely [y] live, because he is warned: also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 ¶ And the [z] hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will [a] there talk with thee.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain; and, behold, the [b] glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I [c] fell on my face.

24 Then the [d] spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thy house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, [e] they shall put bands upon thee, and shall [f] bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt [g] be dumb, and shalt not be to them [h] a reprover; for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, I will [i] open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, He that [k] heareth, let him hear; and he that [l] forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

CHAPTER IV.

By the provision of the siege is shewed the hardness of the famine.

THOU also, son of man, take thee [a] a tile, and lay it before thee, and [b] pourtray upon it the city, even [c] Jerusalem:

2 And [d] lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering-rams against it round about.

3 Moreover, take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city; [e] and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be [f] a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy [g] left side, and [h] lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

Before CHRIST 595.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, || three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

|| From Rehoboam to the destruction of Jerusalem were 390 years, 2 Peter 3, 8.

7 And the slain shall [i] fall in the midst of you; and ye shall [k] know that I am the LORD.

8 Yet will I leave [l] a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations, whither they shall be carried captives, because I am [m] broken with their [n] whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their [o] eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall [p] loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have [q] not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 Thus saith the Lord GOD, [r] Smite with thy hand, and [s] stamp with thy foot, and say, [t] Alas, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be [u] among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every [x] green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

14 So will I stretch out my hand [y] upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward [z] Diblath, in all their habitations; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The final desolation of Israel: 23 Their miserable captivity.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD unto the [a] land of Israel, [b] An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will [c] recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And [d] mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD, An evil, [e] an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: it [f] watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 [g] The morning is come upon thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the [h] day of trouble is near, and not the [i] sounding again of the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly [k] pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee; and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways, and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come; the morning is gone forth; the [l] rod hath blossomed; [m] pride hath budded.

11 [n] Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs; neither shall there [o] be wailing for them.

12 The [p] time is come, the day draweth near: let not the [q] buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath [r] is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any [s] strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even [t] to make all ready; but [u] none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 The [x] sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

16 But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like [y] doves of the valleys, all of them [z] mourning, every one for his iniquity.

17 [a] All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.

18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and [b] horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and [c] baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall [d] not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it is the [e] stumbling-block of their iniquity.

20 As for the [f] beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations, and of their [g] detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the [h] wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall [i] pollute it.

22 My face will [k] I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place; for the [l] robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 Make [m] a chain; for the land is full of [n] bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease, and their [o] holy places shall be defiled.

25 Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

26 [p] Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet: but the law [q] shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

27 The [r] king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and [s] according to their deserts will I judge them; and they [t] shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Ezekiel's vision....18 God's wrath for idolatry.

Before CHRIST 594

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as [a] I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat [b] before me, that the [c] hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me.

2 Then I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of [d] fire: from the appearance of his loins, even downward, fire; and from his loins, even upward, as the appearance of [e] brightness, as the colour of amber.

3 And he put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head, and the [f] spirit lifted me up [g] between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north, where was the seat of the [h] image of jealousy, which [i] provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the [k] glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I [l] saw in the plain.

5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, [m] lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold, northward at the gate of the altar, this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that [n] I should go far off from my sanctuary? But turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 And he brought me to the [o] door of the court; and when I looked, behold, [p] a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, [q] dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold, a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and, behold, every form of creeping things, and [r] abominable beasts, and all the †idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son [s] of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of [t] incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the [u] dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD [x] seeth us not; the LORD hath [y] forsaken the earth.

13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt [z] see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD'S house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat [a] women weeping for [b] Tammuz.

15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD'S house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, [c] between the porch and the altar, were about [d] five and twenty men, with their [e] backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the [f] sun toward the east.

17 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit [g] here? for they have [h] filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch [i] to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal [k] in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they [l] cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

CHAPTER IX.

A vision, whereby is shewed the preservation of some, and the destruction of the rest.

HE cried also [a] in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that [b] have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six [c] men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man [d] a slaughter-weapon in his hand; and [e] one man [f] among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's [g] ink-horn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brazen altar.

3 And the [h] glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the [i] threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's ink-horn by his side;

4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set [k] a mark upon the foreheads of the men that [l] sigh, and that cry, for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 And to the others he said in my hearing, Go ye [m] after him through the city, and smite; let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women; but [n] come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and [o] begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at [p] the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, [q] Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain; go ye forth. And they went forth and slew in the city.

8 And it came to pass while they were slaying them, and I was left, that [r] I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, [s] Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all the [t] residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is [u] exceeding great, and the land is full of [x] blood, and the city full of perverseness; for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD [y] seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; but I will [z] recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the ink-horn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have [a] done as thou hast commanded me.

CHAPTER X.

The vision of the coals of fire, and of the cherubims.

THEN I [a] looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire-stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a [b] throne.

2 And he spake unto [c] the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thy hand [d] with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and [e] scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims [f] stood on the [g] right side of g 1 Pet. 1, 12.

the house, when the man went in; and the cloud [h] filled the inner court.

4 Then the [i] glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.

5 And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the [k] outer court, as the [l] voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when [m] he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and [n] stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and [o] put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen; who took it, and went out.

8 And there appeared in the cherubims the [p] form of a man's [q] hand under their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold, the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the [r] wheels was as the colour of a beryl-stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 When they [s] went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the [t] head looked they [u] followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were [x] full of eyes round about, even the wheels, that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, [y] O wheel!

14 And [z] every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a [a] cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the ving creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them; and when the cherubims lifted up their wings, to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the [b] living creature was in them.

18 Then the [c] glory of the LORD [d] departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims.

19 And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them; and every one stood at the door of the [e] east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel, by the river of [f] Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

21 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: [g] they went every one straight forward.

CHAPTER XI.

God sheweth Ezekiel his purpose in saving a remnant.

MOREOVER, the [a] spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and, behold, at the door of the gate [b] five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of [c] Benaiah, [d] princes of the people.

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that [e] devise mischief, and give [f] wicked counsel, in this city;

3 Which say, It is [g] not near; let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the [h] flesh.

4 [i] Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

5 And the [k] Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, [l] Speak; Thus saith the LORD, Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I [m] know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have [n] multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have [o] filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Your [p] slain, whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron; but [q] I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD.

9 And [r] I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of [s] strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword: I will judge you in the [t] border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel:

12 And ye shall [u] know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done [x] after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 And it came to pass, when I [y] prophesied, that Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, [z] died: then fell I [a] down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 [b] Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they [c] unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, [d] Get you far from the LORD; unto [e] us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Although I have [f] cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as [g] a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will even [h] gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall [i] take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof, from thence.

19 And I will give them [k] one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you: and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh;

20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and [l] do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them [m] whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own head, saith the Lord GOD.

22 Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And the [n] glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and [o] stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.

24 Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in vision by the [p] Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity: so the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity [q] all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

CHAPTER XII.

Ezekiel's trembling sheweth the Jews' desolation.

THE word of the LORD also came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of [a] a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and [b] see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove [c] by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing; and thou shalt go forth [d] at even in their sight, as they that go forth into captivity.

5 [e] Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt [f] cover thy face, that thou see not the ground; for I have set thee for [g] a sign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I [h] did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall [i] with my hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, [k] What doest thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, This [l] burden concerneth the [m] prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, I am [n] your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them; they shall [o] remove, and go into captivity.

12 And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My [p] net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall [q] he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And I will [r] scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.

15 And they shall [s] know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may [t] declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with [u] trembling and with carefulness;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord GOD of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel, They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be [x] desolate from all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

21 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, [y] The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The [z] days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 For there shall be no more any [a] vain vision nor [b] flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall [c] come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord GOD.

26 ¶ Again, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for [d] many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, There shall none of my words be prolonged any more: but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 The reproof of lying prophets....17 Of prophetesses and their pillows.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel, that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy [a] out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD, [b] Wo unto the foolish prophets that follow their own spirit, and have seen [c] nothing!

4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the [d] foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye have not gone up into [e] the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel, to stand in the [f] battle in the day of the LORD.

6 They have seen [g] vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith; and the LORD hath not sent them: and they have made [h] others to hope that they would confirm the word.

spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, [k] I am against you, [l] saith the Lord GOD.

9 And my hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the ‖ assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the [m] writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they [n] enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

10 Because, [o] even because they have [p] seduced my people, saying, Peace, and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with [q] untempered mortar:

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an [r] overflowing shower; and ye, [s] O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not [t] be said unto you, Where is [u] the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones, in my fury, to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the [x] foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

15 Thus will I [y] accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar; and will say unto you, The wall is [z] no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel, which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of [a] peace for her, and there is no [b] peace, saith the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the [c] daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Wo to the women that sew [d] pillows to all arm-holes, and [e] make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature, to hunt souls! Will ye [f] hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for [g] handfuls of barley, and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people [h] that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls † to make them fly; and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and [i] strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by [k] promising him life;

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor [l] divine divinations; for I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XIV.

Hypocrites reproved, who inquire of God with idolatry in their heart.

THEN came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and [a] sat before me.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their [b] heart, and put the [c] stumbling-block of their iniquity before their face: should I be [d] inquired of at all by them?

4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet, I the LORD will [e] answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols;

5 That I may [f] take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, [g] Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your [h] faces from all your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which [i] separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart and putteth the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to [k] a prophet to inquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself:

8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him [l] a sign and a proverb, and I will [m] cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD [n] have deceived that prophet; and I will [o] stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment [p] of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

11 That the house of Israel may go no more [q] astray from me, neither be [r] polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord GOD.

12 ¶ The word of the LORD came again to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me, by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out my hand upon it, and will break [s] the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it:

14 Though [t] these three men, [u] Noah, [x] Daniel, and [y] Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls [z] by their righteousness, saith the Lord GOD.

15 If I cause [a] noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:

16 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

17 Or if I bring [b] a sword upon that land, and [c] say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it:

18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

19 Or if I send [d] a pestilence into that land, and [e] pour out my fury upon it [f] in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

20 Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

21 For thus saith the Lord GOD, How much more when I send [g] my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

22 Yet, behold, therein shall be left [h] a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters; behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be [i] comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done [k] without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XV.

The rejection of Jerusalem foreshewn.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, what is the [a] vine-tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof [b] to do any work? or will men take [c] a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned. Is it meet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole it was meet for no work: [d] how much less shall it be meet yet for any work when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, [e] As the vine-tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

7 And I will [f] set my face against them; they shall go out from [g] one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make the land [h] desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XVI.

God's extraordinary love toward Jerusalem.

AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, [a] cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto Jerusalem, Thy [b] birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother a Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast [c] born, thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee: thou wast not [d] salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the [e] loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own [f] blood, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, [g] Live.

7 I have caused thee to [h] multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy [i] breasts are fashioned, and thy hair is grown, whereas thou wast [k] naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of † love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and thou becamest [l] mine.

9 Then [m] washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I [n] anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with [o] broidered work, and [p] shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I [q] covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and [r] a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and [s] a beautiful crown upon thy head.

13 Thus wast thou [t] decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broidered work: thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding [u] beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy [x] renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which [y] I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD.

15 [z] But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and [a] playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and [b] pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy [c] high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also [d] taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them;

18 And tookest thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine [e] oil and mine [f] incense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD.

20 Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast [g] borne unto me, and these hast thou [h] sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter,

21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them [i] to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast [k] not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass, after all thy wickedness, (['] wo, wo unto thee! saith the Lord GOD,)

24 That thou hast also built unto thee [m] an eminent place, and hast made thee a high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every [n] head of the way, and hast made [o] thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

Before CHRIST 594.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the [p] Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore, I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are [q] ashamed of thy [r] lewd way.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the [s] Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast, moreover, multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto [t] Chaldea, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How [u] weak is thy heart, saith the Lord GOD, seeing thou doest all these things, the [x] work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thy high place in every street; and hast not been as a [y] harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh [z] strangers [a] instead of her husband!

33 They give gifts to all whores; but thou givest thy gifts to all [b] thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee; therefore thou art contrary.

35 Wherefore, [c] O harlot, hear the word of the LORD:

36 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy [d] nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thine abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them:

37 Behold, therefore, I will [e] gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness [f] unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, [g] as women that break wedlock, and shed blood, are judged: and I will give thee blood in fury and [h] jealousy.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine [i] eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall [k] strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

40 They shall also bring up [l] a company against thee, and they [m] shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

41 And they shall [n] burn thy houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the [o] sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more.

42 So will I make my fury toward thee [p] to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will [q] be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because thou hast [r] not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast [s] fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore, I also will [t] recompense thy way upon thy head, saith the Lord GOD; and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the [u] mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine [x] elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sister that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were [y] a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, [z] as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, [a] pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness, was in her, and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were [b] haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath [c] Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast [d] justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, [e] bear thine own shame, for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more [f] righteous than thou; yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 When I shall bring again their captivity, the [g] captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them;

54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art [h] a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, [i] then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was [k] not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride,

57 [l] Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which [m] despise thee round about.

58 Thou hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the LORD.

59 For thus saith the Lord GOD, I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the [n] oath in breaking the covenant.

60 Nevertheless, I will [o] remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee [p] an everlasting covenant.

61 Then thou shalt remember thy ways and be [q] ashamed, when thou shalt receive [r] thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for [s] daughters, but not by thy [t] covenant.

CHAPTER XVII.

The parable of the two eagles and the vine.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto [a] the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, A great eagle with great wings, [b] long-winged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the [c] highest branch of the cedar:

4 He [d] cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of [e] the seed of the land, and planted it in a [f] fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow-tree;

6 And it [g] grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also [h] another great eagle with great wings and many feathers; and, behold, this vine did [i] bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Shall it [k] prosper? shall [l] he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power, or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither when the [m] east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to the [n] rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, [o] the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

13 And hath taken of the [p] king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken [q] an oath of him: he hath also taken the † mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

15 But he rebelled against him, in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him [r] horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he [s] break the covenant, and be delivered?

16 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, [t] whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him, in the midst of Babylon, he shall [u] die.

17 Neither shall [x] Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company, make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:

18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had [y] given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, As I live, surely [z] mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20 And I will spread my [a] net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon, and will [b] plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me.

21 And all his [c] fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward all winds; and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.

22 Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a [d] tender one, and will plant it upon a [e] high mountain and eminent:

23 In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and [f] bear fruit, and be a [g] goodly cedar: and [h] under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.

24 And all the trees of the field shall [i] know that I the LORD have [k] brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the [l] dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken, and have done it.

CHAPTER XVIII.

God reproveth the unjust parable of sour grapes.

THE word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

2 [a] What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, [b] The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?

3 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.

4 Behold, all souls are mine; [c] as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul [d] that sinneth, it shall [e] die.

5 But if a man be [f] just, and do [g] that which is lawful and right,

6 And hath [h] not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath [i] lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath [k] defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to a menstruous woman,

7 And hath not [l] oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his [m] pledge, hath [n] spoiled none by violence, hath given his [o] bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

8 He that hath not given forth upon [p] usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath [q] withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath [r] executed true judgment between man and man,

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to [s] deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord GOD.

10 If he beget a son that is a robber, [t] a shedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed [u] abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely [x] die; his [y] blood shall be upon him.

14 Now, lo, if he [z] beget a son that [a] seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and [b] considereth, and [c] doeth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he [d] cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the [e] iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. [f] The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the [g] righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the [h] wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked will [i] turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be [k] mentioned unto him: [l] in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 Have I any [m] pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD; and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 But when [n] the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and [o] committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his [p] righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass, that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 Yet [q] ye say, The way of the LORD is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel, [r] Is not my way equal? are not [s] your ways unequal?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done, shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall † save his soul alive.

28 Because he [t] considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the LORD is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 Therefore I will [u] judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord GOD. [x] Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be [y] your ruin.

31 [z] Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you [a] a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For I have [b] no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD; wherefore [c] turn yourselves, and live ye.

CHAPTER XIX.

A lamentation for the princes of Israel, and for Jerusalem.

MOREOVER, take thou [a] up a lamentation for the [b] princes of Israel,

2 And say, What is thy mother? [c] A lioness: she lay down among [d] lions, she nourished her [e] whelps among young lions.

3 And she brought up [f] one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

5 Now, when she saw that she had [g] waited, and her hope was lost, then she took [h] another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

6 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, [i] and devoured men.

7 And he knew their [k] desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his [l] roaring.

8 Then the [m] nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.

9 And they put him in ward in chains, and ‖brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

10 Thy mother is like [n] a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful, and full of branches, by reason of many waters.

11 And she had [o] strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she [p] appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was [q] plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit; her strong rods were broken and withered; [r] the fire consumed them.

13 And now she is planted in [s] the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

14 And [t] fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath [u] no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

CHAPTER XX.

God promiseth to gather the children of Israel by the gospel.

cir. 593.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came [a] to inquire of the LORD, and [b] sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, [c] I will not be inquired of by you.

4 [d] Wilt thou judge them, son of man? wilt thou judge them? [e] cause them to know the abominations of their fathers;

5 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, [f] In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up my hand unto the [g] seed of the house of Jacob, and [h] made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up my hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up my hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had [i] espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the [k] glory of all lands:

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the [l] abominations of his eyes, and [m] defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would [n] not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, [o] I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish mine anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But I wrought for my [p] name's sake, that it should not be polluted [q] before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 Wherefore [r] I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the [s] wilderness:

11 And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even [t] live in them.

12 Moreover also, I gave them my sabbaths, to be [u] a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel [x] rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they [y] despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would [z] pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

14 But [a] I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also I [b] lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;

16 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their [c] heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make [d] an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, [e] Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols:

19 I am the LORD your God; [f] walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;

20 And [g] hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

21 Notwithstanding the children [h] rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish mine anger against them in the wilderness.

22 Nevertheless [i] I withdrew my hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 [k] I lifted up my hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries;

24 Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their [l] eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were [m] not good, and judgments whereby they should not live:

26 And I [n] polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

27 Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Yet in this your fathers have [o] blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me.

28 For when I [p] had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up my hand to give it to them, [q] then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their [r] drink-offerings.

29 Then I said unto them, What is the [s] high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Are ye polluted [t] after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye [u] whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer [x] your gifts, when ye make [y] your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be [z] inquired of by you.

32 And that which [a] cometh into your mind shall [b] not be at all, that ye say, [c] We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with [d] a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with [e] fury poured out, will I [f] rule over you;

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will [g] gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out;

35 And I will bring you into the [h] wilderness of the people, and there will I [i] plead with you face to face.

36 Like as I [k] pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD.

37 And I will cause you [l] to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:

38 And I will [m] purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall [n] not enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD, [o] Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your [p] gifts, and with your idols.

40 For in my [q] holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the [r] house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your [s] offerings, and the first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your [t] sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shall [u] know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up my hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye [x] remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall [y] loathe yourselves in your own sight, for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your [z] wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

45 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

46 Son of man, [a] set thy face toward the south, and [b] drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field;

47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every [c] green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and [d] all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt therein.

48 And [e] all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Doth he not speak [f] parables?

CHAPTER XXI.

Ezekiel prophesieth against Jerusalem with a sign of sighing.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, [a] set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward [b] the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel,

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the [c] righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my [d] sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north;

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: [e] it shall not return any more.

6 Sigh, therefore, thou son of man, with the [f] breaking of thy loins; and with [g] bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the [h] tidings, because it cometh; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and [k] all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD.

8 ¶ Again, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, [l] A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

10 It is sharpened to make [m] a sore slaughter: it is [n] furbished that it may glitter: should we then [o] make mirth? it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And [p] he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 [q] Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the [r] princes of Israel: terrors, by reason of the sword, shall be upon my people: [s] smite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 Because it is a trial, and what if the sword contemn even the rod? it shall be [t] no more, saith the Lord GOD.

14 Thou, therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thy hands together, and let the sword be doubled the [u] third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their [x] privy chambers.

15 I have set the point of the sword against all their [y] gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is [z] made bright, it is wrapped up for the slaughter.

16 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

17 [a] I will also smite my hands together, and I will cause [b] my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, [c] appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land; and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to [d] Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the [e] defenced.

21 For the [f] king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use [g] divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the [h] liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint † captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to [i] lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination [k] in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths; but he will call to [l] remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because ye have made [m] your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be [n] taken with the hand.

25 And thou, [o] profane wicked prince of Israel, whose [p] day is come, when iniquity shall have an end;

26 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Remove the diadem, and take off the crown; this shall not be the same: [q] exalt him that is low, and [r] abase him that is high.

27 I will [s] overturn, overturn, overturn it; and it shall be no more, until he come [t] whose right it is; and [u] I will give it him.

28 ¶ And thou, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their [x] reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is [y] drawn; for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering;

CHAPTER XXII.

The general corruption of all orders of men.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the [a] bloody city? yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD, The city sheddeth blood in the [d] midst of it, that [c] her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee [d] a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art [e] infamous and [f] much vexed.

6 Behold, the [g] princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they [h] set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger; in thee have they vexed [i] the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised my holy things, and hast profaned my [k] sabbaths.

9 In thee are men that [l] carry tales to shed blood; and in thee they [m] eat upon the mountains; in the midst of thee they commit [n] lewdness:

10 In thee have they [o] discovered their fathers' nakedness; in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution.

11 And one hath [p] committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee have they [q] taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast [r] forgotten me, saith the Lord GOD.

13 Behold, therefore, I have [s] smitten my hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy [t] blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can thy heart endure, or can thy [u] hands be strong, in the days that [x] I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And I will [y] scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou shalt [z] take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt [a] know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become [b] dross: all they are [c] brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore, I will [d] gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, [e] to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and [f] blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have [g] poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is [h] not cleansed, nor [i] rained upon in the [k] day of indignation.

25 There is [l] a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have [m] devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 Her priests have [n] violated my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have put no difference [o] between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like [p] wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And her prophets have [q] daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, [r] Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used [s] oppression, and [t] exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy; yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

30 And I [u] sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the [x] gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XXIII.

The whoredoms of Aholah and Aholibah.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were [a] two women, the daughters of one mother;

3 And they [b] committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their [c] youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the [d] elder, and Aholibah her sister; and they were [e] mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.

Before CHRIST 593.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the [f] Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, [g] with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms [h] brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have [i] delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These [k] discovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword; and she became [l] famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was [m] more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She [n] doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both [o] one way;

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men [p] pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with [q] vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 And, as soon as she [r] saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the [s] Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom; and she was polluted with them, and her [t] mind was alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was [u] alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she [x] multiplied her whoredoms, [y] in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their † paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, [z] I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, [a] Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, waggons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, and helmet, round about: and [b] I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee [c] according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my [d] jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy [e] nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 They shall also [f] strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

27 Thus will I make thy [g] lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord GOD, behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them [h] whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated:

29 And they shall deal with thee [i] hatefully, and shall take away [k] all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do [l] these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring [m] after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her [n] cup into thy hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup [o] deep and large: thou shalt be [p] laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be [q] filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt even drink it, and [r] suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and [s] pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou hast [t] forgotten me, and [u] cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The LORD said moreover unto me, Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, [x] declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and [y] blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover, this they have done unto me: they have [z] defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, [a] then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of my house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came; for whom thou didst wash thyself, [b] paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And sattest upon [c] a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set [d] mine incense and mine oil.

43 Then said I unto her that was [f] old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot; so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

45 And the [g] righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and [h] after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord GOD, [i] I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled.

47 And the company shall [k] stone them with stones, and despatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all [l] women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye [m] shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XXIV.

By a boiling pot, is shewed Jerusalem's destruction.

AGAIN, in the [a] ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day; the king of Babylon [b] set himself against Jerusalem this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Set on [c] a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 [d] Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every [e] good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the [f] choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it [g] boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

6 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Wo to the [h] bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose [i] scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; [k] let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the [l] top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up [m] to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Wo to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice [n] it well, and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the [o] filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied herself with [p] lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness is lewdness. because [p] I have purged thee, and thou wast [r] not purged, thou shalt [s] not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 I the LORD [t] have spoken it; it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will [u] I spare, neither will I repent: [x] according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord GOD.

15 ¶ Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee [y] the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou [z] mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.

17 Forbear to cry, make [a] no mourning for the dead, bind [b] the tire of thy head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy [c] lips, and eat not [d] the bread of men.

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning; and at [e] even my wife died: and I did in the morning [f] as I was commanded.

19 And the people said unto me, [g] Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will [h] profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the [i] desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done: [k] ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away [l] for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.

24 Thus Ezekiel is unto you [m] a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do; and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them [n] their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters,

26 That he that [o] escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?

27 In that day shall thy [p] mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be [q] a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXV.

God's vengeance on the nations on account of the Jews.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, [a] set thy face against the [b] Ammonites, and prophesy against them;

3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou saidst, [c] Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity:

4 Behold, therefore, I will deliver thee to the [d] men of the east for a possession, and they shall [e] set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they [f] shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make [g] Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching-place for flocks; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

14 And I will [t] lay my vengeance upon Edom by [u] the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger, and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because the Philistines have dealt [x] by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the [y] old hatred;

16 Therefore, thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will stretch out my hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the [z] Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea-coasts.

Tyrus for insulting against Jerusalem is threatened.

583.

AND it came to pass in the [a] eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, [b] Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people; she is turned [c] unto me; I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause [d] many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the [e] walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the [f] midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD; and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her [g] daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar [h] king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field; and he shall [i] make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 He shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, † as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make [k] a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy [l] merchandise; and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones, and thy timber, and thy dust, in the midst of the water.

13 And I will cause the noise of thy [m] songs to cease; and the sound of thy [n] harps shall be no more heard.

14 And I will make thee like the top of a rock; thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built [o] no more: for I the LORD have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD to Tyrus, Shall not the [p] isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16 Then all the [q] princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their [r] robes, and put off their broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with [s] trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

17 And they shall take up a [t] lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed that wast inhabited of sea-faring men, the [u] renowned city which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it!

18 Now shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be [x] troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord GOD, When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and [y] great waters shall cover thee;

20 When I shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set [z] glory in the land of the living;

21 I will make thee a terror, and thou shalt be [a] no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 The rich supply of Tyrus....26 The irrecoverable fall thereof.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, take up a [a] lamentation for Tyrus;

3 And say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the

Before CHRIST 588.

[b] entry of the sea, which art [c] a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord GOD, O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty.

4 Thy borders are in the midst of the seas, thy [d] builders have perfected thy beauty.

5 They have made all thy ship-boards of fir-trees of [e] Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee.

6 Of the [f] oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of [g] Chittim.

7 Fine linen, with broidered work from Egypt, was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail: blue and purple from the isles of [h] Elishah was that which covered thee.

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy [i] wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee were thy pilots.

9 The ancients of [k] Gebal, and the wise men thereof, were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea, with their mariners, were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.

10 They of Persia, and of [l] Lud, and of [m] Phut, were in thine army thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

11 The men of Arvan, with thine army, were upon thy walls round about, and the ‖ Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made thy beauty perfect.

12 [n] Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches: with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 [o] Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market.

14 They of the house of [p] Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses, and horsemen, and mules.

15 The men of [q] Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thy hand: they brought thee for a present, horns of ivory and ebony.

16 † Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate.

17 [r] Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat of [s] Minnith and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm.

18 [t] Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 [u] Dan also and Javan, going to and fro, occupied in thy fairs; bright iron, [x] cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

20 [y] Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots.

21 [z] Arabia, and all the princes of [a] Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats; in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of [b] Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 [c] Haran, and [d] Canneh, and [e] Eden, the merchants of [f] Sheba, [g] Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.

25 The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market; and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

Before CHRIST 588.

26 Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the [h] east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas.

27 Thy [i] riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company, which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

28 The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land;

30 And shall cause their voice to be heard ‖ against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up [k] dust upon their heads; they shall wallow themselves in the ashes;

31 And they shall make themselves utterly [l] bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth; and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, [m] What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 When thy [n] wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people: thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise.

34 In the time when thou shalt [o] be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, thy merchandise, and all thy company in the midst of thee, shall fall.

35 All the inhabitants of the isles shall be [p] astonished at thee, and their [q] kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

36 The merchants among the people shall [r] hiss at thee; thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt be [s] any more.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 God's judgment upon the prince of Tyrus for his impious pride....20 The judgment of Zidon, &c.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because [a] thy heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, [b] I am a god, I [c] sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the sea; yet thou art a [d] man, and not God, though thou set thy heart as the heart of God:

3 Behold, thou art [e] wiser than Daniel: there is [f] no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast [g] gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5 By thy great wisdom, and by thy traffic, hast thou increased thy riches, and thy heart is lifted up [h] because of thy riches:

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, [i] Because thou hast set thy heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore, I will bring [k] strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the [l] pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou [m] yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no god, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the [n] uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, [o] take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every [p] precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the [q] anointed cherub that covereth; and [r] I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast [s] perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, [t] till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the [u] multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God; and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thy heart was lifted up because of thy beauty; thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I [x] will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may [y] behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy [z] sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffic; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee; and I will bring thee to [a] ashes upon the earth, in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be [b] a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, set thy face against [c] Zidon, and prophesy against it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be [d] glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall [e] know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

23 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

24 ¶ And there shall be no more [f] a pricking brier unto the [g] house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

25 Thus saith the Lord GOD, When I shall have gathered the [h] house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

26 And they [i] shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have [k] executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the Lord their GOD.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 The judgment of Pharaoh....8 The desolation of Egypt.

IN the [a] tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, [b] set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and [c] against all Egypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, [d] I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great [e] dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But I will put [f] hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales; and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into [g] the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of [h] the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt [i] shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been [k] a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 When they [l] took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee thou [m] brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, [n] I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be [o] desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt [p] utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be [q] inhabited forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will [r] scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 Yet thus saith the Lord GOD, At the [s] end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the [t] captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it [u] exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more [x] the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall [y] look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his [z] army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, [a] I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his [b] labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought [c] for me, saith the Lord GOD.

21 [d] In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the [e] opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXX.

The desolation of Egypt and her helpers.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, [a] Howl ye, [b] Wo worth the day!

3 For the day is [c] near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the [d] heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away [e] her multitude, and her [f] foundations shall be broken down.

5 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the [g] mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the LORD, They also that [h] uphold Egypt shall fall; and the [i] pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.

7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have [k] set a fire in Egypt, and when all her [l] helpers shall be destroyed.

9 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships, to make the [m] careless Ethiopians afraid, [n] and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it [o] cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.

11 [p] He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall [q] be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers [r] dry, and sell the land into the hand of the [s] wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their † images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments in [t] No.

15 And I will [u] pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And I will set [x] fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of Aven and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 At [y] Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 [z] Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt; and they [a] shall know that I am the LORD.

20 ¶ And it came to pass in [b] the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have [c] broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall [d] not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will [e] break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will [f] strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put [g] my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall [h] groan before him with the groanings of a deadly-wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall [i] know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 And I will [k] scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXI.

A recital unto Pharaoh of the glory of Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; [a] Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with [b] a shadowing shroud, and of a high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The [c] waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her [d] little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted [e] above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the [f] fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his [g] shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the [h] garden of God could not hide him: the fir-trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut-trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 [i] I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, [k] envied him.

10 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou hast [l] lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 [m] I have, therefore, delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely [n] deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 Upon his ruin shall all [o] the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 [p] To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD, In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: [q] I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be [r] comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him, unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. [s] This is Pharaoh, and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XXXII.

A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt.

cir. 587.

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, take up [a] a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art [b] like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas; and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the [c] waters with thy feet, and [d] fouledst their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will, therefore, spread out my [e] net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall [f] bring thee up in my net.

4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the [g] open field, and will cause all [h] the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy [i] flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with [k] thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall [l] put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I [m] will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make [n] dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD.

9 I will also [o] vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly [p] afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall [q] tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 For thus saith the Lord GOD, The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause [r] thy multitude to fall, [s] the terrible of the nations, all of them; and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the [t] foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run [u] like oil, saith the Lord GOD.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be [x] destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD.

16 [y] This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: [z] the daughters of the nations shall lament her; they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, [a] wail for the multitude of Egypt, [b] and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 Whom dost thou pass in [c] beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword; she is [d] delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

21 The strong among the mighty shall [e] speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him; they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 Asshur is there, and all her company: his graves are about him; all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in [f] the land of the living.

24 There is [g] Elam, and all her multitude round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the [h] nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him; all of them [i] uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the [k] land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

26 There is [l] Meshech, [m] Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

27 And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell † with their weapons of war; and they have laid their swords under their heads; but [n] their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be [o] broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

29 There is [p] Edom, her kings, and all her [q] princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.

30 There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the [r] Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be [s] comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.

32 For I have [t] caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh, and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

God sheweth the justice of his ways toward the penitent.

AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to the children of [a] thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their [b] watchman:

3 If, when he [c] seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and [d] warn the people;

4 Then whosoever [e] heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; [f] his blood shall be upon him: but he that [g] taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come and take any person from among them, he is taken away [h] in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word [i] at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thy hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, Thus ye speak, saying, [k] If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, [l] how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have [m] no pleasure in the death of the wicked; [n] but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the [o] righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he [p] turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he [q] sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely [r] live; if he [s] trust to his own righteousness and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely [t] die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is [u] lawful and right;

15 If the wicked [x] restore the pledge, give again that he hath robbed, walk in [y] the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be [z] mentioned unto him; he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 Yet the children of thy people say, The [a] way of the LORD is not equal: but, as for them, their way is not equal.

18 When the righteous [b] turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 Yet ye say, The way of the LORD is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will [c] judge you [d] every one [e] after his ways.

21 ¶ And it came to pass in [f] the twelfth year of our captivity, in the [g] tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now the [h] hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came, and had [i] opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, [k] Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but [l] we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Ye eat with the [m] blood, and [n] lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

26 [o] Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword; and him that is in the open

31 And they come unto thee [s] as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and [t] they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their [u] covetousness.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

11 God's providence for his flock....20 The kingdom of Christ.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the [a] shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds, Wo be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed [b] themselves! should not the shepherds feed the [c] flocks?

3 Ye eat the [d] fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye [e] kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was [f] lost; but with [g] force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered, because there is [h] no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field when they were scattered.

6 My sheep [i] wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did [k] search or seek after them.

7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my [l] shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock:

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, [m] I am against the shepherds; and I will [n] require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more: for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold I, even I, will both [o] search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 [p] As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the [q] cloudy and dark day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their [r] own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them [s] in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to [t] lie down, saith the Lord GOD.

16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy [u] the fat and the strong; I will feed them with [x] judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the [y] he-goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have [z] eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 Therefore, thus saith the Lord GOD unto them, Behold I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 And I will set up [a] one Shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my [b] servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David [c] a prince [d] among them; I the LORD have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them [e] a covenant of peace, and will cause the [f] evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell [g] safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them, and the places round about [h] my hill, a [i] blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be showers of blessing.

27 And the [k] tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

28 And they shall [l] no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beasts of the land devour them: but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for [m] them a Plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.

CHAPTER XXXV.

The judgment of mount Seir for their hatred of Israel.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, [a] set thy face against [b] mount Seir, and [c] prophesy against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, O mount Seir, I am [d] against thee, and I will stretch out my hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate; and thou shalt [e] know that I am the LORD.

5 Because thou hast had [f] a perpetual hatred, and hast [g] shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will [h] prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast [i] not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that [k] passeth out, and him that returneth.

8 And I will [l] fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee [m] perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall [n] not return; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, [o] These two nations, and these two countries, shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas [p] the LORD was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even do [q] according to thine anger, and according to thine envy, which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known [r] among them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have [s] heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have [t] boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord GOD, When the whole earth [u] rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 [x] As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 The land of Israel is comforted, &c....25 The blessings of Christ's kingdom.

ALSO thou son of man, prophesy unto the [a] mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD:

2 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha, even the [b] ancient high places [c] are ours in possession:

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and [d] swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the [e] lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely in the [f] fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed [g] my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the [h] shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have lifted up my hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall [i] bear their shame.

8 ¶ But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall [k] shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

9 For behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall [l] be tilled and sown:

10 And I will [m] multiply men upon you, [n] all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded:

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will [o] settle you after your old estates, and will [p] do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause [q] men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt [r] no more henceforth bereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, Thou land [s] devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither [t] bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear [u] the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD.

16 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they [x] defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me [y] as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I [z] poured my fury upon them for the [a] blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their † idols wherewith they had polluted it:

19 And [b] I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned [c] my holy name, when they said to them, [d] These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ¶ But I had pity [e] for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I do not this [f] for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for my holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will [g] sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

24 For I will [h] take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will [i] bring you into your own land.

25 ¶ Then will I [k] sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your [l] filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 [m] A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my Spirit within you, and [n] cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be [o] my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also [p] save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will [q] call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.

30 And I will [r] multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 [s] Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall [t] loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities, and for your abominations.

32 [u] Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities, I will also cause you to [x] dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be [y] tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And [z] they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the [a] garden of Eden; and the waste, and desolate, and ruined cities, are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen, that are left round about you, shall [b] know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have [c] spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will yet for this be [d] inquired of by the house of Israel to do it for them; I will increase them [e] with men like a flock.

38 As the [f] holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 The resurrection of dry bones....21 The promises of Christ's kingdom.

THE [a] hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out [b] in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was [c] full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, [d] can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, [e] thou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, [f] Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, [g] O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones, Behold, [h] I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and [i] as I prophesied, there was a noise, and, behold, [k] a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the [l] wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Come from the [m] four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied, as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and [n] stood up upon their feet, [o] an exceeding great army.

11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the [p] whole house of Israel: behold they say, Our bones [q] are dried, and our hope is lost; we are [r] cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, O my people, I will [s] open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the [t] land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And shall [u] put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For [x] Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And [y] join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become [z] one in thy hand.

18 And when the children of [a] thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these?

19 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, [b] I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in my hand.

20 And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thy hand [c] before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and [d] bring them into their own land:

Before CHRIST cir. 587.

22 And I will make them [e] one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and [f] one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their [g] dwelling-places wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be [h] my people, and I will be their God.

24 And [i] David my servant shall be king over them: and they all shall have [k] one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they and their children, and their children's children, [l] for ever; and my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover, I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and [m] multiply them, and will set my [n] sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

27 My tabernacle also shall be with them; yea, I will be [o] their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do [p] sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 The malice of Gog; 14 God's judgment against him.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, set thy face against [a] Gog, the land of Magog, the chief [b] prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am [c] against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

4 And I will [d] turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords:

5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

6 [e] Gomer, and all his bands; the house of [f] Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands; and many people with thee.

7 Be thou [g] prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 [h] After many days thou shalt be visited: in the [i] latter years thou shalt [k] come into the land that is [l] brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell [m] safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt [n] ascend and come like a storm; thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think [o] an evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of [p] unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,

12 To take [q] a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thy hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have [r] gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, [s] Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD, In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou [t] not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and [u] many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the [x] latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be [y] sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Art thou he [z] of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years, that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come [a] up in my face.

19 For in my jealousy, and in the fire of my wrath, have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be [b] a great shaking in the land of Israel;

20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, [c] shall shake at my presence; and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will [d] call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be [e] against his brother.

22 And I will [f] plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will [g] rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire and brimstone.

23 Thus will I [h] magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations; and they [i] shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 God's judgments upon Gog....8 Israel's victory....17 The feast of the fowls and beasts.

THEREFORE, thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, [a] I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

2 And I will [b] turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy [c] bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

5 Thou shalt fall upon the † open field; for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

6 And I will send [f] a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the [g] isles; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them [h] pollute my holy name any more; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

8 Behold, [i] it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this [k] is the day whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall [l] go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the hand-staves and the spears, and they shall [m] burn them with fire seven years;

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall [n] spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog, a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the [o] east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog, and all his multitude; and they shall call it, The valley of || Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may [p] cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them † a renown, the day that I shall be [q] glorified, saith the Lord GOD.

14 And they shall [r] sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land, to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 ¶ And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD, Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my [s] sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may [t] eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them [u] fatlings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with [x] horses and chariots, † with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD.

21 [y] And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall [z] see my judgment that I have executed, and [a] my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.

23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their [b] iniquity: because they trespassed against me, [c] therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies; so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness, and according to their transgressions, have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, [d] Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the [e] whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name;

26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their [f] trespasses, whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am [g] sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

28 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have [h] gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

29 Neither will I hide my face [i] any more from them: for I have [k] poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XL.

The time, manner, and end of Ezekiel's vision.

IN the [a] five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year [b] after that the city was smitten, in the self-same day the [c] hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon [d] a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of [e] a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was [f] a man whose appearance was like the appearance of [g] brass, with [h] a line of flax in his hand, and [i] a measuring-reed; and he stood [k] in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and [l] set thy heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And, behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring-reed of six cubits long, by the cubit; and a hand-breadth: so he measured [m] the breadth of the building one reed; and the [n] height one reed.

6 Then came he unto the [o] gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the [p] threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every [q] little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate, by the porch of the gate within, was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate [r] within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side; and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the [s] court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance, unto the face of the porch of the inner gate, were fifty cubits.

16 And there were † narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches; and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm-trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were [t] chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the [u] pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates, over against the length of the gates, was the [x] lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth, from the fore-front of the lower gate unto the † fore-front of the inner court without, a hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 And the gate of the outward court, that † looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side, and three on that side; and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm-trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they [y] went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he [z] measured from gate to gate a hundred cubits.

24 After that he brought me toward the south, and, behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures.

25 And there were [a] windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the little [b] chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the ‖ arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and [c] palm-trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures; and there were windows therein, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had [d] eight steps.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures:

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers, and the entries thereof, were by the posts of the gates, where they [e] washed the burnt-offering.

39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt-offering, and the sin-offering, and the [f] trespass-offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were hooks, a hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the [g] singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate, having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the [h] keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the [i] altar: these are the sons of [k] Zadok, among the sons of Levi, which come [l] near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, a hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house.

48 And he brought me to [m] the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits: and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it; and there were [n] pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAPTER XLI.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

AFTERWARD [a] he brought me to the [b] temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the [c] breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the [d] door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side; and he measured the [e] length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door two cubits, and the door six cubits, and the breadth of the door seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof, [f] twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house six cubits; and the breadth of every [g] side-chamber four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they [h] entered into the wall, which was of the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And there was an enlarging and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so [i] increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chamber without, was five cubits; and that which was left was the place of the side-chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, [k] one door toward the north, and another door toward the south; and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place, at the end toward the west, was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, a hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, a hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, a hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the [l] galleries thereof on the one side, and on the other side, a hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16 The door-posts, and the [m] narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, ceiled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house and without, and by all the wall round about, within and without, by measure.

18 And it was made with cherubims and [n] palm-trees, so that a palm-tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every [o] cherub had two faces;

19 So that the [p] face of a man was toward the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm-tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm-trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The [q] posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The [r] altar of wood was [s] three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the [t] table that is before the LORD.

23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning-leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the [u] doors of the temple, cherubims and palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were narrow windows and palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the [x] side-chambers of the house, and thick planks.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 The chambers for the priests: 13 The use thereof.

THEN [a] he brought me forth into the [b] outer court, the way toward the north; and he brought me into the [c] chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of a hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was † gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was [d] a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were [e] higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the [f] wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the outer court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were a hundred cubits.

9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the outer court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they; and all their goings-out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall [g] eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their [h] garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now, when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and [i] measured it round about.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring-reed, five hundred reeds, with the [k] measuring-reed round about.

17 He measured the north side five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed round about.

18 He measured the south side five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

19 He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

1 The glory of the Lord returneth into the temple.....13 The measures and ordinances of the altar.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east:

2 And, behold, [a] the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east; and his [b] voice was like a noise of many waters; and the [c] earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was [d] according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came [e] to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house, by the way of the gate whose † prospect is toward the east.

5 So the [f] spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.

7 And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of [g] my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will [h] dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel [i] no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 In their setting of their [k] threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 [l] Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 Thou son of man, [m] shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, [n] shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings-out thereof, and the comings-in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon the † top of the mountain, the [o] whole limit thereof round about shall be [p] most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the [q] alter after the cubits; The cubit is a cubit and a hand-breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long, and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his [r] stairs shall look toward the east.

18 And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD, These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the [s] seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord GOD, a young bullock for [t] a sin-offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the [u] blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin-offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, [x] without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast [y] salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

25 Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar, and purify it; and they shall † consecrate themselves.

27 And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your [z] peace-offerings; and I will [a] accept you, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XLIV.

The priests reproved for polluting of the sanctuary.

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary, which looketh toward the east, and it was shut.

2 Then said the LORD unto me, This gate shall be [a] shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, [b] hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the [c] prince; the prince he shall sit in it to [d] eat bread before the LORD: he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; and I fell upon my face.

5 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, [e] mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the [f] rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, O ye house of Israel, let it [g] suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary, [h] strangers, uncircumcised in [i] heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer [k] my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the [l] charge of my holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 Thus saith the Lord GOD, [m] No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 And the [n] Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even [o] bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be [p] ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel [q] to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my † holy things, in the most holy place; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed:

14 But I will make them [r] keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of [s] Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall [t] come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table to minister unto me, and they shall [u] keep my charge.

17 And it shall come to pass, that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with [x] linen garments; and no [y] wool shall come upon them while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have [z] linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth [a] sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall [b] not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow [c] long; they shall [d] only poll their heads.

21 Neither shall any priest [e] drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is [f] put away: but they shall take [g] maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference [h] between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it [i] according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: [k] but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister, that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And [l] after he is cleansed they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin-offering, saith the Lord GOD.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: [m] I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; and every [n] dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 And the first of all [o] the first-fruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thy house.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince, &c.

MOREOVER, when ye shall divide by lot the land [a] for inheritance, ye shall [b] offer an oblation unto the LORD, a holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the [c] sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the † most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary.

5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the [d] ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers.

6 And ye shall appoint [e] the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 And a portion shall be for the [f] prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the [g] west side westward, and from the east side eastward; and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and [h] my princes shall no more [i] oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Let it [k] suffice you, O princes of Israel: [l] remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD.

10 Ye shall have [m] just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the shekel shall be twenty [n] gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels shall be your maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of a homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of a homer of barley:

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is a homer of ten baths; for ten baths are a homer:

15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the [o] fat pastures of Israel, for a meat-offering, and for a burnt-offering, and for peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord GOD.

16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for [p] the prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the prince's part [q] to give burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and drink-offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the [r] sin-offering, and the meat-offering, and the burnt-offering, and the peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord GOD, In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and [s] cleanse the sanctuary:

19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that [t] erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.

21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself, and for all the people of the land, † a bullock for a sin-offering.

23 And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt-offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams [u] without blemish, daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin-offering.

24 And he shall prepare a meat-offering of [x] an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil for an ephah.

25 In the [y] seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do † the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, and according to the meat-offering, and according to the oil.

CHAPTER XLVI.

Ordinances for the prince in his worship, and for the people.

THUS saith the Lord GOD, The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be [a] shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the [b] new moon it shall be opened.

2 And the [c] prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the [d] priest shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate; then he shall go forth; but the gate shall [e] not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the [f] door of this gate before the LORD, in the sabbaths, and in the new moons.

4 And the burnt-offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD in the sabbath-day shall be [g] six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And the meat-offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat-offering for the lambs † as he shall be able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and [h] six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat-offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram; and for the lambs according [i] as his hand shall attain unto, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in

9 But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall [k] not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, [l] shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

11 And in the feasts, and in the solemnities, the meat-offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram; and to the lambs [m] as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt-offering or peace-offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings as he did on the sabbath-day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat-offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat-offering continually, by a perpetual ordinance, unto the LORD.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat-offering, and the [n] oil, every morning, for a continual burnt-offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the [o] year of liberty; after it [p] shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover, the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession; that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 ¶ After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall † boil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, where they shall bake the meat-offering; that they bear them not out into the outer court, to sanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long, and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling-places under the rows round about.

24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that [q] boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the [r] sacrifice of the people.

CHAPTER XLVII.

1 The vision of the holy waters; 6 the virtue of them....13 The borders of the land, &c.

Before CHRIST 574.

AFTERWARD he brought me again unto the door of the [a] house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the fore-front of the house stood toward the east, and the [b] waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, at the south side of the [c] altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the outer gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the [d] ancles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through: the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters [e] to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now, when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many [f] trees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea; which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live; and there shall be [g] a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

10 And it shall come to pass, that the [h] fishers shall stand upon it, from En-gedi even unto En-eglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets: their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.

11 But the [i] miry places thereof, and the marshes thereof, shall not be [k] healed: they shall be given to salt.

12 And by the river, upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth [l] new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary; and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for [m] medicine.

13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, This shall be the border whereby ye shall inherit the land, according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two [n] portions.

14 And ye shall inherit it, [o] one as well as another; concerning the which I lifted up my hand to give it unto your fathers; and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of [p] Hethlon, as men go to Zedad;

the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazar-hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the sea shall be [s] Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

18 And the [t] east side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.

19 And the south side southward, from Tamar even to the [u] waters of strife in Kadesh, the [x] river to the great sea. And this is the south side southward.

20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath. This is the west side.

21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you; [y] and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the [z] stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1, 23 The portions of the twelve tribes....8 Of the sanctuary. 30 The gates of the city.

NOW these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath, (for these are his sides [a] east and west,) [b] a portion for Dan.

2 And by the border of [c] Dan, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Asher.

3 And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Naphtali.

4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Manasseh.

5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Ephraim.

6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Reuben.

7 And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Judah.

8 ¶ And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the [d] offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the [e] midst of it.

9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

10 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof.

11 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites.

Before CHRIST 574.

13 And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 And they shall not sell of it, neither [f] exchange, nor alienate the first-fruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD.

15 And the five thousand that are left in the breadth, over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be [g] a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs; and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

16 And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.

18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for [†] food unto them that serve the city.

19 And they that [h] serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

20 All the oblation shall be [i] five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation [k] four-square, with the possession of the city.

21 And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

22 Moreover, from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion.

24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion.

25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, Issachar a portion.

26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion.

27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion.

28 And by the border of [l] Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of strife in Kadesh, and to the river toward the great sea.

29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord GOD.

¶ The Book of DANIEL.

CHAPTER I.

1 Jehoiakim's captivity....3 Ashpenaz taketh Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah....17 Their excellency in wisdom.

607.

IN the [a] third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came [b] Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto [c] Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the LORD [d] gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with [e] part of the vessels of the [f] house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar, to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the [g] treasure-house of his god.

3 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should [h] bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the [i] king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children in whom was no blemish, but [k] well-favoured, and [l] skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had [m] ability in them [n] to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the [o] learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a [p] daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank; so nourishing them [q] three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the [r] children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah;

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs [s] gave names: for he gave unto Daniel, the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

8 But Daniel [t] purposed in his heart that he would not [u] defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now God had brought Daniel [x] into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs [y] said unto Daniel, [z] I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me [a] endanger my head to the king.

11 Then [b] said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, [c] ten days; and let them give us [d] pulse to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat; and as thou seest, [e] deal with thy servants.

14 So [f] he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared [g] fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Melzar [h] took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

17 As for these four children, [i] God gave them knowledge and skill in all [k] learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all [l] visions and dreams.

18 Now, at the [m] end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king [n] communed with them: and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king inquired of them, he found them † ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 And Daniel continued even unto the [o] first year of king Cyrus.

CHAPTER II.

1 Nebuchadnezzar forgetteth his dream....14 It is revealed to Daniel....31 The dream and the interpretation thereof.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar [a] dreamed dreams, wherewith his [b] spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

603.

2 Then the king commanded [d] to call [e] the magicians, and the astrologers, and the [f] sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for [g] to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled [h] to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriac, O king, live for ever: [i] tell thy servants the dream, and [k] we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be [l] cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill:

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me [m] gifts, and rewards, and great honour: therefore shew me the dream and the interpretation thereof.

7 They [n] answered again, and said, Let the king [o] tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would † gain the time, [p] because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but [q] one decree for you; for ye have prepared [r] lying and corrupt words to speak before me till the [s] time be changed; therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, [t] that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth; and there is none other that can shew it before the king except the gods, whose dwelling [u] is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and [x] very furious, and commanded to destroy [y] all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the [z] decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they [a] sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 [b] Then Daniel answered [c] with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch [d] made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him [e] time, and that he would [f] shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his [g] house, and made the thing [h] known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions;

18 That they would [i] desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish [k] with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 [l] Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night-vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, [m] Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever; [n] for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he [o] removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth [p] wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 He [q] revealeth the deep and secret things: he [r] knoweth what is in the darkness, and the [s] light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what [t] we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 Therefore Daniel [u] went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him, [x] Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the [y] captives of Judah that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered, and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, [z] Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded, [a] cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

28 But there is [b] a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

29 (As for thee, O king, thy [c] thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed what should come to pass hereafter; and he that revealeth secrets maketh [d] known to thee what shall come to pass:

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me [e] for any wisdom that I have more than any living, ‖ but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart;)

31 Thou, O king, sawest, and, behold, a great [f] image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee, and the form thereof was [g] terrible.

32 This [h] image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass,

33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of [i] clay.

34 Thou sawest [k] till that [l] a stone was cut out [m] without hands, which smote the image upon his feet, that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, [n] broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, that [o] no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became [p] a great mountain, and [q] filled the whole earth.

36 [r] This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 Thou, O king, art [s] a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath [t] given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the fowls of the heaven, hath he given into thy hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this [u] head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise [x] another kingdom, [y] inferior to thee, and another [z] third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the [a] fourth kingdom shall be [b] strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that [c] breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes part of [d] potter's clay and part of iron, the kingdom shall be [e] divided; but there shall be in it of [f] the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of clay; so the kingdom shall be partly [g] strong, and partly [h] broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they [i] shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up [k] a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall [l] break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall [m] stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the [n] stone was cut out of the mountain [o] without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is [p] certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and [q] worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should [r] offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king [s] answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is that [t] your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel [u] a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he [x] set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the [y] gate of the king.

CHAPTER III.

Nebuchadnezzar setteth up a golden image.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR [a] the king made [b] an image of gold, whose height was [c] threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the [d] plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent [e] to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the [f] dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the [g] princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they [h] stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then a herald [i] cried aloud, To you it is [k] commanded, O people, nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and [l] all kinds of music, ye [m] fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up;

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall the [n] same hour be cast into the midst of a [o] burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all [p] the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 Wherefore [q] at that time certain Chaldeans came near and [r] accused the Jews.

9 They spake, and said [s] to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, [t] live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a [u] decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And [x] whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are [y] certain Jews, whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: [z] these men, O king, have [a] not regarded thee; they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

Before CHRIST 580.

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar, in his [b] rage and fury, commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they [c] brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said unto them, [d] Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve [e] my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now, if ye be ready, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace: and [f] who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, [g] answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, [h] we are not careful to answer thee [i] in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God, whom we serve, [k] is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and [l] he will deliver us out of thy hand, O king.

18 But if [m] not, be it [n] known unto thee, O king, [o] that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar [p] full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one [q] seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to [r] bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and [s] were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore, because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire [t] slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, [u] fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was [x] astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have [y] no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like || the [z] Son of God.

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, [a] ye servants of the most high God, [b] come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw [c] these men, upon whose bodies the fire had [d] no power, nor was [e] a hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake and said, [f] Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that [g] trusted in him, and have [h] changed the king's word, and [i] yielded their bodies, that they might [k] not serve nor worship any god, except [l] their own God.

29 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god that [m] can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king [n] promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

CHAPTER IV.

Daniel heareth Nebuchadnezzar's dream, and interpreteth it.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king, [a] unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; [b] Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 [c] I thought it good to shew [d] the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought [e] toward me.

3 How great are his signs! and [f] how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is [g] from generation to generation.

4 I Nebuchadnezzar was [h] at rest in my house, and [i] flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head [k] troubled me.

6 Therefore made I [l] a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that [m] they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did [n] not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 But [o] at the last Daniel came in before me, (whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the [p] name of my god, and in whom is the [q] spirit of the holy gods,) and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is [r] in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of my head in my bed: I saw, and, behold, [s] a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was [t] great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof [u] reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the [x] beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, [y] a watcher and [z] a holy one came down from heaven;

14 He cried [a] aloud, and said thus, [b] Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts [c] get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches.

15 Nevertheless, [d] leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with [e] a band of iron and brass in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his [f] portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth.

16 Let his [g] heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let [h] seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the [i] decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may [k] know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the [l] basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are [m] not able to make known unto me the interpretation; but [n] thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, (whose name was [o] Belteshazzar,) was [p] astonished for one hour, and his thoughts [q] troubled him. The king spake and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that [r] hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The [s] tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose [t] leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It is [u] thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one [x] coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of [y] the Most High, which is come upon my lord the [z] king:

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou [a] know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree-roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, [b] after that thou shalt have known that the [c] heavens do rule.

27 [d] Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be [e] a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ [f] All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the [g] end of twelve months he walked in the [h] palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king [i] spake and said, [k] Is not this great Babylon that [l] I have built for the house of the kingdom, [m] by the might of my power, and for the [n] honour of my majesty?

31 [o] While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell [p] a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, [q] to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee:

32 And they shall [r] drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most

34 And [u] at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar [x] lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and [y] mine understanding returned unto me, and I [z] blessed the Most High, and I praised and honoured him that [a] liveth for ever, whose dominion is an [b] everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works [g] are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk [h] in pride he is able to abase.

CHAPTER V.

1 Belshazzar's impious feast....5 A hand-writing on the wall.

BELSHAZZAR the king made [a] a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, while he [b] tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had [c] taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines, might [d] drink therein.

3 Then [e] they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and [f] the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine and [g] praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 In the [h] same hour came forth [i] fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the [k] plaster of the wall of the king's palace; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's [l] countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his [m] knees smote one against another.

7 The king cried aloud [n] to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the [o] third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not [p] read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar [q] greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his [r] lords were astonished.

10 Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet-house; and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever: [s] let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is [t] a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and, in the days of thy father, [u] light, and understanding, and wisdom, [x] like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made [y] master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

12 Forasmuch as [z] an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and [a] dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, [b] Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even [c] heard of thee, that the [d] spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light, and understanding, and excellent wisdom, is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, [e] that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not [f] shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee that thou canst make interpretations and dissolve doubts: now, if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be [g] clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy [h] gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; [i] yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 [k] O thou king, the most high God [l] gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And, for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, [m] trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he [n] kept alive, and whom he would he set up, and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his [o] heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was [p] deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was [q] driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast [r] not humbled thy heart, though thou [s] knewest all this;

23 But hast [t] lifted up thyself against the LORD of heaven; and they have [u] brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which [x] see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are [y] all thy ways, hast thou [z] not glorified.

24 [a] Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

Before CHRIST cir. 538.

25 And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath [b] numbered thy kingdom, and [c] finished it.

27 TEKEL; Thou art [d] weighed in the balances, and art [e] found wanting.

28 PERES; Thy kingdom [f] is divided, and [g] given to the Medes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and [h] made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 ¶ [i] In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

31 And [k] Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Daniel's preferment: 10 He is cast into the den of lions: 18 He is miraculously saved.

IT pleased Darius [a] to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these, three presidents, of whom Daniel was [b] first; that the princes might give [c] accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Daniel was [d] preferred above the presidents and princes, [e] because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 Then [f] the presidents and princes [g] sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could [h] find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any [i] error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We [k] shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the [l] law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes [m] assembled together [n] to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

7 [o] All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have [p] consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any [q] god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, [r] establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which [s] altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius [t] signed the writing and the decree.

10 Now when Daniel [u] knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and, his [x] windows being open in his chamber [y] toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his [z] knees three times a-day, and prayed, [a] and gave thanks before his God, [b] as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and [c] found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 [d] Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, [e] The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they, and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the children of the [f] captivity of Judah, [g] regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a-day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and [h] set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he laboured [i] till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the [k] law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 [l] Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and [m] cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, [n] Thy God, whom thou servest [o] continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And [p] a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords, that the purpose might not be [q] changed concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king [r] went to his palace, and passed the night [s] fasting: neither were instruments of music brought before him; and his [t] sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose [u] very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel; and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, [x] servant of the living God, is thy [y] God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath sent his [z] angel, and [a] hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as [b] before him innocency was found in me; and also [c] before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king [d] exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and [e] no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he [f] believed in his God.

24 And the king commanded, and they brought [g] those men which had accused Daniel, and they [h] cast them into the den of lions, them, their [i] children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius [k] wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; [l] Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble [m] and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the [n] living God, and [o] steadfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall [p] not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He [q] delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh [r] signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So [s] this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the [d] four winds of the heaven strove upon the [e] great sea.

3 And [f] four great beasts [g] came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was [h] like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and [i] made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 And, behold, another beast, [k] a second, like to [l] a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had [m] three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and [n] they said thus unto it, Arise, [o] devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo, [p] another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl: the beast had also [q] four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, [r] a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had [s] great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had [t] ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another [u] little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and [x] a mouth [y] speaking great things.

9 I beheld till the thrones were ‖ cast down, and the [z] Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and [a] his wheels as burning fire.

10 [b] A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: [c] thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the [d] books were opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake; I beheld, even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the [e] burning flame.

12 As concerning the [f] rest of the beasts, they had their [g] dominion taken away: yet their lives were [h] prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the [i] Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, [k] and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given him [l] dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I [m] came near unto one of them that stood by, and [n] asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and [o] made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four [p] kings, which shall [q] arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom, and [r] possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know [s] the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, [t] whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn [u] made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and [x] judgment was given to the saints of the Most High; and [y] the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the [z] fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall [a] devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are [b] ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speak great words [c] against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and think to [d] change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand, [e] until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall [f] take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be [g] given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my [h] countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my [i] heart.

CHAPTER VIII.

Daniel's vision of the ram and he-goat.

Before CHRIST cir. 553.

IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, [a] even unto me Daniel, [b] after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; (and it came to pass, when I saw, that I [c] was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of [d] Elam;) and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I [e] lifted up mine eyes and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river [f] a ram which had [g] two horns; and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing [h] westward, and northward, and southward; so that no [i] beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did [k] according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, a [l] he-goat came from the west, on the face of the whole earth, and touched [m] not the ground: and the goat had [n] a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and [o] ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was [p] moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was [q] no power in the ram to stand before him, but he [r] cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was [s] strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up [t] four notable ones, toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth [u] a little horn which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the [x] pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the [y] host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the [a] prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, [b] and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And a host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down [c] the truth to the ground; and it practised, and [d] prospered.

13 Then I heard [e] one saint speaking, and another saint said unto † that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto [f] two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be [g] cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, [h] and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, [i] Gabriel, [k] make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he [l] touched me, and [m] set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the [n] last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the [o] kings of Media and Persia.

21 And the [p] rough goat is the king of [q] Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

22 Now that being broken, whereas [r] four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but [s] not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, [t] a king of fierce countenance, and [u] understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his [x] power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall [y] destroy the [z] mighty and the holy people.

25 And through his [a] policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall [b] magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken [c] without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told [d] is true: wherefore [e] shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27 And I Daniel [f] fainted, and was sick certain days: afterward I rose up, and did the [g] king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, [h] but none understood it.

CHAPTER IX.

Daniel, confessing his sins, prayeth for the restoration of Jerusalem.

IN the first year of Darius, the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

2 In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood [a] by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish [b] seventy years in the [c] desolations of Jerusalem.

3 And I set my face unto the Lord GOD, [d] to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and [e] made my confession, and said, O LORD, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and [f] mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We have [g] sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts, and from thy judgments:

6 Neither have we [h] hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O LORD, righteousness belongeth [i] unto thee; but unto us [k] confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are [l] near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O LORD, [m] to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the LORD our God [n] belong mercies and forgivenesses, [o] though we have rebelled against him:

10 Neither have we obeyed [p] the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, [q] all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the [r] curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath [s] confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: [t] for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done [u] upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is [x] written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: [y] yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD [z] watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not [a] his voice.

15 And now, O LORD our God, that [b] hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee [c] renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 O LORD, according to all [d] thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, [e] Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now, therefore, O our [f] God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, [g] for the LORD's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee [h] for our righteousnesses, but for [i] thy great mercies.

19 O LORD, hear; O LORD, forgive; O LORD, hearken, and do; [k] defer not, for [l] thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 And [m] while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, while I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly [n] swiftly, touched me about the time of the [o] evening oblation.

22 And he [p] informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the [q] beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art † greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to || make an end of sins, and to make [r] reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in [s] everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to [t] anoint the Most Holy.

25 [u] Know, therefore, and understand, that from the [x] going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem, unto the [y] Messiah the Prince, shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be [z] cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall [a] destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

27 And he shall [b] confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall [c] cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations [d] he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that [e] determined, shall be poured upon the desolate.

CHAPTER X.

1 Daniel, having humbled himself, seeth a vision: 10 Being troubled with fear, he is comforted by the angel.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, [a] a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was [b] long: and he [c] understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was [d] mourning three full weeks.

3 I ate no [e] pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, [f] till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the [g] first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is [h] Hiddekel;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, [i] a certain man [k] clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his [l] face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel [m] alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they [n] fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained [o] no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 [p] Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face [q] toward the ground.

10 And, behold, a hand [r] touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands:

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, [s] a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and [t] stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, [u] Fear not, Daniel; for [x] from the first day that thou didst set thy heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the [y] prince of the kingdom of Persia [z] withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, [a] Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the [b] latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men [c] touched my lips: then I opened my mouth and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, [d] by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the [e] servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there [f] breath left in me.

18 Then there came [g] again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he [h] strengthened me,

19 And said, [i] O man greatly beloved, fear not; peace be unto thee; be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak: for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return [k] to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the [l] scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The overthrow of Persia by the king of Grecia....30 The invasion and tyranny of the Romans.

ALSO I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, even [a] I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength [b] through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of [c] Grecia.

3 And [d] a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with [e] great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall [f] stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be [g] divided toward the four winds of heaven; and [h] not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others [i] besides those.

5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be [k] strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall [l] not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one [m] stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail;

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt [n] their gods, with their princes, and with their † precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue [o] more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall be [p] stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly [q] come, and overflow, and pass through; then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth [r] a great multitude; but the multitude shall be [s] given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, [t] his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall [u] cast down many ten thousands: but he shall [x] not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of [y] the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude [z] greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south; also the [a] robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most [b] fenced cities; and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his [c] chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and [d] none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the [e] glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also [f] set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, [g] corrupting her; but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the [h] isles, and shall take many; but a prince [i] for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it [k] to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and [l] not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger nor in battle.

21 And in his estate shall stand up [m] a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom [n] by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from [o] before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the [p] covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall [q] work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong [r] with a small people.

24 He shall enter [s] peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his father's fathers; he shall [t] scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches; yea, and he shall [u] forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with [x] a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall [y] destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak [z] lies at one table; but it shall [a] not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the [b] holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time [c] appointed he shall return, and come toward the south: but it shall not be [d] as the former, or as the latter.

30 For the ships of [e] Chittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have [f] indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and [g] have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And [h] arms shall stand on his part, and they shall [i] pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

32 And such as [k] do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do [l] know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that [m] understand among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall [n] fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, [o] many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with [p] a little help: but many shall cleave to them with [q] flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, [r] to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for [s] a time appointed.

36 And ‖ the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and [t] magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the [u] desire of women, nor regard [x] any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces; and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour [y] with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and [z] pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a [a] strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for † gain.

40 And at the [b] time of the end shall the [c] king of the south push at him: and the [d] king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the [e] glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall [f] stretch forth his hand also upon the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the [g] treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But [h] tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall [i] come to his end, and [k] none shall help him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles....5 Daniel is informed of the times.

AND [a] at that time shall [b] Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be [c] delivered, every one that shall be found [d] written in the book.

2 And many of them that [e] sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to [f] everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting [g] contempt.

3 And they that be [h] wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that [i] turn many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and [k] seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall [l] run to and fro, and knowledge shall be [m] increased.

5 Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the [n] one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And [o] one said to the man clothed in linen, which was [p] upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he [q] held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever, that it shall be for [r] a time, times, and a half; and when he shall have accomplished [s] to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

8 And I heard, but I [t] understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

9 And he said, [u] Go thy way, Daniel; for the words are closed up and sealed [x] till the time of the end.

10 Many shall be [y] purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do [z] wickedly: and [a] none of the wicked shall understand; but the [b] wise shall understand.

11 And [c] from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be [d] a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 Blessed is he that waiteth, and [e] cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt [f] rest, and stand in thy [g] lot at the end of the days.

¶ HOSEA.

CHAPTER I.

1 Hosea, to shew God's judgment for spiritual whoredom, taketh Gomer, &c....10 Judah and Israel restored.

THE word of the LORD that [a] came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD ‖ by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed [b] great whoredom, [c] departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of [d] Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the [e] house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will [f] break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will [g] no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will [h] utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them [i] by the LORD their God, and will not save them [k] by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 Now when she had [l] weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi: for ye are [m] not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 Yet the number of the [n] children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the [o] sons of the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be [p] gathered together, and appoint themselves [q] one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

CHAPTER II.

1 The idolatry of the people....6 God's judgments against them: 14 His promises of reconciliation with them.

SAY [a] ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah.

2 [b] Plead with your mother, plead; for she is not [c] my wife, neither am I her husband: let her, therefore, put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest I [d] strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with [e] thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of [f] whoredoms.

5 For their [g] mother hath played the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, [h] I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

6 Therefore, behold, I will [i] hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall [k] follow after her lovers, but she shall [l] not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to [m] my first husband; for then was it [n] better with me than now.

8 For she did [o] not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they [p] prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I [q] return, and [r] take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I [s] discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of my hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her [t] feast-days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines, and her [u] fig-trees, whereof she hath said, These are my [x] rewards, that my lovers have given me: and I will make them [y] a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of [z] Baalim, wherein she burnt incense to them, and she decked herself with her ear-rings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the LORD.

14 [a] Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the [b] valley of Achor for a door of hope; and she shall sing there, as in the days of her [c] youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me [d] Ishi, and shalt call me no more [e] Baali.

17 For I will take away [f] the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the [g] beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the [h] bow, and the sword, and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down [i] safely.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will [k] betroth thee unto me in [l] righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies:

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in [m] faithfulness; and thou [n] shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will [o] hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall [p] hear Jezreel.

23 And I will [q] sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that [r] had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

CHAPTER III.

By the expiation of an adulteress, is shewed the desolation of Israel before their restoration.

THEN said the LORD unto me, [a] Go yet, love a woman beloved of her [b] friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and [c] love flagons of wine.

2 So I [d] bought her to me for [e] fifteen pieces of silver, and for a homer of barley, and a half homer of barley:

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt [f] abide for me many days: thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man; so will [g] I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel shall abide [h] many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim.

5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and [i] David their king; and shall [k] fear the LORD and his goodness in the [l] latter days.

CHAPTER IV.

1 God's judgments against the sins of the people, &c....15 Judah exhorted to take warning by Israel's calamity.

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath [a] a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor [b] knowledge of God, in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they [c] break out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore shall the land [d] mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be [e] taken away.

4 Yet let no man [f] strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive [g] with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the [h] day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the [i] night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are destroyed for [k] lack of knowledge: because thou hast [l] rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be [m] no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also [n] forget thy children.

7 As they were [o] increased, so they sinned against me; therefore will I change their [p] glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

Before CHRIST 785.

9 And there shall be, [q] like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

10 For they shall eat, and not have [r] enough; they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have [s] left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the [t] heart.

12 ¶ My people [u] ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the [x] spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the [y] mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks, and poplars, and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: [z] therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will [a] not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery; for themselves are [b] separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, [c] yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as [d] a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in [e] a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols: [f] let him alone.

18 Their drink is [g] sour; they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, [h] Give ye.

19 The wind hath [i] bound her up in her wings, and they shall be [k] ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER V.

1 God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins.

HEAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been [b] a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolters are [c] profound to make slaughter, though I have been [d] a rebuker of them all.

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is [e] not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest [f] whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 They will [g] not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Israel doth [h] testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall [i] not find him: he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD; for they have begotten [k] strange children: now shall [l] a month devour them with their portions.

8 [m] Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at [n] Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the [o] day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall [p] surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that remove the [q] bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the [r] commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as [s] a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his [t] wound, then went Ephraim to the [u] Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as [x] a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 I will go and return to my place till they [y] acknowledge their offence, and seek my face; in their affliction they will [z] seek me early.

CHAPTER VI.

1 An exhortation to repentance....4 A complaint of their untowardness and iniquity.

COME, and [a] let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 [b] After two days will he revive us; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall [c] live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we [d] follow on to know the LORD: his [e] going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 O Ephraim, [f] what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as [g] a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I [h] hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired mercy, and [i] not sacrifice; and the [k] knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

7 But they, like men, have [l] transgressed the covenant: [m] there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gilead is [n] a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the [o] company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness.

10 I have seen [p] a horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, he hath set [q] a harvest for thee, when I [r] returned the captivity of my people.

CHAPTER VII.

1 A reproof of manifold sins....11 God's wrath against the people for their hypocrisy.

WHEN I would have [a] healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the [b] thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without:

2 And they consider not in their hearts that [c] I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are [d] before my face

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their [e] lies.

4 They are all adulterers, [f] as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough until it be [g] leavened.

5 In the [h] day of our king the princes have made him sick with [i] bottles of wine: he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have [k] made ready their heart like an oven, while they [l] lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all [m] hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges: all their [n] kings are fallen; there is none among them that [o] calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim, he hath [p] mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have [q] devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not; yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he [r] knoweth not.

10 And the [s] pride of Israel testifieth to his face; and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him [t] for all this.

11 Ephraim also is like [u] a silly dove without heart: they call [x] to Egypt, they go to Assyria:

12 When they shall go, I will spread my [y] net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them as their congregation [z] hath heard.

13 Wo unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have [a] redeemed them, yet they have [b] spoken lies against me.

14 And they have [c] not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their [d] beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I have [e] bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief [f] against me.

16 They return, but [g] not to the Most High; they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the [h] rage of their tongue. This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER VIII.

Destruction threatened for Israel's impiety, and idolatry.

SET the trumpet to thy mouth: [a] he shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed [b] my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall [c] cry unto me, My God, [d] we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is [e] good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have [f] set up kings, but not by me; they have made princes, and I [g] knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they [h] made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 [i] Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them; [k] how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is [l] not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have [m] sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk; the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the [n] strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is [o] swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is [p] no pleasure.

9 For they are gone up [q] to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath [r] hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I [s] gather them, and they shall sorrow a [t] little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars [u] to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written [x] to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

Before CHRIST cir. 760.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the LORD [y] accepteth them not: now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return [z] to Egypt.

14 For Israel hath forgotten his [a] Maker, and buildeth [b] temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAPTER IX.

The distress and captivity of Israel for sin and idolatry.

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, [a] as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God; thou hast loved [b] a reward upon every corn-floor.

2 The floor and the wine-press shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in [c] the LORD's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat [d] unclean things in Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine-offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be [e] pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread [f] for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the [g] solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, [h] nettles shall possess them: [i] thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompense are come; Israel shall know it: the [k] prophet is a fool, the [l] spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 [m] The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is [n] a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of [o] Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like [p] grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig-tree at her first time: but they went to [q] Baal-peor and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, [r] their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I [s] bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, wo also to them when [t] I depart from them!

13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the [u] murderer.

14 [x] Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them [y] a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in [z] Gilgal; for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of [a] my house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolters.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their [b] root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit; yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did [c] not hearken unto him: and they shall be [d] wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER X.

Israel reproved and threatened for impiety and idolatry.

Before CHRIST cir. 760.

ISRAEL is [a] an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit [b] unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

2 Their heart is [c] divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have [d] no king, because we [e] feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken [f] words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus [g] judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the † priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king [h] Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his [i] own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, [k] her king is cut off as the foam upon the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the [l] sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, [m] Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned [n] from the days of Gibeah; there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against [o] the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in [p] my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as a heifer that is taught, and loveth [q] to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim [r] to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; [s] break up your fallow ground: for it is [t] time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have [u] plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity: ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the [x] multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the [y] mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a [z] morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits; 5 his judgment....8 God's mercy toward them.

WHEN Israel was a child, then [a] I loved him, and called [b] my son out of Egypt.

2 As [c] they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also [d] to go, taking them by their [e] arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with [f] cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I [g] laid meat unto them.

5 He shall [h] not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be [i] his king, because they refused to return

6 And the [k] sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own [l] counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though [m] they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.

8 [n] How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? [o] My heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will [p] not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for [q] I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee; and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk [r] after the LORD; he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall [s] tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about [t] with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet [u] ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

CHAPTER XII.

1 A reproof of Ephraim, Judah, and Jacob....7 Ephraim's sins and ingratitude provoke God.

EPHRAIM feedeth on [a] wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and [b] oil is carried into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy with [c] Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; [d] according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 He took his brother [e] by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had [f] power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept and made supplication unto him: he found him in [g] Beth-el, and there he spake [h] with us;

5 Even the Lord GOD of hosts; The LORD is his [i] memorial.

6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: [k] keep mercy and judgment, and [l] wait on thy God continually.

7 He is a merchant, the [m] balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become [n] rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find [o] none iniquity in me that were sin.

9 And I, that am the LORD thy God [p] from the land of Egypt, will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feasts.

10 ‖ I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: [q] they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a [r] wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by [s] a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he [t] preserved.

14 Ephraim [u] provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his LORD [x] return unto him.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Ephraim's glory, by reason of idolatry, vanisheth....5 God's anger for their unkindness....9 A promise of God's mercy.

WHEN Ephraim spake [a] trembling, he [b] exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he [c] died.

2 And now they sin [d] more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own [e] understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away; as the [f] chaff that is driven with a whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is [g] no saviour besides me.

5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great [h] drought.

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they [i] forgotten me.

7 Therefore I will be unto them [k] as a lion; as a leopard by the way will I observe them.

8 I will meet them as [l] a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.

9 O Israel, thou hast [m] destroyed thyself; but in [n] me is thy help.

10 I will be [o] thy king: where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges, of whom thou saidst, [p] Give me a king and princes?

11 I gave thee [q] a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

12 The iniquity of Ephraim is [r] bound up; his sin is hid.

13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an [s] unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the [t] breaking forth of children.

14 I will [u] ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: [x] repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 Though he be [y] fruitful among his brethren, [z] an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall [a] spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

16 Samaria shall become [b] desolate; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword; their infants shall be [c] dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 An exhortation to repentance....4 A promise of God's blessing.

O ISRAEL, [a] return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2 Take with you [b] words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, [c] Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

3 Asshur shall [d] not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the [e] fatherless findeth mercy.

4 I will heal their backsliding, I will love them [f] freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

5 I will be as the [g] dew unto Israel: he shall [h] grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the [i] olive-tree, and his [k] smell as Lebanon.

7 They that dwell under his [l] shadow shall return; they shall [m] revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim shall say, What have I [n] to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir-tree. From me [o] is thy fruit found.

9 Who is wise, and he shall [p] understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall [q] fall therein.

¶ JOEL.

CHAPTER I.

1 Joel, declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorteth to observe them, and to mourn: 14 He prescribeth a fast.

THE [a] word of the LORD that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel.

2 [b] Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in [c] your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell ye [d] your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation:

4 That which the palmer-worm hath left, [e] hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left, hath the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left, hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 [f] Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is [g] cut off from your mouth.

6 For [h] a nation is come up upon [i] my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the [k] cheek-teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my [l] vine waste, and [m] barked my fig-tree; he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 Lament like a [n] virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth

9 The [o] meat-offering and the drink-offering is cut off from the house of the LORD: the [p] priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, [q] the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 [r] Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because [s] joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye [t] ministers of the altar; come, [u] lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat-offering and the drink-offering [x] is withholden from the house of your God.

14 Sanctify ye [y] a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders, and all the [z] inhabitants of the land, into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD,

15 [a] Alas for the day! for the [b] day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the [c] meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seed is rotten under their clods, [d] the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do the [e] beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, [f] to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field [g] cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER II.

1 The terribleness of God's judgments....12 He exhorteth to repentance, 18 and promiseth a blessing thereon.

BLOW ye the trumpet in Zion, and [a] sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land [b] tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at [c] hand:

2 A day of darkness, and of gloominess, a day of [d] clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: [e] a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire [f] devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is [g] as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them [h] a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of [i] horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained; all faces shall gather † blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall [k] climb the wall like men of war; and they shall [l] march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one [m] in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the [n] windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall [o] quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the [p] sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining;

11 And the LORD shall [q] utter his voice before his army; for his camp is very great: for he is [r] strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and [s] who can abide it?

12 Therefore also [t] now, saith the LORD, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning;

13 And [u] rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, [x] slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and [y] leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering, and a drink-offering, unto the LORD your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, [z] sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the [a] children, and those that suck the breasts; let the [b] bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet:

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep [c] between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy [d] people, O LORD, and give not thy heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, [e] Where is their God?

18 Then will the LORD be [f] jealous for his land, and [g] pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will [h] answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you [i] corn and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

20 But I will remove far off from you the [k] northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea; and his hinder part toward the utmost sea: and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

21 [l] Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do [m] great things.

22 Be not afraid, [n] ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be [o] full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will [p] restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army, which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and [q] praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wonderously with you: and my people shall never be [r] ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in the [s] midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 And it shall come to pass [t] afterward, that I will [u] pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon the [x] servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit.

30 And I will shew [y] wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The [z] sun shall be turned into darkness, [a] and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall [b] call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the [c] remnant whom the LORD shall call.

2 I will also [b] gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people, and for my heritage Israel, whom they have [c] scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have [d] cast lots for my people: and have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do [e] with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, [f] swiftly and speedily will I return your recompense upon your own head:

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into [g] your temples my goodly pleasant things.

6 [h] The children also of Judah, and the children of Jerusalem, have ye [i] sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them [k] out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your [l] recompense upon your own head:

8 And I will [m] sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 [n] Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near, let them come up:

10 Beat your plow-shares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

11 [o] Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about; thither cause thy [p] mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be [q] wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will [r] I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

13 Put ye in the sickle; for [s] the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

14 [t] Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD also shall [u] roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem: and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the † hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

17 So shall ye [x] know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no [y] strangers pass through her any more.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the [z] mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and [a] a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim.

19 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the [b] violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Judah shall dwell for [c] ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD [d] dwelleth in Zion.

¶ AMOS.

CHAPTER I.

Amos sheweth God's judgments upon Syria, &c.

787.

THE words of Amos, who was among the [a] herdmen of [b] Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the [c] earthquake.

2 And he said, [d] The LORD will [e] roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD, For [f] three transgressions of Damascus, and for [g] four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they [h] have threshed Gilead with threshing-instruments of iron:

4 But [i] I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the [k] bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden; and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they [l] carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

7 But I will send [m] a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon; and I will [n] turn my hand against Ekron: and the [o] remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity [p] to Edom, and remembered not the [q] brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on [r] the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did [s] pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon [t] Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have [u] ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might [x] enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with [y] shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

15 And their [z] king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

1 God's wrath against Moab, 4 upon Judah, 6 and upon Israel. 9 God complaineth of their unthankfulness.

THUS saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burnt the [a] bones of the king of Edom into lime;

2 But [b] I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kirioth; and Moab shall die [c] with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off the [d] judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised [e] the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which [f] their fathers have walked;

5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the [g] palaces of Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of [h] Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they [i] sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

7 That [k] pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek; and a [l] man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to [m] profane my holy name:

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge [n] by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

9 Yet [o] destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose [p] height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his [q] fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and [r] led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for [s] prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. [t] Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, [u] Prophesy not.

13 Behold, I am [x] pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the [y] strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

15 Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that [z] rideth the horse deliver himself:

16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away [a] naked in that day, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER III.

1 The necessity of God's judgment against Israel; 9 the publication of it, with the causes thereof.

HEAR [a] this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the [b] whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

2 [c] You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will [d] punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can [e] two walk together except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion [f] roar in the forest when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den if he have taken nothing?

5 Can [g] a bird fall in a snare upon the earth where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people [h] not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath [i] not done it?

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he [k] revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, [l] who can but prophesy?

9 [m] Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they [n] know not to do right, saith the LORD, who [o] store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, [p] An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy [q] strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD, As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; [r] so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, [s] saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,

14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the [t] altars of Beth-el; and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the [u] winter-house with the summer-house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD

CHAPTER IV.

1 Israel reproved for oppression, 4 for idolatry, 6 and for their incorrigibleness.

HEAR this word, ye [a] kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which [b] oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will [c] take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the [d] breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 Come to Beth-el and [e] transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after [f] three years;

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free-offerings; for [g] this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

6 And I also have given you [h] cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places; yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and [i] caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities [k] wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye [l] not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 I have smitten you with [m] blasting and mildew: when your gardens, and your vineyards, and your fig-trees, and your olive-trees increased, the [n] palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence, after the manner [o] of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

11 I have overthrown [p] some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand [q] plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

12 Therefore [r] thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare [s] to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his [t] thought, that maketh the morning [u] darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, the God of hosts, is his name.

CHAPTER V.

1 A lamentation for Israel....4 An exhortation to repentance. 21 God rejecteth their hypocritical service.

HEAR ye this word which I take up against you, even [a] a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The [b] virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall [c] no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD, The city that went out by a thousand shall leave a hundred, and that which went forth by a hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, [d] Seek ye me, and ye shall [e] live:

5 [f] But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like [g] fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 [h] Ye who turn judgment to [i] wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the seven [k] stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that [l] calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name:

9 That strengtheneth the [m] spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that [n] speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch, therefore, as [o] your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall [p] not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For [q] I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the [r] prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is [s] an evil time.

14 [t] Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have [u] spoken.

15 [x] Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the Lord GOD of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, [y] Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are [z] skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will [a] pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 Wo unto you that desire the day of the LORD! [b] to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and [c] a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be [d] darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 [e] I hate, I despise your feast-days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will [f] not accept them: neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the [g] melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness [h] as a mighty stream.

25 Have ye offered [i] unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your [k] Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity [l] beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The wantonness of Israel shall be plagued with desolation. 12 Their incorrigibleness.

WO to them that are [a] at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

2 Pass ye unto Calneh, and [b] see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they [c] better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 Ye that [d] put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and [e] stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5 That chaunt to the [f] sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of music, like David;

6 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are [g] not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

7 Therefore now shall they go captive with the [h] first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD, the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city, with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain [i] ten men in one house, that they [k] shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that [l] burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue; for [m] we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the LORD [n] commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of [q] nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by [r] our own strength?

14 But, behold, [s] I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD, the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of the wilderness.

CHAPTER VII.

The judgments of grasshoppers, and of fire, are diverted by the prayer of Amos, &c.

THUS hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed [a] grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made [b] an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, [c] O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee; by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is [d] small.

3 The LORD [e] repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the [f] great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee; [g] by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

7 ¶ Thus he shewed me; and, behold, the LORD stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line, [h] with a plumb-line in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the LORD, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: I will [i] not again pass by them any more:

9 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the [k] house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 ¶ Then Amaziah, the [l] priest of Beth-el, sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath [m] conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able [n] to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall [o] die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, [p] flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the [q] king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was [r] no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son: but I was [s] a herdman, and a gatherer of [t] sycamore-fruit:

15 And the LORD took me [u] as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, [x] Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 Now, therefore, hear [y] thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, [z] Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, [a] Thy wife shall be a harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and [b] thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 By a basket of summer-fruit is shewed Israel's end....4 Oppression of the poor reproved.

Before CHRIST 787.

THUS hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and, behold, [a] a basket of summer-fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket [b] of summer-fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, [c] The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the [d] songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be [e] many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that [f] swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the [g] new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may [h] buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the [i] land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as [k] a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass [l] in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down [m] at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts [n] into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a [o] bitter day.

11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land; not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, [p] but of hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall [q] wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall [r] not find it.

13 In that day shall the [s] fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, [t] O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beer-sheba liveth; even they [u] shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The certainty of Israel's desolation....11 The restoring of the tabernacle of David.

I SAW the LORD standing upon the [a] altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake; and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall [b] not flee away; and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 Though they [c] dig into hell, thence shall my hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they [d] hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid [e] from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I [f] command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them [g] for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that [h] toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn; and it shall rise up wholly like a flood, and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

6 It is he that buildeth his [i] stories in the heaven, and hath founded his [k] troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; The LORD is his name.

7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians [l] unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

8 Behold, [m] the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will [n] not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will [o] sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

10 All the [p] sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall [q] not overtake nor prevent us.

11 [r] In that day will I [s] raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:

12 That they may [t] possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the [u] plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will [x] bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall [y] no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

¶ OBADIAH.

1 The destruction of Edom for their pride....17 The salvation and victory of Jacob.

THE vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom, [a] We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, [b] Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee [c] small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thy heart hath [d] deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that [e] saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy [f] nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 [g] If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, would they [h] not leave some grapes?

6 How are the ‖ things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy [i] confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have [k] deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy [l] the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thy [m] mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 For thy [n] violence against thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off [o] for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the [p] strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and [q] cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not have [r] looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have [s] rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest [t] not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity:

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

15 For the [u] day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: [x] as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee; thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

16 For as [y] ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually; yea, they shall drink, and they shall [z] swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

17 But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob [a] shall possess their possessions.

18 And the [b] house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau: for the LORD hath spoken it.

19 And they of the south shall possess the [c] mount of Esau; and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria; and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, [d] which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

21 And [e] saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the [f] kingdom shall be the LORD'S.

¶ JONAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 Jonah, sent to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish: 4 He is overtaken by a tempest, and thrown into the sea, &c.

Before CHRIST 862.

NOW the word of the LORD came [a] unto Jonah, the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, [b] that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up [c] before me.

3 But Jonah rose up [d] to flee unto Tarshish [e] from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish [e] from the presence of the LORD.

4 But the LORD [f] sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man [g] unto his god, and [h] cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them: but Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was [i] fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, [k] What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, [l] call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us [m] cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot [n] fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, [o] Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us: What is [p] thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I [q] am a Hebrew; and [r] I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly [s] afraid, and said unto him, Why hast [t] thou done this? (for the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.)

11 Then said they unto him, [u] What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? (for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.)

12 And he said unto them, [x] Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that [y] for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless, the men [z] rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they [a] could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done [b] as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and [c] cast him forth into the sea; and the sea [d] ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men [e] feared the LORD exceedingly, and [f] offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 Now the LORD had [g] prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and [h] three nights.

CHAPTER II.

1 The prayer of Jonah: 10 He is delivered out of the belly of the fish.

Before CHRIST cir. 862.

THEN Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God [a] out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he [b] heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast [c] me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods [d] compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 Then [e] I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will [f] look again toward thy holy temple.

5 The [g] waters compassed me about even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: [h] yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me [i] I remembered the LORD; and my prayer came in unto thee, into thy holy temple.

8 They that observe lying vanities [k] forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of [l] thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

10 And the LORD [m] spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAPTER III.

Jonah, sent again, preacheth to the Ninevites, &c.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the [a] second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching [b] that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and [c] went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. (Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city, of three days' journey.)

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey; and he cried, and said, [d] Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 So the [e] people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and [f] he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and [g] published through Nineveh, (by the decree of the king and his nobles,) saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them [h] turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 [i] Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 And God [k] saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

CHAPTER IV.

Jonah, repining at God's mercy, is reproved by the type of a gourd.

Before CHRIST cir. 862.

BUT it [a] displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he [b] prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying when I was yet in my country? [c] Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore now, O LORD, [d] take, I beseech, thee, my life from me: for it is [e] better for me to die than to live.

4 Then said the LORD, [f] Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jonah [g] went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there [h] made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD GOD [i] prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his [k] grief. So Jonah was [l] exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm, when the morning rose the next day, and it [m] smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the [n] sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and [o] wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, [p] Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, [q] I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast [r] had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I [s] spare Nineveh, that [t] great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their [u] right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?
